KSB Limited Delivers Robust Q2 2025 Results, highlighting Sustained Growth and Resilience

KSB Limited, one of the leading pumps and valves manufacturers in India, recorded a 6.04% growth in half-yearly sales (January to June 2025) compared to the same period in 2024.

Major Highlights:

1. A prestigious order for Boiler feed pumps from L&T for NTPC Gadawara and Nabinagar supercritical power plants. This marks our first supercritical order from L&T for Boiler feed pumps in an 800 MW supercritical power plant.
2. Solar pump orders worth ₹46.0 crore were received from Maharashtra State Electricity Distribution Company, and an additional ₹25.3 crore order from Haryana Renewable Energy.
3. A prestigious export order received from Thermax for Boiler feed pumps.
4. A key order received from EMC Energy, Egypt.
5. The Wastewater segment registered 65% year-to-date growth over the previous year, driven by significant order from Kolkata Municipal Corporation in H1, and a breakthrough order for newly launched Sewatec pumps.
6. Export orders were received for three upcoming petrochemical projects in the Middle East.

Summarising the Q2'25 performance, Mr. Prashant Kumar, Vice President (Sales and Marketing), commented, “KSB has delivered a strong and dynamic performance in the second quarter of 2025, marked by solid growth and strategic progress. With a robust order intake during the quarter, we are well-positioned to sustain this momentum during the year.

We are encouraged by the consistent demand across our key business segments—Power, Solar, Waste Water, Nuclear, and Petrochemicals. The export business continues to show an upward trend, reinforcing our footprint in the global markets. Notably, our Waste Water segment has achieved impressive year-on-year growth, and our Solar division is advancing steadily in line with our commitment to sustainable solutions.

Looking ahead, we remain focused on delivering excellence, driving innovation, and creating enduring value for all our stakeholders, while staying aligned with our long-term vision for sustainable growth.”
