Finding Strength in Every Challenge, Building for Tomorrow

At Sheetal, we believe that true growth is not defined by the absence of challenges, but by the determination with which we face them. Instead of slowing down, we have used this period to strengthen our foundation, refine our processes, and build capabilities that will drive us forward. Like every pioneer who turns obstacles into stepping stones, we too have embraced each challenge as an opportunity to evolve. This year has been about enhancing efficiencies, streamlining operations, and investing in innovation, ensuring that Sheetal remains agile, future-ready, and committed to excellence. Our promise of quality, purity and trust continues to guide everything we do – from creating products that bring joy to millions, to fostering sustainability and responsibility in every step. C. INDUSTRY STRUCTURE AND DEVELOPMENT GLOBAL ECONOMY:

According to the International Monetary Fund (IMF)¹, global growth at 3.3 per cent in 2024 (3.5 per cent a year ago) was below the historical average (2000-19) of 3.7 per cent, owing to structural challenges like weak investment, slow productivity growth and high debt levels. Moreover, the pace of economic activity was impacted by moderation in economic growth in some Asian and European economies, protracted geopolitical tensions and sluggish recovery in China's consumption demand and property market. Global inflation eased to 5.7 per cent in 2024 from 6.6 per cent in 2023, reflecting the impact of gradual monetary tightening and the easing of supply chain constraints, but still remained above pre-pandemic levels, largely driven by persistent price pressures in the services sector.

Global financial conditions remained largely accommodative in major AEs, reflecting the shift towards less restrictive policy to boost economic activity as inflation started gradually converging to the target levels. After softening in the first half of 2024, sovereign bond yields rose again in AEs during the second half of the year amid renewed inflation concerns and divergent monetary policy trajectories of major central banks. Sovereign bond yields in emerging market and developing economies (EMDEs) generally moderated amidst the global rate cut cycle. The US dollar remained strong throughout the year with consequent downward pressures on a number of AE and EME currencies. Global equity markets inched up higher notwithstanding intermittent volatility driven by concerns over stretched valuations, divergent monetary policies, slower pace of disinflation, geopolitical risks and uncertainty on the evolution of tariff policies.

D. INDIAN ECONOMY:

Against the backdrop of a steady global growth amidst multiple headwinds, the Indian economy remained resilient during 2024-25, supported by robust macroeconomic fundamentals, proactive policy measures and sustained government capital expenditure. Although real gross domestic product (GDP)³ growth moderated to 6.5 per cent in 2024-25 India remained the fastest growing major economy. Economic activity was supported by an improvement in consumption demand and net exports on the expenditure side, and buoyant services sector and recovery in agricultural production on the supply side.

Growth in gross value added (GVA) in the agriculture and allied sector in 2024-25 stood at 4.6 per cent as compared with 2.7 per cent a year ago, driven by record foodgrains production aided by adequate reservoir levels and favourable weather conditions. Horticulture sector also performed better than last year, driven by higher production of onion and potato. The government has initiated Digital Agriculture Mission to bring innovative farmer-centric digital services, which will enable transparent, efficient, easier and faster service delivery to the farmers. This will also enhance productivity and sustainability of India's agriculture sector. Moreover, the government is promoting quality seed production and distribution through various schemes to enhance climate-resilience and improve crop yield in the agriculture sector.

Industry Structure and developments.

Overview of Global Dairy Industry Market Overview:

"Dairy Market: The global dairy market size reached USD 991.5 Billion in 2024. Looking forward, IMARC Group expects the market to reach USD 1,505.8 Billion by 2033, exhibiting a growth rate (CAGR) of 4.75% during 2025-2033. The rapid urbanization, increasing awareness about health and nutrition, significant technological advancements, rising popularity of dairy-based snacking, shifting dietary preferences and favorable government policies and regulations are some of the major factors propelling the market. As the global population continues to grow, so does the demand for essential nutrients, such as calcium and protein, which are abundantly found in dairy products. For example, as per the U.S. Census Bureau, after a historically low rate of change between 2020 and 2021, the US resident population increased by 0.4%, or 1,256,003, to 333,287,557 in 2022. Additionally, more people are transitioning from traditional diets to modern ones that include processed foods and dairy products, which is bolstering the market growth.

