All figures attributed to Srei are figures of Srei Consolidated unless otherwise stated.

WHEN SREI STARTED ITS JOURNEY ON THE EVE OF THE OPENING UP OF THE ECONOMY, PRIVATE SECTOR PARTICIPATION IN INFRASTRUCTURE DEVELOPMENT THEN WAS ALMOST UNTHINKABLE.

Srei has dared to transform the perception.

Srei has been a part of the rapid evolution of infrastructure in India. Srei has grown with India and its entrepreneurs in tandem.

Srei has consistently positioned the interests of the country and its customers, its own has followed. It believes and works towards only one objective - “Prosperity for all.”

For those entrepreneurs willing to explore the ocean of opportunities in the infrastructure space, Srei has always been a willing partner.

When entrepreneurs and enterprises need funds for infrastructure ventures, Srei extends finance.

When entrepreneurs and enterprises need guidance, Srei adds value with timely advice.

When entrepreneurs and enterprises seek to grow their business, Srei identifies relevant opportunities.

When entrepreneurs and enterprises encounter a downturn, Srei provides support.

AND IN DOING SO, EVOLVED

FROM THE WOMB OF ENTREPRENEURS DO ENTERPRISES EMERGE.

The story of most infrastructure financing companies in India is common.

They finance a customer, the customer buys equipment, the customer deploys the equipment, the livelihood generates a surplus, the customer repays the financier. End of story.

At Srei, we recognised that we would not stick to this conventional script; if we did, we would miss a larger opportunity.

We could have emerged successful in a narrow quarter-on-quarter sense; we needed to emerge as a 'prosperity for all' enabler for our customers, society and country.

So even as most infrastructure-financing companies continued to create satisfied customers, Srei went one step ahead: it empowered entrepreneurs and enterprises instead.

So even as the usual infrastructure-financing companies continued to build bottomlines, Srei helped in building the nation.

AT SREI, THE OPERATIVE WORD IS JUST ONE. 'PLUS'.

A usual financier seeks an adequate financing spread;
Srei focuses on driving customer success.

A usual financier prioritises loan recovery;
Srei focuses on maximising customer's resource efficiency.

A usual financier is driven by the transaction;
Srei focuses on building a better tomorrow.

HOW DO YOU STRENGTHEN A 1.27 BN NATION? BY EMPOWERING ITS PEOPLE.

At Srei, the words 'infrastructure institution' is not adequate.

In effect, we are a holistic infrastructure institution.

What we really do (apart from evidently enabling to build infrastructure) is help aspiring entrepreneurs overcome challenges, encourage different approaches and graduate to the next level.

Now multiply this by millions of such instances across the country's landscape.

The result? More than just a business: a transformational graduation to a higher level.

INDIVIDUALS ATTEMPT; PARTNERSHIPS ACHIEVE.

It takes more than financial capital to transform an idea into a winning business.

It takes intellectual capital. It takes networking capital. It takes experience capital.

Most aspiring entrepreneurs seek these diverse competencies.

Srei holds their hands like a true partner; helps them with its rich 27-year experience in the infrastructure domain.

Which means that the customer can tap into Srei's rich management bandwidth – anytime and anywhere.

Which means that when it comes to the grind of competitive business, behind every such individual entrepreneur stands a giant support.

CHAIRMAN AND MANAGING DIRECTOR'S MESSAGE

Dear Shareholders

Finally, we have again started to see a distinct improvement in the economy and more specifically in the infrastructure sector after a lull for the past few years. Infrastructure being the key area for development of any economy will always be at the centre-stage in the country's growth.

We are still witnessing that banks and financial institutions or the infrastructure players who have not been able to comprehend the complexities of the sector and risks within it, still grappling with unresolved issues; whereas Srei, fortunately and strategically, focused on the infrastructure sector for more than two decades, has been able to steer clear of any major problem.

We have crossed many major milestones in our journey so far and we are ready to accelerate faster, now that we have both the expertise and the experience.

The year under review has been eventful for us as we have successfully concluded the share sale transaction of Viom, harvesting Rs. 2,931 crore and we have also been able to complete the purchase of the entire shareholding of Srei Equipment Finance Limited from BNP Paribas Lease Group (BPLG). Furthermore, BPLG has also now become a shareholder of the parent company Srei.

Economy outlook

While global growth improved marginally during the year under review, the Indian economy managed to clock a 7.6 per cent GDP growth making it the world's fastest growing major economy. The growth in India is primarily consumption driven with the increase in per capita income and to some extent by the capital expenditure undertaken by the government. Taking advantage of the drop in international oil price during the year under review, the government excelled in fiscal management by adhering to its targets, rationalising subsidies selectively, expanding investment in infrastructure and widening the scope of social security net. However, muted global demand has resulted in 17 consecutive months of declining exports from India and a consequent excess capacity in the manufacturing sector. Industrial growth has remained subdued leading to almost no new investment towards capacity creation. The Reserve Bank of India (RBI) has maintained an accommodative monetary policy and since January 2015 RBI has reduced Repo rate by 150 basis points, but unfortunately fresh capital investments by the private sector is yet to pick up. International oil price is once again moving up, and although this trend has been predicted to be temporary by experts, it may marginally affect the fiscal situation. In addition, its impact on inflation will also influence RBI's decision on any further interest rate cut.

On the global economy front, policy tools towards fuelling domestic demand have taken divergent paths. USA signaled an end to its quantitative easing (QE) programme through an interest rate hike, but to ensure the sustainability of the domestic recovery, the Federal Reserve has assured an accommodative monetary policy. Meanwhile, European Central Bank and Bank of Japan have continued with QE and have also introduced negative deposit rate to fuel domestic demand. China, in its bid to switch from an investment driven to a consumption driven economic model, has to deal with risks in the financial markets (bad debts and bond defaults), asset bubbles in its property market and excess capacity in the industry. On the commodity front, while crude prices have started moving up, non-energy commodity prices remain stable with a hint on the upside. Steel prices, meanwhile have firmed appreciably. Gold prices remain elevated on safe haven demand. Of late, portfolio flows seem to be returning to debt and equity markets of emerging market economies.

Like previous years, the management of your Company has been actively tracking all these developments. Being a company with international footprint and having multiple foreign funding channels, it is imperative to track international capital flows so that we can manage our forex risk judiciously.

Business outlook

The policy stalemate that had gripped the nation a few years ago is certainly over now. The present government has brought a sense of purpose and urgency to its functioning. A series of reforms and practical guidelines spanning multiple sectors has once again got the global investor community interested in the India Growth Story. It is no coincidence that the inbound foreign direct investment (FDI) to India has reached a record high during the year under review. Though gross domestic product (GDP) growth has been mostly consumption driven, in recent times key economic indicators like volume of cargo traffic at ports, sale of two-wheelers, three-wheelers and commercial vehicles, cement production, steel consumption, among others, point towards a nascent recovery on the investment side too.

On the infrastructure front, the government has announced a number of sectoral schemes, stepped up public investment, re-started many stalled projects and ushered in a sense of competitive federalism. The government has even roped in governments of other nations to jointly implement key flagship infrastructure projects. In addition, the government has conceptualized new investment vehicles which can channelise funds from India and abroad into India's infrastructure projects. These are poised to open up huge opportunities in the infrastructure sector which augur well for your Company.

Nevertheless, the banking sector, which has been the main source of debt for Indian infrastructure projects, is saddled with a large stressed assets portfolio and thus has limited lending ability in the sector at present. Resolving the banks' problems can propel the economy into an even higher growth trajectory. During the year under review, one of the key reforms undertaken to address this problem has been the introduction of the Insolvency and Bankruptcy Code. This will enable both genuine borrowers and lenders to resolve problems expeditiously, thereby preventing the asset or portfolio from being a drag which would have eventually resulted in a stalemate. However, the Code calls for some pre-requisites in the form of new institutions and a new cadre of insolvency professionals which may take some time to fructify. Thus, realistically speaking, the stressed asset problem is likely to linger on for some time. But once the Code comes into force, it will open up many new opportunities for your Company. The Code will enable change in management of many stressed infrastructure assets and Infrastructure Finance Companies (IFCs) like Srei, which have specialized skill sets in managing infrastructure assets, will be well equipped to take charge of such assets and then attempt a revival. The management of your Company is actively tracking the developments on this front.

The government's efforts to push land and labour reforms by encouraging state governments to frame their own policies is a strategic masterstroke and can do wonders for industrialization and infrastructure. The government also deserves credit for its attempts to enhance the 'ease of doing business' through better centre-state co-ordination. The government has done well in improving the tax administration and its immediate aim should be the roll-out of the Goods & Services Tax (GST) within 2016-17. A predictable tax regime can do wonders in reviving the investment climate and providing a spurt to entrepreneurship.

To sum up, the business scenario is much better today than what it was during the last 3-4 years. A strong foundation for long-term growth is being laid. Things can only get better from here onwards. Corrective action is being taken on several fronts sector-wise and this is paving the way for a more mature and robust public-private partnership (PPP).

Company outlook

During the year under review, your Company posted an income of Rs. 3,262 crore and registered net profit of Rs. 72.52 crore. Your Company's consolidated disbursements stood at Rs. 14,533 crore, a growth of 15.84 per cent over Rs. 12,546 crore in 2014-15. The total consolidated assets under management were at Rs. 36,702 crore. Taking cognizance of the macroeconomic scenario, the management consciously adopted a cautious approach and exercised extreme prudence in its disbursements. The quality of loan portfolio has been consistently improving and stressed clients are being closely monitored towards prudent recovery.

One of the high points of your Company during the year under review has been the stake sale in Viom Networks Limited to American Tower Corporation. The overall transaction worth Rs. 7,600 crore resulted in a total FDI inflow of Rs. 5,856 crore into the telecom sector, out of which Srei has received a total amount of Rs. 2,931 crore. However, the deal got consummated in April 2016 and the realisation will get reflected in Srei's Q1FY17 results. This cash inflow is happening when the investment scenario in the economy has started looking up. Your Company will reduce its debt and interest burden and at the same time take exposure in new infrastructure projects.

Your Company has been making strategic investments from time to time and has always followed a strategy of harvesting such stakes at the opportune moment. The management is vigilant of such opportunities and will opt for strategic divestments whenever the right opportunity beckons.

