Sustainability across the business

The Company contributes to a sustainable world by its very products and services. Its sustainable contributions are across several areas including smart cities, sustainable mobility solutions, bringing in automation and energy efficiency in core manufacturing and utility sectors thus aiding the country's sustainability journey. The Company's in-house sustainability efforts are in terms of sustainable production processes and practices across its operations.

During the year, the Company was associated with major projects of nation building while also providing technology solutions to various industrial sectors. The Company's state of the art mega synchronous motors, drives, control relay panels, switchgears and breakers drive the world's largest, single location lift irrigation project in Telangana namely Kaleshwaram, which will improve water availability for farmlands and bring clean water to millions. The Company's building automation solutions, that converts buildings and living spaces into intelligent, connected, energy optimized facilities are now powering one of the country's biggest hospitality chain properties in New Delhi, Kolkata and Amritsar.

In the mobility segment the Company's traction technology was provided to new age locomotives of the Indian railways. The Company's electrification panels and Gas Insulated Switchgears have ensured consistent power distribution to Nagpur and Mumbai metros. To ensure reliable supply of power to critical installation like airports, the Company's TruOne® automatic transfer switches (ATS) ensures starting of backup generator, load switching and then reversing to original process, all is done seamlessly, and these have been put in place at Mangalore and Bengaluru airports in the country. The Company also innovated on chargers for Jaguar I-Pace electric racing chargers to enable smoother journey across multiple e-racing locations around the world.

The Company's drives and smart sensors ensure optimized energy requirements from leading Indian food chains to major steel and power plants. The Company's remote condition monitoring of electrification panels was deployed at the country's tyre manufacturing giant to enhance productivity and minimize downtime. A range of Company's automation, supervisory control and data acquisition (SCADA) systems along with blending and instrumentation applications are being provided to Oil and Gas sectors in the country. During the year, application of robotics was expanded to take productivity to the next level for FMCG majors and machine automation companies. The Company is a partner of choice for Indian and Japanese Original Equipment Manufacturers (OEMs) and has also maintained leadership position in automation solutions for 2-wheeler customers.

The Company's technology plays a significant role in smart cities of the future to make power distribution more efficient in cities like Ranchi and Ujjain and powered key routes of tourist interest like Vaishnodevi in Jammu and Kashmir with compact power substations. The Company's gas monitoring solutions were installed in cities like Mumbai and Bengaluru and ensured optimized usage of cleaner fuel. The Company is also contributing to building a smart city in the campus of a premium technology institute as a CSR project.

This system sets clear expectations and the required minimum standards, which is being implemented and embedded into ABB operations across the world including activities of the Company and incorporates an extensive global audit assurance program. This unified management system was rolled out during the year and the target is for the Company to be aligned to the new system by 2020.

The Company has several policies and standards in place to underpin its sustainability core values, covering business ethics and governance, the Code of Conduct, and policies such as the Group Social¹ and Human Rights² the Supplier Code of Conduct³, the Company's Health, Safety & Environment Policy (HSE)⁴, ABB Group HSE, Security and Sustainability Policy⁵ and the Company's Corporate Social Responsibility (CSR)⁶ policies respectively. The various policies are further reinforced by various internal Group directives and instructions which are mandated within the Company's operations, manufacturing locations, project sites and on vendors.

The Company’s sustainability Board meetings are conducted quarterly which emphasis accountability at various businesses and monitors deliverables at business lines. The Company continued with its practice of digital monitoring of daily safety compliance at project sites and factories. A customized tool was rolled out to support online our service engineers for safety compliance

Safeguarding the Company’s employees and contractors is a prime area of focus for the Company. The Company focused on developing people skills, knowledge and resources to equip its personnel with the right safety behavior. This year, apart from certifying its employees on safety, the Company’s continued its trainings focused on behavioral and job specific aspects such as, Safety Master Class and Safestart® targeted at all shop floor workers. The Company’s nominated HSE managers underwent specific trainings and certification programs such as The Institution of Occupational Safety and Health (IOSH), Person In Charge of work (PICW) including human factors for site and project managers. Relevant job specific trainings such as electrical safety, work at height, road safety, contractor management trainings were also imparted. Special focus on all relevant trainings for contractors and service personnel were rendered by the Company. The Company clocked around 15.56 HSE training hours per employee during the year.

An innovative incentivized system – “Safety tree” for improving project safety continued to be followed during the year where in no incident months were celebrated with rewards for the entire project and contractor team.

Health and wellbeing

Workplace wellbeing and health promotion is another key aspect that the Company drives. There are several initiatives by the Company to address wellbeing both physical and mental. Initiatives are around four main pillars namely – physical health (that includes fitness and nutrition), ‘smoke free’ environment, resilience and mental health,

The Company also witnessed a large set of its employees nearly 88% who participated in a Global Health Challenge campaign to increase their physical exercise and fitness levels. The Company provided facility for its employee to undergo a comprehensive medical examination at a list of its registered hospitals across the country.

The Company has a no smoking policy at its premises and also trained its doctors on special counselling methods to address, smoking/nicotine addiction for employee if the employee voluntarily requires support and wishes to join deaddiction program of the Company.

Under mental health, the Company launched the Employee Assistance Program where in the Company’s employees and their immediate family members were provided with the service of counselling facility, in complete confidentiality on aspects such as emotional, practical or physical needs.

Taking care of the environment

Environmental responsibility for ensuring environmental conservation and management is a key focus for the Company. For environmental issues identified as material to ABB operations, the ABB Group has put in place enterprise-wide policies and programs to reduce energy, water and materials use, maximize waste recycling, eliminate hazardous materials and streamline logistics and packaging. The principles of environmental risk reduction and continuous improvement are also reflected in the Company’s approach to product development.

Currently at the global level, 57 percent of ABB's revenue are from eco-efficiency portfolio. With an objective to meet the Sustainable Development Goals (SDGs) to ensure access to affordable, reliable, sustainable and modern energy for all, the Company is focused on solutions that aid this and is working towards transitioning to a decarbonized energy system that is connected, digital, smart and distributed. ABB enables its customers in the utilities, industry, and transport & infrastructure sectors to conserve resources and become more sustainable and efficient. When designing eco-efficient and recyclable products we conduct Life Cycle Assessments (LCA)-comprehensive evaluations that encompass long-term environmental consequences.

ABB Group uses a process called the ABB Gate Model for product and technology development. Sustainability aspects are built into this model and includes a standardized LCA procedure. The ABB Group also develops Environmental Product Declarations (EPD) to communicate the environmental performance of core products over its entire life cycle. EPDs are based on detailed LCA studies conducted using the LCA model and declared according to international standard ISO/TR 14025. LCAs have been conducted for over 70 ABB products such as HVDC light generators, power transformers, low voltage circuit breakers, gas insulated switchgears, and current relays, etc. and these also have environmental product declarations (EPD). EPDs provide quantitative information on all concerned aspects in comparable terms, for example energy used, resources, materials used, global warming effects and use of non-renewable resources in each one of the phases.

Energy and Climate Change

The Company is taking action to reduce its energy consumption and greenhouse gas emissions and to pursue low carbon forms of energy at its plants, offices and along the value chain. As part of the ABB Group-wide sustainability objective, the aim is to progressively increase the efficiency of operations, the ABB Group has targets to reduce the greenhouse gas emissions of business by 40 percent by 2020 from a 2013 baseline.

To minimize energy consumption, the Company has taken several initiatives to access opportunities and has taken action to pursue "green" electricity sources for the Company's select facilities. The Company has also installed on-site photovoltaic (PV) power plants to reduce environmental impacts and demonstrate ABB's solar capabilities. Green power purchase and in-house solar installations has resulted in the avoidance of 4872 tons of CO₂. Out of the total energy consumption of 25965 MWh, the Company's grid electricity consumption was 22718 MWh of which 26% is via green power purchase. Various ongoing energy reduction initiatives such as energy efficiency improvements in lighting, use of energy efficient motors are being implemented thus reducing the greenhouse gas emissions of the business.

The Company's compliance aspects to statutory requirements related to HSE is addressed under direct supervision of plant heads. An online tool for compliance tracking is used to ensure statutory compliance across factories. Periodic monitoring is carried out and necessary mitigation actions are undertaken to ensure compliance to all requirements. There was one pending show cause notice from the State Pollution Control Board for the year which is being resolved. However, there were no monetary fines/ penalties for environmental non compliances paid by the Company during the year.

All of the Company's facilities have been certified to ISO management systems namely ISO 14001:2004. The Company's facilities are in the process of transitioning to ISO 45001: 2018. Individual certification systems are also being aligned to a unified system going forward as per the ABB Group initiative

Water management

Water as a resource is very scarce in the country and the Company is committed to reducing its impact on local water resources wherever possible even if majority of the Company's manufacturing processes do not consume significant amounts of water. Water consumption is predominantly for domestic and landscaping uses.

