Nandan Denim is a catalyst addressing LONG- TERM NATIONAL NEEDS

At Nandan Denim, we have a simple case to present.

India's population of 1324 million in 2016 is expected to increase to 1605 million by 2040.

The median age of the Indian population is expected to be 34.5 years in 2040, making the country possibly the 'youngest' in the world.

In view of this, two realities are likely to emerge: India's per capita denim consumption is likely to inch towards the global average; India's population is expected to keep growing.

The combination of these two emerging realities warrants that India invest in capacities today to address the growing needs of tomorrow and save precious forex exchange.

At Nandan Denim, we have addressed this evident need through a proactive investment in denim manufacturing capacity – the largest in India and one of the largest in the world.

Ensuring that when the country and the world needs more denim, Nandan Denim will be best-equipped to meet the demand.

Nandan Denim is playing the role of a catalyst by investing AHEAD OF THE CURVE

At Nandan Denim, we believe that we are at the cusp of a large demand explosion for textile products in general and denim in particular.

There are a number of reasons for this conviction.

India is the fastest growing economy today and this position is expected to sustain. India is projected to emerge as the third largest economy in the world by 2030, its GDP approximately trebling to ~$7 trillion by 2030 (Source: Oliver Wyman).

India's workforce is estimated to be the second largest in the world, comprising 860 million people between the ages of 15–64 years. This accounts for approximately 66% of the total Indian population (source: The World Bank Group), a robust consumption-driving population. Besides, India is expected to overtake China as the world's largest workforce by 2026 (source: The World Bank)

India's youth literacy level increased from 81.1% in 2006 to 89.7% in 2015 (source: UNESCO); gross enrolment ratio for tertiary education increased from 11.5% in 2006 to 23.9% in 2013 (source: UNESCO). As an extension, India's unemployment declined from approximately 12% in the early 1990s to approximately 5.5% (source: Oxford Economics).

As a visionary, Nandan Denim increased its denim manufacturing capacity to 110 MMPA by the close of 2016-17, making it the largest denim manufacturer in India and a leading global manufacturer.

ENHANCED COMPETITIVENESS

At Nandan Denim, we have not merely invested in scale (and related economies); we have invested in manufacturing competitiveness as well.

This competitiveness has been principally derived from the integration of yarn spinning at one end and denim manufacture at the other.

Over the years, the Company strengthened its manufacturing integration through a number of priorities.

One, the Company balanced its manufacturing across both products, making it possible for consumption of the yarn manufactured by the Company to be consumed in the downstream manufacture of denim, resulting in larger value-addition.

Two, the Company invested in cutting-edge manufacturing technologies from leading suppliers across the globe, which translated into a higher capacity utilisation on one hand and lower waste generation on the other.

Three, the Company addressed the manufacture of value-added denim, making it possible to relatively insulate itself from competition at the commoditised end.

The combination of these initiatives will strengthen overall profitability and empower Nandan Denim to strengthen its global footprint at a time when China's textile competitiveness is being affected by higher labour costs.

From the desk of the Chairman

Vedprakash Chiripal
Chairman

The foremost message that I wish to send out to shareholders is that, Nandan Denim stands at an INFLECTION POINT IN ITS EXISTENCE.

The Company is at a point when, with its expansion complete and its business integration stronger than ever, the Company is poised to realise its attractive potential.

It would be relevant to indicate that the Company arrived at its inflection point in spite of a number of sectoral challenges. A surge in cotton prices compressed margins; the Company's top-line suffered in the aftermath of demonetisation; the expanded capacity did not yield revenues for the first nine months of the year under review.

The result was that your Company reported a 5.5% top-line growth, which was creditable in the circumstances. Our gross profit margin declined from 33.7% in FY16 to 32.5% in FY17; EBITDA declined correspondingly.

2016-17 under review

The big talking points for FY17 comprised the following points:

One, our capacity expansion was completed in the Q3 of FY17. Our spinning capacity was enhanced to ~141 TPD in FY17, helping us strengthen our backward integration necessary to reduce our dependence on external yarn procurement and to meet just-in-time product availability. We believe that the extent of this integration will more than just enhance margins; it will enhance our ability to absorb inflation or material supply shocks, strengthening our overall business model.

Two, the GST implementation from July 2017 (post-Balance Sheet event) was another landmark development. We believe that the implementation of what is widely acknowledged as the single biggest economic reform since Independence will be significantly beneficial for organised players like Nandan Denim as it will moderate the cost differential between organised and unorganised players on the one hand while it could trigger sector consolidation on the other.

Three, the year under review was marked by major global political changes, which comprised Brexit and US presidential elections. We believe that these events could have far-reaching consequences even as it is early to estimate the extent of impact on the global textile sector in general and on India in particular.