The other major development during the year under review has been the consummation of the purchase of 100 per cent shareholding of Srei Equipment Finance Ltd. BNP Paribas Lease Group decided to sell its 50 per cent shares in Srei Equipment to the parent company, Srei Infrastructure Finance Ltd., in lieu of a 5 per cent stake in the parent company. This will once again put your Company in full charge of the asset financing business. Meanwhile, BPLG, through its stake in the parent, will get an opportunity to have a share of the entire infrastructure pie in the country. While expanding its presence in the infrastructure project financing business, your Company also stands to gain from skill sets and global best practices that BPLG brings to the table among other benefits. The formalities of the process have been completed.

I strongly believe that tomorrow's innovations will be a result of how effectively human intellect can leverage modern technology. Technology will be the key differentiator in every sphere of life and work. Therefore, to stay ahead of competition, the management of your Company is investing in creating a state-of-the-art- technology platform and at the same time devoting time and energy in training our people to stay abreast with technology. A core group within the Company is overseeing the progress on this front. The members of the group are also in touch with experts in this field.

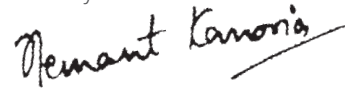

Now that RBI has issued draft guidelines for on-tap license for universal banks, your Company is keenly following the developments on that front. A detailed evaluation on the pros and cons will be carried out after the final guidelines are announced before any further step is initiated. The investment in technology and manpower is made with an eye on the possibility of expanding the financial sector bandwidth.

Let me conclude by reiterating that good times are ahead for our Country.

Many systemic problems are being taken care of with imaginative and practical solutions, which will pave the way for robust growth and it will be fuelled by a healthy mix of both consumption and investment. PPP will emerge stronger in the infrastructure creation process and your Company will be ready to tap the opportunities that will unfold.

We look forward to your continued support in our future endeavours.

Thank you.

HEMANT KANORIA

Chairman & Managing Director

“OUR PARTNERSHIP ETHOS HELPED STRENGTHEN THE
BUSINESS IN A CHALLENGING YEAR”

Sunil Kanoria,
Vice Chairman, Srei Infrastructure Finance Limited, analyses the Company's 2015-16 working

Q How would you assess the performance of the Company in 2015-16?

A Before I come to the corporate performance, it is pertinent to talk about the state of the entire Indian infrastructure sector. Following a disastrous 2011-12, the sector's governance was extensively compromised resulting in complete stagnation. Besides, there were other challenges to address: land acquisition issues, high debt cost and stressed Balance Sheets of most infrastructure companies. Prominent Indian financial institutions shied from lending to the sector thereafter and growth in this sector came to a virtual standstill. Srei's performance has to be appraised against this context. 2015-16 was a year of managing risk and consolidation for Srei.

Q What were some of the business-strengthening corporate initiatives during the year under review?

A Srei has always been a strong believer in the ethos of building partnerships with all stakeholders. This virtue helped us tide over difficult situations in the past and every time we emerged stronger. This time too it paid off. Strengthening customer relationships has always been a focus area of Srei's growth story. It was tested in 2015-16, but I am happy that we did not deviate from our principle. As a lender, it would have been convenient for us to accept that customers would be challenged and take a decision in not servicing their loans during the slowdown. At Srei, we chose to strengthen our consultative role with the customers during this critical juncture, evaluated customer cash flows, helped them redeploy idle assets and assisted them exit specific projects. The result is that by helping customer manage their cash flows, we were able to manage ours; by ensuring that our customers stayed viable during the slowdown, we ensured that we remained profitable. The year under review was even more challenging for the SME and mid-level customer segments. But we stood by them and supported them in weathering the storm.

The other reason for our relative success in a challenging sector was employee retention. It is the collective knowledge, wisdom and intellect of the employees that constitutes the core strength of Srei. We have always cared for our employees and ensured that we do not lose our key employees. As the cycle improves, we expect to be better prepared to address emerging opportunities with speed and effectiveness.

Q What were the other developments at Srei in 2015-16?

A The financial year was marked by two other major developments. For a number of years, we have been building our investment book with the objective of timely and attractive monetisation. We made prudent investments, we built businesses, we made them profitable and we said that we would exit them at the right juncture. During the year under review, we made a sizable divestment, sending out a strong signal to the markets that our book comprises companies with excellent value, that this value can be monetised and that this monetised value can translate into enhanced shareholder value.

Q How would you describe the divestment?

A Viom was India's first independent tower sharing company that we progressively built into one of the country's most impressive passive telecom infrastructure businesses. The divestment (Rs. 2,931 crore for Srei's share in the Company) increased Srei's cash flow. We expect to moderate our debt (and interest), augmenting our net worth, strengthening our credit rating and, moderating our borrowing cost and right sizing our foundation for scalable and profitable growth.

In another corporate development, BNP Paribas Lease Group, 50 per cent shareholder in Srei Equipment Finance Ltd., announced its intention to sell its entire holding in lieu of 5 per cent equity in the parent company. As the infrastructure in the country is turning around, BPLG will benefit from Srei's exposure in the infrastructure sector. On the other hand, Srei will regain 100 per cent shareholding in SEFL. Srei will enjoy direct control of the entire fund-based segment of the infrastructure business. Besides, this will enhance shareholder value through a 100 per Q Where does the sector go from here?

A I keep interacting with investors from around the world and I can say with a great degree of certainty that the new government's actions have caught their attention – they are once again following every development in India very keenly. India's growth rate and the growing market size make India a very attractive investment destination. Indian infrastructure is capable of providing international investors opportunities for long-term investments.

The infrastructure sector had almost come to a standstill during the last few years of the previous government. The new government has taken a number of initiatives to set the ball rolling again. The overall sentiment is positive now, but I feel that a full-fledged revival for the infrastructure sector is still some time away. Some structural problems and fundamental issues are still to be addressed. The major problems are financing and dispute resolution

Financing

So far, the banking sector has been the principal source of debt for infrastructure projects, but now that the banks, especially the public sector banks (PSBs), are saddled with high levels of stressed assets, new infrastructure projects may take more time to take off. RBI and government have demonstrated a nice co-ordination and acted in tandem to infuse life into the process of infrastructure creation. While the government has done a lot in terms of re-starting stalled projects, RBI has introduced the 5:25 scheme for banks to reduce their exposure in infrastructure through refinancing and take-out financing, allowing banks to also go for strategic debt conversion (SDR). A Bankruptcy Code has also been drafted so that stressed infrastructure projects can opt for a management change in their bid for a turnaround.

The announcement to form the Rs. 40,000 crore National Investment and Infrastructure Fund (NIIF) in Union Budget 2015-16 was a major step. NIIF will build greenfield and brownfield projects and revive stalled projects. Indian government's share in the corpus will not exceed 49 per cent, the rest to be owned by private players. Sovereign and pension funds from Russia, Singapore, the UK and the UAE are among those to express an interest in NIIF.

The announcement of new investment vehicles like Infrastructure Debt Funds (IDFs), Infrastructure Investment Trusts (InvITs) and Real Estate Investment Trusts (REITs) generated a lot of enthusiasm. These are all various refinancing vehicles whose time has come for an infrastructure-deficient country like ours. However, these structures need to be equipped with the right policy framework to facilitate them to be effective. To make these schemes effective, all departments and agencies of the government need to work together, otherwise the “good intention scheme” could remain unimplemented. This has happened with IDFs. InvITs and REITs have also not quite taken off because of the issue of multiple taxation and constraints in terms of tapping foreign investments. InvITs received a much needed push in this year’s annual budget, which announced that any distribution made out of the income of special purpose vehicles (SPV) to InvITs having specified shareholding will not be subjected to Dividend Distribution Tax (DDT). A domestic InvIT can raise long-term funds from unit holders, helping developers unlock value in their operational or completed projects or repay debt associated with those projects. I sincerely believe that vehicles like IDFs and InvITs will undergo further regulatory changes and things will improve. Our policy-makers are gradually realizing how relevant these are for the creation of quality infrastructure.

Going forward, I feel specialist players like Infrastructure Finance Companies (IFCs) will evolve as major players in infrastructure financing. IFCs should be supported through streamlining of regulatory, policy, taxation, financial and legal issues.

Dispute resolution

In India, redressal of infrastructure-related disputes is an arduous process and often takes years to get resolved. Unlike most countries, India’s infrastructure creation has witnessed large-scale private sector participation. In the last two decades, PPP has played a central role in India’s infrastructure creation. However, in the process, certain mistakes were made, which led to long-standing disputes. There is an urgent need to learn from the mistakes, resolve the disputes and move on. With administrative decisions being liable for various investigations, the government officials prefer implementing only such decisions which have court endorsements, which again takes up lot of time as the courts already have a huge backlog of pending cases to deal with. The way out of this is to establish an ‘Infrastructure Dispute Redressal Tribunal’ to fast-track dispute resolution pertaining to infrastructure projects. This will immensely speed up dispute resolution and relieve the already-busy courts, therefore avoiding long-drawn litigations. This would unlock investments in a number of stuck projects and also help in easing the problem of stressed assets in our banking system. A system like this will also inspire confidence among investors and our country would be able to attract more investments from the private sector, domestic and foreign, into infrastructure.

To sum up, I sincerely believe that if the problem areas that I mentioned get addressed expeditiously, India will witness a new and far more vibrant phase of infrastructure growth. Going forward, the dependence on bank funding for debt capital is likely to come down. The Government must ensure a quick implementation of the Bankruptcy Code as that will substantially add to the comfort level of potential investors. A roll-out of the Goods and Services Tax (GST) will also bring in a high degree of certainty on the taxation front. Putting in place a dispute resolution mechanism could be the proverbial icing on the cake.

Q How is Srei geared to address this opportunity?

A I am positive about Srei’s performance for some good reasons. Our intangibles (relationships, knowledge and sectoral presence) are in place. Our tangibles (enhanced liquidity and low-cost structure) are attractive. We expect a combination of these will generate stronger and more sustainable growth for Srei across the foreseeable future.

More importantly, now that the Bankruptcy Code has been passed by both houses of the Parliament, I expect whole lot of opportunities to open up for the NBFCs, especially for the IFCs. Once the Bankruptcy Code gets implemented, we will witness a whole of infrastructure assets changing hands. There will be change in management in a bid to revive stressed projects. The IFCs, with their inherent strength and expertise, are poised to play a very important role in the revival of infrastructure assets. Srei will definitely benefit from such a development.

FACILITATING PROFESSIONAL ENTREPRENEURSHIP WITHIN.

‘Make an entrepreneur to create an entrepreneur’ goes an old Srei saying.

We believe that this patient distillation is the result of prudent recruitment, development, motivation, retention and team-working.

We recruit for attitude; we train for aptitude.

We provide more than training; we provide experience-enriching business opportunities.

We provide more than team support; we provide a swim-or-sink reality that makes our people mature faster.

