Pramod Ranjan, Managing Director & CEO, Oriental Hotels Ltd said, “Our Company has delivered a stronger performance this quarter as against the first quarter of 2017. We will continue to focus on increasing EBITDA margins, in alignment to IHCL’s Aspiration 2022. The renovation and enhancements made in our portfolio of hotels will also have a positive impact going forward.”

KEY HIGHLIGHTS

Taj Coromandel, Chennai

- Renovation of 3 floors comprising 76 rooms including all suites, in our endeavour to continuously upgrade our facilities and maintain best in class leadership position.
- The hotel continues to be the preferred location for Heads of State and Diplomatic delegations which included the German President, Frank-Walter Steinmeier’s visit to Chennai and Government delegations from Singapore and United Kingdom.
- The hotel took the lead to phase out the use of single use plastic for dry amenities in the rooms.

Taj Fisherman’s Cove, Chennai

- The hotel has recently renovated the entire lobby and 48 rooms. 2 new Luxury Sea View suites have been added to the inventory.
- The hotel has also renovated “Seagull” the All Day Dining restaurant which offers a panoramic view of the Bay of Bengal, giving it a fresh and vibrant look.