Four, cotton prices are likely to soften in current year (owing to an upswing in Pan-India acreage and better weather conditions), widening our resource pool.

Five, organised competition in the fashion denim segment continued to rise, placing a premium on the need to innovate through superior styling and design.

The Nandan response

At Nandan Denim, we are competently placed to address the sectoral challenges.

Your Company will address the value-added denim category, resulting in higher sales realisation per unit.

Your Company possesses the largest denim capacity (110 MMPA) in India, enabling it to leverage economies of scale on one hand and fully integrated operations / facilities on the other.

Besides, your Company will also focus on domestic sales, capitalising on increasing per capita denim spending and higher realisations. The Indian denim market is expected to grow at a CAGR of 15% to a size of around $360bn by 2020 catalysed by usage across age segments, growing disposable incomes and fashion consciousness.

Your Company will seek growing opportunities in overseas markets, mainly in Latin America, Africa and the Middle East, widening its global footprint.

The Nandan outlook

Your Company is attractively placed to generate handsome growth from this point onwards.

Your Company's manufacturing plants are located in Gujarat, the textile hub of India, enjoying easy access to the core raw material (cotton), availability of labour, proximity to fabric dealers and garment manufacturers. Besides, the various subsidies offered by the Gujarat Textile Policy will help moderate our operating and finance costs, strengthening business sustainability.

Your Company intends to capitalise on a combination of expanded capacities, widening portfolio and improving product quality to address larger requirements.

Following the implementation of GST, we expect that positives of a consumption shift from the unorganised to the organised will start reflecting from the second half of FY18.

In view of this, I am optimistic that the Company stands at an inflection point in its existence, attractively placed to enhance value for its stakeholders.

Management's operational REVIEW, 2016-17

Overview

The management is pleased to present the financials for 2016-17: revenues grew 5.5% and profit after tax declined by ~10%. The principal message that we wish to communicate is that if this is the kind of performance that we reported during a challenging year marked by one of the sharpest contractions in consumer sentiments that we have seen in recent memory, then one is optimistic of the prospects of the Company across the foreseeable future.

Challenges

There were two principal challenges that the Company addressed during the year under review.

Firstly, the Company was required to complete the commissioning of the largest ever expansion in the history of Nandan Denim.

Secondly, the Company needed to respond flexibly to the consumer slowdown following demonetisation, protecting revenues and margins.

In addition to this, the Company needed to respond to the sectoral dynamics marked by fluctuations in the cost of raw cotton on one hand and denim realisations on the other. Besides, the Company was required to address challenges due to pricing pressure in a competitive marketplace.

Achievements, 2016-17

The Company had achieved a revenue of ₹1220 crore, a creditable achievement despite demonetisation when consumer sentiments were affected for nearly an entire quarter, affecting the off-take of a number of products and the entire currency eco-system of the Country. The Company 'lost' a part of revenues and profits as a result of this slowdown.

The Company countered the demonetisation impact with a stronger focus on receivables. The result is that even as the receivables cycle for most industry players were affected, the Company leveraged its brand among trade partners and maintained its receivables cycle, which and especially after factoring the incentives provided by the state government.

The Company capitalised to get the benefit of the encouraging investment incentives provided by the Gujarat state government for the textile sector in the state viz interest, power subsidy and VAT refund.

The Company's business is complemented by a wide and deep distribution network; this network has worked with the Company for years and facilitates the off-take of products with speed and protected by assured receivables.

The Company's operations are integrated from the access of raw cotton to spinning yarn to the manufacture of denim complemented by processing and dyeing.

The Company commissioned its new spinning facility resulting in enhanced capacity of ~ 141 TPD in Q3 FY17 followed by operational stability that was achieved in the fourth quarter of the year under review.

is credible under the circumstances.

The Company commissioned its new spinning facility resulting in enhanced capacity of ~ 141 TPD in Q3 FY17 followed by operational stability that was achieved in the fourth quarter of the year under review.

The Company encountered an increase in raw cotton costs, which could not be passed on fully to trade partners and end consumers on account of a slowdown in consumer sentiment.

Our strengths

The Company is attractively placed to grow its business for a number of reasons.

The Company's principal strength is derived from the credibility of its promoters with proven track record in the textile/other business in the last four decades.

The Company possesses the largest denim manufacturing capacity in India, comprising an installed capacity of 110 MMPA.

The Company invested in equipment manufactured by a reputed global leader in its segment, benchmarked with the best global standards and translating into enhanced product quality.

The Company possesses a post-expansion comfortable gearing ratio, which is reasonable in a capital-intensive business

The Company enjoys margins that are at par with large industry peers.