We create more than employees; we groom entrepreneurs.

So that when they go out and work with customers, they evangelise that distinctive alchemy that transformed them from employees into entrepreneurs.

It all starts with culture

At Srei, we believe that at the heart of the entrepreneurship process lies culture-rich distinctive culture.

A culture that influences how we outperform, how we see opportunities in challenges and how we delight customers.

This culture is not what happens by chance; it is the result of disciplined talent recruitment, training, mentoring, stretch assignments, a responsibility-authority balance and providing an adequate recognition platform.

This motivating Srei environment embraces challenges, is prepared to walk the road less travelled and is motivated by the bigger picture.

1 Acquisition

Srei casts a wide recruitment net.

The Company plugs vacancies from within and lateral engagement.

The Company’s website careers page and social media attract talent.

The Company prospects candidates through diverse tests (problem-solving puzzles, logical games, aptitude tests and cross-panel interviews).

The Company partners premier business schools (like ISB and others) for selective campus recruitment.

The result is that Srei has been able to engage the right professional in the right position in the right environment with the objective to transform customer destinies.

2 Induction

Srei's 'Design for Success' employee orientation programme educates new members in a distinctive Srei way of doing things.

The Company's culture, procedures and policies.

This assimilation is categorised (pre-joining assistance, joining assistance and on-joining assistance).

They are welcomed by a talent acquisition manager and department manager, following which buddies are allocated. The Group Orientation Programme sets the tone for the Srei employee to hit the ground running.

3 Development

Srei builds capability across categories following exhaustive discussions with business leaders.

One, work excellence, which is derived through functional training

Two, personal excellence, which is derived through individual efficiency enhancement

Three, people and business excellence, which is derived by building people management capabilities

This capability-building curriculum makes it possible for Srei to catalyse learning, accountability and development to systematically address organisational priorities.

4 Communication

At Srei, we pride on our transparency, accessibility and responsiveness.

Our Town Hall platform engages, listens and shares with employees, making it possible to bridge the pan-organisational functional gap.

Srei 'Let's Connect' engagement (generally around Diwali) invites employee queries for the senior management that enhances strategic clarity.

Srei actively uses the social media (Twitter and What's Buzzing Srei) to provide announcements and updates; the Company's quarterly newsletter captures employee and sectoral developments.

5 Care

The Swasth Srei initiative protects employee health and wellness through information sharing, underscoring that wellness can be enhanced through a collaborative engagement.

The Swasth Srei Health Index was launched by medical professionals to measure individual and organisational health scores and drive positive change through behavioural transformation.

The Swasth Srei initiative enhanced employee awareness, suggested improvements, helped manage chronic health conditions and provided therapeutic support.

6 Engagement

At Srei, we believe that successful organisations blend work with fun, the very basis of sustained outperformance.

The evident rationale for this blend is de-stressing; at a deeper level, we believe that if people feel relaxed at work, they are likely to give their best; if they are cheerful at work, they are likely to be more composed in a crisis.

In view of this, Srei celebrates various events and major festivals through interactions, games, gala lunches and dinners, enhancing organisational morale.

7 Recognition

At Srei, we believe that recognition represents the foundation of morale-enhancement that can translate into deeper customer engagement and delight.

This recognition has been institutionalised; the Company's Srei-O-Utsav felicitates outstanding performers; its 'Sarvottam' and 'Uttam' awards recognise the 'extra milers' to promote individual and team excellence.

Our spot recognition programme Srei Shabash comprises appreciation cards that can be awarded to employees across hierarchies for day-to-day accomplishments.

8 Grooming Leaders

LEaD, Srei's people development platform, prepares high-potential candidates with the objective to develop a leadership pipeline through the following activities: selection of potential team leaders; enhancing skills to strengthen the bench and catalysing cross-organisational collaboration.

Srei's 'Managing Self and Team Performance' workshops on self-awareness equip individuals to manage teams and challenges, balancing competitiveness and cooperation in the pursuit of success.

FACILITATING PROFESSIONAL ENTREPRENEURSHIP

"I joined Srei as Chief Manager in 1997.

Over the years, I have worked in various functions: accounts, audit, information technology, risk management, operations, sales and general business.

The result: a 360-degree perspective of the Company's operations.

I became Head of Operations in 2000. Chief Operating Officer in 2003. Chief Executive of Asset Finance in 2006. Chief Executive Officer of Srei Equipment Finance Limited since 2008.

Five years from now, I see myself helping Srei emerge as the largest and most profitable financial institution in the country."

D.K. Vyas is now Chief Executive Officer at Srei Equipment Finance Limited

When a company is 'owned' by its employees, some fascinating things happen

When Himadri Bhattacharjya joined Quippo in 2005 as the business head of Eastern India, this appeared to be another usual appointment.

But for a difference. In a promoter-owned company, he was being given a carte blanche. His one line brief: 'Grow the business whichever way you wish but by adhering to Srei values.'

Except that there was no growth in this part of the country. Sniggers abounded. Sceptics prevailed.

Himadri hit the road. Interfaced with contractors. Marketed to project owners. Enhanced regional visibility. Bid aggressively. Was among the first to materialise wherever a new project was being considered.

Within six months, Eastern India was a revenue driver for Quippo; within a year, the zone was the Company's largest.

Over time, Himadri was promoted to lead Quippo. Now even bigger things began to happen; the young company emerged national leader with a 30 per cent-plus market share.

Emphasising the point that a company grows fastest when it is 'owned' by its employees.

Himadri Bhattacharjya is now Managing Director, Quippo.

"I joined Srei as Assistant Company Secretary in 2000.

The journey was marked by learning, compliance with corporate laws, implementing best-in-class governance practices, interacting with regulatory bodies and contributing strategically across levels.

From a two-person team, we are now a full-fledged department comprising qualified professionals.

I can claim that I am the 'CEO' of my space.

The next target is to claim a place among the leading corporate governance-compliant entities.

For the last eleven years I have been working as the Company Secretary of Srei Infrastructure Finance Limited."

Sandeep Lakhotia is now Group Head & Company Secretary at Srei Infrastructure Finance Limited.

VV Ramana walked out of college and joined Srei in 1997.

The designation on his card said 'Management Trainee'.

Except for a curious reality. Srei didn't treat him like one.

The mining sector was opening up; he was given a challenging assignment.

When he had achieved his business financing target, he was given a bigger challenge.

When he had addressed that, he was given a new designation.

Except that it made no difference to Ramana. He felt as he always did - 'owner' of the Company.

Helping fast-track the Company's equipment finance business within the mining sector.

Emphasising the point that when professionals think like entrepreneurs, the one big expense is one's visiting card.

VV Ramana is now Head, Business at Srei Equipment Finance.

When Srei went into business, it was among the first private companies in India to provide equipment financing solutions to tentative small-time contractors.

Not that this was an evident business opportunity.

Projects were small. Investments were sporadic. The concept of overarching national 'infrastructure' was still a decade away.

In this challenging environment, Srei did not just address an existing market; it helped create one.

By specialising in the space. By dispersing branches pan-India. By selecting to work out of rural and semi-urban locations closest to growth.

By addressing its pitch at employees turned entrepreneurs. By positioning its branches as 'incubation centres'. By recommending equipment selection. By advising business strategy. By suggesting profitable idle asset deployment.

The result is that many of Srei's employee-mentored customers have since become multi-business and multi-region contractors employing hundreds to work for them.

Srei's friend-philosopher-guide positioning has generated an unexpected payback. More than 25 per cent of Srei's financed equipment is directed at first-time buyers; almost 60 per cent of its disbursements of 2015-16 were generated from longstanding customers.

Emphasising the point that when you invest selflessly in the intangible, the returns can be rich and enduringly tangible.

AN INCUBATION CENTRE FOR ENTREPRENEURS

Panchanan Naskar

From a small village near Madhyagram, a Kolkata suburb.

Started as a labour contractor.

Borrowed margin money from relatives and family. Bought the first JCB backhoe loader financed by Srei.

When relatives heard of the cost (Rs. 22 lakhs) they wondered whether he would go bankrupt.

Today Panchanan has three such machines. Employs eight people.

And is looking to buy another machine.

All in seven years!

Entrepreneurship makes amazing things happen

Harish Jayshankar Rawal

Born into a farmer's family in Lalpur (Saurashtra).

Even as the family owned a few tractors, he gathered the courage to buy his first backhoe loader (L&T- Case 583) in 1996.

Financed by Srei.

Thereafter, he acquired a JCB BHL that was rented profitably.

Thereafter, Srei funded 15 tractors in 2003 (following which the Srei CMD nicknamed him Srei Brand Ambassador).

Today he owns a fleet of more than 110 CE; Srei has financed more than 80!

Entrepreneurship generates respect.

Quippo positioned itself as a holistic equipment management company. It empowered small contractors to rent equipment from Quippo.

QUIPPO MADE HANDHOLDING EASY

At Srei, we didn't just finance the equipment ownership needs of customers. We provided them with a holistic solution instead.

For instance, a number of small customers were unsure of acquiring equipment because of the erratic nature of projects (and hence incomes); they needed a comfortable rental solution instead.

Quippo positioned itself as a holistic equipment management company. It empowered small contractors to rent equipment from Quippo. Conversely, it encouraged contractors with idle equipment to rent to other operators through Quippo.

Quippo's rental solution minimised capital investment, eliminated storage costs, strengthened Balance Sheets and handheld tentative first-time contractors to graduate to equipment ownership (financed by Srei).

DRIVING THE SPIRIT OF ENTREPRENEURSHIP

Ram Singh (Jhansi) was a Transit Mixer driver.

He worked with Quippo for four years.

One day, he proposed to buy Quippo's Transit Mixers.

He could not pay upfront.

So Quippo arranged finance and deployment.

Ram Singh has since liquidated a substantial portion of his loan, increased his fleet and evolved into a respected entrepreneur.

Entrepreneurship accelerates.

S. Sriram (Tamil Nadu) was a piling rig operator who became a supervisor.

Quippo provided training.

And encouraged him to turn independent.

The result is that Sriram is now a successful entrepreneur.

Entrepreneurship enriches.

Dharampal (Uttar Pradesh) worked on temporary mason assignments.

He enlisted for the Quippo backhoe Loader training programme.

Employed as an operator.

Over time, he bought a used loader under an easy finance scheme.

He now owns a loader and has become an entrepreneur.

Entrepreneurs transform destinies.

CREATING GRASSROOTS ENTREPRENEURS

Sahaj was established with a simple idea: to provide rural India's consumers with urban services.

