P16

Pet ownership is rapidly growing in India given the rising incomes and nuclearisation. As per India International Pet Trade Fair (IIPTF), an average of 6 lakh pets are adopted annually in India. Additionally, the segment is evolving into an empathetic and emotive one with individuals increasingly witnessing positive change in their own lives and mental health through care and compassion for pets.

At Hester Biosciences, we have committed ourselves to the better health of pet animals. We have successfully leveraged our four decades of comprehensive knowledge of animal biology and cutting-edge R&D capabilities to extend our presence to India's rapidly growing pet care industry. Our venture is aligned with our core beliefs and vision to provide better health for human beings through healthier animals.

HESTER PET CARE PORTFOLIO AND APPROACH

We have entered the pet care segment with an initial portfolio ranging from dermatology, grooming, specialty nutrition, anti-infective parasiticides and specialty products. In FY22, we successfully launched three products for anti-infective, specialty nutrition, parasiticides and grooming. Another eight products are in the pipeline and will be launched in FY23.

We eventually plan to extend to pet biologicals and diagnostics, and build a comprehensive portfolio that will target both, veterinarians and pet parents with offerings that cater to the evolving needs of pets.

STEPPING UP
INDIA'S AMBITION
FOR HEALTHIER
POULTRY AND ANIMALS.

P20

India has a huge population of large animals and poultry, which are a source of income and food security for majority of the farmers in the country. It is therefore essential to address the challenges of disease outbreaks and nutritional gaps to protect animals, given their deep impact on the farmers and the economy. The Government of India (GoI) has come up with ambitious disease eradication and nutritional programmes to secure animal health.

At Hester, we are making this possible through investments in widening our competencies and portfolio. We are also expanding our capacities and strengthening last-mile delivery capability to ensure nationwide reach and solve problems and challenges at scale.

INNOVATING FOR INDIA'S FIGHT AGAINST DISEASES

VACCINES FOR CLASSICAL SWINE FEVER AND SHEEP POX

The development of new vaccines for Classical Swine Fever (CSF) and Sheep Pox is ongoing based on the technologies acquired from ICAR-IVRI (Indian Council of Agricultural Research – Indian Veterinary Research Institute), the first indigenously developed vaccine using locally isolated strains. Our intent is to enable large-scale immunisation.

MODIFIED INACTIVATED CORYZA VACCINE

The Company is expected to launch the modified Inactivated Coryza Vaccine (an advanced version of the conventional Coryza Vaccine from the existing poultry vaccine portfolio) this year.

UNDERTAKING AMBITIOUS CAPACITY AND NETWORK EXPANSION

HESTER KADI PLANT

7.20 Billion Doses

TO BE ADDED TO OUR EXISTING ANIMAL VACCINES MANUFACTURING CAPACITY

We have various capacity expansion projects underway at our Kadi plant for live and inactivated vaccines in poultry and animal healthcare. This includes an additional infrastructure for bulk antigen production for animal vaccines and a state-of-the-art fill-finish line of animal vaccines (both are expected to be completed in FY23).. The expansion will double our existing veterinary vaccine capacity from 6.25 billion doses a year to 13.45 billion doses. We are also further expanding our network to deepen the penetration of health products.

PROGRESSING TO ERADICATE PPR IN INDIA

Peste des Petits Ruminants (PPR) is a major disease, affecting sheep and goats, in India and globally. The GoI has embarked on an ambitious PPR control programme which envisages vaccinating the sheep and goat population throughout India with funding from the Central Government. Under this mission, we have successfully won the national tender by the Department of Animal Husbandry and Dairying (DAHD) for supplying 200 million doses of PPR vaccine throughout India for two years.

MAKING HEALTHIER ANIMALS A REALITY IN AFRICA.

P26

In FY22, Hester’s animal vaccines manufacturing plant in Africa went live. It received the necessary licenses and commenced production of Newcastle Disease and Gumboro vaccines for poultry, and PPR and Contagious Bovine Pleuropneumonia (CBPP) vaccines for large animals. The plant is set to receive the selling license for the vaccines and start contributing to our business in FY23.

HESTER BIOSCIENCES AFRICA LIMITED

Located in Dar es Salaam, Tanzania, the plant with a capacity of 1.5 billion doses started manufacturing commercial vaccines in FY22. These vaccines are specific to diseases in the African continent which has one of the largest domestic livestock and large animal population in the world. We have invested in human resource with extensive experience in the field, to drive Hester Africa's growth towards becoming a leading player in the continent.

THRISHOOL EXIM STAKE ACQUISITION TO STRENGTHEN DISTRIBUTION

In FY22, we acquired 50% stake in Tanzania-based Thrishool Exim Limited. It is an established and reputable animal health products distribution company and has a significant network across Tanzania and Africa. It distributes diverse products including veterinary feed additives, feed raw materials, nutritional supplements, therapeutics, and equipment sourced from recognised international producers.

We intend to consolidate all existing trading activities in Africa including that from our trading unit in Tanzania to this entity. It will distribute products from proposed collaborations along with an additional range of animal vaccines from Hester Africa, thus synergising our distribution thrust in Africa.

The Hester Africa manufacturing plant with 1.5 billion doses is set to become a leading player in the African continent and contribute significantly towards its social and economic growth.

DIVERSIFYING

THE NATIONAL EMERGENCY.

P30

COVID-19 became a global emergency taking a toll on the health and lives of people across the world. Several companies in the field of biologics used their expertise to develop vaccines to prevent COVID-19, including Bharat Biotech whose Covaxin vaccine has been found to have high efficacy.

At Hester Biosciences, we have entered a tripartite agreement with Bharat Biotech and Gujarat Biotechnology Research Centre (GBRC), Department of Science & Technology, Government of Gujarat to manufacture the drug substance for Covaxin. This agreement reinforces our expertise in biologics and capability to extend to human care.

DEVELOPING A MULTIPURPOSE BSL-3 FACILITY

We are setting up a facility to manufacture drug substance equivalent to 7 million doses per month. This facility, is designed to be multipurpose, and will have the capability to handle micro-organisms beyond COVID-19. The plant's construction is nearing completion and it is expected to commence operations from FY23. We have also received an approval for a grant of ₹600 million from the Biotechnology Industry Research Assistance Council (BIRAC) under Mission Covid Suraksha.

Dear Shareholders,

As always, I am pleased to present the performance of your Company for FY 2021-22.

While we saw a promising year, upon unleashing new avenues and entering into segments for the first time, the year was challenging, especially for the poultry health business. The poultry industry slid into a recessionary condition. The supply chain disruptions due to COVID-19 led to significant increase in the poultry feed prices. It became difficult for poultry farmers to maintain them. As a result, they resorted to reducing poultry stock and spending less on healthcare products. Being a vaccine and health products provider to the poultry industry, this impacted our business.

Having said that, during the year, your Company undertook multiple efforts towards building infrastructure and invested towards building various intangibles. This would strengthen our competencies and competitiveness, subsequently place us favourably to deliver tangible results in the years to come.

READ ON

BUSINESS OVERVIEW OF HESTER INDIA

Your Company reported net revenue from operations of ₹ 2,193.51 million in FY 2021-22 compared to ₹ 2,084.77 million in the previous year, thereby registering a growth of 5%. The aforesaid revenue from operations comprised of (a) product sales of ₹ 2,155.02 million in FY 2021-22 compared to ₹ 1,909.04 million in the previous year, increasing by 13% and (b) license and services fees of ₹ 38.49 million in FY 2021-22 compared to ₹ 175.73 million in the previous year, seeing a reduction of 78%.

Our vaccines division grew by 5%, reporting a net sales of ₹ 1,622.20 million as compared to ₹ 1,538.16 million in FY 2020-21, and our health products division grew by 44%, reporting a net sales of ₹ 532.83 million as compared to ₹ 370.88 million in FY 2020-21.

Our poultry healthcare business took a hit in the year and grew at a rate lower than expected at 11% with a growth in vaccines sales by 7%. Sales in the previous year FY 2020-21 were benefitted by a major disease outbreak in the poultry industry, the scare of which led to a one-time spurt in demand for poultry vaccines. The current year did not experience any such disease outbreak scare. Further, during the current year, the poultry farm economics also turned adverse due to rise in feed costs and decline in end-product prices. Despite of a large base effect and adverse demand environment, Hester stood well with the marginal growth in FY 2021-22.

The animal healthcare business performed well on the back of our sustained thrust to grow this business, enabling us in the reduction of dependence on the poultry division. Revenues from this segment grew by 22% to ₹ 481.20 million in FY 2021-22 as compared to ₹ 395.06 million in FY 2020-21. The growth was largely driven by new product introductions and geographical expansion.

Revenue from operations for FY 2021-22 included one-time license and services fees of ₹ 38.49 million as against ₹ 175.73 million for FY 2020-21.

I am happy to state that though there was a substantial reduction in the one-time license and service fees, the overall revenue from operations grew by 5% on account of robust growth in product sales attributed from growth in volumes, products and changes in the price.

Profitability for the year was under pressure due to multiple factors. First and foremost, there was a change in product mix with increase in the proportion of health products in the overall product sales. The health products have lower gross margins as compared to vaccines and besides, there was an increase in their raw material prices which could not be passed on because of adverse farm economics in the poultry industry. Second, the collection cycle was disrupted and the payments were delayed due to industry conditions. This impacted the gross margins on product sales, reducing them from 72% in FY 2020-21 to 71% in FY 2021-22. Our Operating EBITDA margins reduced from 35% in FY 2020-21 to 28% in FY 2021-22, due to decline in licensing and service fees and higher spending on the market expansion in the animal healthcare division.

Resultantly, our PAT declined marginally by 1% to ₹ 395.17 million in FY 2021-22 as compared to ₹ 399.01 million in FY 2020-21.

On the operational front, your Company won a national tender for supply of 200 million doses for PPR by the Department of Animal Husbandry and Dairying (DAHD) for the eradication of the PPR disease nationally in a span of two years. The supply of orders is expected to commence in early FY 2022-23.

The development of new vaccines for Classical Swine Fever (CSF), Lumpy Skin Disease (LSD) and Sheep Pox is going on and we expect to commercially produce them in the coming financial year. Our recently launched herbal products witnessed good traction through the year.

The animal healthcare business performed well, enabling us in the reduction of dependence on the poultry division.

HESTER NEPAL REBOUNDS

A significant development for the year has been the turnaround achieved by Hester Nepal. It registered a revenue growth of 193% and reached an all-time high of a top-line of ₹ 139.25 million with a net profit of ₹ 22.86 million in FY22 as against top-line of ₹ 47.48 million with a loss of ₹ 9.73 million in FY 2020-21.

The notable aspect has been that the sales growth was not just restricted to the FAO tenders for the PPR vaccine; but we also got tenders directly from other countries for PPR vaccine.

The demand for the live and inactivated vaccines also picked up domestically within Nepal. This gives us optimism on the domestic opportunities in Nepal. We are now making efforts to capture the domestic market.

We hopefully expect an exciting year ahead upon the commencement of supplies under the FAO tenders for the PPR vaccine.

HESTER AFRICA WENT LIVE

I am happy to inform you that our Africa plant, post some delays, is now finally on track for production. We have commercially launched the Newcastle Disease vaccine and Gumboro vaccine for poultry, PPR vaccine and CBPP vaccine for large animals. The plant will start contributing to our business from FY23.

We remain confident of the opportunities in the African market. We expect our plant to catapult us to a leading position. There are some concerns of slower market development due to the weak macro situation in Africa. However, we are proactively working towards building trust in the private market, as this will be the first time, Tanzanians would be able to buy vaccines manufactured locally.

We remain confident of the opportunities in the African market, and expect our plant to catapult us to a leading position.

REINFORCING DISTRIBUTION IN AFRICA

Hester India acquired 50% stake in Thrishool Exim Limited, Tanzania, a distribution company of vaccines and animal health products in Tanzania. This acquisition will help in strengthening our distribution network in the African continent. Thrishool's product range includes veterinary feed additives, feed raw materials, nutritional supplements, therapeutics and equipment sourced from recognised international producers.