The Company is working towards becoming a responsible stewards of water conservation and taking steps to move towards water neutrality. Water withdrawal in the year was 0.17 millionm³ at the Company's manufacturing facilities. Water withdrawal has reduced by 8% from last year. Several efforts are underway to reduce freshwater withdrawals, include water efficient fixtures in buildings, closed loop systems for the cooling systems and industrial processes. In-house Sewage Treatment Plants (STP) aid in the Company's recycling efforts. Water treated in STP's is used for irrigation of gardens and for sanitation purposes and this amounts to about 27% of the total water consumption for the year.

Waste management

Waste recycle, reuse and reducing the footprint of the waste disposed is a key indicator. The Company recycles waste wherever possible and reduces waste generation which is sent for its final disposal. Source segregation of waste, in-house recycling of packaging materials and reuse continues to add more value to waste and reduces the quantum of non-recyclable wastes that are sent to landfill. All the waste is disposed through authorized approved vendors.

Of the total wastes disposed this year, 87% were recycled through authorized recyclers. There were several initiatives to address waste recycling and introduction of different methods that would move away from single use plastics, improve waste recyclability. For e.g. an initiative was taken by our Nashik factory to use corrugated box instead of wood for packaging.

Sustainability across the Company's Supply chain

ABB is fully committed to ensure a responsible working environment for its own factories and its suppliers. At the policy level the Company has the ABB Supplier Code of Conduct (SCoC) which highlights the expectations from the suppliers in the areas of human rights, fair labor conditions, business ethics, health & safety, environment & material compliance etc. The Supplier Code of Conduct⁹ defines requirements for ABB suppliers and is integrated with the General Terms & Conditions. The Company considers its suppliers as business partners and requires that they conduct their business consistent with the standards and principles of the Company. Complying with the applicable environmental and OHS regulations, internationally proclaimed human rights standards and ensuring equality of opportunity are expected as the minimum level of commitment.

To ensure that the tenets mentioned in the SCoC are met the Company has designed procedures, which guide day to day activities of supply chain teams. The Company has implemented a Supplier Sustainability Development Program (SSDP) as part of a comprehensive sustainable sourcing initiative. The objective of the SSDP is to ensure compliance with the Supplier Code of Conduct, support continual improvement of the sustainability performance of suppliers and to provide customers with a highly competitive and sustainable supply chain. In the scope of this program, the Company prioritize a group of suppliers based on geographical risk, commodity risk, spend volume and business criticality in each year. Once supplier nominations are finalized, the company share a set of documents with them and arrange pre-assessment training. The purpose of these training is to explain the minimum requirements from the supplier during this program. Post training, onsite assessments are being done on 42 parameters related to general management, labor rights, social benefits, health & safety and environment. Depending on the severity of findings, closure timeline may vary, and suppliers are asked to close all the points by then. Technical supports and additional trainings are being provided to these suppliers wherever they need. Progress is being tracked through regular interactions with them. All suppliers were revisited to ensure that the identified risks were closed other than the cases which require only few documentary evidences for closure. Additionally, the suppliers also have access to the ABB Supplier Sustainability Implementation Guide, which provides practical advice on how to meet the requirements of the ABB Supplier Code of Conduct.

In India, 24¹⁰ suppliers have been trained on sustainability requirements. 25 suppliers were assessed for such requirements during 2019. The program helped the participating suppliers identify, mitigate risks and strengthen their systems. Through this program, the risk profiles of the selected suppliers have shown steady improvement, as depicted in the charts below (the charts represent the risk profiles of suppliers selected from 2009 to 2019, before and after corrective actions under the SSDP). In 2019, three suppliers who did not show commitment to fulfill the requirements of the Supplier Code of Conduct were blocked. Business with these suppliers can only resume after they have demonstrated compliance with the ABB Supplier Code of Conduct.

	Extremely High	High	Medium	Low	De-sourced
Initial risk	51%	32%	14%	3%
Current risk	10%	11%	6%	67%	6%

As a part of internal capacity building, the Company has lunched another batch of internal certified lead assessor program in 2019 jointly with a 3rd party agency. Also did a recertification program for its internal lead assessors jointly with the 3rd party agency. Three ABB employees renewed their sustainability auditor certificates. Having employees who can conduct and evaluate sustainability performance of the suppliers will further embed the sustainability practices in sourcing activities.

Management's Discussions and Analysis

Economic and market overview

2019 was a year of elections, transformation and managing growth with India benefitting from certain conducive factors, which were deemed volatile globally. The year in review witnessed sporadic pockets of growth. The slowdown and uncertainty in certain areas including manufacturing persisted with some respite towards the end of the year.

The conducive global environment included factors such as flush of liquidity owing to low interest rates and stable oil prices notwithstanding trade volatilities for the Indian market. The Brent prices have averaged USD 65 per barrel year-to-date in FY20 as against USD 70 per barrel a year before. The Indian Rupee which closed at 2.23 percent lower, had become Asia's best performing currency in the beginning of the year buoyed by the hopes of a decisive electoral mandate.

Indian equities markets were the silver lining in the global and domestic gloomy macro weather. India attracted USD 19 billion worth net portfolio inflows in CY2019, strongest since 2017. Moreover, foreign flows into equities was the highest in nearly six years. Net FDI has risen 16 per cent in first ten months of the FY20 compared to the same period year ago. India's GDP growth is expected to be at 5 percent for FY20 as compared to earlier projections of 6.8 percent for FY19 as revealed by the National Statistical Office.

As per government reports planned infrastructural investment worth Rs 102 lakh crores in ten infrastructural projects including national pipeline. The government also approved 100 percent FDI in contract manufacturing making the economy more lucrative for investors. In a bid to boost investment and manufacturing, Govt reduced corporate tax rates by 10 percentage points. In 2019, industry showed a steady pattern for execution of projects even after limiting statistics in the last few months of 2019 however project planning showed a clear downturn due to the overall economic conditions.

The company continued its focus on the solid fundamentals for quality growth at a time of constricted market opportunities. The growth windows offered in capital goods, limited revival in process industries, transportation and energy were reflected in diversified order books. Brownfield investment brought greater attention to operational excellence initiatives putting the spotlight on digital solutions for data centers, process industries, pharma and food and beverage.

Growth and focus on the gas transportation, distribution, hydro power and water automation segments helped make up sluggish rate of growth in investments in greenfield refinery, thermal power and petrochemical domain. City gas monitoring solutions in cities like Mumbai and Bengaluru ensured optimized usage of cleaner fuel.

In the transportation segment, the turbocharging business secured a good market share. The business will expand the portfolio with new product developments and digital applications in locomotives, as the rail market is undergoing modernization phase.

In the power generation segment, we continued to face headwinds due to low plant load factor and shifting from thermal and renewable energy sources. Clean fuel projects initiatives by Government of India has helped the business line get business opportunities in gasoline blending packages from refineries.

Environmental regulations impacted increased investments in power plants for FGD projects helped the growth in the business in this area. In 2019, we also pioneered the first made in India digital solution for real time condition monitoring – Digi Sampler 2.0, to empower our customers to comply with regulatory requirements while improving productivity.

Consolidation in the steel market and slowdown in the auto sector has impacted new CAPEX additions and production. The process industries segment launched the digital solutions for Indian mining companies, which also resulted in the first of its kind order from the third largest zinc mine in the world in India. 2019 was also marked by the opening of the first CoE for global advanced digital services by the Collaborative Operations Center in metals, cement and cyber security. This center would be a benchmark for similar ones globally for ABB. The service business has seen a robust growth and digital orders have started coming in.

Global trade growth slowing since early 2018, signaling potential wider economic slowdown and affecting the marine business in India.

With Govt Initiatives and our product portfolio expansion in digital, we will strive to grow in the shipping business. The commercialization of coal mining has opened doors for global players. The increased focus on clean energy/fuel and increasing the share of renewable energy initiatives will drive growth in city gas distribution. Growth in cement and steel primarily driven by the country's infrastructure thrust. Growth in the mining sector anticipated from the commercialization of coal mining that has opened doors for global players. The process industries customers are looking at improving efficiencies and reliability by introducing advanced digital techniques into their value chains. Indian Life Sciences industry continues to be a significant contributor to meet the global demands of vaccines and generic medicines. Gaining momentum and growing awareness of digitalization in the energy domain is likely to be another growth driver.