With more and more people moving to cities for opportunities and leading busy lifestyles, convenience has become a key factor in food choices. According to United Nations Conference on Trade and Development (UNCTAD), the share of urban population is projected to increase to 56.9% in 2022. It is higher in the developed parts (79.7%) than in the developing regions (52.3%). Besides this, dairy companies have capitalized on this trend by offering a wide range of packaged, ready-to-eat (RTE), and on-the-go dairy options. Urban consumers are increasingly looking for quick and nutritious meals, making dairy an attractive choice due to its nutritional content and versatility in various recipes. As a result, the urbanization trend is propelling the future of global dairy market.

There has been an increase in the demand for ready-to-eat (RTE) products, such as butter, frozen desserts, milk powder, and yogurt, which is contributing to the market growth. Subsequently, evolving food habits have further led to the establishment of fast-food chains and quick service restaurants (QSR), wherein different varieties of cheese, condensed milk, buttermilk, and sour milk are employed as major ingredients. Moreover, the rising availability of flavored milk and ice creams in innovative flavors, such as chocolate, strawberry, vanilla, and almond, is acting as a growth-inducing factor. Apart from this, key players in developing regions are consistently investing in improving the milk procurement network and promoting domestic dairy farming practices, which is creating a positive outlook for the market. In addition to this, the advent of modern retail facilities and improvement in cold chain logistics, particularly in emerging economies, are further supporting the market growth. A significant increase in research and development (R&D) activities in the dairy industry to introduce novel product variants and expand existing product portfolios is fueling the market growth further. Other factors, such as rising health concerns, increasing population and rapid urbanization and industrialization, are also driving the global dairy market growth.

Overview of Dairy Industry in India:

With over 1.3 billion people, there is a massive consumer base for dairy products in India. As the population continues to rise, the demand for essential nutrients provided by dairy products also accelerates. Besides this, the agricultural nature of the country ensures a significant presence of livestock, particularly cows and buffaloes. This abundance of milk-producing animals facilitates a steady supply of raw milk for dairy processing and production. Additionally, the Indian dairy industry has witnessed significant modernization and infrastructure development, which has enhanced milk collection, processing, and distribution capabilities. This has made dairy products more accessible to consumers across urban and rural areas, driving the global dairy market outlook. Moreover, the Government of India is providing various schemes, subsidies, and incentives related to dairy, which is supporting the global dairy market growth. For example, the Government of India launched National Programme for Dairy Development (NPDD) scheme to improve the quality of milk and its products and increase share of organized milk procurement. The scheme will be implemented in India for the period of five year from 2021-22 to 2025-26.

To the Members of Sheetal Cool Products Limited

Report on the Audit of the Financial Statements

Opinion

We have audited the accompanying financial statements of Sheetal Cool Products Limited ("the Company") which comprises the Balance Sheet as at March 31, 2025, the Statement of Profit and Loss, and Statement of Cash Flows for the year then ended, and notes to the financial statements, including a summary of significant accounting policies and other explanatory information.

In our opinion and to the best of our information and according to the explanations given to us, the aforesaid financial statements give the information required by the Act in the manner so required and give a true and fair view in conformity with the accounting principles generally accepted in India, of the state of affairs of the Company as at March 31, 2025, and profit, total comprehensive income, its cash flows and the changes in equity for the year ended on that date.

Basis for Opinion

We conducted our audit in accordance with the Standards on Auditing (SAs) specified under Section 143(10) of the Companies Act, 2013. Our responsibilities under those Standards are further described in the Auditor's Responsibilities for the Audit of the Financial Statements section of our report. We are independent of the Company in accordance with the Code of Ethics issued by the Institute of Chartered Accountants of India together with the ethical requirements that are relevant to our audit of the financial statements under the provisions of the Companies Act, 2013 and the Rules thereunder, and we have fulfilled our other ethical responsibilities in accordance with these requirements and the Code of Ethics. We believe that the audit evidence we have obtained is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our opinion.