For instance, villagers needed to travel long distances to pay utility bills. There would be one bank across a number of villages. And even when the villagers were willing to pay, there would be no channel through which they could remit.

Sahaj was a breath of fresh air. The service provided IT-based rural information services across agriculture, education, vocational training, health and hygiene. The rationale was that if rural Indians could be provided robust digital access, it would create sustainable livelihoods and create markets at the base of the country's economic pyramid.

Sahaj offered e-governance services, utility services, payments, deposits, insurance, financial services, and a host of e-information and e-learning facilities delivered through dedicated Sahaj Kendras (one for every six villages) operated by Sahaj Mitras, who are self-motivated village-level entrepreneurs.

Sahaj partners village level entrepreneurs to run 40,768 Sahaj Kendras in Assam, Bihar, Delhi, Himachal Pradesh, Maharashtra, Odisha, Rajasthan, Tamil Nadu, Uttar Pradesh, Jharkhand, Tripura and West Bengal. It is now expanding the Sahaj Mitra footprint across 25 states leading to a pan-India presence.

Creating entrepreneurs in thousands of villages.

DRIVING THE SPIRIT OF ENTREPRENEURSHIP IN BHARAT

Mir Gulam

Mir Gulam did not complete his graduation and was unemployed.

But because he had done his O-Level computer course, he could launch a Sahaj centre.

Today, his Cybergram service has made 900 students tech-literate and employable. He offers services like e-district, National Digital Literacy Mission (NDLM), e-inclusion as well as PAN card, passport and insurance services.

Over the years, Mir Gulam has expanded his centre to a two-storey building employing 11 members to service more than 100 daily consumers.

The self-made Mir Gulam epitomises the Srei philosophy: if an individual possesses the will, the company charts the way.

Entrepreneurship made everything possible.

Jhumur Mondal

As a data entry operator, Jhumur Mondal earned Rs. 3,500 each month. Today, she earns 30 times that salary.

Jhumur partnered Sahaj in 2009 when very few Government to Citizen (G2C) service providers were there in the region. She offered services like paying electricity bills and insurance premium, railway and bus tickets booking, Direct to Home (DTH) entrepreneurship bridges in equity and mobile recharge facilities. From 2014, she began to provide G2C services, including services like e-inclusion for SC and ST individuals, e-inclusion for women, Cybergram and NDLM, among others. Her Cybergram service has provided computer education to more than 1,400 students.

For someone who was an employee, Jhumur now employs 40 individuals.

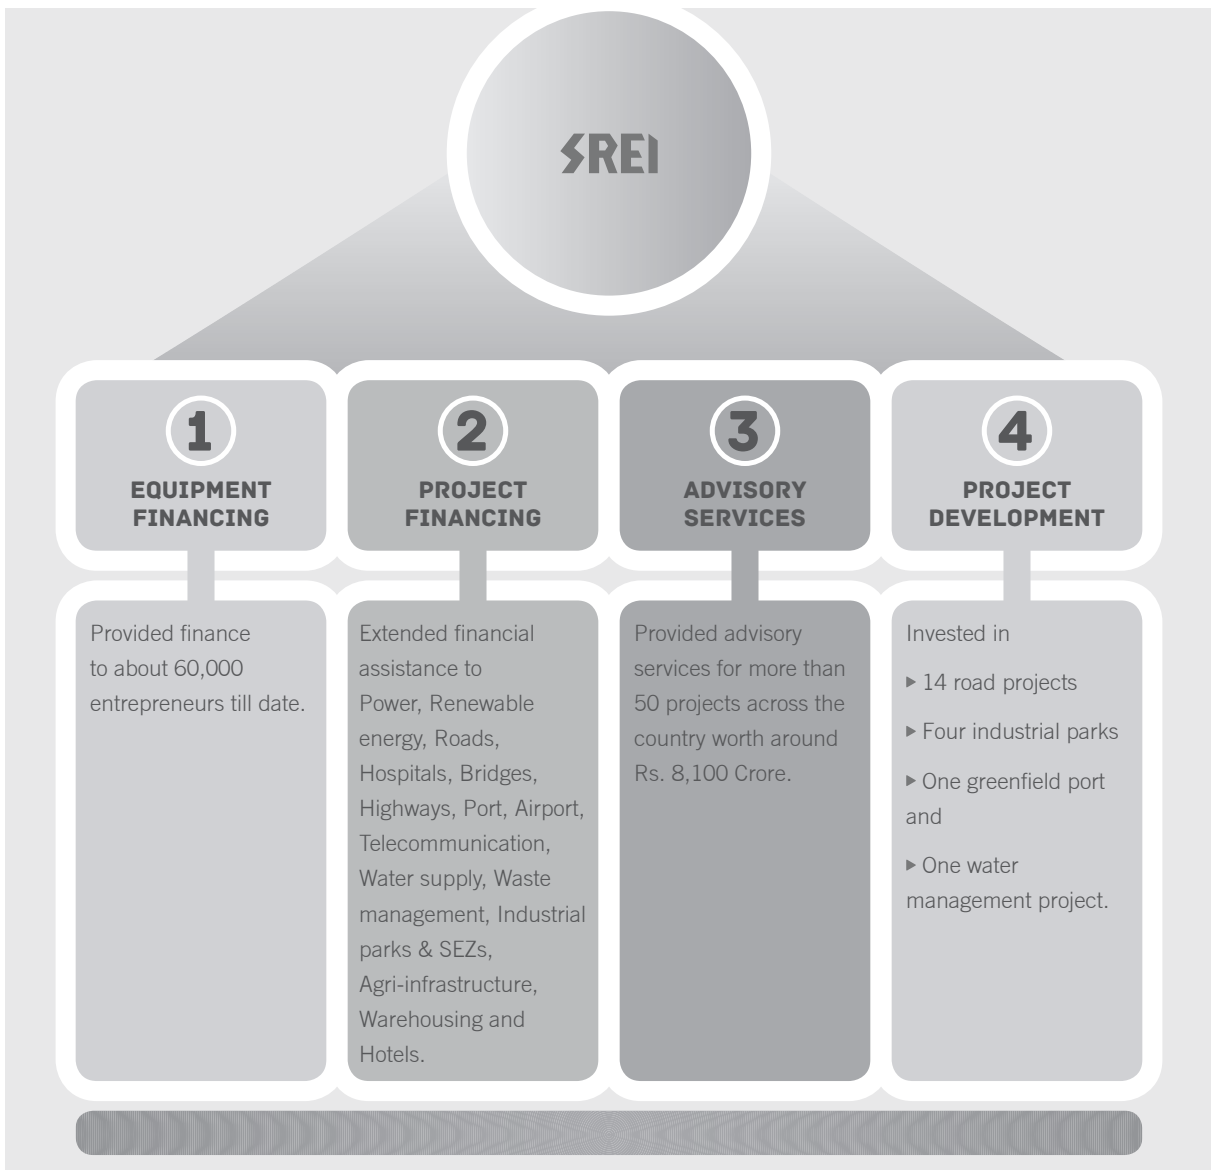

Shahidul Islam

Shahidul Islam entrepreneured with Sahaj in 2008, offering services like electricity bill payments and life insurance premium collection.

As G2C services increased (Cybergram, NDLM, e-inclusion, among others), Shahidul started offering such services to villagers. His Cybergram alone has helped provide computer education to 5,000 students across two madrasas in Murshidabad.

Entrepreneurship made rural transformation a reality.

SREI – PLAYING A PIVOTAL ROLE IN INDIA’S INFRASTRUCTURE DEVELOPMENT

SWACH – AN INITIATIVE BY SREI IN THE REALM OF INTEGRATED URBAN SOCIO-ENVIRONMENTAL MANAGEMENT

Urban areas are hotbeds of economic activity in India. They contribute around 60 per cent of the total GDP and this figure is estimated to increase to 75 per cent by 2030. This indicates that considerable pressure will be exerted on the infrastructure of existing cities and towns, and new urban settlements will take emerge to address incipient demands. The 73rd and 74th Amendments to the Indian Constitution have mandated the formation of a three-tiered structure at the government level when it comes to delivering services like water supply, sanitation and waste disposal, among others. Local administrative bodies will form the bottom rung of this governance structure and will be responsible for planning, developing and delivering these services with the help of the State and Central Governments. Recognising the need for the massive technical, financial and managerial bandwidth required to carry out these tasks, the Central Government has planned to support local administrative bodies by teaming up with private players. This provides immense opportunities for a company like ours to play a pivotal role in nation-building.

SWACH has been a direct result of Srei's proactive mindset and initiative. Incepted in 2012 to provide qualitatively consistent, cost-effective, sustainable and integrated urban and environmental management services, SWACH has growing steadily within this brief period.

Leveraging the entrepreneurial legacy of the Srei Group coupled with best-in-class professional and technical skills, SWACH has emerged as one-stop shop for executing socio-environmental projects in the EPC and PPP spaces. Case in point: Nangloi Water Services Private Limited – a joint venture of SWACH and Veolia. Under this PPP initiative, an agreement was signed with the Delhi Jal Board in 2013 to provide potable water in Nangloi and surrounding areas of New Delhi for 15 years for an investment of around Rs. 560 crore.

SWACH now aims to extend its footprint across India in association with its technology partners in the field of municipal and industrial water treatment, solid waste management, and energy generation from waste, among others. SWACH has identified partners like Veolia, IDE, Kyeryong Construction Industrial Company Limited, among others, to team up with and capitalise on their technical expertise. SWACH also intends to explore internal opportunities in Srei Group companies, working in the fields of SEZ, housing and other infrastructure sub-sectors.

With the Government of India expressing a fervent desire to take the level of urban services a few notches higher through various schemes like AMRUT, Swachh Bharat, Namami Gange and Smart Cities, SWACH and its partners are all set to emerge as key change-makers.

SWACH has emerged as one-stop-shop for executing socio-environmental projects in the EPC and PPP spaces.

HOW QUIPPPO IS FORGING MUTUALLY BENEFICIAL PARTNERSHIPS

Like its parent company Srei, Quippo believes that entrepreneurship is the driving force of business sustainability. This applies not only to stakeholders like vendors, business partners, suppliers and customers, but also our employees and associates. The Company's promoter firmly believes in empowering teams and individuals because the Company believes in betting big on people who are capable of winning the game single-handedly. It defines an entrepreneur as an empowered, self-sufficient business leader. The Company is fostering this brand of entrepreneurship across levels, in the following manner:

► Young leaders are given complete responsibility in their areas of work. Today, Quippo has eight GETs (graduate engineer trainees) who are being groomed for taking up greater responsibilities. These trainees have the opportunity and access to work in multiple areas during the training period. Upon gaining sufficient exposure, they are eligible to fast-track their careers by taking up operational, technical and/or business development roles. The result is that its GETs are advancing themselves to assistant driller roles. Its technical head is a fast-tracked GET from three batches ago. Current trainees are operating drilling rigs and also manning the head office control room on a 24/7 basis.

