Executive Summary – Q2FY26 (4/4)

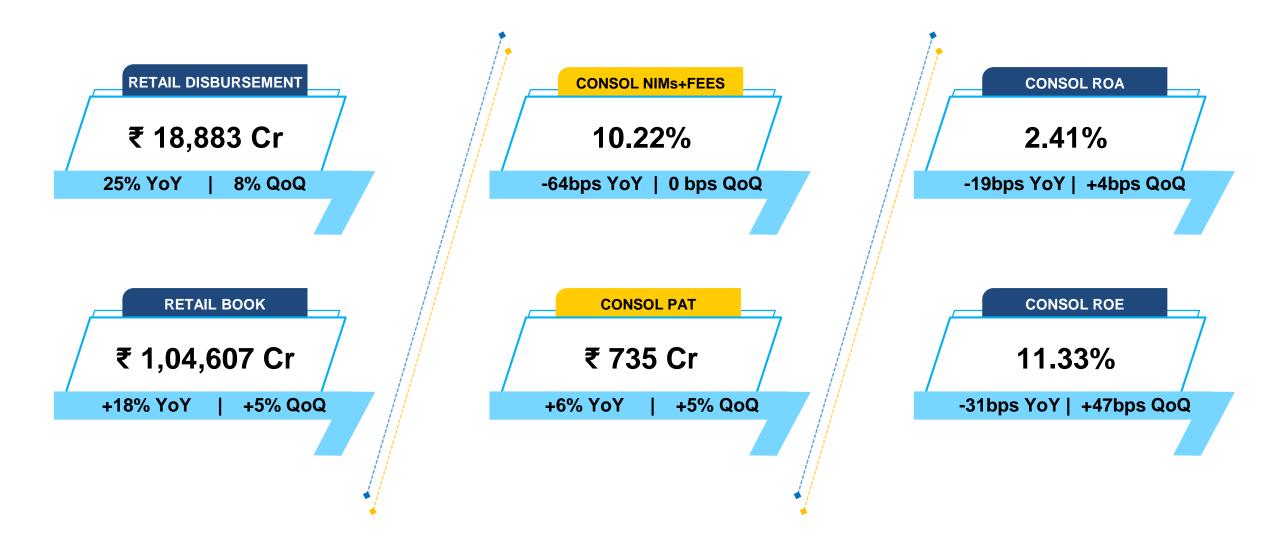

Utilisation of Macro-prudential Provisions – Delivering stable credit cost outcome in an adverse cycle

- LTF, during COVID (FY21 & FY22), had created macro-prudential provision of ₹ 975 Cr (out of operating profits) exclusively for Rural Group Loans & Microfinance business (RGL & MFI) under a board approved policy
- During FY25, there had been certain macro events (heat wave, floods, temporary slowdown of cash flow due to general elections) leading to increased credit cost for RGL & MFI portfolio, thus warranting a case for utilisation of these macro prudential provisions. In alignment with the above inclement business environment in RGL & MFI, LTF post approval of the Board, utilized ₹ 400 Cr of macro-prudential provisions in FY25 (₹ 100 Cr in Q3FY25 and ₹ 300 Cr in Q4FY25).
- Additionally, in Q4FY25 the industry witnessed an event in the form of an ordinance towards prevention of coercive practices (for unregistered financiers) in Karnataka. Due to this, the Karnataka CE was impacted in Q4FY25 with CE of 96.31% in Feb'25. The impact of the macro events including Karnataka continued in Q1FY26, warranting another ₹ 300 Cr utilization, although Karnataka CE gradually settled at 98.48% in Jun'25.
- Further, recovery continued into Q2 with Karnataka CE at 99.05% (Aug'25) & 99.18% (Sept'25). The Board, in Q2FY26, approved utilisation of ₹ 150 Cr of macro-prudential provisions on account of residual flow-forwards. Thus the remaining macro-prudential provision at the end of Q2FY26 now stand at ₹ 125 Cr.

In rural India, millions of women are the unsung heroes – tirelesidy working in the fields, nurturing families, and holding communities together. Despite their immense contributions, their potential often remains constrained by a critical barrier: limited access to financial resources.

What Are Social Loans?

Social loans are purpose driven loans where money is given to marginalised people or communities for project that address a specific social challenge or need, to solve social problem.

A social loan is guided by a clear and unwavering commitment to social objectives. Unlike traditional loans that primarily focus on financial returns, social loans priorities positive societal outcomes.
