Actionable Insights • Accurate Decisions

Actionable Insights. Accurate Decisions.

The irony of any organization lies in the ever-increasing volatility, uncertainty, complexity, and ambiguity (VUCA) of the world, in contrast to the desideratum for delivering consistent results and growth. In this dynamic landscape, data analytics emerges as a guiding light, empowering organizations with actionable insights to make accurate decisions that drive success.

Innovation and new business opportunities thrive when inventive ideas are infused with data-driven insights. At LatentView Analytics, we stand at the forefront, empowering businesses to excel. Our mission is to harness the power of data and analytics, ensuring our clients are equipped for the future and continue to be catalysts for change in their industries.

Data holds immense potential, but to achieve comprehensive and consistent business results, theoretical data models alone fall short. Recognizing this reality, LatentView Analytics combines years of experience with analytics expertise to provide holistic consulting and solutions. We empower our clients to solve real-world business problems by bridging the gap between data, insights, actions, and tangible results.

Amid the intricate details of data analytics, it's crucial not to lose sight of the larger trends shaping industries. At LatentView Analytics, we strike a delicate balance. While we maintain a sharp focus on technology, math, and business, we also remain keenly aware of macro shifts and emerging market dynamics. This multifaceted perspective gives us and our clients the competitive advantage required to stay ahead of the curve.

At LatentView Analytics, we hold a profound belief in the pivotal role of people as the catalysts of innovation within organizations. We understand that our employees are not merely a collective entity driving growth and profitability; rather, they form a diverse group of individuals with distinctive backgrounds and perspectives. Embracing Digital. Empowering Evolution.

In today's rapidly evolving world, digital transformation is reshaping industries and redefining how businesses operate. Organizations must embrace the digital revolution to stay competitive, adapt to changing consumer expectations, and unlock new opportunities for growth.

LatentView's Growth Accelerators are designed to empower enterprises in navigating the ever-changing landscape, enabling them to secure and nurture client relationships, unravel untapped revenue opportunities, and thrive in the dynamic digital economy through data-driven insights. Our Growth Accelerator programme is specifically crafted to address the unique scale and innovation challenges that large organizations encounter during their digital transformation journey.

Growth Accelerators will:

1 Increase customer centricity through deeper insights across the customer journey

2 Drive smarter, quicker, and more efficient data-driven decisions

3 Place human-led AI and ML at the core of digital transformations

Subscription Commerce

The shift in consumer behavior from ownership to pay-as-you-use trend, combined with the rapid advancement of digital commerce, has positioned subscriptions as one of the most rapidly expanding business models in the current economy. In light of this prevailing trend, our pilot growth accelerator program was specifically designed to cater to subscription-based enterprises. Given the proliferation of the on-demand economy, both traditional brands and digitally-focused companies face notable opportunities and challenges in their endeavors to expand within this new paradigm.

This transformation in consumer behavior necessitates novel approaches to how companies market their products, operate their businesses, and provide a user experience that fosters strong customer relationships and loyalty. Since 2017, LatentView Analytics has been collaborating with prominent subscription based companies to offer data-driven insights throughout the customer journey, resulting in enhanced acquisition, engagement, and retention of subscribers.

Advisory Council and Partnerships

While one of our mainstay growth strategies at LatentView Analytics has been the glorious client referrals and recommendations, the company has also been focusing on strengthening non-referral growth channels to further bolster business growth.

Data Analytics: A Continuous Function

Dear Shareholders,

The year 2022-23 saw the world return to normalcy, after the life-altering disruptions caused by the COVID-19 virus. It was around the start of last year that travel opened up again, as did face-to-face interactions and in-person meetings with employees, clients and other stakeholders. It was a welcome return to normalcy and we were grateful for the freedom and confidence to be mask-free.

In today's rapidly evolving world, data has become the lifeblood of businesses across industries, new-age or legacy. Organisations that can harness the power of data and derive actionable insights have a distinct competitive advantage and a right to win in today's economy and business landscape. At LatentView, we are at the forefront of the data analytics revolution, helping our clients fortify their businesses, acquire new customers, gain market share, optimise costs, retain and better utilise talent, and become more competitive in an increasingly challenging environment.

In the recent years, we have demonstrated remarkable growth and scalability in our business, exemplified by our operating revenue surpassing the significant milestone of ₹5,000 million in FY23. In this financial year, we concluded with a total operating revenue of ₹5,388 million representing a growth of 32% year on year, accompanied by net profits of ₹1,544 million and a PAT margin of 26%.

₹5,388 million

Revenue from Operations reported a growth of 32% year on year, accompanied by net profits of ₹1,544 million and a PAT margin of 26%

We did see a bit of sluggishness in the last quarter of FY23 due to the challenging macroeconomic conditions across the globe, particularly in the US. However, the market is showing signs of turning around, and this dip can be viewed as a moderation of the excesses of previous quarters. We are fortunate that the majority of our clients and a significant portion of our business is from Fortune 500 companies based in the Silicon Valley. Their business stability and agility to bounce back from tough situations transcends onto us and helps us keep the momentum going. The potential turnaround in the business cycle looks promising and we are confident of a positive upturn.

As a forward-thinking organisation, we are already leveraging AI in parts of our work related to descriptive, diagnostic, and predictive analytics. We are actively experimenting with Generative AI and exploring ways to incorporate it into our value propositions, particularly in the data engineering space. This will enable us to unlock new possibilities and drive even greater value for our clients.

There is considerable excitement about AI and its numerous applications. However, the question of its impact on human jobs also seems to be in the air. History has taught us that with each technological leap forward, humanity has demonstrated remarkable adaptability and resilience, ultimately embracing and valuing our collective capacity to evolve alongside innovation. These advancements push the bar of human intelligence, taking care of the largely simpler tasks, freeing up human minds to concentrate on the more innovative ones.

We wanted to illustrate this in a way that stays with you. Naturally we turned to a GenAI tool. Here's a limerick created in just a few milliseconds by Bard, an AI-powered experimental, conversational chat service designed by Google to simulate human conversations using natural language processing and machine learning.

*"There once was a tool so clever,
It could generate words like a weaver.
But it did not take
Over the human's stake,
It was here to help, not to sever.*

*For Bard knew that humans were smart
And could do things that no AI could start.
So it worked alongside
To help with the grind,
And together they made the world a better place, yeah.*

*With data analytics
They could make sense of all that's manic.
And with the human mind
They could create things sublime,
For humans and AI are a powerful pair
When they work together, there's no telling where.*

*They can create
Things that are quite great,
And the possibilities are endless, oh dear.*

*So let's not fear this new tech
It's here to help, not to wreck.
With humans and AI
We can reach the sky,
And create a future that's bright and clear"*

Well said, Bard!

Marching Ahead With Our Investments in Team & Capabilities

Dear Shareholders,

It has been a year of remarkable growth and success for LatentView Analytics, marked by our highest-ever full-year revenue and profits. In FY23, we achieved a growth rate of 32% in operating revenue, reaching ₹5,388 million. Our EBITDA stood at ₹1,451 million, with an EBITDA margin of 26.9%. We recorded a profit after tax (PAT) of ₹1,554 million, achieving a PAT margin of 26.1%. These results demonstrate our consistent ability to deliver strong financial performance, despite macroeconomic uncertainties.

Our success can be attributed to strong performances across the Technology, Financial Services, and CPG sectors. Organizations are increasingly recognizing the value of data-driven insights in decision-making, particularly in areas such as Supply Chain, Fraud and Risk management and Subscription analytics, among others. Our expertise in these domains has positioned us as a trusted partner for organizations seeking accuracy and precision in today's highly competitive environment.

Momentous client wins

I would like to highlight some key client wins from the past year. We partnered with a distributor of roofing, pooling, and landscaping products, which provided us with an opportunity to expand our footprint in supply chain and digital customer transformation. We also joined forces with the marketing analytics team of a leading American enterprise software company, building an end-to-end marketing performance measurement dashboard. This solution enables our client to track crucial metrics and gain a comprehensive 360-degree view of their customers—a game-changer in the world of marketing effectiveness.

In line with our strategic initiatives, we successfully onboarded several customers from the UK and Europe in the Financial Services and Consumer Packaged Goods (CPG) industries.

Enhancing brand visibility

During the year, we hosted several exclusive marketing events and roundtables, both on the West and East Coasts of the United States, strengthening our brand presence in these markets. We also ramped up our efforts in other regions, by organizing The LatentView Analytics Executive Roundtable Series in the Netherlands.

I am proud to share that we received the prestigious Silver Award for Excellence in Rewards and Recognition Strategy at The Economic Times Human Capital Awards. This recognition is a reflection of our commitment to fostering a positive and empowering work culture.

Attracting the best talent

We're happy to welcome the newest addition to our leadership team, Prashant Ramanujan, who joins us as the Chief Growth Officer. Prashant brings a wealth of experience in digital, technology, and data products & services. We also welcome John Copeland and T.V. Kumaresh to our advisory council, both renowned experts in marketing strategy, analytics, and data-driven decision-making. We've strengthened our go-to-market team with 12 new members joining the LatentView family, expanding our market reach and improving client engagement.

This year, we collaborated with renowned universities such as North Carolina State University, Carlson, and Santa Clara University for talent sourcing and campus recruitment. In addition to our Indian campus collaborations, these new ties will help us identify and recruit the top quality talent, who are a right fit for the company.

Internally we enhanced our Learning & Development initiatives, by introducing several leadership development programmes for our account and engagement managers.

LatentView Analytics
Annual Report 2022-2023

We also launched the “Rising Star” initiative where top performers across the organization were identified and mentored. Career progression plans for them were mapped out, including sponsorship for executive higher education programmes.

Our focus on geographical expansion continues to hold promising growth. In the European market, we expanded our team by welcoming several senior management personnel, including a new Europe Business Head. We also invested in our teams in the US and India, bringing our total employee headcount to 1,116 as of March 31, 2023, from 860 in the previous year.

We've also increased our focus on our inorganic growth, by engaging in strategic M&As with key industry partners. Leveraging our robust cash reserve, we are actively exploring potential avenues for growth. As of March 31, 2023, our Cash and Investments (excluding IPO proceeds) stood at ₹8,247 million.

Industry operating environment

There has been a temporary slowdown in onboarding new accounts in the latter-half of FY23 and general sluggishness in existing accounts due to the overall economic slowdown and uncertainty in many developed markets. Decision-making by clients for new initiatives has slowed down. However, we're happy to share that we have secured annual renewals for almost all our client engagements. Several of our new initiatives are becoming increasingly larger and more complex in nature, thus offering larger pockets of growth for LatentView.

Slowly but surely, there is an improvement in the market conditions. We're not only hearing positive feedback from our clients, but also observing encouraging signs of improvement in the overall economic conditions. This motivates us to maintain our investment momentum and allocate resources accordingly. Our business pipeline and order book remain healthy, and we are actively working towards our long-term goals. Several significant opportunities within our current pipeline of ~$50 million have the potential to be transformative in nature. The pace at which we convert and add more opportunities to our pipeline will ultimately shape the revenue trajectory in the year to come.

Taking a step back to comment on the overall trend of the data analytics industry, I am able to draw out three broad themes.