► The operating philosophy of the Company project management initiatives is to empower employees enough to undertake responsibilities – from order to execution. The business development team regularly engages with multiple stakeholders and identifies opportunities for showcasing proposals of diversification. It also undertakes measures to expand business verticals and enter MoUs, JVs and partnerships with external parties, driven by the fundamental principle of forging mutually beneficial partnerships. Consequently, Quippo has ventured to sign numerous such agreements and has entered the lucrative vertical of surface seismic acquisition services by providing rental equipment to players in the drilling industry. Furthermore, the team's integrated project management capabilities allow it cater to customers looking for a one-stop shop to execute their projects.

► A large part of Quippo's contracts entail engaging with third parties in diverse areas as manpower management, turnkey transportation, catering, laboratory operations and effluent treatment. This allows the Company to engage with local entrepreneurs, limit disruptions and promote the corporate social responsibility agenda.

► Quippo's supply chain management team focuses not only on optimising costs, but also on making the best procurement choices. The team takes into account the life-cycle of the product, servicing required during its life cycle, the acceptability of its products and services and above all, the total life-cycle cost to determine how to add the most possible value and enhance profitability.

Moreover, it regularly reminds itself of its 'startup roots' so as to retain focus on essential elements and prevent itself from becoming bureaucratic or inflated in size.

As a responsible corporate citizen, Quippo is reinforcing its ties with the community at large. Many businesses, small and big, driven by individuals, entrepreneurs and corporations are engaging with us. This partnership approach has served our business well and we expect to continue leveraging this to fulfil our aims.

INFRASTRUCTURE PROJECT DEVELOPMENT BUSINESS

Srei Infrastructure Project Development Business, with its presence across roads, ports, economic zones and water management, is a leading sponsor of Public-Private Partnership Projects Business in the infrastructure sector.

As one of India's leading highways concessionaires, the Project Development Business has an execution experience of 14 road projects worth Rs. 12,753 crore across 5,400 lane kilometres. The Company manages a well-diversified BOT Asset Portfolio of over 3,200 lane kilometres with a total capital cost of over Rs.

9,500 crore. These are completed, or ongoing, in consortium with reputed domestic and acclaimed international partners under the PPP framework.

These diverse mix of annuity and toll-based projects have been awarded by various State Governments, the National Highways Authority of India (NHAI) under the National Highways Development Programme (NHDP) and the Ministry of Road Transport & Highways.

Our usual partners are small and medium-sized contractors possessing a deep geographic and social understanding of the local terrain. Srei assisted their equipment financing requirements. More importantly, Srei provided the contractors with due credit and recognition in the project, enhancing their sense of ownership.

The result of this unseen strategy of transforming relatively unknown contractors into full-fledged project owners is that Srei's road construction projects are implemented faster than usual, advancing BOT revenues and accelerating payback.

MANAGEMENT DISCUSSION AND ANALYSIS REPORT ECONOMIC REVIEW

a. Global Outlook

According to the World Bank, global GDP will grow at 2.9 per cent in 2016, after growing at 2.4 per cent in 2015. Growth rate is expected to move up to 3.1 per cent in 2017. The estimates by International Monetary Fund (IMF) are a little more optimistic than the World Bank projections. IMF expects global economy to grow by 3.2 per cent in 2015 and by 3.5 per cent in 2016.

Global growth engines are following divergent economic policies. USA is experiencing continuous improvement in housing and labour markets, although the rising bond spreads suggest that markets are nervous about the sustainability of profits. Quantitative easing has stopped, but the Federal Reserve is willing to keep monetary conditions accommodative till there is a full-fledged recovery. However, the protectionist overtones from the Presidential election campaign do not augur well for global trade. In the Euro area, private consumption has picked up due to the liberal monetary policy and low oil price. Meanwhile, Europe tries to cope with a refugee crisis. The ramifications of a possible exit of Britain from the European Union are still unknown. Japan continues with expansionary monetary policy and has adopted a negative savings rate in order to fuel consumption. The Chinese economy continues to rebalance itself and is moving away from manufacturing and investment led growth towards a more services and consumption driven model. China's slowdown is creating pressure on Emerging and Developing Economies (EDEs), especially those with strong trade linkages with China.

Compared to previous years, the EDEs are no longer seen as drivers of global growth anymore. EDEs with financial imbalances are likely to be the worst affected. The IMF points towards the possibility of global economy entering a phase of widespread stagnation.

b. Indian Scenario

India is presently the fastest growing major economy in the world. IMF's global economic forecast has identified India as the "bright spot" amidst a bleak global economy. This year's Economic Survey describes India as a "refuge of stability and an outpost of opportunity" at a time of global turbulence and volatility. India grew 7.2 per cent in 2014-15 and 7.6 per cent (advance estimate) in 2015-16. For 2016-17, the Survey pegs the GDP growth at between 7 and 7.75 per cent, quite a broad range keeping in mind the interplay of a number of domestic and international factors.

The Government of India has done well in adhering to the fiscal targets, initiating a number of national schemes and structural reforms, expanding the scope of the direct benefit transfer scheme, re-starting stalled projects besides stepping up public investment in infrastructure projects and ushering in a sense of competitive federalism. Low international oil prices have helped in containing inflation and currency has also remained stable. Also, Foreign Direct Investment (FDI) figures are at an all-time high touching USD 51 billion during April-February 2015-16.

However, Indian economy has to deal with several challenges. Despite government's efforts to pump-prime the economy, the investment climate remains subdued. Cost of borrowing still remains high even when wholesale price index (WPI) inflation remains negative. With negative WPI inflation, nominal GDP is actually lower than real GDP, which is why even a 7 per cent plus GDP growth does not quite feel as much. With consumer price index (CPI) below the 5 per cent mark and the exports figures contracting 16 months in a row, industry is unwilling to invest in new capacities. For a Country like India where private sector accounts for nearly three-fourth of total output, the strategy to pump-prime the economy by Government is sub-optimal. Government borrowings crowd out private sector and push up interest rates. In addition, with India's debt-to-GDP ratio at around 65-70 per cent, which is higher than most EDEs, the public investment-led growth model may not be sustainable. The other limiting factor is the huge level of stressed assets that India's banking system is presently saddled with which has clearly limited their ability to provide credit to new ventures. Reserve Bank of India (RBI) has initiated a slew of measures to reduce the level of stress, however a full-fledged recovery in banking may take some time. To push ahead reforms, the Government of India needs to get a few key Bills passed in both Houses of the Parliament, the Goods & Services Tax (GST) Bill being one of them. The passing of the Bankruptcy Code by both houses has been a major development.

Therefore, India definitely has an edge over its peers at the present juncture. However, there is a need to push through certain key reforms urgently in order to hold on to this advantage and then build on it.

NBFCs IN INDIA

NBFCs have always been an integral part of the Indian financial system. They have been complementing and supplementing the banking sector in reaching out credit to the un-banked segments of the society thus promoting financial inclusion, and over the years their gamut of activity has kept on expanding, so much so, that the difference between the banks and NBFCs is getting blurred. The biggest contribution of NBFCs is their ability to cater to the needs of the Micro, Small & Medium Enterprises (MSMEs) which form the cradle of entrepreneurship and innovation in India. After all, it is these MSMEs, scattered throughout the Country, account for nearly 40 per cent of India's total employment and form the backbone of the India Growth Story. NBFCs, because of their ground level understanding of customers' profile and their credit needs and their ability to innovate and customise products as per their clients' needs, are the perfect conduit for credit delivery to MSMEs.

The year under review witnessed several regulatory developments for the NBFC sector. The major ones are the following -

- NBFC Infrastructure Debt Funds (NBFC-IDFs) have been allowed by RBI to:
 - refinance non-PPP infrastructure projects too (earlier they were restricted to refinance only PPP projects)
 - provide take-out financing for infrastructure projects that have completed one year of operation in PPP segment without a tripartite agreement
 - provide take-out financing for infrastructure projects in non-PPP segment subject to conditions
 - enter sectors where there is no presence of any project authority provided those are infrastructure projects which have completed at least one year of satisfactory commercial operation

- Central Board of Direct Taxes (CBDT) widened the scope of tax exemption for NBFC-IDFs provided infrastructure projects have completed one year of commercial operation
- NBFCs with minimum asset size of Rs. 100 crore will have to maintain a loan-to-value (LTV) ratio of 50 per cent in case of lending against collateral of listed shares (not applicable in case of unlisted shares)
- RBI released draft guidelines on 'Managing Risks and Code of Conduct in Outsourcing of Financial Services by NBFCs' in order to put in place adequate safeguards for addressing the risks involved therein and to bring compliance levels in line with the recommendations of the Financial Sector Legislative Reforms Commission (FSLRC)
- NBFC registered with RBI are eligible to undertake Repo transactions in corporate debt securities
- Prior written permission from RBI is now needed for any takeover or acquisition of control, any change in shareholding resulting in 26 per cent or more as well as any change in management of an NBFC
- RBI has allowed NBFCs to retain 'standard asset' tag on a restructured loan for an extended period if an infrastructure project is mired in Court cases or has been stuck due to reasons beyond control of promoters

- RBI has allowed NBFCs to upgrade credit facilities to borrowing entities whose ownership has changed outside Strategic Debt Restructuring (SDR) to 'standard' category upon such change in ownership
- National Investment & Infrastructure Fund (NIIF), mooted by Ministry of Finance (MoF), has been allowed to provide equity / quasi-equity support to NBFCs engaged mainly in infrastructure lending so that these institutions can leverage their equity support and provide debt to the selected projects
- Under the roadmap for implementation of Indian Accounting Standards (Ind AS) converged with International Financial Reporting Standards (IFRS), NBFCs with net worth of Rs. 500 crore and above are to adopt Ind AS in two phases from April 01, 2018 onwards
- RBI floated a draft framework for account aggregator NBFCs
- External Commercial Borrowing (ECB) norms stand liberalised for NBFCs :
 - ECB funds raised can be used to fund domestic equipment for the purpose of giving the same on hire-purchase, as loans against hypothecation or leasing to infrastructure sector

- NBFCs, namely the Infrastructure Finance Companies (NBFC-IFCs) and Asset Finance Companies (NBFC-AFCs), are allowed to raise ECB with minimum average maturity of 5 years subject to 100 per cent hedging
- Harmonised list of infrastructure sectors has been expanded to include exploration, mining and refining so that ECB funds can be used for these activities too.