Our 2017-18 agenda

The Company intends to ride the market rebound with a sizeable growth in revenues coupled with commensurate growth in the bottom-line.

The Company intends to enhance capacity utilisation with the objective to cover fixed costs effectively; the Company also intends to enhance spinning capacity utilisation, strengthening the value chain.

The Company intends to consolidate its existing investments, seek selective de-bottlenecking and focus on enhancing EBITDA margin and profit.

MANAGEMENT DISCUSSION AND ANALYSIS

Global economic overview

The pace of global economic activity was mixed in 2016 as a number of crosswinds affected re-acceleration. The year was marked by the United Kingdom's decision to exit the European Union and the election of Donald Trump as the American President. Within advanced economies, comprising the US, Europe and Japan, a protracted monetary policy support and return to fiscal neutrality underpinned a generally-accelerating output. In countries outside the advanced economies, the sources of slower growth comprised commodity price declines, overhangs from erstwhile credit growth and political turmoil.

Global growth was 3.1% in 2016, the forecast revised downwards by 10 bps for 2017 compared to the April 2016 projections. Long-term prospects of emerging market economies improved following a decline in interest rates in advanced economies and firming commodity prices.

Asia and India demonstrated robust growth. The currencies of advanced commodity exporters have also strengthened, reflecting the firming of commodity prices; however, several emerging market currencies depreciated substantially.

Outlook

The global economy entered its sixth year of stagnation with growth estimates for 2017 continuing to trend the historical path. A projected stabilisation in energy and commodity prices may strengthen the case for resource-rich economies in 2017.

World growth is expected to rise from 3.1 percent in 2016 to 3.4 percent in 2017 and 3.6 percent in 2018, driven by stronger economic activity, expectations of robust global demand, reduced deflationary pressures and optimistic financial markets. (Source: IMF).

Indian economic overview

The Indian economy slowed in FY17 to 7.1% from 8% in FY16, largely owing to the currency demonetisation in the third quarter of the financial year under review. However, the general undercurrent continued to be optimistic; India's consumer confidence index stood at 136 in Q4 2016, the highest in the world.

India retained its position as the fastest growing major economy in the world catalysed by strong consumption growth and enhanced government spending. Inflation declined on account of a decline in food inflation. This facilitated a 50 basis points rate cut by the RBI in 2016-17. A declining vulnerability on the external and fiscal front and fiscal consolidation by the government enhanced investor confidence that translated into record net foreign exchange inflows.

The year under review was also marked by the government's demonetisation initiative and the preparatory work related to the introduction of the Goods and Services Tax (GST). While the first initiative focused on eliminating the parallel economy, the second is expected to transform the country's taxation structure which will help organised sector, apart from GDP growth and higher tax payee base in the medium to long term.

India optimism story

Even as Foreign Direct Investment into India steadily increased from approximately USD 24 billion in calendar year 2012 to approximately USD 46.4 billion in calendar year 2016, it accounted for only approximately 2% of India's GDP in 2015. The relaxation of foreign investment caps cover insurance firms (from 26% to 49%), arms and ammunition contractors (from 49% to 100%), and real estate companies (regardless of size), making India a preferred investment destination.

India's inflation declined by ~5.34% since 2014 which resulted in a softening of interest rates and strengthening of consumer sentiment.

India's textile industry in global scenario

The global textile industry will continue to grow hand-in-hand with the increasing consumption of textile and apparel products in developing countries and a gradual recovery in the major developed economies. Demand growth is expected to be primarily driven by the rise in population as well as surge in per capita apparel expenditure. India's share in the global textile and apparel trade is 5%, which stood at $765 billion in 2016.

Hailed as one of the oldest industrial sectors in India, which dates back a couple of centuries, the Indian textile industry is the second-largest employer in India. Currently valued at around US$ 108 billion, the industry provides employment to over 51 million people directly and 68 million people indirectly. From the production of basic raw materials like jute, cotton, silk and wool to manufacturing varieties of man-made fibres and value-added consumer fabrics and garments, India's textile industry covers a wide range of activities.

Today, the Indian textile industry is one of the largest contributors to India's exports (~15%) and expected to reach US$ 230 billion by 2020. It is a labor-intensive industry and contributes 4% to the nation's GDP and 14% to the overall Index of Industrial Production (IPP). The textiles industry also makes a major contribution to the national economy in terms of forex earnings.

Exports

With a contribution of ~13% to national exports, the Indian textile industry is one of the mainstays of the national economy. The sector also accounts for 27% of the nation's foreign earnings. Despite being one of the mainstays of the economy, the textile exports segment saw a contraction of 2% in FY16 largely driven by lowered fibre prices. However in FY18, the industry expects the export market to grow by nearly 6% and reach a market size of around US$ 72.1 billion. Over the last decade, the Indian textile export trade grew at a CAGR of 9.97% and is expected to reach US$ 185 billion by 2025.