First, the data analytics landscape is rapidly evolving, with initiatives growing increasingly complex and sophisticated. Alongside this shift, client expectations have also evolved, seeking razor-sharp insights and comprehensive representations of their data from diverse sources and in multiple formats. Consequently, the demand for more intelligent data tools has emerged - tools that will empower business leaders to make purposeful and strategic decisions with confidence.

Second, identification of customer pain points and crafting targeted business solutions and value propositions to effectively address them remains critical. With the competitive intensity in the industry now, it is important to adopt a focussed approach to solve the key challenges of the market.

And lastly, the third theme centers around embracing technological advancements. The industry is exploding with the latest buzz on Generative AI and its numerous applications, advanced Machine Learning (ML) technology and much more. Working closely with these tools and solving customer pain points is clearly the winning road ahead.

As a team, we understand the significance of proactively staying ahead of these trends to preserve our competitive advantage. We remain steadfast in our commitment to innovation, client satisfaction, and talent development. We will continue to onboard top talent and invest in capability development, value propositions, assets, and accelerators. We are particularly focused on specific value propositions such as ConnectedView, Smart Innovation and One CustomerView, offering solutions in supply chain, consumer product innovation, marketing analytics and hyper-personalization.

By leveraging cutting-edge technologies such as Generative AI, Graph ML, Image analytics and much more, we can unlock new insights and drive even greater value for our clients.

Concluding thoughts

At LatentView, we go the extra mile to deepen our relationships with existing clients and seek new partnerships with organizations that align with our vision and values. Our success is directly tied to the success of our clients, and we are dedicated to providing them with best-in-class solutions and services to help them achieve their business objectives. We will continue to invest and support growth initiatives and capability building that differentiate us in the marketplace.

Talent development remains a top priority for us. Our employees are the driving force behind our success, and we are committed to providing them with a supportive and inclusive work environment. Our goal is to attract, retain and develop the best talent in the industry, ensuring that we have a diverse and highly skilled team that can deliver exceptional results for our clients.

I express my gratitude to our shareholders for their unwavering support and trust in Latent View Analytics Limited. Together, we have achieved remarkable milestones, and I am confident that we are well-positioned for continued growth and success. As we navigate the evolving landscape of the analytics industry, we will remain agile, adaptable, and committed to delivering value to our clients, employees, and other stakeholders.

Sincerely,

Rajan Sethuraman

Leadership Reflections. Strategic Insights.

Krishnan Venkata
Chief Client Officer

“Leading organizations across the globe are increasingly looking at analytics initiatives to drive tangible impact on business. What this requires is a partner who thinks beyond just execution. Since 2020, we have focused on being a Thought Partner to our clients with delivery excellence being table stakes. The focus on this initiative has helped us reach an all-time high Net Promoter score of +34 with 88% of clients expressing that they are delighted to partner with us.

As we head into FY24, the tough environment is also presenting a silver lining as we are seeing higher engagement with organizations as they are looking to drive more bang for the buck and that has translated to interest in leveraging data and analytics to drive efficiencies and growth.”

Rajan Venkatesan
Chief Financial Officer

“FY23 was a year of transformation for LatentView. We continued the strong growth momentum despite the global shocks on the back of the Ukraine-Russia war, high inflation and interest levels and threats of recession in the United States which is our primary market.

We made significant investments in our sales, account management and capability teams and we will continue to accelerate efforts to aid growth and grow market share. As always profitable and sustainable growth is our mantra and we will stay true to it in the future too. With the emergence of ESG, we are now building on our responsibility towards a sustainable and responsible business.”

Prashant Ramanujan
Chief Growth Officer

“Clients have taken into stride the shocks from the Fed tightening cycle, triggered by the pandemic easing. The market and thus our business seems to be finally settling down into a responsible spectrum. The current environment is one of cautionary dip-checks, on critical aspects of an innovative product lifecycle and/or how to maximize cost optimization further.

The buzz of Generative AI, LLM, and Smart Search, dominates the mindshare, especially from a productivity standpoint. LatentView is at the sweet spot, with capabilities across Data, Analytics & AI. Since intelligent aggregation of data is the foundational aspect of any AI implementation, we are working closely with several of our existing and prospective clients, to accelerate the capture of this disruptive but productive, once in a generation technology.

Growth for the remaining fiscal will be higher than the last half, across key vertical sectors such as Technology, Financial Services and Industrials.”

Create an artist selection tool for easy decision-making on campaigns worth ~$70 million

One of the leading media companies headquartered in the US with a vast global video platform

Problem

- Collaborate with artists with a wider reach and affinity toward audience that tends to use short-form content
- With more than 1 million artists around the globe, how to select the right one to engage using a data-driven approach

Purpose

- To assist the marketing team to profile artists for short campaigns based on performance
- To design a scoring methodology to consolidate disparate categories of behavioral and social engagement metrics

Path

- Constructing: Data infrastructure using SQL factoring behavioral and social data for the artists
- Implementing: Correlation Analysis to identify key metrics driving engagements and creations
- Grouping: The metrics under custom categories such as Audience, YT activity, SFV activity, Social, and YouGov (perception data)
- Building: A statistical scoring methodology using Z-score centered on the categories and its corresponding metrics
- Assigning: The weightage for each category to calculate the final selection score and classify them into selection buckets
- Creating: A self-servicing tool where a PMM can see the list of artists with the scores along with key metrics to aid in selection decision

Positive Impact

Enabled easy decision-making on key strategic campaigns, which involves an investment of ~$70 million

Brought power to regional teams to propose campaigns by choosing the best-fit artist in a data-driven way

Build functional expertise with focus on BFSI and Retail

The Retail and BFSI industries offer significant market potential for the company due to the growing use of customer analytics and fraud and risk analytics, respectively. To capitalize on this opportunity, our primary focus is on enhancing our domain expertise by developing new solutions in fraud analytics and insurance analytics. In line with this objective, we have strategically hired personnel with extensive experience in these industry verticals.

To execute our go-to-market strategy effectively, we will leverage the expertise of our augmented team and concentrate on potential opportunities within these industries. By doing so, we aim to strengthen our market presence and establish ourselves as a leading provider of analytics solutions tailored to the specific needs of the Retail and Financial Services sectors.

Expand presence in Europe and APAC

To drive our growth, we aim to expand our customer base and establish a stronger foothold in diverse geographical regions. We will achieve this by implementing initiatives such as pilot projects with both existing and potential clients, granting us access to untapped markets. Additionally, our sustained presence in these regions will be bolstered by well-established subsidiaries and a growing onsite go-to-market team. This expansion will be driven by market opportunities and client referrals, enabling us to expand in regions like Europe and APAC. To further expand our clientele, we will concentrate on engaging industry leaders and leveraging our existing client relationships.

Leverage our supply chain expertise and build expertise in data engineering

Our objective is to capitalize on our expertise and solutions in supply chain analytics. Initially, we will enhance our end-to-end service offerings by establishing partnerships with renowned channels like AWS and Snowflake. Collaborating with technology companies specializing in cloud platforms, data engineering solutions, visualization tools, and analytics solutions is expected to drive significant growth.

Additionally, we will prioritize the development of technical expertise in data engineering by introducing new solutions such as Migration (Product Migrate Mate) and Data Activation (Data Tray). We will collaborate to co-build these solutions through strategic technology and cloud partnerships.

Moreover, we recognize the importance of staying at the forefront of the industry. To achieve this, we will invest in building cutting-edge capabilities by participating in the best certification courses and programs available across the industry. This commitment to continuous learning and upskilling will enable us to deliver high-quality services and remain competitive in the ever-evolving field of data analytics.

Fortify position via inorganic growth

We aim to fortify our position by exploring opportunities for strategic expansion. Through mergers and acquisitions (M&A), we seek to swiftly access cutting-edge technologies and cultivate greater expertise in fields such as artificial intelligence and machine learning.

These strategic transactions will not only provide us access to novel geographies, industries, and clientele but also enable us to identify synergies where we can seamlessly integrate operations, culture, and data engineering capabilities. Our ongoing pursuit of synergistic opportunities is driven by our confidence in creating value through strategic integration.

Global Economy

FY23 witnessed several disruptions caused by Russia's invasion of Ukraine, higher interest rates, elevated inflation, increased debt levels, reduced spending, lingering effects of the COVID-19 pandemic, escalating geopolitical tensions, and financial turbulence. Given the fragile economic conditions, the global economy is anticipated to remain gloomy and uncertain in the near term.

According to International Monetary Fund's (IMF) World Economic Outlook (WEO) report April 2023, global economic growth is estimated to decelerate from 3.4% in 2022 to 2.8% in 2023 before rising modestly to 3.0% in 2024. Global inflation soared to a multidecade high of 8.7% in 2022, driven by pent-up demand, protracted supply disruptions, and surges in commodity prices. As a result, central banks rapidly tightened monetary policies to bring inflation back toward their targets and maintain inflation expectations. The global inflation is anticipated to ease at 7.0% and 4.9% in 2023 and 2024, respectively. During the year, the momentum of growth significantly weakened in the US, the EU, and other developed economies, adversely impacting the rest of the global economy.

The US economic growth is projected to decline to 1.6% and 1.1% in 2023 and 2024, respectively. The slow pace of growth is primarily led by lower real incomes, high inflation, and consequences of rapid interest rate hikes from nearly 0 in March 2022 to a range of 4.75-5.0% in March 2023 by the Federal Reserve. The interest rates are expected to be in the range of 5.0-5.5% by the end of 2023 in an effort to restore price stability and balance in the US economy. Further, the instability in the banking sector in mid-March 2023 has triggered concerns about the viability of the US financial system.

The Eurozone is predicted to fall sharply from 3.5% in 2022 to 0.8% in 2023 before rising to 1.4% in 2024 as the war in Ukraine continues with no end in sight. Many European countries are anticipated to experience a mild recession, with elevated energy costs, high inflation, and tighter financial conditions depressing household consumption and investment.

Growth in emerging and developing countries in Asia is projected to rise in 2023 and 2024 to 5.3% and 5.1%, respectively, after a deeper-than-expected slowdown to 4.4% in 2022 as China's reopening boosted the economy.

The weak outlook provided by IMF reflects the necessity for stringent policy measures to reduce inflation, the effects of worsening financial conditions, the ongoing war in Ukraine, and expanding geoeconomics fragmentation. Risks to the outlook are substantially tilted to the downside as the likelihood of a hard landing has increased significantly. Policymakers have a narrow path to walk to enhance opportunities and minimize risks. Central banks need to remain steady with their tighter anti-inflation stance, but they also need to be ready to adjust and use their full set of policy instruments, including addressing financial stability concerns as developments demand. Fiscal policymakers should buttress monetary and financial policymakers' actions in getting inflation back to target while maintaining financial stability. Making progress toward building a more resilient global economy requires multilateral cooperation measures, including strengthening the global financial safety net, mitigating the costs of climate change, and minimizing the adverse effects of geo-economic fragmentation.

The Global IT Industry Outlook

In FY23, technology continued to play a vital role as organizations accelerated their digital transformation journey to address the requirements of an increasing tech-savvy customer base. The next year will be about sustaining the momentum and future-proofing the business with relevant technologies.