The evolving regulatory landscape for the NBFCs has seen a trend of convergence with that of banks on the asset side. While banks are good at lending, NBFC's strength is in providing assets and assisting in management of assets. Regulators need to acknowledge this differentiation and accordingly provide regulatory support so that NBFCs can carry out their functions more efficiently. Your Company has been in a regular dialogue with Government and various regulatory agencies and has been urging for necessary regulatory support for NBFCs. The announcement in Union Budget 2016-17 to allow NBFCs to be eligible for deduction of up to 5 per cent of their income in respect of provision for bad and doubtful debts is a very positive development.

The passing of the Bankruptcy Code is likely to open up major opportunities for the NBFC sector, especially the NBFC-IFCs. There are many infrastructure assets in the Country today which have got stuck because of inadequate governance and various judicial pronouncements. The promoters, because of the lack of management bandwidth, were unable to control and mitigate the associated risks. The Bankruptcy Code will pave the way for a change in management in many such stuck infrastructure projects and create value. NBFC-IFCs, with their expertise, are poised to play an important role in reviving such projects. Most such projects being completed up to a certain extent, the associated construction risk is also limited. NBFC-IFCs can ideally take over management control of such projects in their bid to turn them around. Your Company will certainly explore such opportunities.

Once GST gets implemented, it is expected to revive Leasing as a major financial instrument in India. Despite being the most cost effective tool for capital creation the world over, Leasing has not quite developed in India because of a lack of understanding about its nature among the policy makers. Leasing transactions have been interpreted both as a sale and a service and thus multiple taxes have been levied on it thereby destroying its efficacy. As a result, the penetration of Leasing in India has been dismally low compared to both developed and developing nations. Introduction of GST is expected to take care of the tax anomaly and your Company believes Leasing will make a strong comeback and will play a major role in creation of infrastructure assets. NBFC-AFCs stand to gain majorly as Leasing will add a major tool at their disposal to expand their gamut of activities. High value capital goods can become accessible and affordable to the vast multitude of MSMEs who constitute the building blocks of Indian infrastructure. Financing of assets like equipment (construction, mining, material handling), railway wagons, solar gadgets, wind turbines, oil rigs, etc. will become easier. In addition, funds from the Middle East, which prefer Leasing as a financing tool, will also be encouraged to invest in India. Leasing figures prominently in the scheme of things of your Company and all these developments will open up major opportunities for your Company.

BUSINESS OUTLOOK AND FUTURE PLANS

The infrastructure sector is the backbone of the economy. The Government is aware that in order to take advantage of the present global scenario, India would need to massively add to the carrying capacity of its physical infrastructure. To make that happen, the Government has announced a number of infrastructure-focussed steps which will open up a number of business opportunities. Some of the notable steps announced are :

- Average pace of construction of national highways to go up to 41 km per day in 2016-17 from the average of 16 km per day in 2015-16. Road Transport and Highways Ministry will award contracts for 25,000 km national highway projects in 2016-17, two-and-a-half times more than the projects it had sanctioned in 2015-16.
- With the aim of enabling 'Power for All by 2019', the Government is implementing a series of reforms in generation, transmission & distribution and renewable energy, right from stepping up of coal production to launching of Ujjwal Discom Assurance Yojana (UDAY) and a thrust to renewable energy, especially solar power.
- Private sector participation in creation of railways infrastructure to increase – especially in areas of setting up of logistics parks and warehouses, development of stations, track upgradation, creation of three new Dedicated Freight Corridors (DFCs), improvement of coastal connectivity and port connectivity, etc.
- Port capacity is to be go up to 3,000 million tonne per annum (MTPA) by 2025, more than double from the present level of 1,400 MTPA.
- 160 non-functional airports and 10 defunct airstrips are to be developed to provide a fillip to low-cost airports.
- The incentives announced in Union Budget 2016-17 for low-cost housing are likely to generate mass demand.
- The budget, besides sprucing up rural infrastructure, has provided a strong thrust to the entire agricultural value chain right from irrigation to market access of agri-produce which will translate into greater demand from the rural areas.

The Government is aware that in order to take advantage of the present global scenario, India would need to massively add to the carrying capacity of its physical infrastructure.

The Government realizes how important it is to put in place an infrastructure dispute resolution mechanism in order to put PPP in Infrastructure back on track.

Private sector has played an important role in India's infrastructure creation and public-private partnerships (PPPs) have emerged as the preferred mode. However, several of such projects have got mired in long standing disputes. The Government realizes how important it is to put in place an infrastructure dispute resolution mechanism in order to put PPP in Infrastructure back on track. To this effect, a proposal to introduce a Bill on resolution of infrastructure-related disputes has been mooted in the Union Budget 2016-17. New guidelines for renegotiation of PPP concession agreements and to a new credit rating system for infrastructure projects have also been proposed in the budget.

All these initiatives and targets augur well for the future of the infrastructure sector. However, the future momentum of infrastructure growth will be greatly influenced by how well Government can get into the implementation part.

Your Company is actively tracking all these developments and the management is upbeat that the business scenario is poised to improve significantly during FY 2016-17.

BUSINESS REVIEW

The three main business activities of your Company are categorised as Fund based, Fee based and Strategic Investments.

I. FUND BASED ACTIVITIES INFRASTRUCTURE PROJECT FINANCE

Infrastructure is the major sector in India which propels overall development of the Country. Government's initiatives to fast track infrastructure development led to improved performance for most sectors in 2014-15. Power sector over-achieved its targets both for capacity addition as well as for transmission lines laid at 127 per cent and 106 per cent respectively. Coal production also reported a growth of 8 per cent over 2013-14. Roads sector achieved almost 70 per cent of its completion target. In terms of project award, almost 94 per cent of the target of 8,500 km was achieved. Railways also over-achieved its targets with more than 100 per cent achievement for both new lines constructed and doubling of existing lines. The ports sector achieved 87 per cent of its target in terms of completion of ongoing projects and 71 per cent in terms of award and approval of new projects. India witnessed strong tendering in roadways, railways, community services, and irrigation projects. Total value of tenders issued in YTD FY 2015-16 for infrastructure projects stood at Rs. 5790 bn (+56.9 per cent YoY). Central Government tenders increased to Rs. 2419 bn (+53 per cent YoY) and private domestic tenders increased to Rs. 13.7 bn whereas State Government tenders in YTD FY 2015-16 increased to Rs. 3356 bn (+67 per cent YoY).

Power

Indian power sector is undergoing a significant change that has redefined the industry outlook. The Indian power sector has an investment potential of Rs. 15 trillion (US$ 237 billion) in the next 4–5 years, thereby providing immense opportunities in power generation, distribution, transmission, and equipment, according to Union Minister – Power.

Your Company has allocated around 37 per cent of its total allocation to this sector diversified into generation and transmission & distribution. Generation is further split into coal / gas based thermal power, wind power, solar power and biomass, thereby diversifying the concentration risk. Your Company has invested 17 per cent of its total power sector investment in renewable energy sector.

Roads

India has the second largest road network in the world. After almost coming to a standstill, the road sector is showing signs of revival drawing on several policy measures announced by the Government over the last 18 months. Concerted efforts by the Government to restart stuck projects by providing necessary clearances, launch of the hybrid annuity model and creation of the NIIF have helped in reviving growth in the sector.

During the year, your Company has selectively participated in financing road projects by National Highway Authority of India (NHAI) and State Authorities. Your Company has allocated about 17 per cent of its total allocation to this sector.

Ports and Port Equipment

According to the Ministry of Shipping, around 95 per cent of India's trading by volume and 70 per cent by value is done through maritime transport. India has 12 major and 187 non-major ports. Cargo traffic, which recorded 1,052 million metric tonnes (MMT) in 2015, is expected to reach 1,758 MMT by 2017.

Your Company has exposure to this sector by financial participation in a mix of major ports, minor ports and captive ports. The port sector now comprises around 2 per cent of the portfolio.

Telecommunications

India is currently the world's second-largest telecommunications market. Your Company has structured financing packages that include investment in telecom towers, and rural connectivity and telecom sector now comprises around 3 per cent of the portfolio.

Aviation and Airports

The Indian Aviation industry is the 9th largest globally. Your Company has exposure in the aviation sector comprising of about 5 per cent of the portfolio and is willing to take additional exposure to cash in the growth opportunity in the sector.

SEZ & Industrial Parks

The Special Economic Zone (SEZ) policy was introduced by the Government of India in year 2000 to overcome the shortcomings of the Export Processing Zones (EPZ) like size, infrastructure constraints, location handicaps and lack of policy framework.

As on March 2016, 415 formal approvals have been granted for setting up of Special Economic Zones, out of which 329 SEZs have been notified and are in various stages of operation out of which 205 are operational.

During the year, your Company has selectively participated in financing projects in this sector. Your Company has allocated about 19 per cent of its total allocation to this sector.

INFRASTRUCTURE EQUIPMENT FINANCE - SREI EQUIPMENT FINANCE LIMITED

Srei Equipment Finance Limited (SEFL), a joint venture between your Company and BNP Paribas Lease Group, is registered with RBI as a non-deposit taking NBFC (Category - Asset Finance) and is in the business of equipment financing with a wide spectrum of asset finance business which includes Construction & Mining equipment, Information Technology equipment and Solutions, Healthcare equipment and Farm Equipment.

SEFL retained its position as one of the leading equipment financier in India in the year under review with a disbursement of asset cost of Rs. 10,940 Crores.

The past few quarters have witnessed a slew of reformative actions by the Government, especially in the road and power segment, which have given the much needed impetus to the industry. There has been marked improvement in pace of project awarding and execution. Already there have been encouraging signals in the demand for construction and mining equipment. The infrastructure equipment market grew approximately 10 per cent in 2015-16 (unit sales). In the recent union budget too, infrastructure has been a priority for Government's spending outlay - indicated by total outlay for infrastructure being increased to Rs. 3.4 trillion in Budget 2016.

According to an Indian Construction Equipment Manufacturers' Association report, the equipment industry is expected to reach its (high) sales level of FY 2012 (70,000 units) by FY 2019. The report predicts the industry to grow to USD 5 billion by 2019-20 from the present level of USD 2.8 billion. Hence, the renewed impetus on infrastructure will be the major demand driver for Construction and Mining equipment in the near future.