The global denim and jeans market is worth about $60 billion and is expected to grow at a CAGR of over 6.5% till 2020 with emerging countries in Latin America and Asia expected to lead the growth. Mexico is not only one of the largest manufacturers of jeans and jeans fabric but also one of the largest consumers. China has carved out a substantial share of global denim market, with export volumes to the US and Europe surpassing domestic consumption. Bangladesh is the largest denim exporter to Europe and the third-largest in the US after Mexico and China. Bangladeshi denim holds a 22.88% share in the European Union and an 11.35% share in the US market, having grown at a CAGR of 11.16% growth during the past five years. The Asia-Pacific region is expected to be the fastest-growing market for denim jeans (CAGR of 12.23% till 2020). India's denim story

Since the introduction of denim in India in 1986, the industry has evolved continuously, witnessing healthy growth over the past decade. There are close to 40 denim manufacturers in India. Cotton yarn is the key raw material used for manufacturing denim fabrics. Denim is witnessing one of the fastest growth rates as an apparel fabric segment, growing at a CAGR of around 15% in the last five years.

The domestic capacity of this fast-growing fabric is currently around 1,500 million metres as against 500 million metres in 2010, thus registering an impressive growth of around 140%. As cotton is a seasonal commodity and its availability is dependent on the vagaries of the monsoons, timely procurement is critical. As India has an adequate availability of cotton, it enjoys a cost advantage over other countries such as Turkey and Indonesia.

Although the urban and rural Indian markets contribute fully to the overall share of denim, the average number of denim items owned by Indian consumers is much lower (0.3) in comparison to other markets like the US (9), the UK (8) and Brazil (7), among others. This demonstrates the huge potential that still remains untapped in the domestic market. [Source: <http://www.textileexcellence.com>, CRISIL]

India Denim Market Overview

Indian denim market

The Indian denim industry accounts for a 5% share of the global denim market. Leveraging strong growth prospects, brands are offering innovative products such as breathable denims, water repellent denims, weather adaptable denims, among others to attract the youth (~73% of India's population). While the men's segment accounts for the bulk of the sales in the Indian denim market, the women and kid segments have also exhibited strong growth prospects.

Denim accounts for a sizeable share of India's total textile exports with production levels expected to increase to 1.5 billion metres by 2020 (currently, 35% of the overall output gets exported). The denim segment grew at a CAGR of 13-15% y-o-y at a time when the overall apparel sector clocked a lacklustre 3-5%, (down from 12-15% growth seen during the past couple of years). With Bangladesh stepping up its game, Indian businesses have doubled their installed capacity to 1.5 billion metres per annum during the past five years at an investment of ~₹60 crore per million metres.

Average realisations from denim fabric manufacturers catering to domestic demand remained steady, in view of higher cotton prices during the first three quarters of FY17. Denim garment manufacturers are likely to perform better than fabric manufacturers, because of better margins, demand, trends, etc. India Ratings and Research expects the denim sector to post robust volume growth (>10-15%) riding on escalating disposable incomes and rapid growth of the retail sector. As per CMIE, a moderate level capacity addition will be made underway during FY18. [Source: Business Standard, Smart Research Insights, Technopak]

Growth drivers

- Multipurpose applications: Denims come in a range of colours and can be worn as formal-wear as well as casual wear. Denim is made not just into jeans, but also into other items of clothing and accessories like shirts, shorts, dresses, bags, shoes, jackets and even upholstery products.
- Inherent convenience: Denim wear is comfortable, low maintenance, and long-lasting. A pair of denims can be worn on almost any occasion and is easy to care for than formal clothes.

- Evolving trends: With the proportion of working women increasing, the demand for quality (yet inexpensive) apparel has risen, thereby increasing the demand for denims exponentially.
- Fashion-conscious youth: Denim has always been an integral part of fashion for a long time and is unlikely to go out of style anytime soon. Young Indians have become increasingly fashion-conscious and their spending power has grown hand-in-hand. This makes life easier for the fast-growing premium denim brands which are available in different colours.
- Class-agnostic product: Denim enjoys ubiquitous demand across various sections of the economic pyramid. Its affordability and easy availability makes it a preferred choice over other fabrics for daily use. Denim reaches out to different market segments and price points. The price of denim wear depends on a number of factors like the quality of material, texture, comfort, cut, and wash. From extremely cheap jeans for everyday use to expensive

