MANAGEMENT'S DISCUSSION AND ANALYSIS REPORT

ECONOMIC REVIEW

Global growth for 2016 is estimated at 3.1% and is projected to be 3.4% and 3.6% in 2017 and 2018, respectively. Activity in both advanced economies and emerging economies is forecast to accelerate. Advanced economies are projected to grow by 1.9% in 2017 and 2.0% in 2018. However, this forecast is uncertain in light of potential changes in the policy stance of the United States. Whereas Emerging Markets growth is estimated at 4.1% in 2016, and is projected to reach 4.5% for 2017 and a further pickup in growth to 4.8% in 2018. The primary factor underlying the strengthening global outlook is the projected pickup in emerging markets' growth. Oil prices have increased reflecting an agreement among major producers to trim supply. The currencies of advanced commodity exporters have also strengthened, reflecting the firming of commodity prices.

India economy overview

India is the fastest-growing G20 economy with an estimated growth rate of 7.4% in FY 18 as against 7.0% in FY 17. The acceleration of structural reforms, the move towards a rule-based policy framework and low commodity prices had provided strong growth impetus over the past couple of years. Recent deregulation measures and efforts to improve the ease of doing business have boosted foreign investment. As a consequence of Centre's major economic reform 'demonetisation', interest rates and yields on G-secs are expected to be lower in FY 18 as compared to FY 17. This will provide a boost to the Indian economy.

Consumer Price index (CPI) inflation was 4.5% in FY 17 and is expected to be at 4.8% in FY 18. Due to enhanced liquidity in the market, especially post demonetisation, the Reserve Bank of India (RBI) cut its repo rate to 6.25%.

Timely and effective implementation of the Goods and Services Tax will support competitiveness, investment and economic growth. The GST reform is designed to be initially revenue-neutral. Government's plans to reduce the corporate income tax rate and broaden the tax base will serve the same objectives.

SECTOR OVERVIEW

Transmission and Distribution

After facing a slow demand over the last few years, the market for high-voltage transmission equipment is expected to grow significantly over the coming decade, driven by the expected increase in investment in transmission infrastructure expansion, and upgradation of projects. It is estimated that over USD 640 billion is planned or proposed to be invested in the global transmission industry by 2025. The demand for equipment has already started picking up, as is indicated by the improvements in the order inflow and financial performance of major equipment manufacturers in 2015 and in the first half of 2016.

India

FY 16 saw an addition of around 28,114 ckm of transmission lines (220kV and above) and in FY 17 another 23,384 ckm of transmission lines (220kV and above) is expected to be further added. Even though, the overall number is lower than the previous fiscal, mainly due to balance targets of 12th Plan left to be achieved, the pace of line additions are so robust that the actual line additions up to December 2016 have exceeded the planned programme. The central sector had planned to add 9,751 ckm of lines over the course of FY 17, and 8,609 ckm up till December 2016. Actual line additions by the central sector up till December 2016 have been 9,301 ckm. Similarly, the private players have also achieved 3,148 ckm of transmission line addition as compared to the planned 2,075 ckm for 2016-17. This outlines the impetus to the sector, where private entities are also actively participating through the tariff based competitive bid (TBCB) route and gradually increasing their share in the transmission sector.

At the end of the 11th Plan, the inter-regional transmission capacity (132kV and above) stood at 27,750 MW. During the XII Plan, (April 2012 to March 2016), 29,700 MW of inter-regional transmission capacity has been added, taking the total inter-regional transmission capacity (132kV and above) to 57,450 MW as on March 31, 2016. The total inter-regional capacity addition planned in the 13th Plan (2017-18 till 2021-22) is 47,500 MW, to increase the present inter-regional capacity of 63,650 MW (as on November 2016) to 1,18,050 MW by 2021-22. This is to be done through several inter-regional corridors and system strengthening projects.

The sector should see sustained investments from PGCIL and the state transmission utilities. PGCIL has incurred a sustained annual capital expenditure between ` 20,000 - 22,000 Cr since FY 13 until FY 16. The recent budget has revised the current fiscal capital expenditure allocation from the erstwhile ` 22,500 Cr to ` 24,000 Cr and another ` 25,000 Cr is planned over FY 18 for the construction of transmission lines. In contrast to the previous few years, where the central sector used to drive investments in the sector, focus has now increased on intra-state transmission additions. Consequently, state transmission utilities are expected to incur a capex of ~ ` 98,000 Cr under the 'Power for All' Scheme planned by the Ministry of Power. Several states like Andhra Pradesh, Telangana, Tamil Nadu, Rajasthan, UP and Gujarat are already active in this regard. Similarly, in order to increase competitiveness in the sector, tariff based competitive projects have propelled the private sector additions as well. So far 35 projects have been put up for bidding through this route and a further four projects are expected to be bid out soon.