MAKING ENTRY IN THE PETCARE SEGMENT

Expansion, innovation and diversification has been an important growth strategy for us. Nearly a decade ago, we were just into poultry and eventually diversified to large animals. And since then, our business has grown multi-fold.

We have now made a strategic diversification by entering the Pet Care segment. The dynamics of this business are different, and unlike our existing businesses, pet care involves more of an emotional quotient. This is evident in pet owners spending more on the healthcare products. The pet ownership is also rising in India led by rising disposable income and the growing realisation on how pets can positively emotionally impact the owners.

This venture is inspired by our vision for healthier animals, and we see immense opportunities in it. The immediate focus is on building a brand by starting with launch of health products for growth promotion, nutrition and grooming. Eventually, we will expand to vaccines which is our core competence. We have already launched three products and another eight are in pipeline. In terms of distributions, we are currently selling to retailers and veterinarians. Going forward, we also plan to directly target pet owners through online platforms.

A close-up, high-angle photograph of a dog's face, likely a pit bull mix, looking directly at the camera. The dog's eyes are dark and focused, and its fur is short and dark. The background is a solid, deep blue color. The dog's head is positioned on the right side of the frame, with its ear visible on the left.

The dynamics of this business are different, and unlike our existing businesses, pet care involves more of an emotional quotient.

COVID-19 INITIATIVE WITNESSES THE LIGHT OF DAY

I am pleased to report that our efforts towards addressing national emergency is now becoming a reality. In consortium with Gujarat Biotechnology Research Centre (GBRC), Government of Gujarat, we entered a term sheet agreement with Bharat Biotech to manufacture the Drug Substance for their Covaxin COVID-19 vaccine. A plant with a capacity of manufacturing Drug Substance equivalent of up to 7 million doses per month is nearing completion, and we expect to commence production soon. This plant will be capable of handling other micro-organisms, and thus will ensure relevance beyond COVID-19.

Further, we have received approval for a grant of ₹ 600 million from Biotechnology Industry Research Assistance Council (BIRAC) under Mission Covid Suraksha. This will be received in phases upon completion of specified milestones.

IN CONCLUSION

I believe that we have now created multiple vectors that should drive multiple years of aggressive growth. The focus from here on will be on excellent execution. To meet the strong demand in the coming years, we have embarked on two CAPEX projects for Bulk Antigen and Fill-Finish line which will double our production capacity. These are expected to operationalise in FY23.

On the Nepal and Africa businesses, I understand the shareholder concerns of delays and expected returns. I would reiterate that these are completely new markets, and a lot of groundwork had to be done in terms of building market, brand, and gaining trust. I am confident these will eventually deliver.

I thank our stakeholders for being with us in our journey. With your trust, support and guidance Hester Biosciences has come a long way. We seek your continued support as we look to make bigger leaps and reach great heights.

Warm regards,

Rajiv Gandhi

ECONOMY OVERVIEW

GLOBAL ECONOMY

As the global economy was gradually recovering from the COVID-19 pandemic, with several regions relaxing restrictions, it faced yet another challenge. Since late February 2022, the continued war between Russia and Ukraine has created a humanitarian crisis. The cyclical ups and downs of the COVID-19 pandemic are going to be one of the important indicators of future global economic growth. The global economy grew by 6.1% in 2021, supported by consumer spending, investments, and international trade. The end of 2021 was marked by growing inflation, supply chain difficulties, and the gradual withdrawal of fiscal assistance. The emergence of the extremely contagious Omicron strain of COVID-19 worsened the situation. Vaccination initiatives were swift and efficient in majority of the rich economies but took longer in some developing nations.

Due to geopolitical tensions, pandemic-related difficulties, income disparities, persistent supply chain issues, and rising inflation and debt levels, the rate of global economic recovery is anticipated to decline in 2022. India, China, and other Southeast Asian nations are expected to continue to drive global economic growth. In 2022 and 2023, the Russia-Ukraine war and lockdowns resulting from China's high viral infection rates are projected to reduce global economic growth to 3.6%. Numerous governments tightened their monetary policies in response to rising inflationary pressures. Risks to the global economic outlook have increased substantially, making policy trade-offs more difficult. Globally and in India, the trajectory of COVID-19 and vaccine advancements, and inflation remain the primary drivers of economic activity.

INDIAN ECONOMY

India is predicted to become one of the top three economic powers in the near future because of its robust democracy and strategic relations. Despite well-designed fiscal and monetary policies, the COVID-19 outbreak led to a contraction of India's GDP by 6.6% in FY 2020-21. About 191.65 crore vaccinations were administered in the country as of 18 May 2022. On the back of swift vaccination programme rollouts and government assistance, India suppressed the third wave of COVID-19 while simultaneously pursuing economic recovery. Positive economic growth is indicated by subsequent increases in a variety of metrics, including the mobility index, direct tax receipts, and electricity demand. The National Statistics Office forecasts India's GDP growth to reach approximately 8.7% in FY 2021-22, placing India among the fastest-growing global economies. India also remained a significant contributor to the 2021 global economic rebound.

Source: National Statistics Office 2nd Advance Estimates dated 31 May 2022,
#RBI SPF report as of 8 June 2022

Consumer confidence has grown, manufacturing business conditions have improved, financial markets have stabilised, demand has increased, and market circumstances have improved, all of which have contributed to India's consistent economic growth. Due to a continuous emphasis on infrastructure, investment, manufacturing improvement, better logistical capabilities, assistance for MSMEs, green economy goals, expanding digitalisation, and banking expansion, the FY 2022-23 budget adequately met expectations of an accelerated economic path. In March 2022, the annual inflation rate in India jumped to 6.95%, the highest level since October 2020. Consequently, the RBI lifted the policy repo rate by 50 basis points to 4.90%. The RBI estimates that conflict-related inflation will decrease India's GDP growth to 7.5% in FY 2022-23 and by 6.5% in FY 2023-24. The prognosis for private sector investment remains positive, and the financial system is in a strong position to support the economic recovery.

INDUSTRY OVERVIEW

GLOBAL VETERINARY HEALTHCARE INDUSTRY

With the increasing number of human infections originating in animals, veterinarian services are vital for protecting animals, public health, and food safety. Non-clinical veterinarian services include boarding, grooming, animal training, daycare, and other non-clinical services. Veterinary services also include the provision of preventative care (to prevent the spread of disease), the management of the supply of medications, vaccines, and a variety of other products, and overseeing breeding centers, among others. In addition, the veterinary services include pet grooming services, pet transportation services, surgery services, and other emergency-related treatment services. This, together with the growing acceptance of companion animals worldwide, is a crucial factor driving the veterinary healthcare market expansion. Due to the COVID-19 outbreak, governments are loosening telemedicine and veterinarian-client-patient relationship (VCPR) rules and making telemedicine available to pet parents. It's used for postoperative checks, dermatological concerns, behavioural issues, and scheduled follow-up visits for pets with chronic conditions, allowing veterinarians to prescribe a therapy without directly examining pets. Recent advancements in pet services, such as online pet pharmacy and subscription food and product delivery, are driving industry growth. Vaccines, antimicrobials, and diagnostic tools are examples of breakthroughs in animal health biotechnologies that are favourably impacting the industry. Also, significant growth in the cattle sector is expected to boost the market in the coming years.

Global acceptance of improved veterinary care is projected to increase as the number of government activities to ensure food security increases. The rising demand for veterinary care, which is driving market expansion, is mostly the result of an increase in pet adoption and humanisation around the world. The global veterinary market size was expected to be over USD 33.96 billion in 2022 and is anticipated to expand at a CAGR (Compound Annual Growth Rate) of over 7.94% from 2022 to 2027 to reach USD 49.76 billion. The increasing frequency of zoonotic illnesses and expanding penetration of e-commerce platforms encouraging online pharmacies are expected to propel the market's expansion. Numerous developed nations serve as the global epicenter for the rapid expansion of online pharmacies, which provide numerous advantages such as ease and lower pricing for ordered prescriptions. Investing in Research and Development (R&D) to come up with improved product offerings, and acceptance of sophisticated technologies by major players, to revolutionise the animal healthcare industry will result in market growth.

GLOBAL VETERINARY MARKET SIZE (IN USD BILLION)

North America is one of the world’s most developed regions. It now dominates the veterinary healthcare market, and this trend is anticipated to continue from 2022 to 2027. The growing number of collaborations and mergers and acquisitions between organisations is also anticipated to help the market’s expansion. Demand for improved and enhanced veterinary treatment for livestock and companion animals also contributes to market growth. Major players in the business are concentrating on extending their product portfolio and global reach by investing in advanced R&D or acquiring other companies. Consequently, the increased availability of veterinary services, particularly from private industry leaders around the world, will drive market growth during the projection period.

INDIAN VETERINARY HEALTHCARE INDUSTRY

Animal health refers to the monitoring of livestock and domesticated animals on a regular basis. It entails the creation of veterinary medications, insecticides, feed additives, medicines, and biologics. It aids in maintaining a steady food supply and preventing the spread of several zoonotic diseases, such as feline leukaemia, animal flu, Lyme disease, and tick infestation, which are caused by viruses, germs, and other parasites. Veterinary services help reduce interspecies transmission. As a result, veterinary services in India have been significantly gaining traction over the past decade.

The Indian Federation of Animal Health Companies (INFAH), an organisation established under Section 25 of the Companies Act, engages in substantial efforts to raise awareness about disease control and appropriate treatments. This, together with the widespread use of feed additives that improve animal health and enhance the quality of milk, meat, and eggs, have proven favourable for the market. In addition, technological advances such as the incorporation of the Internet of Things (IoT) into animal health monitoring solutions are propelling the market in India. The growth is further aided by the growing popularity of pets and the expanding use of mobile sensors and wearables to monitor animal behaviour and health.

INDIAN ANIMAL HEALTH MARKET (IN ₹ BILLION)

Source: Imarc animal health market report

From 2014-15 to 2020-21, the livestock sector has grown at a CAGR of 7.93% according to DAHD (Department of Animal Husbandry & Dairying). India has more than 300 million cows and buffaloes and a little over 500 million livestock animals comprising dairy cows, buffaloes, sheep, goats, and pigs. The Indian animal health market was worth ₹67.83 billion in 2021. IMARC Group forecasts that the market would reach ₹114.12 billion by 2027, expanding at a CAGR of 9.52% between 2022 and 2027.

NUMBER OF VACCINE DOSES AND DOSE VALUE (IN USD MILLION) GIVEN IN FY 2020-21 IN INDIA

Source: Animalhealthindia.com (livestock vaccines)

A highly ambitious Foot and Mouth Disease (FMD) control programme aims to vaccinate all cattle, buffaloes, sheep, goats, and pigs every six months throughout the nation in order to establish FMD-free zones. It is proposed that these vaccinated animals be identified using unique animal identification ear tags. The programme also involves twice-yearly deworming of the targeted cattle population as one of its objectives. About 900 million doses have been offered or contracted in FY 2020-21 - a potential yearly value of USD 130 million. All female cows and buffaloes are the focus of the Brucella Control Program. The programme envisions lifetime immunisation coverage of 100% for female cattle and buffalo calves (4-8 months old). In FY 2020-21, about 41 million doses of Brucella abortus S-19 strain have been offered or contracted for, representing an estimated USD 15 million per year.

Approximately 230 susceptible sheep and goats are vaccinated at least once in their lifetimes as part of the PPR Control Program, which targets solely the existing sheep and goat populations. In FY 2020-21, about 70 million doses of the PPR Sungri-96 strain have been tendered or contracted for, representing an estimated USD 2 million.

In the past two decades, India's poultry production has quadrupled, making it one of the countries with the greatest rate of expansion. Over seventy percent of poultry production, especially in the broiler category, is generated by organised commercial farms; the change from backyard poultry to large-scale commercialisation has occurred gradually over the years. Farmers in India have transitioned from raising country birds to hybrids, which provide better operating conditions and more sustainable income.