Key Audit Matters

Key audit matters are those matters that, in our professional judgment, were of most significance in our audit of the financial statements of the current period. These matters were addressed in the context of our audit of the financial statements as a whole, and in forming our opinion thereon, and we do not provide a separate opinion on these matters.

Emphasis of Matter

The Company's management is responsible for carrying out the inspection of its inventories on a regular basis. We have not independently verified the inventories of the Company during the year under review. Any adjustment to the value of inventories as appearing in the balance sheet of the Company may have an effect on the profit and net assets of the Company for the period and year ended March 31, 2025.

We draw your attention to Note 40 to the financial statements where the Company's management has stated that outstanding balances, if any, at the yearend in respect of trade receivables, trade payables etc. are subject to confirmation from those respective parties and consequential reconciliation and/or adjustments arising there from. These have not been independently verified by us during the year under review. Any adjustment to the value of such balances as appearing in the balance sheet of the Company may have an effect on the profit and net assets of the Company for the period and year ended March 31, 2025.

Our opinion is not modified in respect of this matter.

Information Other than the Financial Statements and Auditor's Report Thereon

The Company's Board of Directors is responsible for the preparation of the other information. The other information comprises the information included in the Management Discussion and Analysis, Board's Report including Annexures to Board's Report, Business Responsibility Report, Corporate Governance and Shareholder's Information, but does not include the financial statements and our auditor's report thereon.

Our opinion on the financial statements does not cover the other information and we do not express any form of assurance conclusion thereon.

In connection with our audit of the financial statements, our responsibility is to read the other information and, in doing so, consider whether the other information is materially inconsistent with the financial statements or our knowledge obtained during the course of our audit or otherwise appears to be materially misstated.

If, based on the work we have performed, we conclude that there is a material misstatement of this other information, we are required to report that fact. We have nothing to report in this regard.

Responsibility of Management for the Financial Statements

The Company's Board of Directors is responsible for the matters stated in Section 134(5) of the Companies Act, 2013 ("the Act") with respect to the preparation of these financial statements that give a true and fair view of the financial position, financial performance including other comprehensive income, cash flows and changes in equity of the Company in accordance with the accounting principles generally accepted in India, including the accounting Standards specified under Section 133 of the Act. This responsibility also includes maintenance of adequate accounting records in accordance with the provisions of the Act for safeguarding of the assets of the Company and for preventing and detecting frauds and other irregularities; selection and application of appropriate implementation and maintenance of accounting policies; making judgments and estimates that are reasonable and prudent; and design, implementation and maintenance of adequate internal financial controls, that were operating effectively for ensuring the accuracy and completeness of the accounting records, relevant to the preparation and presentation of the financial statement that give a true and fair view and are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error.

In preparing the financial statements, management is responsible for assessing the Company's ability to continue as a going concern, disclosing, as applicable, matters related to going concern and using the going concern basis of accounting unless management either intends to liquidate the Company or to cease operations, or has no realistic alternative but to do so.

Those Board of Directors are also responsible for overseeing the company's financial reporting process.

Auditor's Responsibility for the Audit of the Financial Statements

Our objectives are to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the financial statements as a whole are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error, and to issue an auditor's report that includes our opinion. Reasonable assurance is a high level of assurance but is not a guarantee that an audit conducted in accordance with SAs will always detect a material misstatement when it exists. Misstatements can arise from fraud or error and are considered material if, individually or in the aggregate, they could reasonably be expected to influence the economic decisions of users taken on the basis of these financial statements.

As part of an audit in accordance with SAs, we exercise professional judgment and maintain professional skepticism throughout the audit. We also:

1. Identify and assess the risks of material misstatement of the financial statements, whether due to fraud or error, design and perform audit procedures responsive to those risks, and obtain audit evidence that is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our opinion. The risk of not detecting a material misstatement resulting from fraud is higher than for one resulting from error, as fraud may involve collusion, forgery, intentional omissions, misrepresentations, or the override of internal control.
2. Obtain an understanding of internal control relevant to the audit in order to design audit procedures that are appropriate in the circumstances. Under Section 143(3)(i) of the Companies Act, 2013, we are also responsible for expressing our opinion on whether the company has adequate internal financial controls system in place and the operating effectiveness of such controls.
3. Evaluate the appropriateness of accounting policies used and the reasonableness of accounting estimates and related disclosures made by management.
4. Conclude on the appropriateness of management's use of the going concern basis of accounting and, based on the audit evidence obtained, whether a material uncertainty exists related to events or conditions that may cast significant doubt on the Company's ability to continue as a going concern. If we conclude that a material uncertainty exists, we are required to draw attention in our auditor's report to the related disclosures in the financial statements or, if such disclosures are inadequate, to modify our opinion. Our conclusions are based on the audit evidence obtained up to the date of our auditor's report. However, future events or conditions may cause the Company to cease to continue as a going concern.
5. Evaluate the overall presentation, structure and content of the financial statements, including the disclosures, and whether the financial statements represent the underlying transactions and events in a manner that achieves fair presentation.

We communicate with those charged with governance regarding, among other matters, the planned scope and timing of the audit and significant audit findings, including any significant deficiencies in internal control that we identify during our audit.

We also provide those charged with governance with a statement that we have complied with relevant ethical requirements regarding independence, and to communicate with them all relationships and other matters that may reasonably be thought to bear on our independence, and where applicable, related safeguards.

From the matters communicated with those charged with governance, we determine those matters that were of most significance in the audit of the financial statements of the current period and are therefore the key audit matters. We describe these matters in our auditor's report unless law or regulation precludes public disclosure about the matter or when, in extremely rare circumstances, we determine that a matter should not be communicated in our report because the adverse consequences of doing so would reasonably be expected to outweigh the public interest benefits of such communication.

Auditors' Responsibility

Our responsibility is to express an opinion on the Company's internal financial controls over financial reporting based on our audit. We conducted our audit in accordance with the Guidance Note on Audit of Internal Financial Controls Over Financial Reporting (the "Guidance Note") issued by the ICAI and the Standards on Auditing deemed to be prescribed under Section 143(10) of the Act, to the extent applicable to an audit of internal financial controls, both applicable to an audit of internal financial controls and both issued by the ICAI. Those Standards and the Guidance Note require that we comply with the ethical requirements and plan and perform the audit to obtain reasonable assurance about whether adequate internal financial controls over financial reporting was established and maintained and if such controls operated effectively in all material respects.

Our audit involves performing procedures to obtain audit evidence about the adequacy of the internal financial controls system over financial reporting included obtaining an understanding of internal financial controls over financial reporting, assessing the risk that a material weakness exists, and testing and evaluating the design and operating effectiveness of internal control based on assessed risk. The procedures selected depend on the auditors' judgement, including the assessment of the risks of material misstatement of the financial statements, whether due to fraud or error.

We believe that the audit evidence we have obtained is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our audit opinion on the Company's internal financial controls system over financial reporting.

Meaning of Internal Financial Controls Over Financial Reporting

A company's internal financial control over financial reporting is a process designed to provide reasonable assurance regarding the reliability of financial reporting and the preparation of financial statements for external purposes in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles. A company's internal financial control over financial reporting includes those policies and procedures that (1) pertain to the maintenance of records that, in reasonable detail, accurately and fairly reflect the transactions and dispositions of the assets of the company; (2) provide reasonable assurance that transactions are recorded as necessary to permit preparation of financial statements in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles, and that receipts and expenditures of the Company are being made only in accordance with authorizations of management and directors of the company; and (3) provide reasonable assurance regarding prevention or timely detection of unauthorized acquisition, use, or disposition of the company's assets that could have a material effect of financial statements.

Inherent Limitations of Internal Financial Controls over Financial Reporting

Because of the inherent limitations of internal financial controls over financial reporting, including the possibility of collusion or improper management override of controls, material misstatements due to error or fraud may occur and not be detected. Also, projections of any evaluation of the internal financial control over financial reporting to future periods are subject to the risk that the internal financial control over financial reporting may become inadequate because of changes in conditions, or that the degree of compliance with the policies or procedures may deteriorate.