Revenue recognition See note 2.6, 23 and 43 to the financial statements A significant portion of the Company's business comprises long-term fixed price projects. Revenue from these contracts is recognized in accordance with the principles laid down in Ind AS 115, Revenue from Contracts with Customers, and as detailed in "significant accounting policies" in the financial statements. The first time application of Ind AS 115 with effect from 1 January 2019 was of relevance for our audit as it required the Company-wide assessment of contracts in relation to the new accounting criteria. In accordance with this guidance, the Company classifies its various contracts with customers and determines whether revenue should be recognized at "point in time" or "over the time" basis. There are various areas involving complexities, judgements and estimates involved in accounting for revenue recognized on "over the time" basis, including: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Estimation of total contract costs at inception and remaining costs to completion, which is a critical factor in measuring progress of a contract and amounts of revenue to be recognized; and • Assessment of various risks emanating from operational delays, contract terms, changes in estimations, technical, legal, external environment etc. This requires the Company to estimate various costs to capture such risks, including liquidated damages and warranties. In view of the above and because the Company and its external stakeholders focus on revenue as a key performance indicator, we determined this area to be an area involving significant risk, an area of audit focus, and accordingly a key audit matter.	In view of the significance of the matter we applied the following audit procedures in this area, among others to obtain sufficient appropriate audit evidence: <ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. We assessed the appropriateness of the revenue recognition accounting policies by comparing with applicable accounting standards. 2. We tested key controls (both design and operating effectiveness) with respect to revenue recognition. 3. We carried out analytical procedures on revenue recognised during the year to identify unusual variances. 4. We performed substantive testing by selecting samples of revenue transactions, recorded during the year by testing the underlying documents using statistical sampling. 5. We evaluated management's estimates (contract costs and risk provisions) by performing analytical procedures on such estimates. 6. We performed a retrospective review for contracts completed during the current year by comparing the final outcome of the contracts with previous estimates made for those contracts to assess the reliability of the management's estimation process. 7. We performed tests for completeness and appropriateness of actual cost booked in the correct period, by testing the underlying documents for samples selected using statistical sampling.
Recoverability of trade receivables See note 2.13(a), 11 and 36(iii)(i) to the financial statements Trade receivables, including retention money with customers, forms a significant part of the financial statements. Customer contracts typically involve time consuming and complex conditions around closure of contracts, including technical acceptances. This generally leads to longer and significant time for realization of receivables. As a result of the above, management's assessment of recoverability of trade receivables, involves critical evaluation of all factors impacting recoverability, including impact of external environment, capability of customers to pay, etc. Management makes an impairment allowance for trade receivables on the basis of its assessment of recoverability of specific customers and on the basis of expected credit loss model for the remaining customers in accordance with Ind AS 109, Financial Instruments. For the purposes of impairment assessment, significant judgements and assumptions are made, including assessing credit risk, timing and amount of realization, etc. In view of above, we determined this area to be an area of audit focus, and accordingly a key audit matter.	In view of the significance of the matter we applied the following audit procedures in this area, among others to obtain sufficient appropriate audit evidence: <ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. We obtained an understanding of the processes implemented by management to estimate impairment provision against trade receivables. 2. We tested key controls (both design and operating effectiveness) over management's estimate of impairment loss. 3. We obtained and tested the correctness of ageing of trade receivables on a sample basis using statistical sampling. 4. We evaluated the model adopted by management to estimate the expected credit loss and tested related computations. We challenged management in respect of the various judgements and estimates made in the model. We corroborated management's estimates on the basis of past trends and historical evidences. 5. We obtained and discussed management assessment of impairment for specific customer balances and understood reasons for the determination. 6. We have circulated direct confirmations on a sample basis using statistical sampling. In case of non- receipt of such confirmations, alternate test procedures such as testing subsequent receipts and underlying documents have been performed.
Discontinued operations See note 2.23 and 32 to the financial statements During the year, the Company has carved out and transferred its Power Grid segment to another entity. The said transaction has been accounted for in the financial statements of the entity as a common control transaction under Ind AS 103 – Business Combinations and in accordance with the order of National Company Law Tribunal (NCLT) dated 27 November 2019. We have identified this transaction relating to discontinued operations, as a key audit matter because of significant complexities in its accounting and disclosure requirements.	In view of the significance of the matter we applied the following audit procedures in this area, among others to obtain sufficient appropriate audit evidence: <ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. We tested the design of key controls and operating effectiveness of the relevant key controls around the accounting and disclosure of discontinued operations and transfer of the segment during the year. 2. We obtained and read the key documents relating to the transfer of the segment (scheme of arrangement and approval granted by NCLT). We have evaluated whether the method of accounting followed by the Company is in accordance with the scheme approved by NCLT and the relevant accounting guidelines. 3. We tested the correctness of assets and liabilities transferred to the buyer. 4. We tested the reconciliations between the trial balance and the details of assets / liabilities transferred, carried out by management to check completeness of assets and liabilities transferred to the buyer. 5. We assessed the adequacy and appropriateness of the disclosures in the financial statements, relating to the discontinued operations and the transfer of segment, as required by the accounting standards.

Other Information

The Company's Management and Board of Directors are responsible for the other information. The other information comprises the information included in the Company's annual report, but does not include the financial statements and our auditor's report thereon. The annual report is expected to be made available to us after the date of this auditor's report.

Our opinion on the financial statements does not cover the other information and we will not express any form of assurance conclusion thereon.

In connection with our audit of the financial statements, our responsibility is to read the other information identified above when it becomes available and, in doing so, consider whether the other information is materially inconsistent with the financial statements or our knowledge obtained in the audit, or otherwise appears to be materially misstated.

When we read the annual report, if we conclude that there is a material misstatement therein, we are required to communicate the matter to those charged with governance and take necessary actions, as applicable under the applicable laws and regulations.

Management's Responsibility for the Financial Statements

The Company's management and Board of Directors are responsible for the matters stated in section 134(5) of the Act with respect to the preparation of these financial statements that give a true and fair view of the state of affairs, profit/loss and other comprehensive income, changes in equity and cash flows of the Company in accordance with the accounting principles generally accepted in India, including the Indian Accounting Standards (Ind AS) specified under section 133 of the Act. This responsibility also includes maintenance of adequate accounting records in accordance with the provisions of the Act for safeguarding of the assets of the Company and for preventing and detecting frauds and other irregularities; selection and application of appropriate accounting policies; making judgments and estimates that are reasonable and prudent; and design, implementation and maintenance of adequate internal financial controls that were operating effectively for ensuring the accuracy and completeness of the accounting records, relevant to the preparation and presentation of the financial statements that give a true and fair view and are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error.

In preparing the financial statements, management and Board of Directors are responsible for assessing the Company's ability to continue as a going concern, disclosing, as applicable, matters related to going concern and using the going concern basis of accounting unless management either intends to liquidate the Company or to cease operations, or has no realistic alternative but to do so.

Board of Directors is also responsible for overseeing the Company's financial reporting process.

Auditor's Responsibilities for the Audit of the Financial Statements

Our objectives are to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the financial statements as a whole are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error, and to issue an auditor's report that includes our opinion. Reasonable assurance is a high level of assurance, but is not a guarantee that an audit conducted in accordance with SAs will always detect a material misstatement when it exists. Misstatements can arise from fraud or error and are considered material if, individually or in the aggregate, they could reasonably be expected to influence the economic decisions of users taken on the basis of these financial statements.

As part of an audit in accordance with SAs, we exercise professional judgment and maintain professional skepticism throughout the audit. We also:

- Identify and assess the risks of material misstatement of the financial statements, whether due to fraud or error, design and perform audit procedures responsive to those risks, and obtain audit evidence that is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our opinion. The risk of not detecting a material misstatement resulting from fraud is higher than for one resulting from error, as fraud may involve collusion, forgery, intentional omissions, misrepresentations, or the override of internal control.
- Obtain an understanding of internal control relevant to the audit in order to design audit procedures that are appropriate in the circumstances. Under section 143(3)(i) of the Act, we are also responsible for expressing our opinion on whether the Company has adequate internal financial controls with reference to financial statements in place and the operating effectiveness of such controls.
- Evaluate the appropriateness of accounting policies used and the reasonableness of accounting estimates and related disclosures made by management.
- Conclude on the appropriateness of management's use of the going concern basis of accounting and, based on the audit evidence obtained, whether a material uncertainty exists related to events or conditions that may cast significant doubt on the Company's ability to continue as a going concern. If we conclude that a material uncertainty exists, we are required to draw attention in our auditor's report to the related disclosures in the financial statements or, if such disclosures are inadequate, to modify our opinion. Our conclusions are based on the audit evidence obtained up to the date of our auditor's report. However, future events or conditions may cause the Company to cease to continue as a going concern.
- Evaluate the overall presentation, structure and content of the financial statements, including the disclosures, and whether the financial statements represent the underlying transactions and events in a manner that achieves fair presentation.