According to IMARC Group, the Indian poultry market reached a value of ₹1,708 Billion in 2021 and the industry is expected to reach ₹3,170 Billion by 2027, exhibiting a CAGR of 10.5% during 2022-2027. The rising consumer health awareness, coupled with the increasing inclination towards protein-rich food products, is primarily driving the poultry market in India. Moreover, increasing exposure to global cuisines, changing consumer food habits, and growing adoption of non-vegetarian or egg-eating diets are also propelling the demand for broiler meat and eggs. The growth is further aided by improving consumer living standards and elevating preferences for healthy lifestyles. Apart from this, the launch of numerous initiatives undertaken by the Indian government for encouraging poultry farming in the country is also bolstering the market growth. Several government bodies, such as the DAHD, are introducing capital fund schemes to support poultry business and educating farmers to improve their yield quality.

INDIAN PET CARE INDUSTRY

India is one of the world's fastest-growing markets, and the pet care industry's perspective has evolved from pet ownership to responsible pet parenting, which has affected the duties of caregivers and the quality of life for pets. The retail value of the Indian pet care industry has increased from USD 347.23 million in 2019 to USD 498.44 million in 2021. The industry is anticipated to develop at a CAGR of over 19% by 2025. The following are some of the latest developments in pet care:

RECENT TRENDS IN THE PET CARE INDUSTRY

Pet adoption is gaining in popularity

Personalised animal care facilities

Enhancements in the pet food industry

Pet insurance policy

Pet Health Care Progress

Pets have become a vital part of many households, giving emotional support, joy, and a sense of well-being. The rise in demand for pet food, pet medication, cleaning products, and pet care enterprises will be driven by pet owner's desire to improve their pets' quality of life. Pet owner's comprehension has dramatically enhanced. Since pet parents in urban areas, tier-2, and tier-3 cities are aware of proper pet care practices and demand the same from veterinarians, continuing education is necessary. Thus veterinarian education forums are vital. These forums are vital for knowledge transmission since groundbreaking, highly specialised research is being conducted globally. Due to shared knowledge, veterinarians are bringing local practices up to international standards. Multiple multispecialty clinics are opening in large cities. These clinics are equipped with the latest diagnosis and treatment technology.

MAJOR INDUSTRY GROWTH DRIVERS

- Rising insurance policies for pet healthcare
Penetration of new policies into pet owners is significantly influencing the demand of this market. In the developed market, the penetration rate of pet insurance policies is very high. For example, in the United States, the need for pet insurance is growing at a higher rate. In the UK, the pet care insurance penetration rate was 20%. The introduction of various pet insurance policies is solely increasing visits to veterinary healthcare centers or clinics.
- Increasing awareness of zoonotic diseases
India has the highest incidence of zoonotic diseases among developing nations, resulting in widespread illness and death. The increasing prevalence of zoonotic diseases and the substantial expansion of the veterinary pharmaceutical sector are the primary factors driving the Indian animal health market. Increasing usage of feed additives, which aid in strengthening animal health and the quality of goods like milk, eggs, and meat, is an additional factor driving market expansion.
- Favorable regulatory environment
Numerous government agencies have taken the initiative to provide superior veterinary healthcare. These agencies also monitor the release of various vaccines to prevent infectious diseases such as Foot and Mouth Disease (FMD) in animals. Implementation of regulations against unlawful animal killing and animal mistreatment will encourage individuals to adopt animals. The Indian government is conducting substantial research and development in the field of animal health to raise awareness for disease control and provide efficient therapies. Increase in government funding for the development of novel vaccinations is accelerating the expansion of the veterinary healthcare business.
- Favourable demographics
Changes in lifestyles, greater urbanisation, nuclear families, single status, few or no children, and employment stressors are producing a huge demand for emotional support, which drives the trend toward animal healthcare.

The animal health domain is changing toward the development of intelligent remote health monitoring equipment. Internet of Things (IoT) technology is increasing across all industries, including animal health. Private and public partnerships could make this technology more affordable and animal-friendly.

GOVERNMENT INITIATIVES

India is experiencing a considerable increase in the prevalence of zoonotic illnesses. This, along with the expanding veterinary pharmaceutical business, is one of the primary factors driving market expansion. Moreover, because the dairy business is dependent on animals, the Indian government is investing more in animal healthcare. In addition, both the government and numerous Non-Governmental Organisations (NGOs) conduct Research and Development (R&D) in the field of animal health. Following were the initiatives taken during FY 2021-22 by the government.

- Government of India has allocated ₹6,470.31 crores to the Ministry of Fisheries, Animal Husbandry, and Dairying (AH&D) in the Union Budget for 2022-23, up by 44% in the Union Budget for 2021-22.
- The government has recently revised and realigned various components of its schemes for the next five years beginning in FY 2021-22, with an outlay of ₹9,800 crores for leveraging a total investment of ₹54,618 crores for the next five years. This aims to further boost growth in the livestock sector and make animal husbandry more profitable for the 10 crore farmers involved in the sector.
- Mobile veterinary clinics will be established in the country over the next five years as part of the Livestock Health and Disease Control scheme.
- In FY 2021-22, nationwide, 28 crore animals have been vaccinated against Foot and Mouth Disease and brucellosis using high-quality vaccinations as per the DAHD annual report for FY 2021-22
- The National Animal Disease Control Programme (NACDP), which was established in September 2019 to eradicate FMD and brucellosis in cattle, intends to control livestock diseases by 2025 and eradicate them by 2030. As of 18 May 2022, 202.97 million FMD vaccinations and 7.3 million brucellosis vaccinations were performed on 212.62 million registered animals.
- Under the National Artificial Insemination Programme (NAIP) for breed improvement 24.3 million artificial inseminations were undertaken in FY 2021-22, out of 7.95 million were conducted on buffaloes.

Hester has a proven track record of over three decades in the production of poultry vaccines. The Company's product category is divided into two segments: Poultry Healthcare and Animal Healthcare. The Company offers over 48 poultry vaccination products, including live vaccines, inactivated vaccines, and various other health products. In addition to ELISA (Enzyme-Linked Immunosorbent Assay) & PCR (Polymerase Chain Reaction) diagnostic kits, the Company develops and sells NDV (Newcastle Disease Virus) and IBV (Infectious Bronchitis Virus) ELISA kits for poultry sero-monitoring and PCR molecular diagnostic kits for a number of diseases. These kits aid in the accurate diagnosis of illnesses or virus strains in broilers, resulting in the implementation of corrective measures.

Hester began producing and marketing large animal vaccines in March 2015 and presently produces three types of large animal vaccines.

- PPR (Peste Des Petits Ruminants) vaccine against the sheep and goat plague
- Goat pox vaccine- Hester is the first Company in India to manufacture a vaccine against the disease
- Brucella abortus (S19) calf vaccine

In addition, the Company offers a vast selection of pharmaceuticals, feed supplements, and disinfectants for poultry and large animals.

BUSINESS STRENGTHS

- Strong Distribution Network
In addition to making vaccines available at competitive prices, the Company's distribution network in India guarantees a delivery system that maintains a cold chain to the end user. The distinctiveness of the distribution approach won Hester a partnership with GALVmed, for establishing the largest backyard poultry vaccination programme in the world.
- State of the Art Manufacturing Facilities
Hester has three cutting-edge production facilities for vaccines, health products, and diagnostics. Hester's first manufacturing site is located in Kadi, Mehsana district, Gujarat. It is the largest animal biological manufacturing facility in Asia, built in accordance with international benchmarks for quality and compliance. The second manufacturing unit of the Company is based in Kathmandu, Nepal. Hester's established manufacturing capacity in India is 6.25 billion doses, while its capacity in Nepal is 1.24 billion doses. During the year ended 31 March 2022, the Company completed the construction of its third vaccine manufacturing plant in Tanzania, Africa, and the current manufacturing capacity is 1.5 billion doses.
- Extensive Research & Development reach
Hester is an ISO 9001:2015, ISO 14001:2015, ISO 45001:2018, Good Manufacturing Practices (GMP), and Good Laboratory Practices (GLP) certified Company. The Company has achieved GMP certification for its plants in India, Nepal and Africa. The Company's research and development competencies are its greatest strength.
- Leading Player in Africa
Hester Africa's manufacturing facility has begun producing vaccinations against PPR and CBPP (Contagious Bovine Pleuropneumonia Vaccine).

This initiative will enable Hester to become a prominent player in Africa and greatly contribute to the social and economic prosperity of Tanzania and the African continent. The Company has already started manufacturing and marketing the PPR Vaccine - Nigerian Strain; second is the Newcastle Disease Vaccine for the poultry and the third is the CBPP.

- A One Health Mindset

Human and animal health is well-known to be linked and tied to the health of the ecosystems they inhabit. Hester is prepared to address the requirements of the worldwide community to improve animal health, as well as human health, and make livelihoods more resilient.

The purpose of this notion is to comprehend threats to human and animal health (including both domestic and wild animals) and the environment. About 60% of existing human infectious diseases are zoonotic, and at least 75% of developing human infectious diseases have an animal origin, according to the World Animal Health Organisation (WOAH). Controlling zoonotic infections at their animal source protects people most effectively and economically. Hester is well-poised to effectively contribute to this global effort.

- Enhancing Global Footprints

Through its companies, Hester is growing its distribution network in select African nations. This network will distribute vaccines and health products from the Company's plants in India, Nepal, and Tanzania, thereby driving international commercial expansion in the next few years. In Nepal, the Company possesses seventeen vaccination licences and anticipates acquiring eight more in the near future. These vaccines will be offered for sale domestically. Africa would be the Company's primary emphasis region. In Africa, the Company is developing a specialised animal vaccine manufacturing facility, which will be supported by India's poultry vaccines. The Tanzania unit in Africa, which focuses on seizing the enormous market potential in Africa, has been completed. It is familiar with a full-scale depot, refrigerated storage, and transportation facility. The Company is in the midst of creating a sales and distribution network there, with the domestic market and East African countries in mind. In addition, the Company has entered into a technological collaboration with Novapharma of Egypt, which is anticipated to unlock tremendous possibilities. Given the huge demand for poultry vaccination and the lack of competition in Egypt, the Company would be able to achieve a large market share. Additionally, Hester Nepal also won the tender from World Animal Health Organisation (WOAH), to create a vaccine bank for the PPR vaccine. Hester also acquired a 50% stake in Thrishool Exim Limited (TEL), a distribution company in Tanzania. TEL is a supplier and distributor of animal health and nutrition products of many companies. TEL's product range includes veterinary feed additives, feed raw materials, nutritional supplements, therapeutics and equipment sourced from recognised international producers. It has an established sourcing network with globally positioned partners from Europe, Asia and Southern Africa.

KEY BUSINESS STRATEGIES AND DEVELOPMENTS

- Gaining from diverse and inclusive product offerings

The Company has risen to the forefront of the animal healthcare industry, particularly in relation to cattle, poultry, and other large animals. In recent years, the Company has diversified its portfolio from a mostly domestic poultry vaccine to a whole chain of veterinary vaccines, pharmaceuticals, and healthcare divisions. Hester will continue to enhance its product mix by introducing new products and services. Hester has chosen to focus on herbal remedies in accordance with the global trend to reduce the use of antibiotics.

For both the Poultry and Animal divisions, majority of the Company's upcoming new products will be natural or herbal in nature. In April 2021, the Company formally incorporated a new line of herbal products for livestock and poultry to promote the general health of animals and complement its existing product line.

- Expanding sales and distribution network

To lessen reliance on a single product, division, or region, the Company has strategically grown sales of health products. Although these products will have a lower gross margin, they will benefit the top and bottom lines in the long run.

Additionally, the Company is examining global manufacturing and distribution expansion prospects for animal health products and biologicals. To increase the reach of the Company's products into new geographies, the marketing and sales team has and will continue to expand its field staff.

- Expanding technologies partnerships & alliances

In the first step, the Indian government intends to immunise 40 million female calves against Brucella through vaccination. The Company has already entered into an agreement with ICAR-IVRI to produce the Brucella Abortus S19 Delta Par vaccine. This formed a step forward in the Company's efforts to create a Brucella vaccine with better safety, immunogenicity, and lifelong immunity with a single vaccination in calfhood. Brucella is a disease of global economic relevance. With this vaccine, it is anticipated that the Company would reach new heights by becoming a global conduit for immunising cattle against brucella. The Company is in the process of launching the improved inactivated Coryza Vaccine (an upgraded version of the existing poultry vaccine portfolio's conventional Coryza Vaccine).