Recent trends

- Most denim manufacturers focus on the domestic markets as realisations remain higher
- Entrance of new fabric manufacturers is expected to make the market more price-competitive
- Although cotton remains the fibre of choice, blended denim fabrics are using man-made fibres
- Demand for stretch denims is growing rapidly
- Indian youngsters have started accepting denim in different colours

- Growing consumerism: By 2020, India is projected to emerge as the world's third largest middle-class consumer market behind China and the US. By 2030, India is likely to surpass both countries with an aggregate consumer spend of nearly USD 13 trillion.
- Purchasing power: The per capita income in India is expected to cross ₹1 lakh in FY17, which is a 7.5% increase over that in FY16 (~₹93,000). Consumer expenditure in emerging cities of India are rising by nearly 14% and in the larger cities by about 12% a year because of rising affluence and changing lifestyles.

The price of denim wear depends on a number of factors like the quality of material, texture, comfort, cut, and wash. From extremely cheap jeans for everyday use to expensive luxury denim, there are denim products available to suit everyone's budget and needs.
- Rural boom: Rural areas are developing at a fast rate and so is their spending. The mid-value segment of denim wear, characterised by quality, value-for-money, and increasing styling quotient, is the preferred choice of people from rural areas.
- Emerging markets: Tier-II and III cities like Jaipur, Nagpur, Ludhiana, Vadodara, Aurangabad, and Kochi are emerging as consumption 'hot spots', catalysing the sector's transformation.
- Work culture: In recent times, denim has come to be accepted as business wear. Many large companies are making denims a part of their daily work culture to promote uniformity and to create a relaxed environment which is more conducive to work in.

Challenges for the India Denim industry

Though the denim category is among the most promising categories in apparel market of the country, it faces its own set of issue and challenges. The prudence in which various stakeholders of denim eco-system identify and address the issues and challenges associated with the value chain, will determine the growth of denim apparel market in the country. There is a need to develop a larger portfolio of denim garments and accessories, including shorts, shirts, bags, dresses, accessories among others. At present the market is skewed towards denim jeans. The weight (GSM) range of available denim fabric could be broadened to widen denim application. There is a lot of scope of improvement in right processing and value addition in denim through fashion-led processes and finishes. Establishment of high quality processing and washing units could help to improve the quality of finishes and colours, thus attracting more consumers to try denim. (Source: indiaretailing.com)

Outlook

The denim category is expected to witness volume growth due to increased penetration in the rural geographies and smaller Indian cities and its association with 'casualisation' and fashion.

development, manufacturing and supply chain management. The internal audit function is further strengthened in consultation with statutory auditors for monitoring statutory and operational issues. The Company has appointed independent agency as Internal Auditors to access the adequacy and effectiveness

Moreover, the Company has obtained best-in-class certifications and adheres to standard operating practices in its manufacturing and operating activities.

Cautionary statement

The statements in this Management Discussion and Analysis report could differ materially from those expressed or implied. Important factors that could make a difference to the Company's operation include raw material availability and prices and pricing in the Company's principal markets, changes in the governmental regulations, tax regimes, forex markets, economic developments within India and the countries with which the Company conducts business and other incidental factors.

RISK MANAGEMENT

Nandan believes that prudent risk management is the stepping stone towards a more balanced risk-reward paradigm. Hence, it concentrates on understanding the risks that the business might be exposed to and undertakes relevant measures to mitigate them.

INDUSTRY RISK

A slowdown in the industry can negatively impact the business

Mitigation

During the fiscal gone by, the denim market slowed in the face of substitutes like jogging bottoms. However, denim has found a number of usages beyond conventional applications, opening up for itself avenues of revenue accretion.

The Company's decision to come up with several products to cater various sections of the socio economic pyramid brightened its prospects.

COMPETITION RISK

Arrival of new entrants and capacity expansion initiatives undertaken by existing players can affect business profitability

Mitigation

The Company continued to scale its manufacturing capacities and upgrade its technological competence to move up the value chain and thereby surpass the overall sector growth. The 5.50% improvement in terms of revenue achieved by the Company during the fiscal gone by, vindicates the efficacy of the approach adopted by it. Following the completion of the ongoing capex initiative, Nandan Denim would enjoy the twin benefits of economies-of-scale and a wider product range. Tightened operational and qualitative controls led by backward integration would enable the Company to survive a downturn, if one does materialise.

RAW MATERIAL RISK

Non-availability and price fluctuations of cotton can bring down profits

Mitigation

As cotton is a seasonal commodity and its availability is dependent on the vagaries of the monsoons, timely procurement is critical. Nandan's facilities are located near cotton-rich belts of India. Cotton is deemed a freely-traded commodity across the globe so as to ensure optimal the supply-demand dynamics do not get overly skewed. Furthermore, any spike in cotton prices can be passed onto the denim buyers. Finally, the Company ensures that inventory doesn't pile up beyond control and thereby keeps its working capital requirements in check.