We communicate with those charged with governance regarding, among other matters, the planned scope and timing of the audit and significant audit findings, including any significant deficiencies in internal control that we identify during our audit.

We also provide those charged with governance with a statement that we have complied with relevant ethical requirements regarding independence, and to communicate with them all relationships and other matters that may reasonably be thought to bear on our independence, and where applicable, related safeguards.

From the matters communicated with those charged with governance, we determine those matters that were of most significance in the audit of the financial statements of the current period and are therefore the key audit matters. We describe these matters in our auditors' report unless law or regulation precludes public disclosure about the matter or when, in extremely rare circumstances, we determine that a matter should not be communicated in our report because the adverse consequences of doing so would reasonably be expected to outweigh the public interest benefits of such communication.

Annexure B to the Independent Auditors' report on the financial statements of ABB India Limited for the year ended 31 December 2019.

Report on the internal financial controls with reference to the aforesaid financial statements under Clause (i) of Sub-section 3 of Section 143 of the Companies Act, 2013

(Referred to in paragraph 1(A)(f) under 'Report on Other Legal and Regulatory Requirements' section of our report of even date)

Opinion

We have audited the internal financial controls with reference to financial statements of ABB India Limited ("the Company") as of 31 December 2019 in conjunction with our audit of the financial statements of the Company for the year ended on that date.

In our opinion, the Company has, in all material respects, adequate internal financial controls with reference to financial statements and such internal financial controls were operating effectively as at 31 December 2019, based on the internal financial controls with reference to financial statements criteria established by the Company considering the essential components of internal control stated in the Guidance Note on Audit of Internal Financial Controls Over Financial Reporting issued by the Institute of Chartered Accountants of India (the "Guidance Note").

Management's Responsibility for Internal Financial Controls

The Company's management and the Board of Directors are responsible for establishing and maintaining internal financial controls based on the internal financial controls with reference to financial statements criteria established by the Company considering the essential components of internal control stated in the Guidance Note. These responsibilities include the design, implementation and maintenance of adequate internal financial controls that were operating effectively for ensuring the orderly and efficient conduct of its business, including adherence to company's policies, the safeguarding of its assets, the prevention and detection of frauds and errors, the accuracy and completeness of the accounting records, and the timely preparation of reliable financial information, as required under the Companies Act, 2013 (hereinafter referred to as "the Act").

Auditors' Responsibility

Our responsibility is to express an opinion on the Company's internal financial controls with reference to financial statements based on our audit. We conducted our audit in accordance with the Guidance Note and the Standards on Auditing, prescribed under section 143(10) of the Act, to the extent applicable to an audit of internal financial controls with reference to financial statements. Those Standards and the Guidance Note require that we comply with ethical requirements and plan and perform the audit to obtain reasonable assurance about whether adequate internal financial controls with reference to financial statements were established and maintained and whether such controls operated effectively in all material respects.

Our audit involves performing procedures to obtain audit evidence about the adequacy of the internal financial controls with reference to financial statements and their operating effectiveness. Our audit of internal financial controls with reference to financial statements included obtaining an understanding of such internal financial controls, assessing the risk that a material weakness exists, and testing and evaluating the design and operating effectiveness of internal control based on the assessed risk. The procedures selected depend on the auditor's judgement, including the assessment of the risks of material misstatement of the financial statements, whether due to fraud or error.

We believe that the audit evidence we have obtained is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our audit opinion on the Company's internal financial controls with reference to financial statements.

Meaning of Internal Financial controls with Reference to Financial Statements

A Company's internal financial controls with reference to financial statements is a process designed to provide reasonable assurance regarding the reliability of financial reporting and the preparation of financial statements for external purposes in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles. A company's internal financial controls with reference to financial statements include those policies and procedures that (1) pertain to the maintenance of records that, in reasonable detail, accurately and fairly reflect the transactions and dispositions of the assets of the company; (2) provide reasonable assurance that transactions are recorded as necessary to permit preparation of financial statements in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles, and that receipts and expenditures of the company are being made only in accordance with authorisations of management and directors of the company; and (3) provide reasonable assurance regarding prevention or timely detection of unauthorised acquisition, use, or disposition of the company's assets that could have a material effect on the financial statements.

Inherent Limitations of Internal Financial controls with Reference to Financial Statements

Because of the inherent limitations of internal financial controls with reference to financial statements, including the possibility of collusion or improper management override of controls, material misstatements due to error or fraud may occur and not be detected. Also, projections of any evaluation of the internal financial controls with reference to financial statements to future periods are subject to the risk that the internal financial controls with reference to financial statements may become inadequate because of changes in conditions, or that the degree of compliance with the policies or procedures may deteriorate.

1. Corporate information

ABB India Limited (“the Company”) has served utility and industry customers for over six decades with the complete range of engineering, products, solutions and services in areas of Automation and Power technology. The Company has extensive installed base for manufacturing and a countrywide marketing and service presence. Besides catering to Indian domestic market, the Company is also playing an increasing role in the global market.

The Company is a public limited company domiciled in India and incorporated under the provisions of the Indian Companies Act. The registered office is located at Bengaluru. Its shares are listed on Bombay Stock Exchange (BSE) and National Stock Exchange (NSE).

The financial statements are approved for issue by the Company’s Board of Directors on February 12, 2020.

2. Significant accounting policies

2.1 Basis of preparation of financial statements

A Statement of compliance

These financial statements are prepared in accordance with Indian Accounting Standards (Ind AS) notified under the Companies (Indian Accounting Standards) Rules, 2015 and Companies (Indian Accounting Standards) Amendment Rules, 2016.

B Functional and presentation currency

The financial statements are presented in INR in crores, rounded off to two decimal places, except when otherwise indicated.

C Basis of measurement

The financial statements have been prepared on the historical cost convention basis, except for certain financial instruments (refer accounting policy regarding financial instruments), which are measured at fair values at the end of each reporting period, as explained in the accounting policies below.

Historical cost is generally based on the fair value of the consideration given in exchange for goods and services as at the date of respective transactions.

2.2 Use of estimates

The preparation of the financial statements in conformity with Ind AS requires management to make estimates, judgments and assumptions. These estimates, judgments and assumptions affect the application of accounting policies and the reported amounts of assets and liabilities, the disclosures of contingent assets and liabilities at the date of the financial statements and reported amounts of revenues and expenses during the period. Application of accounting policies that require critical accounting estimates involving complex and subjective judgments and the use of assumptions in these financial statements have been disclosed in Note 2.3. Accounting estimates could change from period to period. Actual results could differ from those estimates. Appropriate changes in estimates are made as management becomes aware of changes in circumstances surrounding the estimates. Changes in estimates are reflected in the financial statements in the period in which changes are made and, if material, their effects are disclosed in the notes to the financial statements.

2.3 Critical accounting estimates and judgements

2.3.1 Estimates

a. Project revenue and costs

The Company uses the percentage-of-completion method in accounting for its fixed-price contracts. Use of the percentage-of-completion method requires the Company to estimate the efforts or costs expended to date as a proportion of the total efforts or costs to be expended. Efforts or costs expended have been used to measure progress towards completion as there is a direct relationship between input and productivity. Provisions for estimated losses, if any, on uncompleted contracts are recorded in the period in which such losses become probable based on the expected contract estimates at the reporting date.

b. Property, plant and equipment

Property, plant and equipment represent a significant proportion of the asset base of the Company. The charge in respect of periodic depreciation is derived after determining an estimate of an asset's expected useful life and the expected residual value at the end of its life. The useful lives and residual values of Company's assets are determined by management at the time the asset is acquired and reviewed periodically, including at each financial year end. The lives are based on historical experience with similar assets as well as anticipation of future events, which may impact their life, such as changes in technology.

c. Employee benefits

The cost of the defined benefit gratuity plan and the present value of the gratuity obligation are determined using actuarial valuations. An actuarial valuation involves making various assumptions that may differ from actual developments in the future. These include the determination of the discount rate, future salary increases and mortality rates. Due to the complexities involved in the valuation and its long-term nature, a defined benefit obligation is highly sensitive to changes in these assumptions. All assumptions are reviewed at each reporting date. The parameter most subject to change is the discount rate. In determining the appropriate discount rate for plans operated in India, the management considers the interest rates of government bonds in currencies consistent with the currencies of the post-employment benefit obligation. The mortality rate is based on publicly available mortality tables. Those mortality tables tend to change only at interval in response to demographic changes. Future salary increases and gratuity increases are based on expected future inflation rate and past trends. Further details about gratuity obligations are given in Note 34.

d. Provision for litigations and contingencies

The provision for litigations and contingencies are determined based on evaluation made by the management of the present obligation arising from past events the settlement of which is expected to result in outflow of resources embodying economic benefits, which involves judgements around estimating the ultimate outcome of such past events and measurement of the obligation amount. Due to the judgements involved in such estimations the provisions are sensitive to the actual outcome in future periods.