Hester signed two agreements with ICAR-IVRI (Indian Council of Agricultural Research – Indian Veterinary Research Institute) in April 2021 for the acquisition of technologies for the production and commercialisation of Classical Swine Fever Vaccine and Sheep Pox Vaccine in order to produce low-cost, high-quality vaccines in India.

Hester also got the government tender contract for the supply for the PPR vaccines for the next 2 years. Total quantity would be approximately 20 crores doses of PPR vaccines in 2 year's time, resulting in 20 -25 crores of incremental revenue.

These are the first vaccines created in India as part of Atmanirbhar Bharat, the government's initiative to make India self-sufficient. The vaccines aim to reduce economic losses in pig and sheep farming in India, whose populations are predicted to be 9.06 million and 74.26 million respectively.

- Increasing production capacity
Hester intends to expand its production capacities considering the numerous global opportunities and rising demand for vaccines, such as those for Brucella and LSD. Under the capacity enhancement projects, the Company is now working on two projects, the first of which is increasing the capacity for bulk antigens and the second of which is increasing the capacity for the finished vaccines.
- Expansion into the rural and residential PPR market
Under the brand name Live Thermovac PPR Vaccine, Hester Biosciences Nepal has successfully developed and introduced its Live Thermotolerant PPR (Peste Des Petits) Vaccine - Nigerian 75/1 Strain. The Company has begun its commercial production and marketing, which will be offered in packets containing 25, 50, or 100 doses. As most small ruminant keepers reside in rural areas, the thermo-tolerant property of this vaccine will permit the safe delivery of a stable vaccine in distant regions of the world where maintaining the cold chain is difficult. The thermo-tolerant PPR vaccine will be added to the Company's offerings for a specific rural and backyard market, primarily comprised of smallholder livestock caretakers around the world. As an active player in FAO - floated tenders for global PPR vaccination, Hester is playing a key role in PPR Disease control which will also help the Company commercially in achieving higher revenue growth. Being a successful bidder of WOA (erstwhile OIE), the PPR vaccine bank tender will not only aid in the Company's commercial goals of achieving higher revenues, but also make it a frontrunner in the global fight against the deadly PPR disease.

- Creating a vaccination for COVID-19
Hester has an excellent understanding of and the capability to enter the human vaccine market due to its experience in animal vaccine production and the efforts to develop recombinant vaccines. The Company has launched the development of a COVID-19 illness vaccine. The Company, in conjunction with the Gujarat Biotechnology Research Centre (GBRC), Government of Gujarat (GoG), has entered into a licencing arrangement with Bharat Biotech for the production of the Drug Substance for Covaxin. The Company is currently constructing a BSL-3 facility for the production of Covaxin's drug substance. The construction is expected to be completed in FY 2022-23. The project is on schedule to manufacture up to seven million doses of drug substance equivalent per month for Bharat Biotech.
- Foraying into the Pet Care Industry
Hester Biosciences Limited has expanded into the pet care industry in April 2022. The pet care industry has quickly transformed into a sympathetic and passionate industry. Hester has extensive knowledge of animal biology, cutting-edge R&D skills, and four decades of animal healthcare experience. This expansion fits their aim to improve human health through healthy animals.

Hester's pet care portfolio includes dermatological, grooming, anti-infective, and specialty items. The idea is to make pet-specific products. Hester aims to add pet biologicals and diagnostics. The portfolio targets veterinarians and pet parents with services that meet pets' increasing requirements.

Additionally, the Department of Animal Husbandry and Dairying (DAHD) has given the firm the PPR national contract for the nationwide eradication of the PPR disease. The supply tendered would amount to 200 million doses over two years. Under the terms of this agreement, the business will distribute the PPR vaccination nationwide for two years to be implemented during FY 2021-22 and thereby resulting in significant growth in FY 2022-23. Moreover, the fill-finish line for animal vaccinations will be operational in the near term. The capacity expansion projects are accomplished effectively by the Company in a timely manner as per plans. In order to grow and expand the Animal Healthcare division further, the Company is in the process of enlarging its existing product portfolio; a variety of therapeutic products. The Company has ventured into the pet industry and started commercializing its pet products, which is expected to gain further momentum in the near future.

KEY RISKS AND MITIGATION STRATEGIES

Economic Risk: The Company's products aid in the production of the least expensive types of animal protein, such as milk, eggs, and meat. Any economic slowdown will have an impact on the demand for these items, which might negatively influence the Company's animal healthcare product sales.

Mitigation Strategy: The Company regularly monitors the business and economic environment, adapts new technology, and seeks to increase market penetration to counteract such an incident as part of its mitigation strategy.

- Peer Risk: Given the industry's high registration standards, both the manufacturing processes and geographical expansion are extremely complex. New market entrants with superior technology or a shift in marketing strategies on the part of the Company's rivals could pose formidable competition for the business.
- Mitigation Strategy: Hester has demonstrated competency in research and unmatched technical experience in the sector, which he employs in his mitigation strategy. In addition to being one of the leading animal healthcare organisations in Asia, the Company has built a strong reputation among its clientele. By extending its regional reach and diversifying its product offering, the Company simply strives to stay ahead of the learning curve.

- Challenges in product development: One of the Company's significant product advantages is the availability of a thermostable vaccination for Newcastle disease, for which a cold chain distribution system is unnecessary. This enables the Company to market its products in remote areas. In the event of development delays, the Company would be unable to deliver this product in locations without cold storage distribution infrastructure.
- Mitigation Strategy: The Company's Live Thermotolerant PPR has been successfully developed and released. Hester has been producing and distributing its thermotolerant PPR vaccine since December 2020. The vaccine is being sold in bundles including 25, 50, and 100 doses. Hester is in the vanguard of the global campaign for the eradication of PPR because of the discovery of this thermotolerant PPR vaccine.
- Foreign exchange risks: Since the Company's operations are exposed to a large number of regions, it transacts in a variety of currencies. Any unfavourable fluctuations in the exchange rate would negatively impact the Company's finances and operating results.
- Mitigation Strategy: In FY 2021-22, the Company generated over 14% of its revenue from exports and imported a portion of its raw materials. Hester continuously evaluates the exchange rate risk resulting from foreign currency transactions. By taking a tight hedging approach, the Company mitigates foreign exchange risks. The Company hedges its exposure to foreign currency risk via a number of derivative financial products, such as foreign exchange forward contracts.
- Regulatory risks: The Company operates in a highly regulated and competitive global environment. Enhanced regulatory supervision and undesirable regulatory developments in major areas could have a negative influence on the Company's operations. In addition, any infringement or failure to comply with standards may result in the revocation or suspension of licenses, imposition of fines, and criminal penalties.
- Mitigation Strategy: Over the past few decades, the Company has created a strong relationship with local government and authorities, from whom it continues to enjoy unwavering support. The Company always strives to reduce political or regulatory risks by utilising adequate legal consultations and maintaining proper documentation.

In our opinion and to the best of our information and according to the explanations given to us, the aforesaid standalone financial statements give the information required by the Companies Act, 2013 (the "Act") in the manner so required and give a true and fair view in conformity with the Indian Accounting Standards prescribed under Section 133 of the Act read with the Companies (Indian Accounting Standards) Rules, 2015 as amended ("Ind AS") and other accounting principles generally accepted in India, of the state of affairs of the Company as at 31 March 2022, its profit, total comprehensive income, the changes in equity and its cash flows for the year then ended on that date.

Basis for Opinion

We conducted our audit in accordance with the Standards on Auditing (SAs) specified under section 143(10) of the Act. Our responsibilities under those Standards are further described in the Auditor's Responsibilities for the Audit of the Standalone Financial Statements section of our report. We are independent of the Company in accordance with the Code of Ethics issued by Institute of Chartered Accountants of India (ICAI) together with the ethical requirements that are relevant to our audit of the standalone financial statements under the provisions of the Act and the Rules made thereunder, and we have fulfilled our other ethical responsibilities in accordance with these requirements and the ICAI's Code of Ethics. We believe that the audit evidence obtained by us is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our opinion on the standalone financial statements.

Key Audit Matters

Key audit matters are those matters that, in our professional judgment, were of most significance in our audit of the standalone financial statements for the financial year ended 31 March 2022. These matters were addressed in the context of our audit of the standalone financial statements as a whole, and in forming our opinion thereon, and we do not provide a separate opinion on these matters. We have determined the matters described below to be the key audit matters to be communicated in our report. For each matter below, our description of how our audit addressed the matter is provided in that context. We have fulfilled the responsibilities described in the Auditor's responsibilities for the audit of the standalone financial statements section of our report, including in relation to these matters. Accordingly, our audit included the performance of procedures designed to respond to our assessment of the risks of material misstatement of the standalone financial statements. The results of our audit procedures, including the procedures performed to address the matters below, provide the basis for our audit opinion on the accompanying standalone financial statements.

Information other than the Standalone Financial Statements & Auditor's Report thereon

The Company's Board of Directors is responsible for the Other Information. The Other Information comprises the information included in the Board's Report including Annexures to Board's Report and Management Discussion & Analysis but does not include the standalone financial statements and our auditor's report thereon.

Our opinion on the standalone financial statements does not cover the Other Information and we will not express any form of assurance conclusion thereon. In connection with our audit of the standalone financial statements, our responsibility is to read the other information identified above and, in doing so, consider whether the other information is materially inconsistent with the standalone financial statements, or our knowledge obtained during the course of our audit, or otherwise appears to be materially misstated. If, based on the work we have performed, we conclude that there is a material misstatement of this Other Information, we are required to report that fact. We have nothing to report in this regard.

Responsibility of Management for the Standalone Financial Statements

The Company's Board of Directors is responsible for the matters stated in section 134(5) of the Act with respect to the preparation of these standalone financial statements that give a true and fair view of the financial position, financial performance including other comprehensive income, changes in equity and cash flows of the Company in accordance with the Ind AS and accounting principles generally accepted in India. This responsibility also includes maintenance of adequate accounting records in accordance with the provisions of the Act, for safeguarding the assets of the Company and for preventing and detecting frauds and other irregularities; selection and application of appropriate accounting policies; making judgement and estimates that are reasonable and prudent; and design, implementation and maintenance of adequate internal financial controls, that were operating effectively or ensuring accuracy and completeness of the accounting records, relevant to the preparation and presentation of the standalone financial statements that give a true and fair view and are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error.

In preparing the standalone financial statements, management is responsible for assessing the Company's ability to continue as a going concern, disclosing, as applicable, matters related to going concern and using the going concern basis of accounting unless management either intends to liquidate the Company or to cease operations, or has no realistic alternative but to do so.

Those Board of Directors are also responsible for overseeing the Company's financial reporting process.

Auditor's Responsibilities for the Audit of the Standalone Financial Statements

Our objectives are to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the standalone financial statements as a whole are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error and to issue an auditor's report that includes our opinion. Reasonable assurance is a high level of assurance but is not a guarantee that an audit conducted in accordance with SAs will always detect a material misstatement when it exists. Misstatements can arise from fraud or error and are considered material if, individually or in the aggregate, they could reasonably be expected to influence the economic decisions of users taken on the basis of these standalone financial statements.

As part of an audit in accordance with SAs, we exercise professional judgment and maintain professional skepticism throughout the audit. We also:

- Identify and assess the risks of material misstatement of the standalone financial statements, whether due to fraud or error, design and perform audit procedures responsive to those risks, and obtain audit evidence that is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our opinion. The risk of not detecting a material misstatement resulting from fraud is higher than for one resulting from error, as fraud may involve collusion, forgery, intentional omissions, misrepresentations, or the override of internal control.
- Obtain an understanding of internal financial control relevant to the audit in order to design audit procedures that are appropriate in the circumstances. Under section 143(3)(i) of the Act, we are also responsible for expressing our opinion on whether the Company has adequate internal financial controls system in place and the operating effectiveness of such controls.