GEOGRAPHIC RISK

An overt dependence on a specific geography can lead to sluggish growth

Mitigation

India is perceived as a global denim hub owing to inherent advantages like abundant availability of resources (raw materials and skilled manpower), cost advantage and favourable government policies. A combination of the aforementioned factors is expected to result in steady export volume growth over the medium-term.

QUALITY RISK

Inability to match up to global qualitative standards can be detrimental to the Company's brand equity

Mitigation

The Company has invested in cutting-edge technology sourced from leading textile machinery manufacturers. This has allowed the Company to consistently commercialise value-added products and maintains qualitative excellence. The result: Nandan's client list comprises leading brands.

WORKING CAPITAL RISK

An inability to access adequate working capital can affect day-to-day operations of the Company

Mitigation

The Company expends sizeable amounts of resources, financial and otherwise, to identify emerging trends and capitalise on them. A combination of state-of-the-art automation and deep sectoral knowledge has enabled the Company to address its working capital requirements with ease.

Rigorous control over fund deployment and a hands-on approach of the top management enables the Company prevent working capital deployment to spiral out of control. The Company has tied up sufficient working capital.

PRODUCT PORTFOLIO RISK

A stagnant product basket can stifle the growth of the Company

Mitigation

The Company's products are sought by leading global brands. The Company incorporates latest variations and trends to diversify its product mix on a regular basis.

Case in point: Nandan introduced more than 15 new products during FY17 to cater to the incipient demands of its customers around the world.

DIVIDEND DISTRIBUTION POLICY

INTRODUCTION:

The Dividend Distribution Policy ("the policy") establishes the principles to ascertain amounts that can be distributed to equity shareholders as Dividend by the Company as well as enable the Company to strike balance between pay-out and retained earnings, in order to address future needs of the Company.

OBJECTIVE:

The objective of the policy is to specify the external and internal factors including financial parameters that shall be considered while declaring dividend and the circumstances under which the shareholders of the Company may or may not expect Dividend and how the retained earnings shall be utilised, etc.

The Board of Directors (Board) may consider declaration of Interim Dividend depending upon the cash flow situation of the Company. The dividend distribution shall be as per the recommendations of the Board and shall always be decided at an Annual General Meeting of shareholders in case of Final Dividend. Depending on the long term growth strategy of the Company and the prevailing circumstances, the Board may consider a higher dividend payout ratio, while trying to ensure that sufficient funds are retained for growth of the Company.

DECLARATION AND PAYMENT OF DIVIDEND:

In compliance with Section 51 of the Companies Act, 2013, the Company shall pay dividend proportionately, i.e. in proportion to the amount paid-up on each share. Final dividend for a financial year shall be paid after the annual financial statements of the Company are finalised and the amount of distributable profits is available. The declaration and payment of Dividend shall be in accordance with the provisions of Sections 123 to 127 of the Act. Pursuant to the provisions of Section 123 of the Act, the Board shall recommend Dividend for any financial year subject to the following:

(a) out of the profits of the Company for that year arrived after providing for depreciation; or

(b) out of the profits of the Company for any previous financial year(s) arrived at after providing for depreciation and remaining undistributed; or

(c) out of both (a) and (b)

Dividend declared will be distributed amongst all shareholders, based on their shareholding on the Record Date.

Dividends will generally be recommended by the Board once a year, after the announcement of the full year results and before the Annual General Meeting (AGM) of the shareholders, as may be permitted by the Companies Act. The Board may also declare Interim Dividend as may be permitted by the Companies Act.

The Company has had a consistent Dividend policy that balances the objective of appropriately rewarding shareholders through Dividends and to support the future growth.

As in the past, subject to the provisions of the applicable law, the Company's Dividend payout will be determined based on available financial resources, investment opportunities and taking into account optimal shareholder return. Within these parameters, the Company would endeavor to maintain a total Dividend pay-out ratio in the range of 12% to 20% of the annual standalone Profits after Tax (PAT) of the Company.

PARAMETERS:

While determining the nature and quantum of the dividend payout, including amending the suggested payout range as above, the Board would take into account the following factors:

o Internal Factors:

- i. Profitable growth of the Company and specifically, profits earned during the financial year as compared with:
 - a. Previous years; and
 - b. Internal budgets
- ii. Cash flow position of the Company

- iii. Accumulated reserves
- iv. Earnings stability
- v. Future cash requirements for growth / expansion and / or for other purposes
- vi. Brand acquisitions
- vii. Current and future leverage and, under exceptional circumstances, the amount of contingent liabilities
- viii. Deployment of funds in short term marketable investments
- ix. Long term investments
- x. Capital expenditure(s), and
- xi. The ratio of debt to equity (at net debt and gross debt level).

o External Factors:

- i. Business cycles
- ii. Economic environment
- iii. Cost of external financing
- iv. Applicable taxes including tax on dividend
- v. Industry outlook for the future years
- vi. Inflation rate, and
- vii. Changes in the Government policies, industry specific rulings & regulatory provisions.