During the year under review, the total disbursements in terms of asset cost of Srei Equipment Finance Limited outperformed the industry and grew by 18 per cent. The Gross Non-Performing Assets (GNPA) reduced from 4.98 per cent as on 31st March, 2015 to 2.95 per cent as on 31st March, 2016, while the Net Non-Performing Assets have reduced from 3.83 per cent as on 31st March, 2015 to 1.99 per cent as on 31st March, 2016. The Capital Adequacy Ratio (CAR) has improved from 17.05 per cent as on 31st March, 2015 to 19.62 per cent as on 31st March, 2016.

However, the overall slowdown in the infra space resulted in increased stress in the Indian financial system, which led to declining profit before tax from Rs. 227.36 crores in 2014-15 to Rs. 160.43 crores during the year.

Rural, Pre-owned & Retail have continued to be the growth drivers for the year. IT infrastructure platforms have been strengthened to facilitate time-critical and proactive decision-making.

The view for the year ahead is to grow with quality focus on vendor alliances. To scale up Retail Small and Medium Enterprise (RSME) business space to expand market & retain market leadership, while improving market presence other diversified businesses. SEFL will continue to focus on technology implementation, product & process innovation which will give competitive advantage in the changing business environment.

III. STRATEGIC INVESTMENTS

The global economy shows no sign of recovery and therefore, IMF has lowered the projected global growth forecast to 3.4 per cent and 3.6 per cent for 2016 and 2017 respectively (Source: IMF). The primary reasons are uncertainty in commodity market, volatile global financial market, and weaker than expected economic data in US. Investors have become cautious about the emerging markets as well mainly due to slow down in Chinese economy, and impact of depressed oil prices on Brazil & Russian economies.

Despite uncertain market conditions, the major demand drivers remain strong in India due to population growth, rising disposable income and focus on infrastructure creation. The Indian Government has pronounced major policy reforms to wean Indian economy from global uncertainties, push industrialisation through Make-in-India program, and promote entrepreneurship through Start-up-India program. The Indian economy growth during FY 2016-17 is projected to be 7.6 per cent (Source: RBI). The Indian Government is continuously focusing on rolling-out newer structural reforms to promote productivity and competitiveness through Skill India

Program, achieve its fiscal targets and boost infrastructure. The MET department has projected above normal monsoon which coupled with lower oil prices will keep inflation under control and will provide RBI the opportunity to lower interest rates more aggressively in future. Robust structural reforms, softening of interest rates and comfortable liquidity position is expected to brighten the investment climate in the Country.

During the year under review, your Company divested its entire stake in Viom Networks Limited. Pioneering the concept of tower sharing in India at a time when all telecom operators were building and operating their own captive towers, the group established its tower business in 2005 with only 50 towers. Between 2006 to 2008, the tower business grew to around 5,000 towers through organic growth and acquisition of Spice telecom towers. In 2009, by way of merging its tower business with that of the wholly owned subsidiary of Tata Teleservices Limited (a Tata Group entity), Viom was created with around 18,000 towers. Viom continued to grow organically over the next few years to cross 40,000 towers by 2011-12. Viom also successfully weathered the challenges the sector faced in 2012-13 due to cancellation of 122 Mobile Network Operator (MNO) licenses and emerged as the largest independent telecom tower company in the Country. Viom has a pan-India presence and commands industry's highest tenancy ratio of 2.62x with an estimated EBIDTA of over Rs. 2000 crore for the twelve month period ending March 31, 2016. The stake sale of Viom was consummated on April 21, 2016. This is a testament to your Company's astute investment management, wherein your Company was not only able to attract a global leader like American Tower Corporation (ATC) to become majority shareholder in Viom, but was also able to create significant value for all its shareholders.

During the year, your Company also negotiated with BNP Paribas Lease Group (BPLG) to buy its entire 50 per cent shareholding in the joint venture company, Srei Equipment Finance Limited. Your Company has continuously focused on enhancing the portfolio value of its investments through differentiated capabilities, new approach and realigning its processes and systems in line with the best practices and the prevailing market conditions. Given the positive economic scenario, your Company is putting continuous efforts to explore further divestment opportunities of its portfolio to realize better value.

Your Company's investment encompasses infrastructure sector such as transportation, energy, special economic zone & industrial parks, urban infra and social infrastructure. The Indian Government is formulating newer policy reforms, providing higher budgetary support and focusing on ease of doing business to create business environment which has led to speedier project awards & execution in the infrastructure sector. The various ministries have set ambitious target for FY 2016-17, which coupled with RBI policy on 5/25 structures will promote investments in new and stalled projects. Your Company expects that the Indian Government will create the right economic environment during FY 2016-17 and will encourage foreign investment in infrastructure sector. Infrastructure sector provides long term attractive investment opportunities to global investors in emerging economy such as India. Your Company expects better economic condition in India compared to other BRICS countries during FY 2016-17 and will continue to scout for right opportunities to unlock true value in its investments.

Your Company will embrace innovative management practices, empower cross-functional teams and standardise processes to optimise the existing resources while minimising the cost which in return will enhance shareholder returns on its investment portfolio.

ANNEXURE 2 TO THE INDEPENDENT AUDITOR'S REPORT

[Referred to in paragraph (2)f under 'Report on Other Legal and Regulatory Requirements' in our Independent Auditor's Report of even date, to the members of the Company on the standalone financial statements for the year ended 31st March , 2016]

Report on the Internal Financial Controls over Financial Reporting under Clause (i) of Sub-section 3 of Section 143 of the Companies Act, 2013 ("the Act")

We have audited the internal financial controls over financial reporting of the Company as of 31st March, 2016 in conjunction with our audit of the standalone financial statements of the Company for the year ended on that date.

Management's Responsibility for Internal Financial Controls

The Company's Board of Directors is responsible for establishing and maintaining internal financial controls, based on the internal control over financial reporting criteria established by the Company, considering the essential components of internal control stated in the Guidance Note on Audit of Internal Financial Controls Over Financial Reporting (the "Guidance Note") issued by the Institute of Chartered Accountants of India ("ICAI"). These responsibilities include the design, implementation and maintenance of adequate internal financial controls, that were operating effectively for ensuring the orderly and efficient conduct of its business, including adherence to company's policies, the safeguarding of its assets, the prevention and detection of frauds and errors, the accuracy and completeness of the accounting records, and the timely preparation of reliable financial information, as required under the Act.

Auditor's Responsibility

Our responsibility is to express an opinion on the Company's internal financial controls over financial reporting based on our audit. We conducted our audit in accordance with the Guidance Note and the Standards on Auditing specified under section 143(10) of the Act to the extent applicable to an audit of internal financial controls, both issued by the ICAI. Those Standards and the Guidance Note require that we comply with ethical requirements and plan and perform the audit to obtain reasonable assurance about whether adequate internal financial controls over financial reporting were established and maintained and if such controls operated effectively in all material respects.

Our audit involves performing procedures to obtain audit evidence about the adequacy of the internal financial controls system over financial reporting and their operating effectiveness. Our audit of internal financial controls over financial reporting included obtaining an understanding of internal financial controls over financial reporting, assessing the risk that a material weakness exists, and testing and evaluating the design and operating effectiveness of internal control based on the assessed risk. The procedures selected depend on the auditor's judgement, including the assessment of the risks of material misstatement of the financial statements, whether due to fraud or error.

We believe that the audit evidence we have obtained is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our audit opinion on the Company's internal financial controls system over financial reporting.

Meaning of Internal Financial Controls Over Financial Reporting

A company's internal financial control over financial reporting is a process designed to provide reasonable assurance regarding the reliability of financial reporting and the preparation of financial statements for external purposes in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles. A company's internal financial control over financial reporting includes those policies and procedures that (1) pertain to the maintenance of records that, in reasonable detail, accurately and fairly reflect the transactions and dispositions of the assets of the company; (2) provide reasonable assurance that transactions are recorded as necessary to permit preparation of financial statements in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles, and that receipts and expenditures of the company are being made only in accordance with authorisations of management and directors of the company; and (3) provide reasonable assurance regarding prevention or timely detection of unauthorised acquisition, use, or disposition of the company's assets that could have a material effect on the financial statements.

Inherent Limitations of Internal Financial Controls Over Financial Reporting

Because of the inherent limitations of internal financial controls over financial reporting, including the possibility of collusion or improper management override of controls, material misstatements due to error or fraud may occur and not be detected. Also, projections of any evaluation of the internal financial controls over financial reporting to future periods are subject to the risk that the internal financial controls over financial reporting may become inadequate because of changes in conditions, or that the degree of compliance with the policies or procedures may deteriorate.

In our opinion, the Company has, in all material respects, an adequate internal financial controls system over financial reporting and such internal financial controls over financial reporting were operating effectively as at 31st March, 2016, based on the internal control over financial reporting criteria established by the Company, considering the essential components of internal control stated in the Guidance Note issued by the ICAI.

SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES

Deferred tax reflects the impact of timing differences between taxable income and accounting income for the current reporting year and reversal of timing differences of earlier years.

Deferred tax is measured based on the tax rates and the tax laws enacted or substantively enacted at the Balance Sheet date. Deferred tax assets and deferred tax liabilities are offset, if a legally enforceable right exists to set off current tax assets against current tax liabilities. The deferred tax assets and deferred tax liabilities relate to the taxes on income levied by the same governing taxation laws. Deferred tax assets are recognised only to the extent that there is reasonable certainty that sufficient future taxable income will be available against which such deferred tax assets can be realised. In situations where the Company has unabsorbed depreciation or carry forward tax losses, all deferred tax assets are recognised only if there is virtual certainty supported by convincing evidence that they can be realised against future taxable profits.

At each Balance Sheet date, the Company re-assesses unrecognised deferred tax assets. It recognises unrecognised deferred tax assets to the extent that it has become reasonably certain or virtually certain, as the case may be, that sufficient future taxable income will be available against which such deferred tax assets can be realised.

MAT credit is recognised as an asset only when and to the extent there is convincing evidence that the Company will pay normal income tax during the specified period. In the year in which the MAT credit becomes eligible to be recognised as an asset in accordance with the recommendations contained in guidance note issued by The Institute of Chartered Accountants of India, the said asset is created by way of a credit to the Statement of Profit and Loss and shown as MAT Credit Entitlement. The Company reviews the same at each Balance Sheet date and writes down the carrying amount of MAT Credit Entitlement to the extent there is no longer convincing evidence to the effect that the Company will pay normal income tax during the specified period.

Based on the risks and returns associated with business operations and in terms of Accounting Standard-17 (Segment Reporting), the Company is predominantly engaged in a single reportable segment of 'Financial Services'.