- Evaluate the appropriateness of accounting policies used and the reasonableness of accounting estimates and related disclosures made by the management.
- Conclude on the appropriateness of management's use of the going concern basis of accounting and, based on the audit evidence obtained, whether a material uncertainty exists related to events or conditions that may cast significant doubt on the Company's ability to continue as a going concern. If we conclude that a material uncertainty exists, we are required to draw attention in our auditor's report to the related disclosures in the standalone financial statements or, if such disclosures are inadequate, to modify our opinion. Our conclusions are based on the audit evidence obtained up to the date of our auditor's report. However, future events or conditions may cause the Company to cease to continue as a going concern.
- Evaluate the overall presentation, structure and content of the standalone financial statements, including the disclosures, and whether the standalone financial statements represent the underlying transactions and events in a manner that achieves fair presentation.

We communicate with those charged with governance regarding, among other matters, the planned scope and timing of the audit and significant audit findings, including any significant deficiencies in internal control that we identify during our audit.

We also provide those charged with governance with a statement that we have complied with relevant ethical requirements regarding independence, and to communicate with them all relationships and other matters that may reasonably be thought to bear on our independence, and where applicable, related safeguards.

From the matters communicated with those charged with governance, we determine those matters that were of most significance in the audit of the Standalone Financial Statements of the current period and are therefore the key audit matters. We describe these matters in our auditor's report unless law or regulation precludes public disclosure about the matter or when, in extremely rare circumstances, we determine that a matter should not be communicated in our report because the adverse consequences of doing so would reasonably be expected to outweigh the public interest benefits of such communication.

A company’s internal financial control with reference to standalone financial statements is a process designed to provide reasonable assurance regarding the reliability of financial reporting and the preparation of standalone financial statements for external purpose in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles. A company’s internal financial control with reference to standalone financial statements includes those policies and procedures that

- 1) pertain to the maintenance of records that, in reasonable detail, accurately and fairly reflect the transactions and dispositions of the assets of the company.
- 2) provide reasonable assurance that transactions are recorded as necessary to permit preparation of standalone financial statements in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles, and that receipts and expenditures of the company are being made only in accordance with authorisations of management and directors of the company, and

- 3) provide reasonable assurance regarding prevention or timely detection of unauthorised acquisition, use, or disposition of the company's assets that could have a material effect on the standalone financial statements.

Inherent Limitations of Internal Financial Controls with reference to standalone financial statements

Because of the inherent limitations of internal financial controls with reference to standalone financial statements, including the possibility of collusion or improper management override of controls, material misstatements due to error or fraud may occur and not be detected. Also, projections of any evaluation of the internal financial controls with reference to standalone financial statements to future periods are subject to the risk that the internal financial control with reference to standalone financial statements may become inadequate because of changes in conditions, or that the degree of compliance with the policies of procedures may deteriorate.

In our opinion, the Company has, in all material respects, an adequate internal financial control system with reference to standalone financial statements and such internal financial controls were operating effectively as on 31 March 2022, based on the internal control over financial reporting criteria established by the Company considering the essential components of internal controls stated in the Guidance Note on Audit of Internal Financial Controls Over Financial Reports issued by the Institute of Chartered Accountants of India.

The costs of providing benefits under these plans are determined on the basis of actuarial valuation at each year-end. Actuarial valuation is carried out for using the projected unit credit method. Actuarial gains and losses for defined benefit plan is recognised in full in the period in which they occur.

Remeasurements, comprising of actuarial gains and losses are recognised immediately in the balance sheet with a corresponding debit or credit to retained earnings through OCI in the period in which they occur. Remeasurements are not reclassified to profit or loss in subsequent periods.

n	EARNINGS PER SHARE:
	Basic earnings per share is calculated by dividing the net profit or loss attributable to equity holders of parent company (after deducting preference dividends and attributable taxes) by the weighted average number of equity shares outstanding during the period.
	For the purpose of calculating diluted earnings per share, the net profit or loss for the period attributable to equity shareholders of the parent company and the weighted average number of shares outstanding during the period are adjusted for the effects of all dilutive potential equity shares.
o	CASH AND CASH EQUIVALENTS:
	Cash and cash equivalent in the balance sheet comprise cash at banks and on hand and short-term deposits with an original maturity of three months or less, that are readily convertible to a known amount of cash and subject to an insignificant risk of changes in value.
	For the purpose of the standalone statement of cash flows, cash and cash equivalents consist of cash and short-term deposits, as defined above.
p	OTHER BANK BALANCES:
q	FINANCIAL INSTRUMENTS:
	(i) Financial Asset:
	(a) Classification:
	On initial recognition the Company classifies financial assets as subsequently measured at amortised cost, fair value through other comprehensive income or fair value through profit or loss on the basis of its business model for managing the financial assets and the contractual cash flow characteristics of the financial asset.
	(b) Initial recognition and measurement:
	All financial assets (not measured subsequently at fair value through profit or loss) are recognised initially at fair value plus transaction costs that are attributable to the acquisition of the financial asset. Purchases or sales of financial assets that require delivery of assets within a time frame established by regulation or convention in the market place (regular way trades) are recognised on the trade date, i.e., the date that the company commits to purchase or sell the asset.
	(c) Subsequent measurement:
	For the purposes of subsequent measurement, financial assets are classified in three categories:
	<ul style="list-style-type: none">- Financial assets instruments at amortised cost (debt instruments)- Financial assets at fair value through other comprehensive income (FVTOCI).- Financial assets at fair value through profit or loss (FVTPL) (Derivatives and Equity Instruments)
	(d) Financial assets at amortised cost:
	A 'financial asset' is measured at the amortised cost if both the following conditions are met:
	1) the asset is held within a business model whose objective is to hold assets for collecting contractual cash flows, and

2) contractual terms of the asset give rise on specified dates to cash flows that are solely payments of principal and interest (SPPI) on the principal amount outstanding.

After initial measurement, such financial assets are subsequently measured at amortised cost using the effective interest rate (EIR) method. Amortised cost is calculated by taking into account any discount or premium and fees or costs that are an integral part of the EIR. The EIR amortisation is included in finance income in the Statement of Profit and Loss. The losses arising from impairment are recognised in the Statement of Profit and Loss. This category generally applies to trade and other receivables.

Financial assets included within the fair value through profit and loss (FVTPL) category are measured at fair value with all changes recognised .

(e) Financial assets at fair value through OCI (FVTOCI):

A 'financial asset' is classified as at the FVTOCI if both of the following criteria are met:

- a) The objective of the business model is achieved both by collecting contractual cash flows and selling the financial assets, and
- b) The asset's contractual cash flows represent SPPI.

(f) Financial assets at fair value through profit or loss:

Financial assets at fair value through profit or loss are carried in the balance sheet at fair value with net changes in fair value recognised in the statement of profit and loss.

This category includes derivative instruments and listed equity investments which the Company had not irrevocably elected to classify at fair value through OCI. Dividends on listed equity investments are recognised in the statement of profit and loss when the right of payment has been established.

(g) Derecognition:

A financial asset (or, where applicable, a part of a financial asset or part of a group of similar financial assets) is primarily derecognised (i.e. removed from the Company's standalone balance sheet) when:

The rights to receive cash flows from the asset have expired, or

The Company has transferred its rights to receive cash flows from the asset or has assumed an obligation to pay the received cash flows in full without material delay to a third party under a 'pass-through' arrangement; and either:

(i) the Company has transferred substantially all the risks and rewards of the asset, or

(ii) the Company has neither transferred nor retained substantially all the risks and rewards of the asset, but has transferred control of the asset.

When the Company has transferred its rights to receive cash flows from an asset or has entered into a pass-through arrangement, it evaluates if and to what extent it has retained the risks and rewards of ownership. When it has neither transferred nor retained substantially all of the risks and rewards of the asset, nor transferred control of the asset, the Company continues to recognise the transferred asset to the extent of the Company's continuing involvement. In that case, the Company also recognises an associated liability. The transferred asset and the associated liability are measured on a basis that reflects the rights and obligations that the Company has retained.

Continuing involvement that takes the form of a guarantee over the transferred asset is measured at the lower of the original carrying amount of the asset and the maximum amount of consideration that the Company could be required to repay.

On derecognition of a financial asset in its entirety, the differences between the carrying amounts measured at the date of derecognition and the consideration received is recognised in the statement of profit and loss.

(h) Impairment of financial assets:

In accordance with Ind AS 109, the Company applies Expected Credit Loss (ECL) model for measurement and recognition of impairment loss on the following financial assets and credit risk exposure:

(i) financial assets that are debt instruments, and are measured at amortised cost e.g., loans, debt securities, deposits, and bank balance.

(ii) trade receivables:

The Company follows 'simplified approach' for recognition of impairment loss allowance on trade receivables which do not contain a significant financing component.

The application of simplified approach does not require the Company to track changes in credit risk. Rather, it recognises impairment loss allowance based on lifetime ECLs at each reporting date, right from its initial recognition.

(ii) Financial Liabilities:

(a) Classification:

The Company classifies all financial liabilities as subsequently measured at amortised cost, except for financial liabilities measured at fair value through profit or loss. Such liabilities, including derivatives that are liabilities, shall be subsequently measured at fair value with changes in fair value being recognised in the Statement of Profit and Loss.

(b) Initial recognition and measurement:

Financial liabilities are classified, at initial recognition, as financial liabilities at fair value through profit or loss, at amortised cost (loans and borrowings, and payables), or as derivatives designated as hedging instruments in an effective hedge, as appropriate.

All financial liabilities are recognised initially at fair value and, in the case of loans and borrowings and payables, net of directly attributable transaction costs.

The Company's financial liabilities include trade and other payables, loans and borrowings including bank overdrafts, financial guarantee contracts and derivative financial instruments.

(c) Subsequent measurement:

For the purposes of subsequent measurement, financial liabilities are classified in two categories:

- Financial liabilities at fair value through profit or loss.
 - Financial liabilities at amortised cost (loans and borrowings).

(d) Financial liabilities at fair value through profit or loss:

Financial liabilities at fair value through profit or loss include financial liabilities held for trading and financial liabilities designated upon initial recognition as at fair value through profit or loss.

(e) Financial liabilities at amortised cost (loans and borrowings):

After initial recognition, interest-bearing financial liabilities are subsequently measured at amortised cost using the EIR method. Gains and losses are recognised in Statement of Profit and Loss when the liabilities are derecognised.

Amortised cost is calculated by taking into account any discount or premium on acquisition and fees or costs that are an integral part of the EIR. The EIR amortisation is included as finance costs in the Statement of Profit and Loss.

This category generally applies to interest-bearing loans and borrowings.

(f) Derecognition:

A financial liability is derecognised when the obligation under the liability is discharged or cancelled or expires. When an existing financial liability is replaced by another from the same lender on substantially different terms, or the terms of an existing liability are substantially modified, such an exchange or modification is treated as the derecognition of the original liability and the recognition of a new liability. The difference in the respective carrying amounts is recognised in the Statement of Profit and Loss.

r TAXATION:

i. Current Tax:

Tax expense for the year comprises current and deferred tax. The tax currently payable is based on taxable profit for the year. Taxable profit differs from net profit as reported in the Standalone Statement of Profit and Loss because it excludes items of income or expense that are taxable or deductible in other years and it further excludes items that are never taxable or deductible. The Company's liability for current tax is calculated using tax rates and tax laws that have been enacted or substantively enacted by the end of the reporting period.

Current tax assets and current tax liabilities are offset when there is a legally enforceable right to set off the recognised amounts and there is an intention to realise the asset or to settle the liability on a net basis.

ii. Deferred Tax:

Deferred tax is the tax expected to be payable or recoverable on differences between the carrying values of assets and liabilities in the Standalone Financial Statements and the corresponding tax bases used in the computation of taxable profit and is accounted for using the Standalone Balance Sheet liability method. Deferred tax liabilities are generally recognised for all taxable temporary differences arising between the tax base of assets and liabilities and their carrying amount, except when the deferred income tax arises from the initial recognition of an asset or liability in a transaction that is not a business combination and affects neither accounting nor taxable profit or loss at the time of the transaction. In contrast, deferred tax assets are only recognised to the extent that it is probable that future taxable profits will be available against which the temporary differences can be utilised.

The carrying value of deferred tax assets is reviewed at the end of each reporting period and reduced to the extent that it is no longer probable that sufficient taxable profits will be available to allow all or part of the asset to be recovered.