Apart from the above, the Board also considers past dividend history and sense of shareholders' expectations while determining the rate of dividend. The Board may additionally recommend special dividend in special circumstances.

The Board may consider not declaring dividend or may recommend a lower payout for a given financial year, after analyzing the prospective opportunities and threats or in the event of challenging circumstances such as regulatory and financial environment. In such event, the Board will provide rationale in the Annual Report.

CLASS OF SHARES:

The Company currently has only one class of shares i.e. equity shares.

The retained earnings of the Company may be used in any of the following ways:

- i. Capital expenditure and working capital,
- ii. Growth and / or expansion
- iii. Investment in new business(es) and / or additional investment in existing business(es)
- iv. Declaration of Dividend
- v. Capitalisation of shares
- vi. Buy back of shares
- vii. General corporate purposes, including contingencies
- viii. Correcting the capital structure
- ix. Any other permitted usage as per the Companies Act, 2013.

AMENDMENT:

In case of any subsequent changes in the provisions of the Act or Regulations or Income Tax Act, 1961 or any other regulations which makes any of the provisions of this Policy inconsistent with the Act or such other regulations, then the provisions of the Act or such other regulations would prevail over this Policy and the relevant provisions contained in this Policy would be modified accordingly in due course to make it consistent with applicable laws.

Annexure "B" referred to in paragraph 5(ii) (f) to The Independent Auditor's Report of Even Date on The Financial Statements of Nandan Denim Limited

Report on the Internal Financial Controls under Clause (i) of Sub-section 3 of Section 143 of the Companies Act, 2013 ("the Act")

We have audited the internal financial controls over financial reporting of NANDAN DENIM LIMITED ("the Company") as of 31st March 2017, in conjunction with our audit of the financial statements of the Company for the year ended on that date.

Management's Responsibility for Internal Financial Controls

The Company's management is responsible for establishing and maintaining internal financial controls based on the internal control over financial reporting criteria established by the Company considering the essential components of internal control stated in the Guidance Note on Audit of Internal Financial Controls Over Financial Reporting issued by the Institute of Chartered Accountants of India. These responsibilities include the design, implementation and maintenance of adequate internal financial controls that were operating effectively for ensuring the orderly and efficient conduct of its business, including adherence to Company's policies, the safeguarding of its assets, the prevention and detection of frauds and errors, the accuracy and completeness of the accounting records, and the timely preparation of reliable financial information, as required under the Companies Act, 2013.

Auditor's Responsibility

Our responsibility is to express an opinion on the Company's internal financial controls over financial reporting based on our audit. We conducted our audit in accordance with the Guidance Note on Audit of Internal Financial Controls Over Financial Reporting (the "Guidance Note") and the Standards on Auditing, issued by ICAI and deemed to be prescribed under section 143(10) of the Companies Act, 2013, to the extent applicable to an audit of internal financial controls, both applicable to an audit of Internal Financial Controls and, both issued by the Institute of Chartered Accountants of India. Those Standards and the Guidance Note require that we comply with ethical requirements and plan and perform the audit to obtain reasonable assurance about whether adequate internal financial controls over financial reporting was established and maintained and if such controls operated effectively in all material respects.

Our audit involves performing procedures to obtain audit evidence about the adequacy of the internal financial controls system over financial reporting and their operating effectiveness. Our audit of internal financial controls over financial reporting included obtaining an understanding of internal financial controls over financial reporting, assessing the risk that a material weakness exists, and testing and evaluating the design and operating effectiveness of internal control based on the assessed risk. The procedures selected depend on the auditor's judgement, including the assessment of the risks of material misstatement of the financial statements, whether due to fraud or error.

We believe that the audit evidence we have obtained is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our audit opinion on the Company's internal financial controls system over financial reporting.

Meaning of Internal Financial Controls over Financial Reporting

A Company's internal financial control over financial reporting is a process designed to provide reasonable assurance regarding the reliability of financial reporting and the preparation of financial statements for external purposes in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles. A Company's internal financial control over financial reporting includes those policies and procedures that (1) Pertain to the maintenance of records that, in reasonable detail, accurately and fairly reflect the transactions and dispositions of the assets of the Company; (2) Provide reasonable assurance that transactions are recorded as necessary to permit preparation of financial statements in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles, and that receipts and expenditures of the Company are being made only in accordance with authorizations of management and directors of the Company; and (3) provide reasonable assurance regarding prevention or timely detection of unauthorized acquisition, use, or disposition of the Company's assets that could have a material effect on the financial statements.