1.17 Provision, Contingent Liabilities and Contingent Assets

A provision is recognised when the Company has a present obligation as a result of past event and it is probable that an outflow of resources will be required to settle the obligation, in respect of which a reliable estimate can be made. Provisions are not discounted to their present value and are determined based on best estimate required to settle the obligation at the Balance Sheet date. These are reviewed at each Balance Sheet date and adjusted to reflect the current best estimates. Contingent Liabilities are not recognised but are disclosed in the notes to financial statements. Contingent Assets are neither recognised nor disclosed in the financial statements.

1.18 Earnings Per Share (EPS)

Basic EPS is calculated by dividing the net profit or loss for the period attributable to equity shareholders by the weighted average number of equity shares outstanding during the year.

For the purpose of calculating diluted EPS, the net profit or loss for the period attributable to equity shareholders and the weighted average number of shares outstanding during the period are adjusted for the effects of all dilutive potential equity shares.

1.19 Assets under Management

Contracts securitised, assigned or co-branded are derecognised from the books of accounts. Contingent liabilities thereof, if any, are disclosed separately in the notes to financial statements.

The Company has an investment of Rs. 1,076.06 Lacs (Previous year Rs. 1,051 Lacs) in the shares of Sahaj e-village Limited ("Sahaj"), an Associate of the Company in terms of Accounting Standard 23, "Accounting for Investments in Associates in Consolidated Financial Statements". Further, the Company has advanced loans amounting to Rs. 25,985 Lacs (Previous year Rs. 20,937 Lacs) to Sahaj.

Sahaj is a long-gestation rural distribution & e-governance initiative and due to the accumulated losses, its net worth has eroded as at 31st March, 2016. However, Sahaj has informed the Company that it has taken a number of steps as part of a revamped business plan viz. substantial cost rationalization, business expansion in new geographies and introduction of newer services etc., results of which have started showing over the last few months and its performance is expected to improve significantly over the coming years and that it shall continue to be a going concern in the foreseeable future.

Considering the long-term strategic nature of the investment and also in view of the revamped business plan of Sahaj as enumerated above, no provision is considered necessary by the Company at present, for any diminution in the value of investment and against loans advanced to Sahaj.

14. Disclosures on Risk Exposure in Derivatives(i) Qualitative Disclosure

The structure and organization for management of risk in derivatives trading, is not applicable since the Company is not engaged in derivative trading.

Besides other market risks / core functions, Asset Liability Committee (ALCO) manages the Foreign Currency and Interest Rate Risks also. The company has put in place the policies for hedging / mitigating risks / strategies and processes for continuous monitoring of risks, which will enable the company to quantify risk, both on account of Foreign Currency and Interest Rate Risks. Apart from ALCO there is a Risk Committee of the Board which guides the company in these risks.

The Board has delegated authority to company officials in the Forex Treasury department for entering into Generic derivative products besides Forward Contracts, on behalf of the company, to hedge the Foreign Currency and Interest Rate Risk exposures.

The company has a Market Risk Policy which paves the way for risk reporting and risk monitoring systems. The marked-to-market values are obtained from the banks with whom the hedge deals are done.

The Company, in order to hedge itself against the adverse impact of fluctuations in foreign currency rates / variable interest benchmark on underlying liability, enters into the derivative contracts in the nature of forward exchange contracts. The Company does not enter into derivative contracts for speculation or trading purposes. Derivate contracts which are closely linked to the existing assets and liabilities are accounted for as per the policy stated for foreign currency transactions and translation.

In accordance with the ICAI announcement, derivative contracts, other than foreign currency forward contracts covered under AS 11, are "marked to market" on a portfolio basis, and the net loss, if any, after considering the offsetting effect of gain on the underlying hedged item, is charged to the Statement of Profit and Loss. Net gain, if any, after considering the offsetting effect of loss on the underlying hedged item, is ignored. The Company believes that the above treatment reflects the true effect of the hedge and also reflects the economic substance of the impact of derivative contracts.

The premium or discount arising at the inception of forward exchange contracts is amortised as expense or income over the life of the respective contracts. Exchange differences on such contracts are recognised in the Statement of Profit and Loss in the year in which the exchange rates change. Any profit or loss arising on cancellation or renewal of forward exchange contract is recognised as income or expense in the year in which it is cancelled or renewed.

ANNEXURE TO THE INDEPENDENT AUDITOR'S REPORT

[Referred to in paragraph (2)f under 'Report on Other Legal and Regulatory Requirements' in our Independent Auditor's Report of even date, to the members of the Holding Company on the consolidated financial statements for the year ended 31st March, 2016]

Report on the Internal Financial Controls over Financial Reporting under Clause (i) of Sub-section 3 of Section 143 of the Companies Act, 2013 ("the Act")

In conjunction with our audit of the consolidated financial statements of the Holding Company as of and for the year ended 31st March, 2016, we have audited the internal financial controls over financial reporting of the Group, its associates and jointly controlled entity, which are companies incorporated in India, as of that date.

Management's Responsibility for Internal Financial Controls

The respective Board of Directors of the entities of the Group, its associates and jointly controlled entity, which are companies incorporated in India, are responsible for establishing and maintaining internal financial controls based on the internal control over financial reporting criteria established by the Holding Company, considering the essential components of internal control stated in the Guidance Note on Audit of Internal Financial Controls Over Financial Reporting (the "Guidance Note") issued by the Institute of Chartered Accountants of India ("ICAI"). These responsibilities include the design, implementation and maintenance of adequate internal financial controls that were operating effectively for ensuring the orderly and efficient conduct of business, including adherence to the respective company's policies, the safeguarding of assets, the prevention and detection of frauds and errors, the accuracy and completeness of the accounting records, and the timely preparation of reliable financial information, as required under the Companies Act, 2013.

Auditors' Responsibility

Our responsibility is to express an opinion on the Holding Company's internal financial controls over financial reporting based on our audit. We conducted our audit in accordance with the Guidance Note and the Standards on Auditing specified under section 143(10) of the Act, to the extent applicable to an audit of internal financial controls, both issued by the ICAI. Those Standards and the Guidance Note require that we comply with ethical requirements and plan and perform the audit to obtain reasonable assurance about whether adequate internal financial controls over financial reporting were established and maintained and if such controls operated effectively in all material respects.

Our audit involves performing procedures to obtain audit evidence about the adequacy of the internal financial controls system over financial reporting and their operating effectiveness. Our audit of internal financial controls over financial reporting included obtaining an understanding of internal financial controls over financial reporting, assessing the risk that a material weakness exists, and testing and evaluating the design and operating effectiveness of internal control based on the assessed risk. The procedures selected depend on the auditor's judgement, including the assessment of the risks of material misstatement of the financial statements, whether due to fraud or error.

We believe that the audit evidence we have obtained and the audit evidence obtained by the other auditors in terms of their reports referred to in the Other Matters paragraph below, is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our audit opinion on the Holding Company's internal financial controls system over financial reporting.

Meaning of Internal Financial Controls Over Financial Reporting

A company's internal financial control over financial reporting is a process designed to provide reasonable assurance regarding the reliability of financial reporting and the preparation of financial statements for external purposes in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles. A company's internal financial control over financial reporting includes those policies and procedures that (1) pertain to the maintenance of records that, in reasonable detail, accurately and fairly reflect the transactions and dispositions of the assets of the company; (2) provide reasonable assurance that transactions are recorded as necessary to permit preparation of financial statements in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles, and that receipts and expenditures of the company are being made only in accordance with authorisations of management and directors of the company; and (3) provide reasonable assurance regarding prevention or timely detection of unauthorised acquisition, use, or disposition of the company's assets that could have a material effect on the financial statements.

Inherent Limitations of Internal Financial Controls Over Financial Reporting

Because of the inherent limitations of internal financial controls over financial reporting, including the possibility of collusion or improper management override of controls, material misstatements due to error or fraud may occur and not be detected. Also, projections of any evaluation of the internal financial controls over financial reporting to future periods are subject to the risk that the internal financial controls over financial reporting may become inadequate because of changes in conditions, or that the degree of compliance with the policies or procedures may deteriorate.

Opinion

In our opinion, the Group, its associates and jointly controlled entity, which are companies incorporated in India, have, in all material respects, an adequate internal financial controls system over financial reporting and such internal financial controls over financial reporting were operating effectively as at 31st March , 2016, based on the internal control over financial reporting criteria established by the Holding Company, considering the essential components of internal control stated in the Guidance Note issued by the ICAI.

Other Matters

Our aforesaid report under Section 143(3)(i) of the Act on the adequacy and operating effectiveness of the internal financial controls over financial reporting, in so far as it relates to fifteen subsidiaries, two associates and the jointly controlled entity of the Holding Company, which are companies incorporated in India, is based on the corresponding reports of the auditors of such companies incorporated in India.

Net gain, if any, after considering the offsetting effect of loss on the underlying hedged item, is ignored as a matter of prudence. The Company believes that the above treatment reflects the true effect of the hedge and also reflects the economic substance of the impact of derivative contracts.

Deferred tax reflects the impact of timing differences between taxable income and accounting income for the current period and reversal of timing differences of earlier years.

Deferred tax is measured based on the tax rates and the tax laws enacted or substantively enacted at the Balance Sheet date. Deferred tax assets and deferred tax liabilities are offset, if a legally enforceable right exists to set off current tax assets against current tax liabilities. The deferred tax assets and deferred tax liabilities relate to the taxes on income levied by the same governing taxation laws. Deferred tax assets are recognised only to the extent that there is reasonable certainty that sufficient future taxable income will be available against which such deferred tax assets can be realised. In situations where the company has unabsorbed depreciation or carry forward tax losses, all deferred tax assets are recognised only if there is virtual certainty supported by convincing evidence that they can be realised against future taxable profits.

At each Balance Sheet date, the Company re-assesses unrecognised deferred tax assets. It recognises unrecognised deferred tax assets to the extent that it has become reasonably certain or virtually certain, as the case may be, that sufficient future taxable income will be available against which such deferred tax assets can be realised.

MAT credit is recognised as an asset only when and to the extent there is convincing evidence that the Company will pay normal income tax during the specified period. In the period in which the MAT credit becomes eligible to be recognised as an asset in accordance with the recommendations contained in guidance note issued by The Institute of Chartered Accountants of India, the said asset is created by way of a credit to the Statement of Profit and Loss and shown as MAT Credit Entitlement. The Company reviews the same at each Balance Sheet date and writes down the carrying amount of MAT Credit Entitlement to the extent there is no longer convincing evidence to the effect that the Company will pay normal income tax during the specified period.