2.3.2 Judgements

Information about judgments made in applying accounting policies that have the most significant effects on the amounts recognised in the financial statements is included in the following notes

- Note 40 - leases: whether an arrangement contains a lease; and
- Note 40 - lease classification;

2.4 Current versus non-current classification

The Company presents assets and liabilities in the balance sheet based on current/ non-current classification. An asset is treated as current when it is:

- Expected to be realised or intended to be sold or consumed in normal operating cycle
- Held primarily for the purpose of trading
- Expected to be realised within twelve months after the reporting period, or
- Cash or cash equivalent unless restricted from being exchanged or used to settle a liability for at least twelve months after the reporting period.
- All other assets are classified as non-current.

All assets and liabilities have been classified as current or non-current as per the Company's operating cycle and other criteria set out in Schedule III to the Companies Act, 2013. Based on the nature of products and the time between the acquisition of assets for processing and their realization in cash and cash equivalents, the Company has ascertained its operating cycle as 12 months for the purpose of current and non-current classification of assets and liabilities, except for projects business. The projects business comprises long-term contracts which have an operating cycle exceeding one year. For classification of current assets and liabilities related to projects business, the Company uses the duration of the individual life cycle of the contract as its operating cycle.

A liability is current when:

- It is expected to be settled in normal operating cycle
- It is held primarily for the purpose of trading.
- It is due to be settled within twelve months after the reporting period, or
- There is no unconditional right to defer the settlement of the liability for at least twelve months after the reporting period
- The Company classifies all other liabilities as non-current.
- Deferred tax assets and liabilities are classified as non-current assets and liabilities.

The operating cycle is the time between the acquisition of assets for processing and their realisation in cash and cash equivalents.

2.5 Foreign Currency

Functional currency

The functional currency of the company is the Indian Rupee.

Transactions and translations

Initial recognition transactions in foreign currencies are recorded by the Company at their respective functional currency spot rates at the date the transaction first qualifies for recognition.

Monetary assets and liabilities denominated in foreign currencies are translated at the functional currency spot rates of exchange at the reporting date. The gains or losses resulting from such translations are recognised in the statement of profit and loss.

Non-monetary assets and non-monetary liabilities denominated in a foreign currency and measured at fair value are translated at the exchange rate prevalent at the date when the fair value was determined. Non-monetary assets and non-monetary liabilities denominated in a foreign currency and measured at historical cost are translated at the exchange rate prevalent at the date of the transaction.

Transaction gains or losses realized upon settlement of foreign currency transactions are included in determining net profit for the period in which the transaction is settled. Revenue, expense and cash flow items denominated in foreign currencies are translated into the relevant functional currencies using the exchange rate in effect on the date of the transaction.

2.6 Revenue Recognition

Effective January 1, 2019, the Company has adopted Ind AS 115, "Revenue from Contracts with Customers" using the cumulative effect approach, as the transitional provision option available to the Company. The effect of applying this standard is recognised at the date of application (i.e. January 1, 2019) as an adjustment to retained earnings. (Refer note 44) for the overall impact of this change in the accounting policy. Revenue is recognised to the extent that it is probable that the economic benefits will flow to the Company and the revenue can be reliably measured, regardless of when the payment is being made. Revenue is measured at the fair value of the consideration received or receivable, taking into account contractually defined terms of payment and excluding taxes or duties collected on behalf of the government. The Company has concluded that it is the principal in all of its revenue arrangements since it is the primary obligor in all the revenue arrangements as it has pricing latitude and is also exposed to inventory and credit risks.

Revenue are stated exclusive of goods and service tax and net of trade and quantity discount.

Revenue from the sale of goods is recognised when the significant risks and rewards of ownership of the goods have passed to the buyer, usually on delivery of the goods. Revenue from the sale of goods is measured at the fair value of the consideration received or receivable, net of returns and allowances, trade discounts and volume rebates.

In case of large transformers, revenue is recognized on achievement of contractual milestone. Revenue recognized in excess of billing has been reflected under "Other financial assets" as unbilled revenue.

Revenues from long-term contracts are recognized on the percentage of completion method, in proportion that the contract costs incurred for work performed up to the reporting date bear to the estimated total contract costs. Contract revenue earned in excess of billing has been reflected under "Other current assets" and billing in excess of contract revenue has been reflected under "Other current liabilities" in the balance sheet. Full provision is made for any loss in the year in which it is first foreseen.

Liquidated damages / penalties are provided for as per the contract terms wherever there is a delayed delivery attributable to the Company.

Revenue from the development services is recognised as per the contract terms and when accrued. When the contract outcome cannot be measured reliably, revenue is recognised only to the extent that the expenses incurred are eligible to be recovered.

Commission income is recognized as per contract terms and when accrued.

Dividend income is recognised when the Company's right to receive the payment is established, which is generally when shareholders approve the dividend.

Interest income is recognised on time proportion basis.

2.7 Income Taxes

Income tax expense comprises current and deferred income tax. Income tax expense is recognized in net profit in the statement of profit and loss except to the extent that it relates to items recognized directly in equity, in which case it is recognized in other comprehensive income. Current income tax for current and prior periods is recognized at the amount expected to be paid to or recovered from the tax authorities, using the tax rates and tax laws that have been enacted. Deferred income tax assets and liabilities are recognized for all temporary differences arising between the tax bases of assets and liabilities and their carrying amounts in the financial statements. Deferred tax assets are reviewed at each reporting date and are reduced to the extent that it is no longer probable that the related tax benefit will be realized.

Deferred income tax assets and liabilities are measured using tax rates and tax laws that have been enacted or substantively enacted by the balance sheet date and are expected to apply to taxable income in the years in which those temporary differences are expected to be recovered or settled. The effect of changes in tax rates on deferred income tax assets and liabilities is recognized as income or expense in the period that includes the enactment or the substantive enactment date. A deferred income tax asset is recognized to the extent that it is probable that future taxable profit will be available against which the deductible temporary differences and tax losses can be utilized. The Company offsets current tax assets and current tax liabilities, where it has a legally enforceable right to set off the recognized amounts and where it intends either to settle on a net basis, or to realize the asset and settle the liability simultaneously.

2.8 Property, plant and equipment

On transition to Ind-AS, the Company has elected to continue with the carrying value of all its property, plant and equipment recognised as at 1st January, 2016 measured as per the previous GAAP and use that carrying value as a deemed cost of property, plant and equipment.

Property, plant and equipment is stated at cost, net of accumulated depreciation and accumulated impairment losses, if any. Such cost includes the cost of replacing part of the plant and equipment and borrowing costs for long-term construction projects if the recognition criteria are met. When significant parts of property, plant and equipment are required to be replaced at intervals, the Company depreciates them separately based on their specific useful lives. Likewise, when a major inspection is performed, its cost is recognised in the carrying amount of the plant and equipment as a replacement if the recognition criteria are satisfied.

All other repair and maintenance costs are recognised in statement of profit or loss as incurred. The Company identifies and determines cost of each component/ part of Property, plant and equipment separately, if the component/ part has a cost which is significant to the total cost of the Property, plant and equipment and has useful life that is materially different from that of the remaining asset.

Advances paid towards the acquisition of property, plant and equipment outstanding at each balance sheet date is classified as capital advances and cost of assets not ready for use at the balance sheet date are disclosed under capital work- in- progress.

The Company depreciates property, plant and equipment over their estimated useful lives using the straight-line method. The estimated useful lives of assets are as follows:

Useful lives estimated by the management in years:

• Leasehold land, leasehold improvements and other leased assets (over the period of lease)	1-10
• Factory buildings	15-30
• Other buildings	3-60
• Furniture and fixtures	10
• Office equipments	3-5
• Plant and equipment	2-21
• Vehicles	5

Depreciation methods, useful lives and residual values are reviewed periodically, including at each financial year end.

2.9 Intangible assets

Intangible assets acquired separately are measured on initial recognition at cost. Following initial recognition, intangible assets are carried at cost less any accumulated amortisation and accumulated impairment losses. Internally generated intangibles, excluding capitalised development costs, are not capitalised and the related expenditure is reflected in the statement of profit and loss in the period in which the expenditure is incurred. The estimated useful life of assets are as follows:

• Technical know-how fees	3-10
• Capitalized software costs	3-5
• Goodwill on business acquisition is not amortized but tested for impairment.

The useful lives of intangible assets are assessed as either finite or indefinite.

