We believe that we can be very competitive now on both the assets and liabilities side.

The first quarter of our financial performance has been positive, in terms of maintaining a healthy loan portfolio and net profit. During the quarter, we also completed 30 years of our journey in providing home loans to low and middle income customers. Our strong business foundations built over the years and our focus on the lower and middle income customer segment have contributed significantly to this 30 year growth story. This, we believe, enables DHFL to reaffirm its commitment to ensuring customer value, by providing financial protection alongside financial access. We are confident that in the coming quarters, our efforts will be towards strengthening customer offerings whilst driving higher shareholder value."