While there is a lot of innovation and advancement seen across industries, some technologies that will be game changers are data analytics, artificial intelligence (AI), machine learning (ML), natural language processing (NLP), augmented and virtual reality (AR/VR), blockchain, big data analytics, internet of things (IoT), cloud computing, low-code-no-code (LCNC) platforms, robotic process automation (RPA), and cyber security, which will fuel growth, stay competitive, and become future-ready.

According to Gartner's April 2023 release, worldwide IT spending is predicted to touch US$4.6 trillion in 2023, reflecting growth of 5.5% over 2022. Growth will be driven by the software segment as CIOs prioritize spending to capture competitive advantages through increased productivity, automation, and other software-led transformation initiatives. Despite continued global economic turbulence along with high inflation, countries across the globe are anticipated to witness positive IT spending growth in 2023. The IT services segment will continue its growth trajectory through 2024, largely driven by the Infrastructure-as-a-Service (IaaS) market, which is projected to reach over 30% growth this year.

Worldwide IT Spending Forecast (US$ billions)
	2022 Spending	2022 Growth (%)	2023 Spending	2023 Growth (%)	2024 Spending	2024 Growth (%)
Data Center Systems	216	13.7	224	3.7	238	6.1

Organizations are increasingly leaning on technology for scaling automation while humanizing UX, streamlining supply chain, enhancing cyber resilience, and delivering their sustainability goals toward becoming purpose-driven businesses. Overall, the IT industry has not just weathered the pandemic-driven disruptions of the past few years, but it has flourished.

Data & Analytics

In today's digital era, data has become one of the most valuable assets for organizations. The Data & Analytics (D&A) industry is growing rapidly as more organizations adopt data-driven models to streamline their business processes. Organizations are increasingly turning to data analytics to enhance fact-based decision-making, implement data-driven models, and expand data-focused product offerings.

According to MarketWatch Research, the global D&A market is forecast to witness a CAGR of 30.4% between 2022 and 2030. The key trends that will drive growth include the integration of AI and ML; increased usage of big data, cloud computing, IoT, and edge computing; the ability to analyze data in real time; and the adoption of automation and self-service analytics. These trends will assist organizations to capture insights from huge, complex, and unstructured datasets, make more informed and strategic business decisions, predict business outcomes, increase operational effectiveness, and improve customer engagement.

Generative AI (GAI) is expected to transfigure business operations and workflows by automating varied functions. It is expected to reduce the turnover time in using large amount of data within defined timelines and increase effectiveness and efficiency.

Financial Services, Healthcare, Consumer Packaged Goods (CPG) and Retail, and Technology are key verticals where D&A has emerged as a vital tool for driving innovation, efficacy, and growth.

D&A applications are segmented into two types – diagnostic/descriptive and prescriptive/predictive analytics. The predictive analytics segment is expected to grow at a higher rate primarily due to increasing demand for predictive analytics solutions, which deliver insights into customer behavior and predict future trends, such as the ones mentioned below.

Well-informed decision-making

D&A provides insightful, data-driven information that helps organizations in understanding their markets, operations, and consumers. They can identify patterns, trends, and correlations. Furthermore, they make well-informed decisions supported by data and metrics rather than mere guesswork. Businesses can enhance productivity, reduce costs, uncover new opportunities, and reduce risks by optimizing their strategies and making more informed decisions.

Enhanced efficiency and productivity

D&A enables organizations to boost efficiency and productivity by automating and streamlining processes, maximizing resource allocation, and reducing manual labor. Businesses can streamline their workflows by locating and eliminating bottlenecks and redundancy. Additionally, D&A helps businesses in finding areas where productivity can be improved such as waste reduction, better inventory control, and supply chain optimization.

Improved customer experience

D&A enables businesses to pinpoint areas where they may improve their customer experience, such as reducing wait times, boosting customer service, or optimising user interfaces, by providing them with relevant insights on the behavior, preferences, and needs of their customers. Thus, D&A enables companies to customize their offers to match each customer's specific needs, strengthening relationships with them and increasing customer loyalty.

Enhanced risk management

Organizations can analyse data in real time to take proactive measures to reduce potential dangers.

They can reduce the likelihood of monetary losses, reputational damage, and other negative outcomes by using D&A to enhance risk management.

Competitive advantage

Organizations can expand their market share, boost revenue growth, and strengthen their brand by utilizing D&A to gain a competitive advantage.

The demand for D&A continues to remain strong from traditionally leading markets of North America and EMEA, as well as from the emerging APAC market.

Company Verticals and Overview

Technology

The Technology industry is the forerunner in the era of digital transformations. It is witnessing innovation across industries including BFSI, Retail, Media and Entertainment, Agriculture, Utilities, and many more. The year 2023 and beyond will see a continuation of the shift in innovation with accelerated adoption and evolution of the cloud, 5G networks, quantum computing, AI, and ML – all combined into one platform.

As the landscape is constantly changing, organizations are challenged to create a business model around their customers and simultaneously adapt to their changing needs. This entails developing interconnected user experiences that harness data and turn insights into action across businesses in real time. Some of the key trends to drive growth in 2023 are:

- Taking cloud and Software-as-a-Service (SaaS) to the next level by ensuring that all the data is accessible in real time under one roof to facilitate better decision-making.
- Creating predictive models for data-driven decision-making for revenue intelligence and increased sales and productivity.

- Increasing data warehousing capabilities in order to gain access to new data and efficient use of historical data.
- Leading the initiatives to develop a sustainable business model to reduce environmental impact.
- Harnessing real-time data to efficiently predict consumer behavior, scale faster, and improve automation process.

According to Gartner's March 2023 release, a survey was conducted to understand how economic turbulence poses challenges to general managers, how confident they are in their ability to achieve their plans, and the measures planned to tackle the uncertainty. The survey found that 72% of high-tech leaders in the US, Canada, and Western Europe have plans to increase revenue in 2023 despite the current economic uncertainty. Additionally, almost half of those leaders believe they will be able to outperform their competition this year.

GAI has presaged a revolutionary shift in the world of technology. One of the GAIs, ChatGPT, released on November 22, 2022, attracted 100 million users in just two months after its launch and quickly became one of the most important topics of conversation in the technology industry. In both the short- and long terms, GAI can transform every aspect of human activity to boost productivity, reduce costs, and promote innovation, along with other far-reaching benefits. The market for GAI has shown phenomenal growth due to soaring demand and technological adoption. This is evidenced by the increase in start-up investments in AI and many other businesses launching AI-based services. Experts believe that by 2030, the market for GAI would touch US$110.8 billion.

The Technology sector in North America is the third-largest contributor to the regional D&A spend.

Technology continues to remain a strong vertical for us, contributing to 68.9% of our revenue in FY23.

At LatentView Analytics, we are uniquely positioned to assist our customers to accomplish synergies and success by delivering critical analytical insights through our deep skills in domain, data science, and data engineering. Our growth-led methodology helps customers to uncover insightful information.

Industrials

Despite supply chain disruptions and workforce shortages, the Industrials sector continued to build the momentum it gained emerging from the pandemic. While overall demand continues to remain strong, there are indications that some of the sectors might face temporary challenges due to concerns related to rising inflation, uncertain economic conditions, and cost optimization strategies, which seem to be implemented across industries. To sustain competition and growth, it has become mandatory for organizations to leverage digital technologies and other pillars of the Industrial Revolution 4.0, adopt strategies for the future of work, and drive supply chain resiliency.

The key trends across Industrials in 2023 are:

- Investing in emerging/advanced technologies to help mitigate risk and remain agile.
- Implementing a broad range of talent management strategies to reduce voluntary exits and tackle ongoing supply chain disruption.
- Taking a holistic approach to smart factory initiatives to unlock new horizons to drive more efficient operations, and ultimately, improve business outcomes.

- Focusing on net zero, ESG, and sustainability.

The Industrials sector sits on mammoth amounts of data from varied sources, such as sensors, production equipment, logistics systems, and customers. Leveraging this data to understand customer behavior and identify production and supply chain bottlenecks can lead to a significant rise in productivity, increase cost savings, and enhance cash flow. Furthermore, with the steep rise in connected vehicles, automotive industries can fuel business growth by underpinning data analytics.

CPG and Retail

The CPG and Retail industry is witnessing waves of transformation powered by changing consumer demographics, accelerated adoption of emerging technologies, and shifting consumer buying habits. These new dynamics are demanding organizations to rethink their business strategies, which is offering huge opportunity to companies like LatentView Analytics to redesign their marketing and operations using data analytics expertise.

Post COVID-19 pandemic, CPG and Retail organizations have realized the advantage of investing in advanced technologies, which helped them to remain agile and capitalize on newer opportunities. Some of the important areas that will continue to remain a game changer in 2023 are cloud migration, blockchain, IoT, retail analytics, consumer analytics, integration of AI/ML to create seamless consumer experiences, omnichannel commerce, metaverse, and AR/VR.

According to Global Market Insights release, the retail analytics market size surpassed US$10 billion in 2022 and is expected to increase at a CAGR of 24% between 2023 and 2032. Rapid urbanization and rising e-commerce sector will drive the industry demand. Innovation, digitalization, and the development of next-generation analytics tools in developed economies will further accelerate the use of data analytics in retail.

The rise of e-commerce and digital technologies has led to the generation of vast amounts of data every minute on consumer behavior, market trends, and sales performance. In today's fast-changing era, it is critical for organizations to stay connected and informed as it provides better visibility into real-time point-of-sale data, empowering them to forecast demand, identify customer behavior, and stay ahead of buying trends. Additionally, they can leverage these insights to improve shelf availability, execute just-in-time deliveries, build resilience, prevent costly markdowns, and make better decisions about production planning and supply chain operations.

Historically, CPG and Retail organizations have lagged behind the industry in data utilization. As per an industry report, data-powered decision-making in the sector stands at 44% despite great potential. With the current inflationary macroeconomic environment across industries, there is a need to build a data-powered culture that helps to make data-driven decisions for renewed impact and stay shielded from unforeseen challenges.

CPG and Retail contributed 10.2% of our revenue in FY23.

As CPG and Retail organizations struggle to glean an end-to-end and structured line of sight from their data, LatentView Analytics, through our analytical and consulting expertise, helps businesses break data silos and gain a competitive advantage.

Financial Services

Banking, Financial Services, and Insurance (BFSI) continued to remain the fastest sector in its digital transformation journey in 2022. The digital banking trend also continued to gain momentum in the foreseeable future, leading to many banks closing entire segments of branch networks as their digital maturity grows. Additionally, the development of fintech startups and the integration of blockchain into payment systems have contributed to the expansion of the digital banking industry. Increased focus on customer experience, as well as a rise in open banking, data security, and increased usage of AI and automation for faster and more efficient process are some of the key trends for 2023 that will shape the future of BFSI industry.

With increased frauds, data breaches, and cyberattacks, data analytics in the banking market is increasingly being adopted to avoid these challenges, provide effective insights to the customers, and remain competitive.

Some of the key trends in data analytics and banking in 2023 are the rise in the use of AI and augmented analytics, Data Operations (DataOps), data governance, composable data analytics, cloud-based analytics, and the multi-cloud strategy.