Deferred tax is calculated at the tax rates that are expected to apply in the period when the liability is settled or the asset is realised based on the tax rates and tax laws that have been enacted or substantively enacted by the end of the reporting period. The measurement of deferred tax liabilities and assets reflects the tax consequences that would follow from the manner in which the Company expects, at the end of the reporting period, to cover or settle the carrying value of its assets and liabilities. Deferred tax assets and liabilities are offset to the extent that they relate to taxes levied by the same tax authority and there are legally enforceable rights to set off current tax assets and current tax liabilities within that jurisdiction.

The Company as a lessee

The Company's lease asset classes primarily consist of leases for land and buildings. The Company assesses whether a contract contains a lease, at inception of a contract. A contract is, or contains, a lease if the contract conveys the right to control the use of an identified asset for a period of time in exchange for consideration. To assess whether a contract conveys the right to control the use of an identified asset, the Company assesses whether : (i) the contract involves the use of an identified asset (ii) the Company has substantially all of the economic benefits from use of the asset through the period of the lease and (iii) the Company has the right to direct the use of the asset.

At the date of commencement of the lease, the Company recognises a right-of-use (ROU) asset and a corresponding lease liability for all lease arrangements in which it is a lessee, except for leases with a term of 12 months or less (short-term leases) and low value leases. For these short-term and low-value leases, the Company recognises the lease payments as an operating expense on a straight-line basis over the term of the lease.

Certain lease arrangements includes the options to extend or terminate the lease before the end of the lease term. ROU assets and lease liabilities includes these options when it is reasonably certain that they will be exercised.

The ROU assets are initially recognised at cost, which comprises the initial amount of the lease liability adjusted for any lease payments made at or prior to the commencement date of the lease plus any initial direct costs less any lease incentives. They are subsequently measured at cost less accumulated depreciation and impairment losses.

ROU assets are depreciated from the commencement date on a straight-line basis over the shorter of the lease term and useful life of the underlying asset. ROU assets are evaluated for recoverability whenever events or changes in circumstances indicate that their carrying amounts may not be recoverable. For the purpose of impairment testing, the recoverable amount (i.e. the higher of the fair value less cost to sell and the value-in-use) is determined on an individual asset basis unless the asset does not generate cash flows that are largely independent of those from other assets. In such cases, the recoverable amount is determined for the Cash Generating Unit (CGU) to which the asset belongs.

The Company as a lessor

Leases in which the Company does not transfer substantially all the risks and rewards incidental to ownership of an asset are classified as operating leases. Rental income arising is accounted for on a straight-line basis over the lease terms.

t GRANTS:

Government grants are recognised where there is reasonable assurance that the grant will be received, and all attached conditions will be complied with. When the grant relates to an expense item, it is recognised as income on a systematic basis over the periods that the related costs, for which it is intended to compensate, are expensed. When the grant relates to an asset, it is recognised as income in equal amounts over the expected useful life of the related asset.

u Provisions and Contingent Liabilities:

A provision is recognised when an enterprise has a present obligation as a result of past event; it is probable that an outflow of resources will be required to settle the obligation, in respect of which a reliable estimate can be made. Provisions are not discounted to its present value and are determined based on best estimate required to settle the obligation at the balance sheet date. These are reviewed at each balance sheet date and adjusted to reflect the current best estimates.

A Contingent Liability is a possible obligation that arises from past events whose existence will be confirmed by the occurrence or non-occurrence of one or more uncertain future events beyond the control of the Company or a present obligation that is not recognised because it is not probable that an outflow of resources will be required to settle the obligation.

A Contingent Liability is a possible obligation that arises from past events whose existence will be confirmed by the occurrence or non-occurrence of one or more uncertain future events beyond the control of the Company or a present obligation that is not recognised because it is not probable that an outflow of resources will be required to settle the obligation.

v Biological Assets:

Biological assets are measured at fair value less costs to sell, with any change therein recognised in Statement of Profit and Loss.

w Segment Reporting:

The Company's Chief Operating Decision Maker (CODM) examines the Company's performance from business and geographic perspective. In accordance with Ind AS-108 - Operating Segments, evaluation by the CODM and based on the nature of activities performed by the Company, which primarily relate to poultry healthcare and animal healthcare.

2.3 SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING ESTIMATES AND ASSUMPTIONS:

The preparation of the Company's financial statements requires management to make judgements, estimates and assumptions that affect the reported amounts of revenues, expenses, assets and liabilities, and the accompanying disclosures, and the disclosure of contingent liabilities. Uncertainty about these assumptions and estimates could result in outcomes that require a material adjustment to the carrying amount of assets or liabilities affected in future periods.

The key assumptions concerning the future and other key sources of estimation uncertainty at the reporting date, that have a significant risk of causing a material adjustment to the carrying amounts of assets and liabilities within the next financial year. The Company based its assumptions and estimates on parameters available when the financial statements were prepared. Existing circumstances and assumptions about future developments, however, may change due to market changes or circumstances arising that are beyond the control of the Company. Such changes are reflected in the assumptions when they occur.

a Defined benefit plans (gratuity benefits)

The cost of the defined benefit gratuity plan and the present value of the gratuity obligation are determined using actuarial valuation. An actuarial valuation involves making various assumptions that may differ from actual developments in the future. These include the determination of the discount rate, future salary increases and mortality rates. Due to the complexities involved in the valuation and its long-term nature, a defined benefit obligation is highly sensitive to changes in these assumptions. All assumptions are reviewed at each reporting date.

The parameter most subject to change is the discount rate. In determining the appropriate discount rate for plans operated in India, the management considers the interest rates of government bonds in currencies consistent with the currencies of the post-employment benefit obligation.

The mortality rate is based on publicly available mortality tables for India. Those mortality tables tend to change only at interval in response to demographic changes. Future salary increases and gratuity increases are based on expected future inflation rates for India.

b Useful life of Property, Plant and Equipment and Intangible assets

Property, Plant and Equipment and Intangible Assets are depreciated/amortised over their estimated useful life, after taking into account estimated residual value.

Management reviews the estimated useful life and residual values of the assets annually in order to determine the amount of depreciation/amortisation to be recorded during any reporting period. The useful life and residual values are based on the Company's historical experience with similar assets and take into account anticipated technological changes.

The depreciation/amortisation for future periods is revised if there are significant changes from previous estimates.

The Holding Company's Board of Directors is responsible for the Other Information. The Other Information comprises the information included in the Board's Report including Annexures to Board's Report and Management Discussion & Analysis but does not include the Consolidated financial statements and our auditor's report thereon.

Our opinion on the Consolidated Financial statements does not cover the Other Information other than the financial statements and auditor's report thereon and we do not express any form of assurance conclusion thereon.

In connection with our audit of the Consolidated Financial statements, our responsibility is to read the other information identified above and, in doing so, consider whether the other information is materially inconsistent with the Consolidated Financial statements, or our knowledge obtained in the audit or otherwise appears to be materially misstated.

If, based on the work we have performed and based on the work done/ audit report of other auditors, we conclude that there is a material misstatement of this Other Information, we are required to report that fact. We have nothing to report in this regard.

Management's Responsibilities for the Consolidated Financial Statements

The Holding Company's Board of Directors is responsible for the matters stated in section 134(5) of the Act with respect to the preparation of these Consolidated financial statements that give a true and fair view of the Consolidated financial position, Consolidated financial performance including other comprehensive income, Consolidated changes in equity and Consolidated cash flows of the Group including its Joint venture in accordance with the Ind AS and accounting principles generally accepted in India. The respective Board of Directors of the companies included in the Group and of its associates and joint venture are responsible for maintenance of adequate accounting records in accordance with the provisions of the Act, for safeguarding the assets of the Group and for preventing and detecting frauds and other irregularities; selection and application of appropriate accounting policies; making judgement and estimates that are reasonable and prudent; and design, implementation and maintenance of adequate internal financial controls, that were operating effectively for ensuring accuracy and completeness of the accounting records, relevant to the preparation and presentation of the Consolidated financial statements that give a true and fair view and are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error, which have been used for the purpose of preparation of the consolidated financial statements by the Directors of the Holding Company, as aforesaid.

In preparing the consolidated financial statements, the respective Board of Directors of the companies included in the Group and of its joint venture are responsible for assessing the ability of the Group and of its joint venture to continue as a going concern, disclosing, as applicable, matters related to going concern and using the going concern basis of accounting unless management either intends to liquidate the Group or to cease operations, or has no realistic alternative but to do so.

The respective Board of Directors of the companies included in the Group and of its joint venture are responsible for overseeing financial reporting process of the Group and of its joint venture.

Auditor's Responsibilities for the Audit of the Consolidated Financial Statements

Our objectives are to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the Consolidated Financial statements as a whole are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error, and to issue an auditor's report that includes our opinion. Reasonable assurance is a high level of assurance but is not a guarantee that an audit conducted in accordance with SAs will always detect a material misstatement when it exists. Misstatements can arise from fraud or error and are considered material if, individually or in the aggregate, they could reasonably be expected to influence the economic decisions of users taken on the basis of these Consolidated Financial statements.

As part of an audit in accordance with SAs, we exercise professional judgment and maintain professional skepticism throughout the audit. We also:

- Identify and assess the risks of material misstatement of the Consolidated Financial statements, whether due to fraud or error, design and perform audit procedures responsive to those risks, and obtain audit evidence that is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our opinion. The risk of not detecting a material misstatement resulting from fraud is higher than for one resulting from error, as fraud may involve collusion, forgery, intentional omissions, misrepresentations, or the override of internal control.

- Obtain an understanding of internal control relevant to the audit in order to design audit procedures that are appropriate in the circumstances. Under section 143(3)(i) of the Act, we are also responsible for expressing our opinion on whether the Holding Company has adequate internal financial controls system in place and the operating effectiveness of such controls.
- Evaluate the appropriateness of accounting policies used and the reasonableness of accounting estimates and related disclosures made by management.
- Conclude on the appropriateness of management's use of the going concern basis of accounting and, based on the audit evidence obtained, whether a material uncertainty exists related to events or conditions that may cast significant doubt on the ability of the Group to continue as a going concern. If we conclude that a material uncertainty exists, we are required to draw attention in our auditor's report to the related disclosures in the Consolidated Financial statements or, if such disclosures are inadequate, to modify our opinion. Our conclusions are based on the audit evidence obtained up to the date of our auditor's report. However, future events or conditions may cause the Group and its joint venture to cease to continue as a going concern.
- Evaluate the overall presentation, structure and content of the Consolidated Financial statements, including the disclosures, and whether the Consolidated Financial statements represent the underlying transactions and events in a manner that achieves fair presentation.
- Obtain sufficient appropriate audit evidence regarding the financial information of the entities or business activities within the Group and its joint venture to express an opinion on the consolidated financial statements. We are responsible for the direction, supervision and performance of the audit of the financial statements of such entity included in the consolidated financial statements of which we are the independent auditors. For the other entities included in the consolidated financial statements, which have been audited by other auditors, such other auditors remain responsible for the direction, supervision and performance of the audits carried out by them. We remain solely responsible for our audit opinion.

We communicate with those charged with governance of the Holding Company and such other entities included in the Consolidated Financial statements of which we are the independent auditors regarding, among other matters, the planned scope and timing of the audit and significant audit findings, including any significant deficiencies in internal control that we identify during our audit.

We also provide those charged with governance with a statement that we have complied with relevant ethical requirements regarding independence, and to communicate with them all relationships and other matters that may reasonably be thought to bear on our independence, and where applicable, related safeguards.

From the matters communicated with those charged with governance, we determine those matters that were of most significance in the audit of the Consolidated Financial Statements of the current period and are therefore the key audit matters. We describe these matters in our auditor's report unless law or regulation precludes public disclosure about the matter or when, in extremely rare circumstances, we determine that a matter should not be communicated in our report because the adverse consequences of doing so would reasonably be expected to outweigh the public interest benefits of such communication.

statements were established and maintained and if such controls operated effectively in all material respects.

Our audit involves performing procedures to obtain audit evidence about the adequacy of the internal financial controls with reference to Consolidated Financial statements and their operating effectiveness. Our audit of internal financial controls with reference to consolidated financial statements included obtaining an understanding of internal financial controls with reference to consolidated financial statements, assessing the risk that a material weakness exists, and testing and evaluating the design and operating effectiveness of internal control based on the assessed risk. The procedures selected depend on the auditor's judgement, including the assessment of the risks of material misstatement of the consolidated financial statements, whether due to fraud or error.