Intangible assets with finite lives are amortised over the useful economic life and assessed for impairment whenever there is an indication that the intangible asset may be impaired. The amortisation period and the amortisation method for an intangible asset with a finite useful life are reviewed at least at the end of each reporting period. Changes in the expected useful life or the expected pattern of consumption of future economic benefits embodied in the asset are considered to modify the amortisation period or method, as appropriate, and are treated as changes in accounting estimates. The amortisation expense on intangible assets with finite lives is recognised in the statement of profit and loss unless such expenditure forms part of carrying value of another asset.

Intangible assets with indefinite useful lives are not amortised, but are tested for impairment annually, either individually or at the cash-generating unit level. The assessment of indefinite life is reviewed annually to determine whether the indefinite life continues to be supportable. If not, the change in useful life from indefinite to finite is made on a prospective basis.

Gains or losses arising from de-recognition of an intangible asset are measured as the difference between the net disposal proceeds and the carrying amount of the asset and are recognised in the statement of profit and loss when the asset is derecognised.

2.10 Leases

Leases under which the Company assumes substantially all the risks and rewards of ownership are classified as finance leases. When acquired, such assets are capitalized at fair value or present value of the minimum lease payments at the inception of the lease, whichever is lower. Lease payments under operating leases are charged to statement of profit and loss on straight line basis over the period of the lease, unless the payments are structured to increase in line with expected general inflation to compensate for the lessor's expected inflationary cost increases.

2.11 Borrowing costs

Borrowing costs directly attributable to the acquisition, construction or production of an asset that necessarily takes a substantial period of time to get ready for its intended use or sale are capitalised as part of the cost of the asset. All other borrowing costs are expensed in the period in which they occur. Borrowing costs consist of interest and other costs that an entity incurs in connection with the borrowing of funds. Borrowing cost also includes exchange differences to the extent regarded as an adjustment to the borrowing costs.

2.12 Inventories

Inventories are stated at the lower of cost and net realisable value. The cost of various categories of inventories is arrived at as follows:

Stores, spares, raw materials, components and traded goods - at rates determined on the moving weighted average method.

Goods in Transit – at actual cost.

Work-in-progress and finished goods - at full absorption cost method which includes direct materials, direct labour and manufacturing overheads. Cost is determined on weighted average method.

Provision for obsolescence is made wherever necessary.

Net realisable value is the estimated selling price in the ordinary course of business, less estimated costs of completion and the estimated costs necessary to make the sale.

2.13 Impairment

a. Financial assets

Financial assets (other than at fair value) The Company assesses at each date of balance sheet whether a financial asset or a group of financial assets is impaired. Ind AS 109 ('Financial Instruments') requires expected credit losses to be measured through a loss allowance. The Company recognises lifetime expected losses for all contract assets and / or all trade receivables that do not constitute a financing transaction. For all other financial assets, expected credit losses are measured at an amount equal to the 12-month expected credit losses or at an amount equal to the life time expected credit losses if the credit risk on the financial asset has increased significantly since initial recognition. The Company provides for impairment upon the occurrence of the triggering event.

b. Non-financial assets

Intangible assets and property, plant and equipment

The Company assesses, at each reporting date, whether there is an indication that an asset may be impaired. If any indication exists, or when annual impairment testing for an asset is required, the Company estimates the asset's recoverable amount. An asset's recoverable amount is the higher of an asset's or cash-generating unit's (CGU) fair value less costs of disposal and its value in use. Recoverable amount is determined for an individual asset, unless the asset does not generate cash inflows that are largely independent of those from other assets or groups of assets. When the carrying amount of an asset or CGU exceeds its recoverable amount, the asset is considered impaired and is written down to its recoverable amount.

Intangible assets and property, plant and equipment are evaluated for recoverability whenever events or changes in circumstances indicate that their carrying amounts may not be recoverable. For the purpose of impairment testing, the recoverable amount (i.e. the higher of the fair value less cost to sell and the value-in-use) is determined on an individual asset basis unless the asset does not generate cash flows that are largely independent of those from other assets. In such cases, the recoverable amount is determined for the CGU to which the asset belongs.

If such assets are considered to be impaired, the impairment to be recognized in the statement of profit and loss is measured by the amount by which the carrying value of the assets exceeds the estimated recoverable amount of the asset. An impairment loss is reversed in the statement of profit and loss if there has been a change in the estimates used to determine the recoverable amount. The carrying amount of the asset is increased to its revised recoverable amount, provided that this amount does not exceed the carrying amount that would have been determined (net of any accumulated amortization or depreciation) had no impairment loss been recognized for the asset in prior years.

2.14 Cash flow statement

Cash flows are reported using the indirect method, whereby profit for the period is adjusted for the effects of transactions of a non-cash nature, any deferrals or accruals of past or future operating cash receipts or payments and item of income or expenses associated with investing or financing cash flows. The cash flows from operating, investing and financing activities of the Company are segregated.

2.15 Other income

Other income is comprised primarily of interest income. Interest income is recognized using the effective interest method.

2.16 Provisions & Contingent liability

General

A provision is recognized if, as a result of a past event, the Company has a present legal or constructive obligation that is reasonably estimable, and it is probable that an outflow of economic benefits will be required to settle the obligation. If the effect of time value of money is material, Provisions are determined by discounting the expected future cash flows at a pre-tax rate that reflects current market assessments of the time value of money and the risks specific to the liability.

Warranty provisions

Provisions for warranty-related costs are recognised when the product is sold to the customer. Initial recognition is based on historical experience. The initial estimate of warranty-related costs is revised annually.

A contingent liability is a possible obligation that arises from past events whose existence will be confirmed by the occurrence or non-occurrence of one or more uncertain future events beyond the control of the Company or a present obligation that is not recognized because it is not probable that an outflow of resources will be required to settle the obligation. A contingent liability also arises in extremely rare cases where there is a liability that cannot be recognized because it cannot be measured reliably. The Company does not recognize a contingent liability but discloses its existence in the financial statements.

Contingent assets are not recognised or disclosed in financial statements since this may result in the recognition of income that may never be realised. However, when the realisation of income is virtually certain, then the related asset is not a contingent asset and is recognised.

2.17 Financial instruments

2.17.1 Initial recognition

The Company recognizes financial assets and financial liabilities when it becomes a party to the contractual provisions of the instrument. All financial assets and liabilities are recognized at fair value on initial recognition, except for trade receivables which are initially measured at transaction price. Transaction costs that are directly attributable to the acquisition or issue of financial assets and financial liabilities, that are not at fair value through profit or loss, are added to the fair value on initial recognition.

2.17.2 Subsequent measurement

a. Non-derivative financial instruments

(i) Financial assets carried at amortised cost

A financial asset is subsequently measured at amortised cost if it is held within a business where the objective is to hold the asset in order to collect contractual cash flows and the contractual terms of the financial asset give rise on specified dates to cash flows that are solely payments of principal and interest on the principal amount outstanding.

(ii) Financial assets at fair value through other comprehensive income

A financial asset is subsequently measured at fair value through other comprehensive income if it is held within a business where the objective is achieved by both collecting contractual cash flows and selling financial assets and the contractual terms of the financial asset give rise on specified dates to cash flows that are solely payments of principal and interest on the principal amount outstanding. The Company has made an irrevocable election for its investments which are classified as equity instruments to present the subsequent changes in fair value in other comprehensive income based on its business model. Further, in cases where the Company has made an irrevocable election based on its business model, for its investments which are classified as equity instruments, the subsequent changes in fair value are recognized in other comprehensive income.

(iii) Financial assets at fair value through profit or loss

A financial asset which is not classified in any of the above categories are subsequently fair valued through profit or loss.

(iv) Financial liabilities

Financial liabilities are subsequently carried at amortized cost using the effective interest method, For trade and other payables maturing within one year from the balance sheet date, the carrying amounts approximate fair value due to the short maturity of these instruments.

(v) Derecognition

A financial asset is primarily derecognised when:

- The rights to receive cash flows from the asset have expired, or
- The Company has transferred its rights to receive cash flows from the asset or has assumed an obligation to pay the received cash flows in full without material delay to a third party under a 'pass-through' arrangement; and either (a) the Company has transferred substantially all the risks and rewards of the asset, or (b) the Company has neither transferred nor retained substantially all the risks and rewards of the asset, but has transferred control of the asset.

Continuing involvement that takes the form of a guarantee over the transferred asset is measured at the lower of the original carrying amount of the asset and the maximum amount of consideration that the Company could be required to repay.

b. Derivative financial instruments

The company holds derivative financial instruments such as foreign exchange forward and option contracts to mitigate the risk of changes in exchange rates on foreign currency exposures. The counterparty for these contracts is generally a bank.