Data analytics is transforming the BFSI industry, enabling financial institutions to make more accurate and informed decisions, identify trends and patterns in large datasets, manage risks and online frauds more effectively, and gain a deeper understanding of their operations. LatentView Analytics

- Prashant Ramanujan joined LatentView Analytics as Chief Growth Officer. Prashant comes with a blend of hands-on delivery execution, pre-sales, and business scaling functions across digital, technology, and data products and services. He brings expertise in market research and crafting and executing GTM strategies, coupled with building a technical ecosystem of a team along with partners.
- Strengthening our footprint in Europe, we onboarded Sanjay Annadate and recruited 9 senior management personnel in the region during the year, a majority of which was done in Q4FY23. With this investment, the company aims to deepen its focus on European business opportunities and drive growth.
- Sumit Misra, a seasoned senior management professional with 25+ years of experience in formulating growth strategies across diverse vertical segments joined us as Head - Data Engineering.

Business Outlook

In today's highly competitive world and uncertain economic conditions, organizations are increasingly relying on data-driven insights to make more accurate and precise decisions to maximize efficiency and remain competitive.

The management continues to remain focused on the company's core areas of business, viz., Technology, Industrial, CPG & Retail, and BFSI. We are creating capabilities that cut across industries, specifically in the areas of Supply Chain, Data Engineering, and Advanced Data Science. We believe these Centres of Excellence would fortify our positioning in the market and create differentiated service offerings. This approach should lead to greater focus on industry-specific pain points as well capitalize on faster pockets of growth available in these areas.

LatentView Analytics reported the highest ever full-year revenue and profit margins in the history of company. Revenue witnessed growth of 32% on year-on-year basis to ₹ 5,388 million for FY23. The growth was broad-based across Technology, Financial Services, and CPG and Retail.

We remain committed to invest in growth opportunities and expand our capabilities. We are confident that our strong execution track record, prudent capital allocation, sharp value propositions based on gaps identified in the market, and verticalized approach positions us well to sustain the growth momentum in FY2024 and beyond.

Leadership Indicators

1. Provide the processes for consultation between stakeholders and the Board on economic, environmental, and social topics or if consultation is delegated, and how is feedback from such consultations provided to the Board.

During our Annual General Meeting, the Board engages with shareholders directly to provide them with an overview of our strategies and to address any queries or concerns that they may have. This communication helps to promote transparency and build trust among shareholders.

2. Whether stakeholder consultation is used to support the identification and management of environmental, and social topics (Yes/No). If so, provide details of instances as to how the inputs received from stakeholders on these topics were incorporated into policies and activities of the entity.

To help define the most important ESG issues, we have conducted materiality assessment in order to remain successful in the long term. All the identified stakeholders were given the opportunity to provide inputs regarding the materiality of certain topics which are relevant for the business. It allowed us to capture our non-financial impacts, helped us prioritise issues to focus on, and improves our strategic thinking.

3. Provide details of instances of engagement with, and actions taken to, address the concerns of vulnerable/marginalized stakeholder groups.

We strongly believe in being a part of the change we want to see in the society so we have identified 'Social responsibility' as one of the key material topics.

Independent Auditor's Report

To the Members of Latent View Analytics Limited (formerly known as Latent View Analytics Private Limited)

Report on the Audit of the Consolidated Financial Statements

Opinion

We have audited the consolidated financial statements of Latent View Analytics Limited (formerly known as Latent View Analytics Private Limited) (hereinafter referred to as the "Holding Company") and its subsidiaries (Holding Company and its subsidiaries together referred to as "the Group"), which comprise the consolidated balance sheet as at 31 March, 2023, and the consolidated statement of profit and loss (including other comprehensive income), consolidated statement of changes in equity and consolidated statement of cash flows for the year then ended, and notes to the consolidated financial statements, including a summary of significant accounting policies and other explanatory information (hereinafter referred to as "the consolidated financial statements").

In our opinion and to the best of our information and according to the explanations given to us, and based on the consideration of reports of the other auditors on separate financial statements of such subsidiaries as were audited by the other auditors, the aforesaid consolidated financial statements give the information required by the Companies Act, 2013 ("Act") in the manner so required and give a true and fair view in conformity with the accounting principles generally accepted in India, of the consolidated state of affairs of the Group as at 31 March, 2023, of its consolidated profit and other comprehensive income, consolidated changes in equity and consolidated cash flows for the year then ended.

Basis for Opinion

We conducted our audit in accordance with the Standards on Auditing (SAs) specified under Section 143(10) of the Act. Our responsibilities under those SAs are further described in the Auditor's Responsibilities for the Audit of the Consolidated Financial Statements section of our report. We are independent of the Group in accordance with the ethical requirements that are relevant to our audit of the consolidated financial statements in terms of the Code of Ethics issued by the Institute of Chartered Accountants of India and the relevant provisions of the Act, and we have fulfilled our other ethical responsibilities in accordance with these requirements. We believe that the audit evidence obtained by us along with the consideration of reports of the other auditors referred to in paragraph (a) of the "Other Matters" section below, is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our opinion on the consolidated financial statements.

Key Audit Matter

Key audit matters are those matters that, in our professional judgment and based on the consideration of reports of other auditors on separate financial statements of components audited by them, were of most significance in our audit of the consolidated financial statements of the current period. These matters were addressed in the context of our audit of the consolidated financial statements as a whole, and in forming our opinion thereon, and we do not provide a separate opinion on these matters.

Revenue recognition

See Note 17 to consolidated financial statements

The key audit matter	How the matter was addressed in our audit
The Group is primarily engaged in the business of rendering analytical services from time-and-material and fixed price contracts.	In view of the significance of the matter we applied the following audit procedures in this area, among others to obtain sufficient appropriate audit evidence:
Fixed price revenue contracts with customers have defined delivery milestones with agreed scope of work. Pricing for each milestone depends on the nature of service/industry served and the efforts involved over the term of the contract. Revenue from time and material contracts is recognised as the service is performed. Revenue from both these contracts is recognized over a period of time in accordance with the requirements of Ind-AS 115, "Revenue from Contracts with Customers".	<ol style="list-style-type: none"> Assessed the appropriateness of the Group's revenue recognition accounting policies with reference to the relevant accounting standards. Obtained an understanding of the Group's Revenue recognition process including design and implementation of controls. Tested the operating effectiveness, for sample transactions, of key controls over revenue recognized in the time and material and fixed price contracts.
We identified revenue recognition from contracts with external customers as a Key Audit Matter since -	<ol style="list-style-type: none"> Performed test of details on revenue transactions recorded during the year, on a sample basis. Verified the underlying documents such as Invoices, Statement of works/ Purchase Order, Master service agreements and customer acknowledgements (time sheets approvals), where applicable.
<ul style="list-style-type: none"> there is an inherent risk and presumed fraud risk around the existence of revenues recognised considering the nature of these contracts;

Other Information

The Holding Company's Management and Board of Directors are responsible for the other information. The other information comprises the information included in the annual report, but does not include the financial statements and auditor's report thereon. The annual report is expected to be made available to us after the date of this auditor's report.

Our opinion on the consolidated financial statements does not cover the other information and we will not express any form of assurance conclusion thereon.

In connection with our audit of the consolidated financial statements, our responsibility is to read the other information identified above when it becomes available and, in doing so, consider whether the other information is materially inconsistent with the consolidated financial statements or our knowledge obtained in the audit, or otherwise appears to be materially misstated.

When we read the annual report, if we conclude that there is a material misstatement therein, we are required to communicate the matter to those charged with governance and describe actions applicable under the applicable laws and regulations.

Management's and Board of Directors Responsibilities for the Consolidated Financial Statements

The Holding Company's Management and Board of Directors are responsible for the preparation and presentation of these consolidated financial statements in term of the requirements of the Act that give a true and fair view of the consolidated state of affairs, consolidated profit/loss and other comprehensive income, consolidated statement of changes in equity and consolidated cash flows of the Group in accordance with the accounting principles generally accepted in India, including the Indian Accounting Standards (Ind AS) specified under Section 133 of the Act. The respective Management and Board of Directors of the companies included in the Group are responsible for maintenance of adequate accounting records in accordance with the provisions of the Act for safeguarding the assets of each company and for preventing and detecting frauds and other irregularities; the selection and application of appropriate accounting policies; making judgments and estimates that are reasonable and prudent; and the design, implementation and maintenance of adequate internal financial controls, that were operating effectively for ensuring the accuracy and completeness of the accounting records, relevant to the preparation and presentation of the consolidated financial statements that give a true and fair view and are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error, which have been used for the purpose of preparation of the consolidated financial statements by the Management and Board of Directors of the Holding Company, as aforesaid.

In preparing the consolidated financial statements, the respective Management and Board of Directors of the companies included in the Group are responsible for assessing the ability of each company to continue as a going concern, disclosing, as applicable, matters related to going concern and using the going concern basis of accounting unless the respective Board of Directors either intends to liquidate the Company or to cease operations, or has no realistic alternative but to do so.

The respective Board of Directors of the companies included in the Group are responsible for overseeing the financial reporting process of each company.

Auditor's Responsibilities for the Audit of the Consolidated Financial Statements

Our objectives are to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the consolidated financial statements as a whole are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error, and to issue an auditor's report that includes our opinion. Reasonable assurance is a high level of assurance, but is not a guarantee that an audit conducted in accordance with SAs will always detect a material misstatement when it exists. Misstatements can arise from fraud or error and are considered material if, individually or in the aggregate, they could reasonably be expected to influence the economic decisions of users taken on the basis of these consolidated financial statements.

Notice to the AGM

As part of an audit in accordance with SAs, we exercise professional judgment and maintain professional skepticism throughout the audit. We also:

- Identify and assess the risks of material misstatement of the consolidated financial statements, whether due to fraud or error, design and perform audit procedures responsive to those risks, and obtain audit evidence that is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our opinion. The risk of not detecting a material misstatement resulting from fraud is higher than for one resulting from error, as fraud may involve collusion, forgery, intentional omissions, misrepresentations, or the override of internal control.
- Obtain an understanding of internal control relevant to the audit in order to design audit procedures that are appropriate in the circumstances. Under Section 143(3) (i) of the Act, we are also responsible for expressing our opinion on whether the company has adequate internal financial controls with reference to financial statements in place and the operating effectiveness of such controls.
- Evaluate the appropriateness of accounting policies used and the reasonableness of accounting estimates and related disclosures made by the Management and Board of Directors.
- Conclude on the appropriateness of the Management and Board of Directors use of the going concern basis of accounting in preparation of consolidated financial statements and, based on the audit evidence obtained, whether a material uncertainty exists related to events or conditions that may cast significant doubt on the appropriateness of this assumption. If we conclude that a material uncertainty exists, we are required to draw attention in our auditor's report to the related disclosures in the consolidated financial statements or, if such disclosures are inadequate, to modify our opinion. Our conclusions are based on the audit evidence obtained up to the date of our auditor's report. However, future events or conditions may cause the Group to cease to continue as a going concern.
- Evaluate the overall presentation, structure and content of the consolidated financial statements, including the disclosures, and whether the consolidated financial statements represent the underlying transactions and events in a manner that achieves fair presentation.
- Obtain sufficient appropriate audit evidence regarding the financial statements of such entities or business activities within the Group to express an opinion on the consolidated financial statements. We are responsible for the direction, supervision and performance of the audit of the financial statements of such entities included in the consolidated financial statements of which we are the independent auditors. For the other entities included in the consolidated financial statements, which have been audited by other auditors, such other auditors remain responsible for the direction, supervision and performance of the audits carried out by them. We remain solely responsible for our audit opinion. Our responsibilities in this regard are further described in paragraph (a) of the section titled "Other Matters" in this audit report.