We believe that the audit evidence we have obtained is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our audit opinion on the internal financial controls with reference to consolidated financial statements.

Meaning of Internal Financial Controls with reference to Consolidated Financial Statements

A company's internal financial control with reference to Consolidated Financial statements is a process designed to provide reasonable assurance regarding the reliability of financial reporting and the preparation of financial statements for external purposes in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles. A company's internal financial control with reference to Consolidated Financial statements includes those policies and procedures that

- 1) pertain to the maintenance of records that, in reasonable detail, accurately and fairly reflect the transactions and dispositions of the assets of the company;
- 2) provide reasonable assurance that transactions are recorded as necessary to permit preparation of consolidated financial statements in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles, and that receipts and expenditures of the company are being made only in accordance with authorisations of management and directors of the company; and

Inherent Limitations of Internal Financial Controls with reference to Consolidated Financial Statements

Because of the inherent limitations of internal financial controls with reference to Consolidated Financial statements, including the possibility of collusion or improper management override of controls, material misstatements due to error or fraud may occur and not be detected. Also, projections of any evaluation of the internal financial controls with reference to Consolidated Financial statements to future periods are subject to the risk that the internal financial control with reference to Consolidated Financial statements may become inadequate because of changes in conditions, or that the degree of compliance with the policies or procedures may deteriorate.

Opinion

In our opinion, the Holding Company and subsidiary company incorporated in India, have maintained in all material respects, adequate internal financial controls with reference to Consolidated Financial statements and such internal financial controls with reference to Consolidated Financial statements were operating effectively as at 31 March 2022, based on the internal control over financial reporting criteria established by the such companies considering the essential components of internal control stated in the Guidance Note on Audit of Internal Financial Controls Over Financial Reporting issued by the Institute of Chartered Accountants of India.

Other Matter

Our aforesaid reports under Section 143(3)(i) of the Act on the adequacy and operating effectiveness of the internal financial controls over financial reporting with reference to consolidated financial statements, in so far as it relates to separate financial statement of one subsidiary company which is incorporated in India, is based on the corresponding report of the auditor of such subsidiary company incorporated in India.

Advances paid towards the acquisition of property, plant and equipment outstanding at each reporting date is disclosed as capital advances under other non current assets. The cost of property, plant and equipment not ready to use before such date are disclosed under capital work-in-progress. Assets not ready for use are not depreciated.

The residual values, useful lives and methods of depreciation of property, plant and equipment are reviewed at each financial year end and adjusted prospectively, if appropriate.

f INTANGIBLE ASSETS :

Intangible assets acquired separately are measured on initial recognition at cost. The cost of intangible assets acquired in a business combination is their fair value at the date of acquisition. Following initial recognition, intangible assets are carried at cost less any accumulated amortisation and accumulated impairment losses. Internally generated intangibles, excluding capitalised development costs, are not capitalised and the related expenditure is reflected in profit or loss in the period in which the expenditure is incurred.

Capital assets under development are stated at cost in the Balance Sheet as "Intangible Asset under Development".

An intangible asset is derecognised upon disposal (i.e., at the date the recipient obtains control) or when no future economic benefits are expected from its use or disposal. Any gain or loss arising upon derecognition of the asset (calculated as the difference between the net disposal proceeds and the carrying amount of the asset) is included in the statement of profit and loss. when the asset is derecognised.

g DEPRECIATION / AMORTISATION :

Depreciation on Fixed Assets is provided on Straight Line method (SLM) method based on useful life of the assets as prescribed under Part-C of Schedule II to the companies Act, 2013 except in respect of the following assets, where useful life is different than those prescribed in Schedule II are used. The Management estimates the useful lives for such fixed assets as under:-

Depreciation on Fixed Assets by certain subsidiaries are provided on Written Down Value (WDV) method based on useful life of the assets as per their respective country legislation and rules.

h IMPAIRMENT OF NON - FINANCIAL ASSET - Property, Plant and Equipment and Intangible Assets:

The group assesses at each reporting date as to whether there is any indication that any Property, Plant and Equipment and Intangible Assets or group of Assets, called Cash Generating Units (CGU) may be impaired. If any such indication exists, the recoverable amount of an asset or CGU is estimated to determine the extent of impairment, if any. When it is not possible to estimate the recoverable amount of an individual asset, the group estimates the recoverable amount of the CGU to which the asset belongs.

An impairment loss is recognised in the Statement of Profit and Loss to the extent, assets' carrying amount exceeds its recoverable amount. The recoverable amount is higher of an assets' fair value less cost of disposal and value in use. Value in use is based on the estimated future cash flows, discounted to their present value using pre-tax discount rate that reflects current market assessments of the time value of money and risk specific to the assets.

i INVESTMENTS:

Investments, which are readily realisable and intended to be held for not more than a year from the date on which such investments are made, are classified as current investments. All other investments are classified as long-term investments.

Current investments are carried in the financial statements at lower of cost and fair value determined on an individual investment basis. Long-term investments are carried at cost. However, provision for diminution in value is made to recognise a decline other than temporary in the value of the investments.

Investments in buildings that are not intended to be occupied substantially for use by, or in the operations of the Company, have been classified as investment properties. Investment properties are carried at cost less accumulated depreciation and accumulated impairment losses, if any.

j INVENTORIES:

Inventories include raw materials, bought out components, work-in-progress and manufactured finished goods. Costs incurred in bringing each product to its present location and condition are accounted for as follows:

Finished products:

Finished products produced by the group are valued at lower of cost and net realisable value. Cost includes direct materials, labour, a proportion of manufacturing overheads.

Traded goods:

Traded goods cost includes cost of purchase and other costs incurred in bringing the inventories to their present location and condition. The cost is determined using First in First out (FIFO) method.

NOTES TO CONSOLIDATED FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

Work in Progress:

Work in Progress is valued at cost of direct materials, labour and other Manufacturing overheads up to estimated stage of process.

Raw materials and stores & spares:

Raw materials and stores & spares are valued at Lower of cost and net realisable value. However, materials and other items held for use in the production of inventories are not written down below cost if the finished products in which they will be incorporated are expected to be sold at or above cost. The cost is determined using First in First out (FIFO) method.

k BORROWING COSTS:

Borrowing costs directly attributable to the acquisition, construction or production of an asset that necessarily takes a substantial period of time to get ready for its intended use or sale are capitalised as part of the cost of the asset. All other borrowing costs are expensed in the period in which they occur. Borrowing costs consist of interest and other costs that an entity incurs in connection with the borrowing of funds. Borrowing cost also includes exchange differences to the extent regarded as an adjustment to the borrowing costs.

l LEASES:

The determination of whether an arrangement is (or contains) a lease is based on the substance of the arrangement at the inception of the lease. The arrangement is, or contains, a lease if fulfilment of the arrangement is dependent on the use of a specific asset or assets and the arrangement conveys a right to use the asset or assets, even if that right is not explicitly specified in an arrangement.

Group as a lessee:

i Right-of-use assets

The Group recognises right-of-use assets at the commencement date of the lease (i.e., the date the underlying asset is available for use). Right-of-use assets are measured at cost, less any accumulated depreciation and impairment losses, and adjusted for any remeasurement of lease liabilities. The cost of right-of-use assets includes the amount of lease liabilities recognised, initial direct costs incurred, and lease payments made at or before the commencement date less any lease incentives received. Right-of-use assets are depreciated on a straight-line basis over the shorter of the lease term and the estimated useful lives of the assets, as follows:

Assets	Estimated Useful Life
Right-of-use of office premises and leasehold land	Over the balance period of lease agreement

ii Lease Liability

The Group's lease asset classes primarily consist of leases for land and buildings. The Group assesses whether a contract contains a lease, at inception of a contract. A contract is, or contains, a lease if the contract conveys the right to control the use of an identified asset for a period of time in exchange for consideration. To assess whether a contract conveys the right to control the use of an identified asset, the Company assesses whether : (i) the contract involves the use of an identified asset (ii) the Company has substantially all of the economic benefits from use of the asset through the period of the lease and (iii) the Company has the right to direct the use of the asset.

At the date of commencement of the lease, the Group recognises a right-of-use (ROU) asset and a corresponding lease liability for all lease arrangements in which it is a lessee, except for leases with a term of 12 months or less (short-term leases) and low value leases. For these short-term and low-value leases, the Group recognises the lease payments as an operating expense on a straight-line basis over the term of the lease.

Certain lease arrangements includes the options to extend or terminate the lease before the end of the lease term. ROU assets and lease liabilities includes these options when it is reasonably certain that they will be exercised.

The ROU assets are initially recognised at cost, which comprises the initial amount of the lease liability adjusted for any lease payments made at or prior to the commencement date of the lease plus any initial direct costs less any lease incentives. They are subsequently measured at cost less accumulated depreciation and impairment losses.

ROU assets are depreciated from the commencement date on a straight-line basis over the shorter of the lease term and useful life of the underlying asset. ROU assets are evaluated for recoverability whenever events or changes in circumstances indicate that their carrying amounts may not be recoverable. For the purpose of impairment testing, the recoverable amount (i.e. the higher of the fair value less cost to sell and the value-in-use) is determined on an individual asset basis unless the asset does not generate cash flows that are largely independent of those from other assets. In such cases, the recoverable amount is determined for the Cash Generating Unit (CGU) to which the asset belongs.

The Group as a lessor

Leases in which the Group does not transfer substantially all the risks and rewards incidental to ownership of an asset are classified as operating leases. Rental income arising is accounted for on a straight-line basis over the lease terms.

m RESEARCH AND DEVELOPMENT:

Revenue expenditure on Research and Development is charged to the Statement of Profit and Loss for the year in which it is incurred. Capital expenditure on Research and Development is shown as an addition to the fixed assets and is depreciated on the same basis as other fixed assets.

n PROVISION FOR RETIREMENT BENEFITS:

(i) Short-Term Employee Benefits:

The undiscounted amount of short term employee benefits expected to be paid in exchange for the services rendered by employees are recognised as an expense during the period when the employees render the services.

(ii) Post- employment benefit plans:

a) Defined Contribution Plan:

Contribution for provident fund are accrued in accordance with applicable Statutes and deposited with the Regional Provident Fund Commissioner. The Group does not have any obligation other than contribution under scheme.

b) Defined Benefit Plan:

The Holding Company operates two defined benefit plans for its employees, viz., Gratuity and Leave Encashment. The costs of providing benefits under these plans are determined on the basis of actuarial valuation at each year-end. Actuarial valuation is carried out for using the projected unit credit method. Actuarial gains and losses for defined benefit plan is recognised in full in the period in which they occur.

The Indian subsidiary operates defined benefit plans for its employees for Gratuity. The costs of providing benefits under this plan is determined on the basis of actuarial valuation at each year-end. Actuarial valuation is carried out for using the projected unit credit method. Actuarial gains and losses for defined benefit plan is recognised in full in the period in which they occur. The Indian subsidiary company has not invested in any fund for meeting liability.

Remeasurements, comprising of actuarial gains and losses are recognised immediately in the balance sheet with a corresponding debit or credit to retained earnings through OCI in the period in which they occur. Remeasurements are not reclassified to profit or loss in subsequent periods.

o EARNINGS PER SHARE:

Basic earnings per share is calculated by dividing the net profit or loss attributable to equity holders of parent company (after deducting preference dividends and attributable taxes) by the weighted average number of equity shares outstanding during the period.

For the purpose of calculating diluted earnings per share, the net profit or loss for the period attributable to equity shareholders of the parent company and the weighted average number of shares outstanding during the period are adjusted for the effects of all dilutive potential equity shares.

p CASH AND CASH EQUIVALENTS:

Cash and cash equivalent in the balance sheet comprise cash at banks and on hand and short-term deposits with an original maturity of three months or less, that are readily convertible to a known amount of cash and subject to an insignificant risk of changes in value.