Telecom

Telecommunication services are known as one of the key driving forces for the socio-economic development of a nation. Mobile telephony has seen a staggering growth in the past 10 years. However, it has been witnessing a slowdown in recent years. Driven by data explosion and rollout of data services (3G and 4G) along with operational prudence, the Indian telecom market is expected to be back on the growth track. With a total of 11 operators serving an active wireless subscriber base of 842.39 million 1 (88.45% of total registered wireless subscriber base), the Indian telecom market is now amongst the most competitive markets in the world.

The Indian telecom industry has undergone a transformational change in the last decade. Mobile operators successfully adopted innovative models to sustain growth followed by focus on operational prudence in recent years. The tower industry has been a key enabler for such models by allowing sharing of infrastructure along with operational excellence.

Mobile towers in India are likely to grow to over 500,000 by 2020 from about 425,000 at present due to increase in demand of wireless internet services.

Towers are expected to grow at 3 percent CAGR for next five years and the total number of towers is expected to grow to more than 511,000 by financial year 2020, of which 30,000 towers are expected to be only supporting data sites.

OUTLOOK AND OPPORTUNITY

There is an increasing trend towards the use of high voltage alternating current (HVAC) and high voltage direct current (HVDC) overhead lines to carry large amounts of electricity from generation hubs to load centers, especially in countries like China, India and Brazil. The coming decade is expected to witness greater commercial application of these technologies.

In India, apart from PGCIL's sustained and steady capex, state government's spend on transmission infrastructure is also expected to improve to meet their UDAY related milestones. STEL is expected to be a key beneficiary of this strong growth prospect in India.

Government's thrust on improving rail and energy infrastructure is also expected to result in rising capex for the sectors. STEL is seeing a lot of traction on orders both in T&D and railways and has strong order book in both the businesses. STEL has been building robust team there on execution and that has been a continuous exercise. Currently, these businesses constitute around 70% of the order book and is expected to grow significantly.

OPERATIONAL REVIEW

The Company is primarily engaged in the business of Manufacturing and sale of galvanized steel structure including telecom towers, transmission line towers and solar panels and the business of Engineering, Procurement and Construction (EPC) relating to infrastructure comprising power transmission & distribution, railway electrification, etc.

Accordingly, MAT is recognized as an asset in the balance sheet when the asset can be measured reliably and it is probable that the future economic benefit associated with the asset will fructify. Deferred tax expenses or benefit is recognized on timing differences being the difference between taxable income and accounting income tax originate in one period and is likely to reverse in one or more subsequent periods. Deferred tax assets are recognised and carried forward only to the extent that there is a reasonable certainty that sufficient future taxable income will be available against which such deferred tax assets can be realised. Deferred tax assets and liabilities are measured using the tax rates and tax laws that have been enacted or substantively enacted by the Balance Sheet date. At each Balance Sheet date, the Company re-assesses unrecognised deferred tax assets, if any.

Current tax assets and current tax liabilities are offset when there is a legally enforceable right to set off the recognised amounts and there is an intention to settle the asset and the liability on a net basis. Deferred tax assets and deferred tax liabilities are offset when there is a legally enforceable right to set off assets against liabilities representing current tax and where the deferred tax assets and the deferred tax liabilities relate to taxes on income levied by the same governing taxation laws.

(xvii) Impairment Assets

At each Balance Sheet Date, the company assesses whether there is any indication that an asset may be impaired. If any such indications exist, the Company estimates the recoverable amount. If the carrying amount exceeds its recoverable amount, an impairment loss is recognised in the Statement of Profit and Loss to the extent the carrying amount exceeds the recoverable amount.

(xviii) Earnings per Share

Basic earnings per share (EPS) are calculated by dividing the net profit or loss for the period attributable to equity shareholders by the weighted average number of equity shares outstanding during the period. Earnings considered in ascertaining the Company's earnings per share consist of the net profit for the period and any attributable tax thereon. The weighted average number of shares outstanding during the period and for all periods presented is adjusted for events other than the conversion of potential equity shares outstanding, without a corresponding change in resources. For the purposes of calculating diluted earnings per share, the net profit or loss for the period attributable to equity shareholders and the weighted average number of shares outstanding during the period are adjusted for the effects of all dilutive potential equity shares.

(xix) Provisions and Contingent Liabilities

Provisions: Provisions are recognised when there is a present obligation as a result of a past event, it is probable that an outflow of resources embodying economic benefits will be required to settle the obligation and there is a reliable estimate of the amount of the obligation.