We communicate with those charged with governance of the Holding Company and such other entities included in the consolidated financial statements of which we are the independent auditors regarding, among other matters, the planned scope and timing of the audit and significant audit findings, including any significant deficiencies in internal control that we identify during our audit.

We also provide those charged with governance with a statement that we have complied with relevant ethical requirements regarding independence, and to communicate with them all relationships and other matters that may reasonably be thought to bear on our independence, and where applicable, related safeguards.

From the matters communicated with those charged with governance, we determine those matters that were of most significance in the audit of the consolidated financial statements of the current period and are therefore the key audit matters. We describe these matters in our auditor's report unless law or regulation precludes public disclosure about the matter or when, in extremely rare circumstances, we determine that a matter should not be communicated in our report because the adverse consequences of doing so would reasonably be expected to outweigh the public interest benefits of such communication.

Other Matters

- We did not audit the financial statements of three subsidiaries and one step down subsidiary, whose financial statements reflect total assets (before consolidation adjustments) of ₹726.69 millions as at 31 March, 2023, total revenues (before consolidation adjustments) of ₹175.26 millions and net cash flows outflows (before consolidation adjustments) amounting to ₹592.20 for the year ended on that date, as considered in the consolidated financial statements. These financial statements have been audited by other auditors whose reports have been furnished to us by the Management and our opinion on the consolidated financial statements, in so far as it relates to the amounts and disclosures included in respect of these subsidiaries, and our report in terms of sub-section (3) of Section 143 of the Act, in so far as it relates to the aforesaid subsidiaries is based solely on the reports of the other auditors.

Certain of these subsidiaries are located outside India whose financial statements and other financial information have been prepared in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in their respective countries and which have been audited by other auditors under generally accepted auditing standards applicable in their respective countries. The Holding Company's management has converted the financial statements of such subsidiaries located outside India from accounting principles generally accepted in their respective countries to accounting principles generally accepted in India. We have audited these conversion adjustments made by the Holding Company's management. Our opinion in so far as it relates

Notice to the AGM

Annexure B to the Independent Auditor's Report on the Consolidated Financial Statements of Latent View Analytics Limited (formerly known as Latent View Analytics Private Limited) for the year-ended 31 March, 2023

Report on the internal financial controls with reference to the aforesaid consolidated financial statements under Clause (i) of Sub-section 3 of Section 143 of the Act (Referred to in paragraph 2(A)(f) under 'Report on Other Legal and Regulatory Requirements' section of our report of even date)

In conjunction with our audit of the consolidated financial statements of Latent View Analytics Limited (formerly known as Latent View Analytics Private Limited) (hereinafter referred to as "the Holding Company") as of and for the year ended 31 March, 2023, we have audited the internal financial controls with reference to financial statements of the Holding Company, as of that date.

In our opinion, the Holding Company, has, in all material respects, adequate internal financial controls with reference to financial statements and such internal financial controls were operating effectively as at 31 March, 2023, based on the internal financial controls with reference to financial statements criteria established by such companies considering the essential components of such internal controls stated in the Guidance Note on Audit of Internal Financial Controls Over Financial Reporting issued by the Institute of Chartered Accountants of India (the "Guidance Note").

Management's and Board of Directors' Responsibilities for Internal Financial Controls

The respective Company's Management and the Board of Directors are responsible for establishing and maintaining internal financial controls based on the internal financial controls with reference to financial statements criteria established by the respective company considering the essential components of internal control stated in the Guidance Note. These responsibilities include the design, implementation and maintenance of adequate internal financial controls that were operating effectively for ensuring the orderly and efficient conduct of its business, including adherence to the respective company's policies, the safeguarding of its assets, the prevention and detection of frauds and errors, the accuracy and completeness of the accounting records, and the timely preparation of reliable financial information, as required under the Act.

Auditor's Responsibility

Our responsibility is to express an opinion on the internal financial controls with reference to financial statements based on our audit. We conducted our audit in accordance with the Guidance Note and the Standards on Auditing, prescribed under Section 143(10) of the Act, to the extent applicable to an audit of internal financial controls with reference to financial statements. Those Standards and the Guidance Note require that we comply with ethical requirements and plan and perform the audit to obtain reasonable assurance about whether adequate internal financial controls with reference to financial statements were established and maintained and if such controls operated effectively in all material respects.

Our audit involves performing procedures to obtain audit evidence about the adequacy of the internal financial controls with reference to financial statements and their operating effectiveness. Our audit of internal financial controls with reference to financial statements included obtaining an understanding of internal financial controls with reference to financial statements, assessing the risk that a material weakness exists, and testing and evaluating the design and operating effectiveness of internal control based on the assessed risk. The procedures selected depend on the auditor's judgement, including the assessment of the risks of material misstatement of the consolidated financial statements, whether due to fraud or error.

We believe that the audit evidence we have obtained is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our audit opinion on the internal financial controls with reference to financial statements.

Meaning of Internal Financial Controls with Reference to Financial Statements

A company's internal financial controls with reference to financial statements is a process designed to provide reasonable assurance regarding the reliability of financial reporting and the preparation of consolidated financial statements for external purposes in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles. A company's internal financial controls with reference to financial statements include those policies and procedures that (1) pertain to the maintenance of records that, in reasonable detail, accurately and fairly reflect the transactions and dispositions of the assets of the company; (2) provide reasonable assurance that transactions are recorded as necessary to permit preparation of consolidated financial statements in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles, and that receipts and expenditures of the company are being made only in accordance with authorisations of management and directors of the company; and (3) provide reasonable assurance regarding prevention or timely detection of unauthorised acquisition, use, or disposition of the company's assets that could have a material effect on the consolidated financial statements.

Inherent Limitations of Internal Financial Controls with Reference to Financial Statements

Because of the inherent limitations of internal financial controls with reference to financial statements, including the possibility of collusion or improper management override of controls, material misstatements due to error or fraud may occur and not be detected. Also, projections of any evaluation of the internal financial controls with reference to financial statements to future periods are subject to the risk that the internal financial controls with reference to financial statements may become inadequate because of changes in conditions, or that the degree of compliance with the policies or procedures may deteriorate.

2. Basis of preparation

This note provides a list of the significant accounting policies adopted in the preparation of these Consolidated Financial Statements. The Group has consistently applied the following accounting policies to all periods presented in the Consolidated Financial Statements. The financial statements have been prepared and presented on the going concern basis.

A. Statement of compliance

These consolidated financial statements have been prepared in accordance with the Indian Accounting Standards (referred to as "Ind AS") prescribed under section 133 of the Companies Act, 2013 read with the Companies (Indian Accounting Standards) Rules as amended from time to time.

B. Functional and presentation currency

Items included in the financial information of the Group are measured using the currency of the primary economic environment in which the entity of the Group operates ('the functional currency'). The financial information are presented in Indian Rupee (INR), which is Holding company's functional currency.

All amounts disclosed in the financial information and notes have been rounded off to the nearest Rupees in millions, unless otherwise stated.

C. Basis of measurement

The consolidated financial information have been prepared on the historical cost basis except for the following items:

Items	Measurement basis
Certain financial assets and liabilities (including derivative instruments)	Fair value
Net defined benefit (asset)/liability	Fair value of plan assets less present value of defined benefit obligations
Lease liability	Lease liability is measured at the present value of the remaining lease payments, discounted using the lessee's incremental borrowing rate at the date of initial application.

Right-to-use asset

Right-to-use asset has been measured as an amount equal to the lease liability, adjusted by the amount of any prepaid or accrued lease payments relating to that lease recognised in the balance sheet immediately before the date of initial application. Practical expedient on transition to exclude initial direct costs from ROU asset measurement is considered

D. Use of estimates and judgments

In preparing the restated consolidated financial information, management has made judgments, estimates and assumptions that affect the application of accounting policies and the reported amounts of assets, liabilities, income and expenses. Actual results may differ from these estimates.

Estimates and underlying assumptions are reviewed on an ongoing basis. Revisions to accounting estimates are recognised prospectively.

Judgements

Information about judgements made in applying accounting policies that have the most significant effects on the amounts recognised in the restated consolidated financial information is included in the following notes:

- a) Note 3(K) and 7 - provision for income taxes, uncertain tax treatments;
- b) Note 3(l) - leases: whether an arrangement contains a lease;
- c) Note 3(l) - lease term: whether the Group is reasonably certain to exercise extension options;

Assumptions and estimation uncertainties

Information about assumptions and estimation uncertainties that have a significant risk of resulting in a material adjustment in the carrying amount of assets and liabilities within the next financial year is included in the following notes:

- a) Note 12 - measurement of defined benefit assets and obligations: key actuarial assumptions;
- b) Note 7 - recognition of deferred tax assets: availability of future taxable profit against which deferred tax assets will be recovered in future periods;
- c) Note 16 - determination of fair value of employee stock option;

E. Measurement of fair values

A number of the Group's accounting policies and disclosures require the measurement of fair values, for both financial and non-financial assets and liabilities.

The Group has an established control framework with respect to the measurement of fair values. The Chief Financial Officer has overall responsibility for overseeing all significant fair value measurements.

The Chief Financial Officer regularly reviews significant unobservable inputs and valuation adjustments. If third party information, such as broker quotes or pricing services, is used to measure fair values, then the Chief Financial Officer assesses the evidence obtained from the third parties to support the conclusion that these valuations meet the requirements of Ind AS, including the level in the fair value hierarchy in which the valuations should be classified.

Fair values are categorised into different levels in a fair value hierarchy based on the inputs used in the valuation techniques as follows:

Level 1: quoted prices (unadjusted) in active markets for identical assets or liabilities.
 Level 2: inputs other than quoted prices included in Level 1 that are observable for the asset or liability, either directly (i.e. as prices) or indirectly (i.e. derived from prices).
 Level 3: inputs for the asset or liability that are not based on observable market data (unobservable inputs).

When measuring the fair value of an asset or a liability, the Group uses observable market data as far as possible. If the inputs used to measure the fair value of an asset or a liability fall into different levels of the fair value hierarchy, then the fair value measurement is categorised in its entirety in the same level of the fair value hierarchy as the lowest level input that is significant to the entire measurement.

The Group recognises transfers between levels of the fair value hierarchy at the end of the reporting period during which the change has occurred.

Further information about the assumptions made in measuring fair values is included in Note 11.5 - financial instruments.

3. Significant accounting policies

A. Basis of consolidation

Subsidiaries are entities controlled by the Group. The Group controls an entity when it is exposed to, or has rights to, variable returns, from its involvement with the entity and has the ability to affect those returns through its power over the entity. The financial statements of subsidiaries are included in the restated consolidated financial information from the date on which control commences until the date on which control ceases.