For the purpose of the standalone statement of cash flows, cash and cash equivalents consist of cash and short-term deposits, as defined above.

q OTHER BANK BALANCES:

r FINANCIAL INSTRUMENTS:

(i) Financial Asset:

(a) Classification:

On initial recognition the group classifies financial assets as subsequently measured at amortised cost, fair value through other comprehensive income or fair value through profit or loss on the basis of its business model for managing the financial assets and the contractual cash flow characteristics of the financial asset.

(b) Initial recognition and measurement:

All financial assets (not measured subsequently at fair value through profit or loss) are recognised initially at fair value plus transaction costs that are attributable to the acquisition of the financial asset. Purchases or sales of financial assets that require delivery of assets within a time frame established by regulation or convention in the market place (regular way trades) are recognised on the trade date, i.e., the date that the Group commits to purchase or sell the asset.

(c) Subsequent measurement:

For the purposes of subsequent measurement, financial assets are classified in three categories:

- Financial assets instruments at amortised cost (debt instruments)
 - Financial assets at fair value through other comprehensive income (FVTOCI).
 - Financial assets at fair value through profit or loss (FVTPL) (Derivatives and Equity Instruments)

(d) Financial assets at amortised cost:

A 'financial asset' is measured at the amortised cost if both the following conditions are met:

- 1) the asset is held within a business model whose objective is to hold assets for collecting contractual cash flows, and

2) contractual terms of the asset give rise on specified dates to cash flows that are solely payments of principal and interest (SPPI) on the principal amount outstanding.

After initial measurement, such financial assets are subsequently measured at amortised cost using the effective interest rate (EIR) method. Amortised cost is calculated by taking into account any discount or premium and fees or costs that are an integral part of the EIR. The EIR amortisation is included in finance income in the Statement of Profit and Loss. The losses arising from impairment are recognised in the Statement of Profit and Loss. This category generally applies to trade and other receivables.

Financial assets included within the fair value through profit and loss (FVTPL) category are measured at fair value with all changes recognised.

(e) Financial assets at fair value through OCI (FVTOCI):

A 'financial asset' is classified as at the FVTOCI if both of the following criteria are met:

- a) The objective of the business model is achieved both by collecting contractual cash flows and selling the financial assets, and
- b) The asset's contractual cash flows represent SPPI.

(f) Financial assets at fair value through profit or loss:

Financial assets at fair value through profit or loss are carried in the balance sheet at fair value with net changes in fair value recognised in the statement of profit and loss.

This category includes derivative instruments and listed equity investments which the Company had not irrevocably elected to classify at fair value through OCI. Dividends on listed equity investments are recognised in the statement of profit and loss when the right of payment has been established.

(g) Derecognition:

A financial asset (or, where applicable, a part of a financial asset or part of a group of similar financial assets) is primarily derecognised (i.e. removed from the Group's consolidated balance sheet) when:

The rights to receive cash flows from the asset have expired, or

The group has transferred its rights to receive cash flows from the asset or has assumed an obligation to pay the received cash flows in full without material delay to a third party under a 'pass-through' arrangement; and either:

(i) the group has transferred substantially all the risks and rewards of the asset, or

(ii) the group has neither transferred nor retained substantially all the risks and rewards of the asset, but has transferred control of the asset.

When the group has transferred its rights to receive cash flows from an asset or has entered into a pass-through arrangement, it evaluates if and to what extent it has retained the risks and rewards of ownership. When it has neither transferred nor retained substantially all of the risks and rewards of the asset, nor transferred control of the asset, the group continues to recognise the transferred asset to the extent of the group's continuing involvement. In that case, the group also recognises an associated liability. The transferred asset and the associated liability are measured on a basis that reflects the rights and obligations that the group has retained.

Continuing involvement that takes the form of a guarantee over the transferred asset is measured at the lower of the original carrying amount of the asset and the maximum amount of consideration that the group could be required to repay.

On derecognition of a financial asset in its entirety, the differences between the carrying amounts measured at the date of derecognition and the consideration received is recognised in the statement of profit and loss.

(h) Impairment of financial assets:

In accordance with Ind AS 109, the Company applies Expected Credit Loss (ECL) model for measurement and recognition of impairment loss on the following financial assets and credit risk exposure:

(i) financial assets that are debt instruments, and are measured at amortised cost e.g., loans, debt securities, deposits, and bank balance.

(ii) trade receivables:

The Company follows 'simplified approach' for recognition of impairment loss allowance on trade receivables which do not contain a significant financing component.

The application of simplified approach does not require the Company to track changes in credit risk. Rather, it recognises impairment loss allowance based on lifetime ECLs at each reporting date, right from its initial recognition.

(ii) Financial Liabilities:

(a) Classification:

The group classifies all financial liabilities as subsequently measured at amortised cost, except for financial liabilities measured at fair value through profit or loss. Such liabilities, including derivatives that are liabilities, shall be subsequently measured at fair value with changes in fair value being recognised in the Statement of Profit and Loss.

(b) Initial recognition and measurement:

Financial liabilities are classified, at initial recognition, as financial liabilities at fair value through profit or loss, at amortised cost (loans and borrowings, and payables), or as derivatives designated as hedging instruments in an effective hedge, as appropriate.

All financial liabilities are recognised initially at fair value and, in the case of loans and borrowings and payables, net of directly attributable transaction costs.

The group's financial liabilities include trade and other payables, loans and borrowings including bank overdrafts, financial guarantee contracts and derivative financial instruments.

(c) Subsequent Measurement:

For the purposes of subsequent measurement, financial liabilities are classified in two categories:

- Financial liabilities at fair value through profit or loss.
- Financial liabilities at amortised cost (loans and borrowings).

(d) Financial liabilities at fair value through profit or loss:

Financial liabilities at fair value through profit or loss include financial liabilities held for trading and financial liabilities designated upon initial recognition as at fair value through profit or loss.

(e) Financial liabilities at amortised cost (loans and borrowings):

After initial recognition, interest-bearing financial liabilities are subsequently measured at amortised cost using the EIR method. Gains and losses are recognised in Statement of Profit and Loss when the liabilities are derecognised.

Amortised cost is calculated by taking into account any discount or premium on acquisition and fees or costs that are an integral part of the EIR. The EIR amortisation is included as finance costs in the Statement of Profit and Loss.

This category generally applies to interest-bearing loans and borrowings.

(f) Derecognition:

For the year ended 31 March 2022

A financial liability is derecognised when the obligation under the liability is discharged or cancelled or expires. When an existing financial liability is replaced by another from the same lender on substantially different terms, or the terms of an existing liability are substantially modified, such an exchange or modification is treated as the derecognition of the original liability and the recognition of a new liability. The difference in the respective carrying amounts is recognised in the Statement of Profit and Loss.

s TAXATION:

i. Current Tax:

Tax expense for the year comprises current and deferred tax. The tax currently payable is based on taxable profit for the year. Taxable profit differs from net profit as reported in the Consolidated Statement of Profit and Loss because it excludes items of income or expense that are taxable or deductible in other years and it further excludes items that are never taxable or deductible. The Company's liability for current tax is calculated using tax rates and tax laws that have been enacted or substantively enacted by the end of the reporting period.

Current tax assets and current tax liabilities are offset when there is a legally enforceable right to set off the recognised amounts and there is an intention to realise the asset or to settle the liability on a net basis.

ii. Deferred Tax:

Deferred tax is the tax expected to be payable or recoverable on differences between the carrying values of assets and liabilities in the Standalone Financial Statements and the corresponding tax bases used in the computation of taxable profit and is accounted for using the Standalone Balance Sheet liability method. Deferred tax liabilities are generally recognised for all taxable temporary differences arising between the tax base of assets and liabilities and their carrying amount, except when the deferred income tax arises from the initial recognition of an asset or liability in a transaction that is not a business combination and affects neither accounting nor taxable profit or loss at the time of the transaction. In contrast, deferred tax assets are only recognised to the extent that it is probable that future taxable profits will be available against which the temporary differences can be utilised.

The carrying value of deferred tax assets is reviewed at the end of each reporting period and reduced to the extent that it is no longer probable that sufficient taxable profits will be available to allow all or part of the asset to be recovered.

Deferred tax is calculated at the tax rates that are expected to apply in the period when the liability is settled or the asset is realised based on the tax rates and tax laws that have been enacted or substantially enacted by the end of the reporting period. The measurement of deferred tax liabilities and assets reflects the tax consequences that would follow from the manner in which the Company expects, at the end of the reporting period, to cover or settle the carrying value of its assets and liabilities. Deferred tax assets and liabilities are offset to the extent that they relate to taxes levied by the same tax authority and there are legally enforceable rights to set off current tax assets and current tax liabilities within that jurisdiction.

t GRANTS:

Government grants are recognised where there is reasonable assurance that the grant will be received, and all attached conditions will be complied with. When the grant relates to an expense item, it is recognised as income on a systematic basis over the periods that the related costs, for which it is intended to compensate, are expensed. When the grant relates to an asset, it is recognised as income in equal amounts over the expected useful life of the related asset.

u Provisions and Contingent Liabilities:

A provision is recognised when an enterprise has a present obligation as a result of past event; it is probable that an outflow of resources will be required to settle the obligation, in respect of which a reliable estimate can be made. Provisions are not discounted to its present value and are determined based on best estimate required to settle the obligation at the balance sheet date. These are reviewed at each balance sheet date and adjusted to reflect the current best estimates. A Contingent Liability is a possible obligation that arises from past events whose existence will be confirmed by the occurrence or non-occurrence of one or more uncertain future events beyond the control of the group or a present obligation that is not recognised because it is not probable that an outflow of resources will be required to settle the obligation.

A Contingent Liability also arises in extremely rare cases where there is a liability that cannot be recognised because it cannot be measured reliably. The group does not recognise a contingent liability but discloses its existence in the consolidated financial statements.

v Biological Assets:

Biological assets are measured at fair value less costs to sell, with any change therein recognised in Statement of Profit and Loss.

w Segment Reporting:

The group's Chief Operating Decision Maker (CODM) examines the group's performance from business and geographic perspective. In accordance with Ind AS-108 - Operating Segments, evaluation by the CODM and based on the nature of activities performed by the group, which primarily relate to poultry health care and animal health care.

2.2 SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING ESTIMATES AND ASSUMPTIONS:

The preparation of the group's financial statements requires management to make judgements, estimates and assumptions that affect the reported amounts of revenues, expenses, assets and liabilities, and the acgrouping disclosures, and the disclosure of contingent liabilities. Uncertainty about these assumptions and estimates could result in outcomes that require a material adjustment to the carrying amount of assets or liabilities affected in future periods.

The key assumptions concerning the future and other key sources of estimation uncertainty at the reporting date, that have a significant risk of causing a material adjustment to the carrying amounts of assets and liabilities within the next financial year, are described below. The group based its assumptions and estimates on parameters available when the financial statements were prepared. Existing circumstances and assumptions about future developments, however, may change due to market changes or circumstances arising that are beyond the control of the group. Such changes are reflected in the assumptions when they occur.

a Defined benefit plans (gratuity benefits)

The cost of the defined benefit gratuity plan and the present value of the gratuity obligation are determined using actuarial valuation. An actuarial valuation involves making various assumptions that may differ from actual developments in the future. These include the determination of the discount rate, future salary increases and mortality rates. Due to the complexities involved in the valuation and its long-term nature, a defined benefit obligation is highly sensitive to changes in these assumptions. All assumptions are reviewed at each reporting date.

The parameter most subject to change is the discount rate. In determining the appropriate discount rate for plans operated in India, the management considers the interest rates of government bonds in currencies consistent with the currencies of the post-employment benefit obligation.

The mortality rate is based on publicly available mortality tables for India. Those mortality tables tend to change only at interval in response to demographic changes. Future salary increases and gratuity increases are based on expected future inflation rates for India.

Further details about gratuity obligations are given in note 42.

b Useful life of Property, Plant and Equipment and Intangible assets

Property, Plant and Equipment and Intangible Assets are depreciated/amortised over their estimated useful life, after taking into account estimated residual value.

Management reviews the estimated useful life and residual values of the assets annually in order to determine the amount of depreciation/amortisation to be recorded during any reporting period. The useful life and residual values are based on the Group's historical experience with similar assets and take into account anticipated technological changes.

The depreciation/amortisation for future periods is revised if there are significant changes from previous estimates.