Inherent Limitations of Internal Financial Controls over Financial Reporting

Because of the inherent limitations of internal financial controls over financial reporting, including the possibility of collusion or improper management override of controls, material misstatements due to error or fraud may occur and not be detected. Also, projections of any evaluation of the internal financial controls over financial reporting to future periods are subject to the risk that the internal financial control over financial reporting may become inadequate because of changes in conditions, or that the degree of compliance with the policies or procedures may deteriorate.

Opinion

In our opinion, the Company has, in all material respects, an adequate internal financial controls system over financial reporting and such internal financial controls over financial reporting were operating effectively as at 31st March 2017, based on the internal control over financial reporting criteria established by the Company considering the essential components of internal control stated in the Guidance Note on Audit of Internal Financial Controls Over Financial Reporting issued by the Institute of Chartered Accountants of India.

Notes to the Financial Statement for the year ended 31st March, 2017

Note No. 1: SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES

i) Basis of Preparation of Financial Statements

The financial statements of the Company have been prepared in accordance with the Generally Accepted Accounting Principles in India (Indian GAAP) to comply with the Accounting Standards specified under Section 133 of the Companies Act, 2013, read with Rule 7 of the Companies (Accounts) Rules, 2014 and the relevant provisions of the Companies Act, 2013 ("the 2013 Act"), as applicable. The financial statements have been prepared as a going concern on accrual basis under the historical cost convention. The accounting policies adopted in the preparation of the financial statements are consistent with those followed in the previous year.

ii) Use of estimates

In preparing the Company's financial statements in conformity with the generally accepted accounting principles in India, management is required to make estimates and assumptions that affect the reported amounts of assets and liabilities and the disclosure of contingent liabilities at the date of the financial statements and reported amounts of revenues and expenses during the reporting period. Actual results could differ from those estimates. Any revision to accounting estimates is recognised prospectively in the current and future periods.

iii) Property, Plant & Equipment

Property, Plant & Equipment are stated at cost of acquisition less accumulated depreciation. All costs including financial costs till commencement of commercial production are capitalized to the cost of qualifying assets. CENVAT credit, Grants, Foreign Exchange Fluctuation claims, SHIS Licenses and other credits, if any, are accounted for by reducing the cost of capital goods.

When assets are retired from active use, the same are valued at lower of Net Book Value and Net realisable Value.

When assets are disposed, their cost is removed from the financial statements. The gain or loss arising on the disposal of an asset is determined as the difference between sales proceeds and the carrying amount of the asset and is recognised in Statement of Profit and Loss for the relevant financial year.

Depreciation on Property, Plant & Equipments (excluding intangible assets & Free Hold Land) of the company is provided on straight-line method on the basis of useful life of assets as specified under Schedule II of the Companies Act, 2013 except depreciation on incremental cost arising on account of translation of foreign currency liabilities incurred for the purpose of acquiring fixed assets, which is amortized over the residual life of the respective asset.

iv) Intangible Assets

Intangible Assets are stated at cost of acquisition net of recoverable taxes less accumulated amortization. All costs, including financing costs in respect of qualifying assets till commencement of commercial production, net charges on foreign exchange contracts and adjustments arising from exchange rate variations attributable to the intangible assets are capitalized.

Intangible assets are amortised on a straight – line basis over their estimated useful lives. A rebuttable presumption that the useful life of an intangible asset will not exceed ten years from the date when the asset is available for use is considered by the management.

When assets are retired from active use, the same are valued at lower of Net Book Value and Net realisable Value.

The gain or loss arising on the disposal of an intangible asset is determined as the difference between net disposal proceeds and the carrying amount of the asset and is recognised as income or expenses in the Statement of Profit and Loss in the year of disposal.

When assets are disposed or retired, their cost is removed from the financial statements. The gain or loss arising on the disposal or retirement of an asset is determined as the difference between sales proceeds and the carrying amount of the asset and is recognized in Statement of Profit and Loss for the relevant financial year.

v) Impairment of Assets

The Management periodically assesses using external and internal sources whether there is an indication that an asset may be impaired. If an asset is impaired, the Company recognizes an impairment loss as the excess of the carrying amount of the asset over the recoverable amount. The impairment loss recognized in prior accounting periods is reversed if there has been a change in the estimate of recoverable amounts.

vi) Investments

Non-Current Investments are stated at cost. Provision is only made to recognize a decline other than temporary, in the value of investments.