Intra-group balances and transactions, and any unrealised income and expenses arising from intra-group transactions, are eliminated.

B. Foreign currency transactions

Transactions in foreign currencies are initially recorded by the Group at their functional currency spot rates at the date of the transaction.

Monetary assets and liabilities denominated in foreign currencies are translated into the functional currency at the exchange rate at the reporting date. Exchange differences that arise on settlement of monetary items or on reporting at each balance sheet date are recognised as income or expenses in the period in which they arise. Non-monetary items which are carried at historical cost denominated in a foreign currency are reported using the exchange rates at the date of transaction. Non-monetary assets and liabilities that are measured based on historical cost in a foreign currency are translated at the exchange rate at the date of the transaction.

Foreign operations: The assets and liabilities of foreign operations (subsidiaries) including fair value adjustments arising on acquisition, if any, are translated into INR, the functional currency of the Company, at the exchange rates at the reporting date. The income and expenses of foreign operations are translated into INR at the exchange rates at the dates of the transactions or an average rate if the average rate approximates the actual rate at the date of the transaction. Foreign currency translation differences are recognised in OCI and accumulated in other equity.

C. Financial instruments

i) Recognition and initial measurement

Trade receivables and debt securities are initially recognised when they are originated. All other financial assets and financial liabilities are initially recognised when the Group becomes a party to the contractual provisions of the instrument.

A financial asset (except trade receivable, which are recognised initially at transaction price as per Ind AS 115) or financial liability is initially measured at fair value plus, for an item not at fair value through profit and loss (FVTPL), transaction costs that are directly attributable to its acquisition or issue.

ii) Classification and subsequent measurement

Financial assets:

On initial recognition, a financial asset is classified as measured at

- amortised cost
- fair value through other comprehensive income (FVOCI) - debt investment

- fair value through other comprehensive income (FVOCI) - equity investment
- fair value through profit and loss (FVTPL)

Financial assets are not reclassified subsequent to their initial recognition, except if and in the period the Group changes its business model for managing financial assets.

A financial asset is measured at amortised cost if it meets both of the following conditions and is not designated as at FVTPL:

- the asset is held within a business model whose objective is to hold assets to collect contractual cash flows; and
- the contractual terms of the financial asset give rise on specified dates to cash flows that are solely payments of principal and interest on the principal amount outstanding.

A debt investment is measured at fair value through other comprehensive income if it meets both the following conditions and is not designated as FVTPL:

- the asset is held within a business model whose objective is achieved by both collecting contractual cash flows and selling financial assets; and
- the contractual terms of the financial asset give rise on specified dates to cash flows that are solely payments of principal and interest on the principal amount outstanding.

On initial recognition of an equity investment that is not held for trading, the Group may irrevocably elect to present subsequent changes in the investment's fair value in OCI (designated as FVOCI - equity investment). This election is made on an investment by investment basis.

All financial assets not classified as measured at amortised cost or FVOCI as described above are measured at FVTPL. On initial recognition, the Group may irrevocably designate a financial asset that otherwise meets the requirements to be measured at amortised cost or at FVOCI as at FVTPL if doing so eliminates or significantly reduces an accounting mismatch that would otherwise arise.

Financial assets: Business model assessment

The Group makes an assessment of the objective of the business model in which a financial asset is held at a portfolio level because this best reflects the way the business is managed and the information is provided to management. The information considered includes:

- the stated policies and objectives for the portfolio and the operation of those policies in practice

- these include whether management strategy focuses on earning contractual interest, maintaining a particular interest rate profile, matching the duration of financial assets to the duration of any related liabilities or expected cash outflows or realising cash flows through the sale of assets;

- how the performance of the portfolio is evaluated and reported to the Group's management

- the risk that affect the performance of the business model (and the financial assets held with in the business model) and how those risks are managed;

- how managers of the business are compensated;

- the frequency, volume and timing of sales of financial assets in prior period, the reasons for such sales and expectations about future sales activity;

- transfers of financial assets to third parties in transactions that do not qualify for derecognition are not considered sales for this purpose, consistent with the Company's continuing recognition of the assets.

Financial assets that are held for trading or are managed and whose performance is evaluated on fair value basis are measured at FVTPL.

Financial assets: Assessment whether contractual cash flows are solely payments of principal and interest

For the purposes of this assessment, 'principal' is defined as the fair value of the financial asset on initial recognition. 'Interest' is defined as consideration for the time value of money and for the credit risk associated with the principal amount outstanding during a particular period of time and for other basic lending risks and costs, as well as a profit margin.

In assessing whether the contractual cash flows are solely payments of principal and interest, the Group considers the contractual terms of the instrument. This includes assessing whether the financial asset contains a contractual term that could change the timing or amount of contractual cash flows such that it would not meet this condition. In making this assessment, the Group considers:

- contingent events that would change the amount or timing of cash flows;

- terms that may adjust the contractual coupon rate, including variable interest rate features;

- prepayment and extension features; and

- terms that limit the Group's claim to cash flows from specified assets

Notice to the AGM

A prepayment feature is consistent with the solely payments of principal and interest criterion if the prepayment amount substantially represents unpaid amounts of principal and interest on the principal amount outstanding, which may include reasonable additional compensation for early termination of the contract. Additionally, for a financial asset acquired at a significant discount or premium to its contractual par amount, a feature that pertains or requires prepayment at an amount that substantially represents the contractual par amount plus accrued (but unpaid) contractual interest (which may also include reasonable additional compensation for early termination) is treated as consistent with this criterion if the fair value of the prepayment feature is insignificant at initial recognition.

Financial assets: Subsequent measurement and gains and losses

Financial assets at FVTPL	These assets are subsequently measured at fair value. Net gains and losses, including any interest or dividend income, are recognised in statement of profit and loss.
Financial assets at amortised cost	These assets are subsequently measured at amortised cost using the effective interest method. The amortised cost is reduced by the impairment losses. Interest income, foreign exchange gains and losses and impairment are recognised in statement of profit and loss. Any gain or loss on derecognition is recognised in statement of profit and loss.
Equity investments at FVOCI	These assets are subsequently measured at fair value. Dividends are recognised as income in profit or loss unless the dividend clearly represents a recovery of part of the cost of the investment. Other net gains and losses are recognised in OCI and are not reclassified to statement of profit and loss.

Financial liabilities: Classification, subsequent measurement and gains and losses

Financial liabilities are classified as measured at amortised cost or FVTPL. A financial liability is classified as at FVTPL if it is classified as held for trading, or if it is a derivative, or it is designated as such on initial recognition. Financial liabilities at FVTPL are measured at fair value and net gains and losses, including any interest expense, are recognised in profit or loss. Other financial liabilities are subsequently measured at amortised cost using the effective interest method. Interest expense and foreign exchange gains and losses are recognised in statement of profit and loss. Any gain or loss on derecognition is also recognised in statement of profit and loss.

iii) Derecognition

Financial assets:

The Group derecognises a financial asset when the contractual rights to the cash flows from the financial asset expire, or it transfers the rights to receive the contractual cash flows in a transaction in which substantially all of the risks and rewards of ownership of the financial asset are transferred or in which the Group neither transfers nor retains substantially all of the risks and rewards of ownership and does not retain control of the financial asset.

If the Group enters into transactions whereby it transfers assets recognised on its balance sheet, but retains either all or substantially all of the risks and rewards of the transferred assets, the transferred assets are not derecognised.

Financial liabilities:

The Group derecognises a financial liability when its contractual obligations are discharged or cancelled, or expire.

The Group also derecognises a financial liability when its terms are modified and the cash flows under the modified terms are substantially different. In this case, a new financial liability based on the modified terms is recognised at fair value. The difference between the carrying amount of the financial liability extinguished and the new financial liability with modified terms is recognised in profit or loss.

iv) Offsetting

Financial assets and financial liabilities are offset and the net amount presented in the balance sheet when, and only when, the Group currently has a legally enforceable right to set off the amounts and it intends either to settle them on a net basis or to realise the asset and settle the liability simultaneously.

v) Derivative financial instruments

Derivatives are initially measured at fair value. Subsequent to initial recognition, derivatives are measured at fair value, and changes therein are generally recognised in profit or loss.

D. Property, plant, and equipment

i) Recognition and initial measurement

Items of property, plant and equipment are measured at cost, (which includes capitalised borrowing costs, if any) less accumulated depreciation and accumulated impairment losses, if any.

Cost of an item of property, plant and equipment comprises its purchase price, including import duties and non-refundable purchase taxes, after deducting trade discounts and rebates, any directly attributable cost of bringing the item to its working condition for its intended use.

Notice to the AGM

The cost of a self-constructed item of property, plant and equipment comprises the cost of materials and direct labour, any other costs directly attributable to bringing the item to working condition for its intended use.

If significant parts of an item of property, plant and equipment have different useful lives, then they are accounted for as separate items (major components) of property, plant and equipment.

Any gain or loss on disposal of an item of property, plant and equipment is recognised in statement of profit and loss.

ii) Subsequent expenditure

Subsequent expenditure is capitalised only if it is probable that the future economic benefits associated with the expenditure will flow to the Group.

iv) Depreciation

Depreciation is calculated on cost of items of property, plant and equipment less their estimated residual values over their estimated useful lives using the straight-line method, and is recognised in the statement of profit and loss. Freehold land is not depreciated. The estimated useful lives of items of property, plant and equipment for the current and comparative periods are as follows:

Asset category	Management estimate of useful life	Useful life as per Schedule II
Office equipment	5	5/10
Electrical equipment	10	10
Computers	3-5	3/6
Furnitures and fixtures	10	10
Vehicles	8	8/10
Leasehold improvements	5	5

Depreciation method, useful lives and residual values are reviewed at each financial year-end and adjusted if appropriate. Based on management internal evaluation, the management believes that its estimates of useful lives as above best represent the period over which management expects to use such assets.

Depreciation on additions (disposals) is provided on a pro-rata basis i.e. from (up to) the date on which asset is ready for use (disposed of).

E. Intangible assets

i) Recognition and initial measurement

Intangible assets of the Group comprises of purchased software that are initially measured at cost. Such intangible assets are subsequently measured at cost less accumulated amortisation and any accumulated impairment losses.

ii) Subsequent expenditure

Subsequent expenditure is capitalised only when it increases the future economic benefits embodied in the specific asset to which it relates.

iii) Amortisation

Amortisation is calculated to write off the cost of intangible assets less their estimated residual values over their estimated useful lives using the straight-line method, and is included in depreciation and amortisation in Statement of Profit and Loss.

The estimated useful lives are as follows:

Asset category	Management estimate of useful life
Software	3

Amortisation method, useful lives and residual values are reviewed at the end of each financial year and adjusted if appropriate.

F. Impairment

i) Impairment of financial assets

The Group recognises loss allowances for expected credit losses on financial assets measured at amortised cost.

At each reporting date, the Group assesses whether financial assets carried at amortised cost are credit impaired. A financial asset is 'credit impaired' when one or more events that have a detrimental impact on the estimated future cash flows of the financial asset have occurred.