Opinion

In our opinion, the Company has, in all material respects, an adequate internal financial controls system over financial reporting and such internal financial controls over financial reporting were operating effectively as at March 31, 2025, based on the internal control over financial reporting criteria established by the Company considering the essential components of internal control stated in the Guidance Note issued by ICAI.

(B) FAIRVALUE HEIRARCHY

Fair value is the amount for which an asset could be exchanged, or a liability settled between knowledgeable willing parties in an arm's length transaction. The Company has made certain judgements and estimates in determining the fair values of the financial instruments that are (a) recognised and measured at fair value and (b) measured at amortised cost and for which fair values are disclosed in the financial statements.

To provide an indication about the reliability of the inputs used in determining fair value, the Company as classified the financial instruments into three levels prescribed under the accounting standard. An explanation of each level is as follows:

Level 1: Level 1 of hierarchy includes financial assets that are measured by reference to quoted prices (unadjusted) in active markets for identical assets or liabilities

Level 2: Level 2 heirarchy includes financial instruments that are not traded in an active market is determined using valuation techniques which maximise the use of observable market data and rely as little as possible on entity-specific estimates.

Level 3: If one or more of the significant inputs is not based on the observable market data, the instrument is included in Level 3 heirarchy.

© VALUATIONTECHNIQUES

Specific valuation techniques used to value financial instruments include

- the use of quoted market prices for mutual funds
- the fair value of the remaining financial instruments is determined using discounted cash flow analysis or such other acceptable valuation methodology, wherever applicable

There are no items in the financial instruments, which required level 3 valuation.

Note: 38 Financial Risk Management

The Company's business activities are exposed to a variety of financial risks, viz liquidity risk, market risk and credit risk. The Management of the Company has the overall responsibility for establishing and governing the Company's risk policy framework. The risk management policies are formulated after the identification and analysis of the risks and suitable risk limits and controls are set which are monitored & reviewed periodically. The changes in the market conditions and allied areas are accordingly reflected in the changes of the policy. The key risks and mitigating actions are placed before the Audit Committee of the Company who then evaluate and take the necessary corrective action. The sources of risk, which the Company is exposed to and how the Company manages these risks with their impact on the Financial Statements is given below:

Risk	Exposure from	Measurement	Management

Liquidity risk	Borrowings, Trade payables and other liabilities	Cash flow budgeted Vs actuals	Availability of committed credit lines and borrowing facilities
Market risk - Foreign Currency	Foreign currency receivables and payables; Forecasted foreign currency transactions	Cash flow forecasting and Sensitivity analysis	Insignificant foreign currency exposure
Market risk - Interest rate	Long-term borrowings at variable interest rates	Sensitivity analysis	The management monitors the rates of interests and continues to evaluate refinancing of debts at lower rates of interest on a regular basis.

[A] Credit risk

Credit risk is the risk of financial loss to the Company if the counterparty fails to meet its contractual obligations. The Company is exposed to credit risk from its operating activities (primarily trade receivables). However, the credit risk on account of financing activities, i.e., balances with banks is very low, since the Company holds all the balances with approved bankers only.

Trade receivables

Credit risk is managed through credit approvals, establishing credit limits and continuously monitoring the customers outstanding balances to which the Company grants credit terms in the normal course of business. Concentration of credit risk with respect to trade receivables are limited, as the Company's customer base is large, reputed and having good credit credential as well as that they are long standing customers. All trade receivables are reviewed and assessed for default on a quarterly basis. Historical experience of collecting receivables of the Company is supported by low level of past default and hence the credit risk is perceived to be low.

[B] Liquidity risk

Liquidity risk is the risk the Company faces in meeting its obligations associated with its financial liabilities. The Company's approach in managing liquidity is to ensure that it will have sufficient funds to meet its liabilities when due without incurring unacceptable losses. In doing this, Management considers both normal and stressed conditions.

Maturities of financial liabilities

The below table analyses the Company's financial liabilities into relevant maturity groupings based on their contractual maturities. The amounts disclosed in the table are contractual undiscounted cash flows, balances due within 12 months equal their carrying balances as the impact of discounting is not significant.