Financial assets or financial liabilities, at fair value through profit or loss.

This category has derivative financial assets or liabilities which are not designated as hedges.

Although the company believes that these derivatives constitute hedges from an economic perspective, they may not qualify for hedge accounting under Ind AS 109, Financial Instruments. Any derivative that is either not designated a hedge, or is so designated but is ineffective as per Ind AS 109, is categorized as a financial asset or financial liability, at fair value through profit or loss.

Derivatives not designated as hedges are recognized initially at fair value and attributable transaction costs are recognized in the statement of profit and loss. when incurred. Subsequent to initial recognition, these derivatives are measured at fair value through profit or loss and the resulting exchange gains or losses are included in other income / expenses. Assets/ liabilities in this category are presented as current assets/current liabilities if they are either held for trading or are expected to be realized within 12 months after the balance sheet date.

Certain commercial contracts may grant rights to the Company or the counterparties, or contain other provisions that are considered to be derivatives. Such embedded derivatives are assessed at inception of the contract and depending on their characteristics, accounted for as separate derivative instruments and shown at their fair value in the balance sheet with changes in their fair value recognized through profit or loss.

2.18 Fair value of financial instruments

Fair value hierarchy:

All assets and liabilities for which fair value is measured or disclosed in the financial statements are categorised within the fair value hierarchy, described as follows, based on the lowest level input that is significant to the fair value measurement as a whole:

Level 1 — Quoted (unadjusted) market prices in active markets for identical assets or liabilities

Level 2 — Valuation techniques for which the lowest level input that is significant to the fair value measurement is directly or indirectly observable

Level 3 — Valuation techniques for which the lowest level input that is significant to the fair value measurement is unobservable

For assets and liabilities that are recognised in the financial statements on a recurring basis, the Company determines whether transfers have occurred between levels in the hierarchy by re-assessing categorisation (based on the lowest level input that is significant to the fair value measurement as a whole) at the end of each reporting period.

2.19 Earnings per share

Basic earnings per equity share is computed by dividing the net profit attributable to the equity holders of the Company by the weighted average number of equity shares outstanding during the period. Diluted earnings per equity share is computed by dividing the net profit attributable to the equity holders of the Company by the weighted average number of equity shares considered for deriving basic earnings per equity share and also the weighted average number of equity shares that could have been issued upon conversion of all dilutive potential equity shares. The dilutive potential equity shares are adjusted for the proceeds receivable had the equity shares been actually issued at fair value (i.e. the average market value of the outstanding equity shares). Dilutive potential equity shares are deemed converted as of the beginning of the period, unless issued at a later date. Dilutive potential equity shares are determined independently for each period presented.

2.20 Employee benefits

2.20.1 Gratuity & Provident Fund - Defined benefit plans

The present value of the obligation under defined benefit plans are determined based on actuarial valuation using the Projected Unit Credit Method. In case of funded plans, the fair value of the plan assets is reduced from the gross obligation under the defined benefit plans to recognize the obligation on a net basis.

In case of defined benefit plans, remeasurement comprising of actuarial gains and losses is recognized in other comprehensive income (OCI) and is reflected in retained earnings and is not eligible to be reclassified to profit or loss.

The Company recognises the following changes in the net defined benefit obligation as an expense in statement of profit and loss:

- Service cost including current service cost, past service cost and gains and losses on curtailments and settlements; and
- Net interest expense or income.

Provident fund has been considered as a defined benefit plan since any additional obligations on account of investment risk and interest rate risk are required to be met by the Company.

2.20.2 Superannuation - Defined contribution scheme

Contribution to Superannuation Fund, is made at pre-determined rates to the Superannuation Fund Trust and is charged to the statement of profit and loss during the period in which the employee renders the related services. There are no other obligations other than the contribution payable to the Superannuation Fund Trust.

2.20.3 Compensated absences

Accumulated leave, which is expected to be utilised within the next 12 months, is treated as short-term employee benefits. The Company measures the expected cost of such absences as the additional amount that it expects to pay as a result of the unused entitlement that has accumulated at the reporting date. The Company presents the entire accumulated leave as a current liability in the balance sheet, since it does not have an unconditional right to defer its settlement for 12 months after the reporting date.

2.20.4 Share based compensation

The company recognizes compensation expense relating to share-based payments in net profit using fair-value in accordance with Ind AS 102, Share-Based Payment. The estimated fair value of awards is charged to income on a straight-line basis over the requisite service period for each separately vesting portion of the award as if the award was in-substance, multiple awards with a corresponding increase to share options outstanding account.

Equity-settled transactions

The cost of equity-settled transactions is determined by the fair value at the date when the grant is made using an appropriate valuation model.

That cost is recognised, together with a corresponding increase in share-based payment (SBP) reserves in equity, over the period in which the performance and/or service conditions are fulfilled in employee benefits expense. The cumulative expense recognised for equity-settled transactions at each reporting date until the vesting date reflects the extent to which the vesting period has expired and the Company's best estimate of the number of equity instruments that will ultimately vest. The expense or credit for a period represents the movement in cumulative expense recognised as at the beginning and end of that period and is recognised in employee benefits expense.

2.21 Cash and cash equivalents

Cash and cash equivalent in the balance sheet comprise cash at banks and on hand and short-term deposits with an original maturity of three months or less, which are subject to an insignificant risk of changes in value.

For the purpose of statement of cash flows, cash and cash equivalents consist of cash and cheque at hand / remittance in transit and cash and deposit with bank.

2.22 Operating cycle

A portion of the Company's activities (primarily long-term project activities) has an operating cycle that exceeds one year. Accordingly, assets and liabilities related to these long-term contracts, which will not be realized/paid within one year, have been classified as current. For all other activities, the operating cycle is twelve months.

2.23 Non-current assets held for sale and discontinued operations

Non-current assets (including disposal groups) are classified as held for sale if their carrying amount will be recovered principally through a sale transaction rather than through continuing use and a sale is considered highly probable.

Non-current assets classified as held for sale are measured at lower of their carrying amount and fair value less cost to sell.

Non-current assets classified as held for sale are not depreciated or amortised from the date when they are classified as held for sale.

An impairment loss is recognized for any initial or subsequent write-down of the asset (or disposal group) to fair value less costs to sell. A gain is recognized for any subsequent increases in fair value less costs to sell of an asset (or disposal group), but not in excess of any cumulative impairment loss previously recognized. A gain or loss not previously recognized by the date of the sale of the non-current asset (or disposal group) is recognized at the date of de-recognition.

Non-current assets classified as held for sale and the assets and liabilities of a disposal group classified as held for sale are presented separately from the other assets and liabilities in the balance sheet. A discontinued operation is a component of the entity that has been disposed of or is classified as held for sale and:

(a) represents a separate major line of business or geographical area of operations and;

(b) is part of a single co-ordinated plan to dispose of such a line of business or area of operations. The results of discontinued operations are presented separately in the statement of profit and loss. The comparative statement of profit and loss is re-presented as if the operation had been discontinued from the start of the comparative period.

2.24 Recent Indian Accounting Standards (Ind AS)

Following new standard and amendment to Ind AS have not been applied by the Company as they are effective for annual periods beginning on or after January 1, 2020:

Standards issued but not effective on Balance Sheet date:

Ind AS 116 - Leases

The Company is required to adopt Ind AS 116 Leases from 1 January 2020. Ind AS 116 replaces existing leases guidance, including Ind AS 17 Leases. Ind AS 116 introduces a single Balance sheet lease accounting model for lessees. A lessee recognises a right-of-use asset representing its right to use the underlying asset and a lease liability representing its obligation to make lease payments. There are recognition exemptions for short-term leases and leases of low-value items. Lessor accounting remains similar to the current standard – i.e. lessors continue to classify leases as finance or operating leases.

i. Leases in which the Company is a lessee

Under the new standard, the Company will be required to recognise new assets and liabilities for its operating leases. The nature of expenses related to those leases will now change because the Company will recognise a depreciation charge for right-of-use assets and interest expense on lease liabilities. Previously, the Company recognised operating lease expense on a straight-line basis over the term of the lease, and recognised assets and liabilities only to the extent that there was a timing difference between actual lease payments and the expense recognised. The Company is in the process of evaluating the potential impact of the adoption of Ind AS 116 on accounting policies followed in its financial statements. The quantitative impact of adoption of Ind AS 116 on the financial statements in the period of initial application is not reasonably estimable as at present.

ii. Leases in which the Company is a lessor

No impact is expected for leases in which the Company is a lessor.

iii. Transition

The Company plans to apply Ind AS 116 using the modified retrospective method, with the effect of initially applying this standard recognised at the date of initial application (i.e. 1 January 2020) in retained earnings. As a result, the Company will not present individual line items appearing under comparative period presentation.