Evidence that a financial asset is credit impaired includes the following observable data:

- significant financial difficulty of the borrower or issuer;
- a breach of contract such as a default or past dues;
- the restructuring of a loan or advance by the Group on terms that the Group would not consider otherwise;

- it is probable that the borrower will enter bankruptcy or other financial reorganisation; or

- the disappearance of an active market for a security because of financial difficulties.

The Group follows 'simplified approach' for recognition of impairment loss allowance on trade receivables which do not contain a significant financing component. The application of simplified approach does not require the Group to track changes in credit risk. Rather, it recognises impairment loss allowance based on lifetime impairment pattern at each balance sheet date, right from its initial recognition.

The Group always measures the loss allowance for trade receivables at an amount equal to lifetime expected credit loss (ECL). The Company has used a practical expedient by computing the expected credit loss allowance for trade receivables based on a provision matrix under simplified approach. The provision matrix takes into account historical credit loss experience and adjusted for forward-looking information. The expected credit loss allowance is based on the ageing of the days the receivables are due.

Loss allowances for financial assets measured at amortised cost are deducted from the gross carrying amount of the assets. The gross carrying amount of a financial asset is written off (either partially or in full) to the extent that there is no realistic prospect of recovery. This is generally the case when the Group determines that the debtor does not have assets or sources of income that could generate sufficient cash flows to repay the amounts subject to the write-off. However, financial assets that are written off could still be subject to enforcement activities in order to comply with the Group's procedures for recovery of amounts due.

The Group measures loss allowances at an amount equal to lifetime expected credit losses, except for the following, which are measured as 12 month expected credit losses:

- debt securities that are determined to have low credit risk at the reporting date; and
- other debt securities and bank balances for which credit risk (i.e. the risk of default occurring over the expected life of the financial instrument) has not increased significantly since initial recognition.

Loss allowances for trade receivables and contract assets are always measured at an amount equal to lifetime expected credit losses.

Lifetime expected credit losses are the expected credit losses that result from all possible default events over the expected life of a financial instrument.

12-month expected credit losses are the portion of expected credit losses that result from default events that are possible within 12 months after the reporting date (or a shorter period if the expected life of the instrument is less than 12 months).

In all cases, the maximum period considered when estimating expected credit losses is the maximum contractual period over which the Group is exposed to credit risk.

When determining whether the credit risk of a financial asset has increased significantly since initial recognition and when estimating expected credit losses, the Group considers reasonable and supportable information that is relevant and available without undue cost or effort. This includes both quantitative and qualitative information and analysis, based on the Group's historical experience and informed credit assessment and including forward looking information.

The Group considers a financial asset to be in default when:

- the borrower is unlikely to pay its credit obligations to the Group in full, without recourse by the Group to actions such as realising security (if any is held); or
- the financial asset is more than past due.

Presentation of allowance for expected credit losses in the balance sheet

Loss allowances for financial assets measured at amortised cost are deducted from the gross carrying amount of the assets.

Write-off

The gross carrying amount of a financial asset is written off (either partially or in full) to the extent that there is no realistic prospect of recovery. This is generally the case when the Group determines that the debtor does not have assets or sources of income that could generate sufficient cash flows to repay the amounts subject to the write off. However, financial assets that are written off could still be subject to enforcement activities in order to comply with the Group's procedures for recovery of amounts due.

ii) Impairment of non-financial assets

The Group's non-financial assets, other than deferred tax assets, are reviewed at each reporting date to determine whether there is any indication of impairment. If any such indication exists, then the asset's recoverable amount is estimated.

For impairment testing, assets that do not generate independent cash inflows are grouped together into cash-generating units (CGUs). Each CGU represents the smallest group of assets that generates cash inflows that are largely independent of the cash inflows of other assets or CGUs.

The recoverable amount of a CGU (or an individual asset) is the higher of its value in use and its fair value less costs to sell. Value in use is based on the estimated future cash flows, discounted to their present value using a pre-tax discount rate that reflects current market assessments of the time value of money and the risks specific to the CGU (or the asset).

The Group's corporate assets (e.g., head office building for providing support to various CGUs) do not generate independent cash inflows. To determine impairment of a corporate asset, recoverable amount is determined for the CGUs to which the corporate asset belongs.

An impairment loss is recognised if the carrying amount of an asset or CGU exceeds its estimated recoverable amount. Impairment losses are recognised in the statement of profit and loss. Impairment loss recognised in respect of a CGU is allocated first to reduce the carrying amount of any goodwill allocated to the CGU, and then to reduce the carrying amounts of the other assets of the CGU (or group of CGUs) on a pro rata basis.

An impairment loss in respect of assets for which has been recognised in prior periods, the Group reviews at each reporting date whether there is any indication that the loss has decreased or no longer exists. An impairment loss is reversed if there has been a change in the estimates used to determine the recoverable amount. Such a reversal is made only to the extent that the asset's carrying amount does not exceed the carrying amount that would have been determined, net of depreciation or amortisation, if no impairment loss had been recognised.

G. Employee benefits

Short-term employee benefit obligations are measured on an undiscounted basis and are expensed as the related service is provided. A liability is recognised for the amount expected to be paid, if the Group has a present legal or constructive obligation to pay this amount as a result of past service provided by the employee, and the amount of obligation can be estimated reliably.

Provident fund: A defined contribution plan is a post-employment benefit plan under which an entity pays fixed contributions into a separate entity and will have no legal or constructive obligation to pay further amounts. The Group makes specified monthly contributions towards Government administered provident fund scheme. Obligations for contributions to defined contribution plans are recognised as an employee benefit expense in profit or loss in the periods during which the related services are rendered by employees.

Gratuity: The holding company provides for gratuity, a defined benefit plan (the "Gratuity Plan"), covering eligible employees. The Plan provides payment to vested employees at retirement, death or termination of employment, of an amount based on the respective employee's salary and the tenure of employment with the Company. The Group provides the gratuity benefit through annual contribution to a fund managed by the Life Insurance Corporation of India (LIC). Such contributions are determined by LIC based on actuarial valuation using "projected unit credit method" as at the balance sheet date."

Remeasurement of the net defined benefit liability with respect to Gratuity, which comprise actuarial gains and losses, the return on plan assets (excluding interest) and the effect of the asset ceiling (if any, excluding interest), are recognised in OCI. The Company determines the net interest expense/(income) on the net defined benefit liability/(asset) for the period by applying the discount rate used to measure the defined benefit obligation at the beginning of the annual period to the then-net defined benefit liability/(asset), taking into account any changes in the net defined benefit liability/(asset) during the period as a result of contributions and benefit payments. Net interest expense and other expenses related to defined benefit plans are recognised in statement of profit and loss.

Compensated absences: The Group accounts for its liability towards compensated absences based on actuarial valuation done as at the year end by an independent actuary using projected unit credit method. Remeasurement gain or losses are recognised in statement of profit or loss in the period in which they arise.

Share-based payment: The grant date fair value of equity settled share-based payment awards granted to employees is recognised as an employee expense, with a corresponding increase in equity, over the period that the employees unconditionally become entitled to the awards. The amount recognised as expense is based on the estimate of the number of awards for which the related service and non-market vesting conditions are expected to be met, such that the amount ultimately recognised as an expense is based on the number of awards that do meet the related service and non-market vesting conditions at the vesting date.

H. Revenue

The Group is primarily engaged in the business of rendering analytical services.

The Group has revenue from customers. The Group recognizes revenue when it satisfies performance obligations under the terms of its contracts, and control of its services is transferred to its customers in an amount that reflects the consideration the Group expects to receive from its customers in exchange for those services. This process involves identifying the customer contract, determining the performance obligations in the contract, determining the contract price, allocating the contract price to the distinct performance obligations in the contract, and recognizing revenue when the performance obligations have been satisfied. A performance obligation is considered distinct from other obligations in a contract when it (a) provides a benefit to the customer either on its own or together with other resources that are readily available to the customer and (b) is separately identified in the contract.

Taxes assessed by a government authority that are both imposed on and concurrent with a specific revenue-producing transaction, that are collected by the Group from a customer, are excluded from sales.

A performance obligation is satisfied over time if one of the following criteria are met:

- the customer simultaneously receives and consumes the benefits as the entity performs;
- the entity's performance creates or enhances an asset that the customer controls as the asset is created or enhanced; or
- the entity's performance does not create an asset with an alternative use to the entity, and the entity has an enforceable right to payment for performance completed to date.

If control transfers over time, an entity selects a method to measure progress that is consistent with the objective of depicting its performance.

Nature of services

The Group generally recognizes revenue for analytical services over time as the Group's performance creates or enhances an asset that the customer controls from fixed price contracts and the customers simultaneously receives and consumes the benefits as and when the milestones are completed as per the terms of the contract. Revenue on time-and-material contracts are recognised as the related services are performed.

The Group has adopted the 'as-invoiced' practical expedient for performance obligation satisfied over time with respect to certain fixed price contracts. It permits an entity to recognize revenue in the amount to which it has a right to invoice the customer if that amount corresponds directly with the value to the customer of the entity's performance completed to date.

Contract assets and liabilities

Contract assets are recognised when there is excess of revenue earned over billings on contracts. Unbilled revenue are classified as contract assets when there is a conditional right to receive cash as per contractual terms.

The term between invoicing and when payment is due is not significant. As a practical expedient, the Group does not assess the existence of a significant financing component when the difference between payment and transfer of deliverables is one year or less.

Contract assets and contract liabilities are reported in a net position on an individual contract basis at the end of each reporting period. Contract assets are classified as current on the balance sheet when the Group expects to complete the related performance obligations and invoice the customers within one year of the balance sheet date, and as long-term when the Group expects to complete the related performance obligations and invoice the customers more than one year out from the balance sheet date. Contract liabilities are classified as current on the balance sheet when the revenue recognition associated with the related customer payments and invoicing is expected to occur within one year of the balance sheet date and as long-term when the revenue recognition associated with the related customer payments and invoicing is expected to occur in more than one year from the balance sheet date.

Contract acquisition/fulfilment costs are generally expensed as incurred except which meet the criteria for capitalisation. The assessment of this criteria requires the application of judgement, in particular when considering if costs generate or enhance resources to be used to satisfy future performance obligations and whether costs are expected to be recovered. Applying the practical expedient, the entity recognises the incremental costs of obtaining contracts as an expense when incurred if the amortisation period of the assets that the entity otherwise would have recognised is one year or less.

The Group records reimbursable out of pocket expenses in both revenue and respective expense head. the goods or services giving rise to the out-of-pocket costs do not transfer a good or service to the customer. Rather, the goods or services are used or consumed by the entity in fulfilling its performance obligation to the customer. Therefore, typical out-of-pocket costs (e.g. travel, meals, lodging) and the reimbursements of such costs from the customer are presented on a gross basis and are included as part of transaction price.

Other Income

Dividend income is recognised when the right to receive payment is established by the balance sheet date.

Interest income is recognised on a time proportion basis taking into account the amount outstanding and the effective interest rate. Interest income is included under the head "other income" in the Statement of Profit and Loss.

The 'effective interest rate' is the rate that exactly discounts estimated future cash payments or receipts through the expected life of the financial instrument to:

- the gross carrying amount of the financial asset; or
- the amortized cost of the financial liability.