Ind AS 12 – Income taxes (amendments relating to income tax consequences of dividend and uncertainty over income tax treatments)

An entity shall recognise the income tax consequences of dividends when it recognises a liability to pay a dividend. Therefore, the entity shall recognise the income tax consequences of dividends in profit or loss, other comprehensive income or equity according to where the entity originally recognised those past transactions or events. The Company does not expect any significant impact of this amendment on its financial statements.

The amendment to Appendix C of Ind AS 12 outlines the following:

a. whether an entity considers uncertain tax treatments separately - The entity shall use judgement to determine whether each tax treatment should be considered separately or together with one or more other uncertain tax treatments based on which approach better predicts the resolution of the uncertainty and in determining the approach an entity might consider how it prepares its income tax filings and supports tax treatments; or how the entity expects the taxation authority to make its examination and resolve issues that might arise from that examination.

b. the assumptions an entity makes about the examination of tax treatments by taxation authorities- The entity shall assume that a taxation authority will examine amounts it has a right to examine and have full knowledge of all related information when making those examinations.

c. how an entity determines taxable profit (tax loss), tax bases, unused tax losses, unused tax credits and tax rates - The entity shall consider the probability of the relevant taxation authority accepting the tax treatment and the determination of taxable profit (tax loss), tax bases, unused tax losses, unused tax credits and tax rates would depend upon the aforesaid probability.

The Company does not expect any significant impact of this amendment on its financial statements.

Ind AS 19 – Plan Amendment, Curtailment or Settlement

The amendment clarifies that when determining past service cost, or a gain or loss on settlement due to plan amendment, curtailment or settlement, an entity shall remeasure the net defined benefit liability (asset) using the current fair value of plan assets and current actuarial assumptions, including current market interest rates and other current market prices, reflecting:

a. the benefits offered under the plan and the plan assets before the plan amendment, curtailment or settlement; and

b. the benefits offered under the plan and the plan assets before the plan amendment, curtailment or settlement; and

Further, if a plan amendment, curtailment or settlement occurs, it is mandatory that the current service cost and the net interest for the period after the re-measurement are determined using the assumptions used for the re-measurement. In addition, amendments have been included to clarify the effect of a plan amendment, curtailment or settlement on the requirements regarding the asset ceiling. The Company does not expect any significant impact of this amendment on its financial statements.

Ind AS 28 – Long-term Interests in Associates and Joint Ventures

The amendment clarifies that an entity shall be required to apply Ind AS 109 - “Financial Instruments”, to long-term interests in an associate or joint venture that form part of the entity’s net investment in the associate or joint venture but to which the equity method is not applied. The Company does not expect any significant impact of this amendment on its financial statements.

Ind AS 103 – Business Combinations and Ind AS 111 - Joint Arrangements

The amendment to Ind AS 103 relating to re-measurement clarify that when an entity obtains control of a business that is a joint operation and had rights to the assets and obligations for the liabilities relating to that joint operation immediately before the acquisition date, the transaction is a business combination achieved in stages and the entity shall re-measure its previously held interests in that business. The amendment to Ind AS 111 clarifies that when an entity obtains joint control of a business that is a joint operation, the entity does not re-measure previously held interests in that business. The Company will apply the amendment if and when it obtains control / joint control of a business that is a joint operation.

Goodwill and CGU's impairment testing

The Company tests whether goodwill has suffered any impairment on an annual basis as at 31 December. The recoverable amount of a Cash Generating Unit ('CGU') is determined based on value-in-use calculations which require the use of assumptions. The calculations use pre-tax cash flow projections based on financial budgets approved by the management. An average of the range of each assumption used is mentioned below.

	2019	2018
Growth rate	5% - 6%	5% - 6%
Operating margins	6% - 13%	6% - 13%
Discount rate	9% - 10%	9% - 10%

The above discount rate is based on the Weighted Average Cost of Capital (WACC) which represents the weighted average return attributable to all the assets of the CGU. These estimates are likely to differ from future actual results of operations and cash flows.

Based on the above assessment, there has been no impairment of goodwill.

iii Credit risk

Credit risk arises from cash held with banks and financial institutions, as well as credit exposure to clients, including outstanding accounts receivable. The maximum exposure to credit risk is equal to the carrying value of the financial assets. The objective of managing counterparty credit risk is to prevent losses in financial assets. The Company assesses the credit quality of the counterparties, taking into account their financial position, past experience and other factors.

(i) Trade receivables

Trade receivables consists of a large number of customers spread across diverse industries.

The Company follows 'simplified approach' for recognition of impairment loss allowance on trade receivable. Under the simplified approach, the Company does not track changes in credit risk. Rather, it recognizes impairment loss allowance based on lifetime ECLs at each reporting date, right from initial recognition.

The Company uses a provision matrix to determine impairment loss allowance on the portfolio of trade receivables. The provision matrix is based on its historically observed default rates over the expected life of the trade receivable and is adjusted for forward looking estimates. At year end, the historical observed default rates are updated and changes in the forward-looking estimates are analyzed.

Individual receivables which are known to be uncollectible are written off by reducing the carrying amount of trade receivable and the amount of the loss is recognised in the statement of profit and loss within other expenses.

Specific allowance for loss is also been provided by the management based on expected recovery on individual customers.

The provision provided in books for trade receivables overdue:

Management does not expect any significant loss from non-performance by counterparties on credit granted during the financial year that has not been provided for.

(ii) Other than trade receivables

Management believes that the parties from which the receivables are due have strong capacity to meet the obligations and risk of default is negligible or nil and accordingly no provision for expected credit loss has been provided for.

iv. Liquidity risk

The Company's objective is to maintain a balance between continuity of funding and flexibility through the use of bank overdrafts and debentures. Prudent liquidity risk management implies maintaining sufficient cash and marketable securities and the availability of funding through an adequate amount of committed credit facilities to meet obligations when due and to close out market positions. Due to the dynamic nature of the underlying businesses, Company maintains flexibility in funding by maintaining availability under committed credit lines.

The table below summarises the maturity profile of the Company's financial liabilities based on contractual undiscounted payments.

A contract asset is an entity's right to consideration in exchange for goods or services that the entity has transferred to a customer and hence is not a financial instrument. In Company's contracts with customers, since the contractual right to payment arises only upon achievement of milestones specified in the contract, it is believed that the performance completed until the achievement of a particular milestone should be recorded as a contract asset under non-financial assets.

During the year ₹ 177.61 crores of contract assets pertaining to the long term contracts as of January 1, 2019 has been reclassified to trade receivables upon billing to customers on completion of milestones.

During the year, the company has recognised revenue of ₹ 120.06 crores arising from opening deferred income as of January 1, 2019.

c) No significant adjustment expected in contract price for revenue recognised in statement of profit and loss.

d) Performance Obligation

Information about the company's performance obligations are summarised below:

Execution of long term contract for projects

- i.) Long term (Construction type) contracts - The long term contracts are ordinarily presumed to consist of combined obligations which are not distinct in the context of the contract (i.e., single performance obligation). This is highly attributed to the long-term construction nature of the projects, whereby deliverables are typically highly interrelated and combined. The typical scope of turnkey contracts arrangements includes Engineering, manufacturing, shipment, delivery installation, testing, erection and commissioning and civil works. Although there are several components to the overall scope of the contract, the turnkey contracts are generally considered one performance obligation.
- ii.) Products manufacturing and erection, commissioning and installation contracts - These contracts comprising of two performance obligations of supply of products and erection and commissioning thereof. When the manufacturing stage is complete, factory acceptance testing procedures are performed to ensure the equipment meets customer specifications and may involve the customer physically observing the testing procedures. Revenue from contracts, where the performance obligations are satisfied over time and other consideration, is recognized as per the percentage of completion method. The Company uses the percentage of completion method based on the costs expended to the date as a proportion of the total costs to be expended.

e) Remaining performance obligations

The remaining performance obligation disclosure provides the aggregate amount of the transaction price yet to be recognized as at the end of the reporting period and an explanation as to when the Company expects to recognize these amounts in revenue.

The aggregate value of performance obligations that are completely or partially unsatisfied as at December 31, 2019 is ₹ 4,123.50 crores. The conversion to revenue is highly dependent on meeting the delivery schedules, contractual terms and conditions with customers, availability of customer sites, changes/ variation in scope/ prices etc. In view of these, it is not practical to define the accurate percentage of conversion to revenue. However, it will be in a range of 1 to 3 years.

- f) There was no revenue recognised in the current year ended December 31, 2019 from performance obligations satisfied (or partially satisfied) in previous periods due to no significant changes in transaction price.