In calculating interest income and expense, the effective interest rate is applied to the gross carrying amount of the asset (when the asset is not credit-impaired) or to the amortised cost of the liability. However, for financial assets that have become credit-impaired subsequent to initial recognition, interest income is calculated by applying the effective interest rate to the amortised cost of the financial asset. If the asset is no longer credit-impaired, then the calculation of interest income reverts to the gross basis.

I. Leases

The Group assesses whether a contract contains a lease, at inception of a contract. A contract is, or contains, a lease if the contract conveys the right to control the use of an identified asset for a period of time in exchange for consideration. To assess whether a contract conveys the right to control the use of an identified asset, the Group assesses whether:

- (1) the contract involves the use of an identified asset
- (2) the Group has substantially all of the economic benefits from use of the asset through the period of the lease and
- (3) the Group has the right to direct the use of the asset.

As lessee

The Group's lease asset classes primarily consist of leases for buildings (office premises). The Group, at the inception of a contract, assesses whether the contract is a lease or not. A contract is, or contains, a lease if the contract conveys the right to control the use of an identified asset for a time in exchange for a consideration.

At the date of commencement of the lease, the Group recognizes a right-of-use asset ("ROU") and a corresponding lease liability for all lease arrangements in which it is a lessee, except for leases with a term of twelve months or less (short-term leases) and low value leases. For these short-term and low value leases, the Group recognizes the lease payments as an operating expense on a straight-line basis over the term of the lease.

The group elected to use the following practical expedients on initial application:

- a) Applied a single discount rate to a portfolio of leases of similar assets in similar economic environment with a similar end date.
- b) Applied the exemption not to recognize right-of-use assets and liabilities for leases with less than 12 months of lease term on the date of initial application.
- c) Excluded the initial direct costs from the measurement of the right-of-use asset at the date of initial application.

Certain lease arrangements includes the options to extend or terminate the lease before the end of the lease term. ROU assets and lease liabilities includes these options when it is reasonably certain that they will be exercised.

The right-of-use assets are initially recognized at cost, which comprises the initial amount of the lease liability adjusted for any lease payments made at or prior to the commencement date of the lease plus any initial direct costs less any lease incentives. They are subsequently measured at cost less accumulated depreciation and impairment losses.

Right-of-use assets are depreciated from the commencement date on a straight-line basis over the shorter of the lease term and useful life of the underlying asset. Right of use assets are evaluated for recoverability whenever events or changes in circumstances indicate that their carrying amounts may not be recoverable. For the purpose of impairment testing, the recoverable amount (i.e. the higher of the fair value less cost to sell and the value-in-use) is determined on an individual asset basis unless the asset does not generate cashflows that are largely independent of those from other assets. In such cases, the recoverable amount is determined for the Cash Generating Unit (CGU) to which the asset belongs.

The lease liability is initially measured at the present value of the lease payments that are not paid at the commencement date, discounted using the interest rate implicit in the lease or, if that rate cannot be readily determined, the Group's incremental borrowing rate. Generally, the Group uses its incremental borrowing rate as the discount rate.

Lease payments included in the measurement of the lease liability comprise the following:

- fixed payments, including in-substance fixed payments.
- variable lease payments that depend on an index or a rate, initially measured using the index or rate as at the commencement date.

- amounts expected to be payable under a residual value guarantee; and
- the exercise price under a purchase option that the Group is reasonably certain to exercise, lease payments in an optional renewal period if the Group is reasonably certain to exercise an extension option, and penalties for early termination of a lease unless the Group is reasonably certain not to terminate early.

The lease liability is measured at amortised cost using the effective interest method. It is remeasured when there is a change in future lease payments arising from a change in an index or rate, if there is a change in the Group's estimate of the amount expected to be payable under a residual value guarantee, or if the Group changes its assessment of whether it will exercise a purchase, extension or termination option.

Lease liability and ROU asset have been separately presented in the Balance Sheet and lease payments have been classified as financing cash flows.

J. Operating cycle

The operating cycle is the time between the acquisition of assets for processing and their realisation in cash and cash equivalents. The Group has identified twelve months as its operating cycle.

K. Income tax

Income tax comprises current and deferred tax. It is recognised in statement of profit and loss except to the extent that it relates to a business combination or to an item recognised directly in equity or in other comprehensive income.

i) Current tax

Current tax comprises the expected tax payable or receivable on the taxable income or loss for the year and any adjustment to the tax payable or receivable in respect of previous years. The amount of current tax reflects the best estimate of the tax amount expected to be paid or received after considering the uncertainty, if any, related to income taxes. It is measured using tax rates (and tax laws) enacted or substantively enacted by the reporting date.

Current tax assets and current tax liabilities are offset only if there is a legally enforceable right to set off the recognised amounts, and it is intended to realise the asset and settle the liability on a net basis or simultaneously.

ii) Deferred tax

Deferred tax is recognised in respect of temporary differences between the carrying amounts of assets and liabilities for financial reporting purposes and the corresponding amounts used for taxation purposes.

Deferred tax assets including Minimum alternative tax (MAT) are recognised to the extent that it is probable that future taxable profits will be available against which they can be used. Deferred tax assets - unrecognised or recognised, are reviewed at each reporting date and are recognised/reduced to the extent that it is probable/no longer probable respectively that the related tax benefit will be realised.

Deferred tax is measured at the tax rates that are expected to apply to the period when the asset is realised or the liability is settled, based on the laws that have been enacted or substantively enacted by the reporting date.

The measurement of deferred tax reflects the tax consequences that would follow from the manner in which the Group expects, at the reporting date, to recover or settle the carrying amount of its assets and liabilities.

Deferred tax assets and liabilities are offset if there is a legally enforceable right to offset current tax liabilities and assets, and they relate to income taxes levied by the same tax authority on the same taxable entity, or on different tax entities, but they intend to settle current tax liabilities and assets on a net basis or their tax assets and liabilities will be realised simultaneously.

The Company has availed the tax holiday benefits under section 10AA of the Income Tax Act, 1961 and accordingly, its business income to the extent covered by the section is exempt (to the extent of 50% of the profits earned by the SEZ units) from income tax up-to and including the year ending 31 March, 2023. Deferred taxes that are scheduled to reverse during the tax holiday period are not recognised.

L. Segment reporting

Operating segments are reported in a manner consistent with the internal reporting provided to the Chief Operating Decision Maker (CODM) of the Group. The CODM is responsible for allocating resources and assessing performance of the operating segments of the Group. For the disclosure on reportable segments see Note 24.

M. Cash and cash equivalents

Cash and Cash equivalents comprise cash, bank balances and bank deposits having original maturity less than three months.

N. Earnings per share

i) Basic earnings per share

Basic earnings per share is calculated by dividing:

- the net profit attributable to owners of the Group
- by the weighted average number of equity shares outstanding during the financial year, adjusted for bonus elements in equity shares issued during the year and excluding treasury shares

ii) Diluted earnings per share

Diluted earning per share adjusts the figures used in the determination of basic earnings per share to take into account:

- the after income tax effect of interest and other financing costs associated with dilutive potential equity shares, and
- the weighted average number of additional equity shares that would have been outstanding assuming the conversion of all dilutive potential equity shares

O. Government grants

Government grants are not recognised until there is reasonable assurance that the Group will comply with the conditions attaching to them and that the grants will be received. Such grants are valued at fair value at the initial recognition.

Government grants are recognised in profit or loss on a systematic basis over the periods in which the Company recognises as expenses the related costs for which the grants are intended to compensate. Specifically, government grants whose primary condition is that the Company should purchase, construct or otherwise acquire non-current assets are recognised as deferred income in the balance sheet and transferred to profit or loss on a systematic basis over the useful lives of the related assets.

Government grants that are receivable as compensation for expenses or losses already incurred or for the purpose of giving immediate financial support to the Company with no future related costs are recognised in profit or loss in the period in which they become receivable.

P. Recent pronouncements

Ministry of Corporate Affairs ("MCA") notifies new standard or amendments to the existing standards under Companies (Indian Accounting Standards) Rules as issued from time to time. On 31 March, 2023, MCA amended the Companies (Indian Accounting Standards) Rules, 2015 by issuing the Companies (Indian Accounting Standards) Amendment Rules, 2023, applicable from 01 April, 2023, as below:

Ind AS 1 - Presentation of Financial Statements

The amendments require companies to disclose their material accounting policies rather than their significant accounting policies. Accounting policy information, together with other information, is material when it can reasonably be expected to influence decisions of primary users of general purpose financial statements. The Group does not expect this amendment to have any significant impact in its financial statements.

Ind AS 12 - Income Taxes

The amendments clarify how companies account for deferred tax on transactions such as leases and decommissioning obligations. The amendments narrowed the scope of the recognition exemption in paragraphs 15 and 24 of Ind AS 12 (recognition exemption) so that it no longer applies to transactions that, on initial recognition, give rise to equal taxable and deductible temporary differences. The Group does not expect this amendment to have any significant impact in its financial statements.

Ind AS 8 - Accounting Policies, Changes in Accounting Estimates, and Errors

The amendments will help entities to distinguish between accounting policies and accounting estimates. The definition of a change in accounting estimates has been replaced with a definition of accounting estimates. Under the new definition, accounting estimates are "monetary amounts in financial statements that are subject to measurement uncertainty". Entities develop accounting estimates if accounting policies require items in financial statements to be measured in a way that involves measurement uncertainty. The Group does not expect this amendment to have any significant impact in its financial statements.

The subsidiary LatentView analytics Corp has not recognized Deferred Tax Assets on tax losses amounting to ₹210.93 millions as on 31 March, 2023 owing to the cumulative tax loss position. The cumulative tax loss is largely driven by the ESOP deduction in FY23. The Company will have additional ESOP deductions in future tax years and due to the uncertain nature of the timing and value of the option exercises, it is difficult to predict the amount of the future deductions and the period in which the losses can be set off. There is no ability to carryback the current year NOL (Net Operating Loss - Tax) generated. The Entity can utilize these losses against future profits and there is no time limit for such utilization.

Financial instruments - Fair values and risk managementCredit risk*Expected credit loss (ECL) measurement for the trade receivables of the group

The Group always measures the loss allowance for trade receivables at an amount equal to lifetime expected credit loss (ECL). The Company has used a practical expedient by computing the expected credit loss allowance for trade receivables based on a provision matrix under simplified approach. The provision matrix takes into account historical credit loss experience and adjusted for forward-looking information. The expected credit loss allowance is based on the ageing of the days the receivables are due. Based on internal assessment which is driven by the historical experience and current facts available in relation to pattern of collection thereof, the credit risk for these trade receivables is considered low.

Ageing period	Average loss rate
	31 March, 2023	31 March, 2022
Not due	0.02%	0.02%
0-90 days	0.02%	0.03%
90-180 days	0.10%	0.12%

As per management analysis majority of the receivables of the Company either not due or aged between 0-90 days bucket and Contracts assets are all aged less than 30 days. Accordingly, the Group does not carry any provisions as at the year ended 31 March, 2023, and 31 March, 2022.

Notice to the AGM11.7.3 Liquidity risk

Liquidity risk is the risk that the group will encounter difficulty in meeting the obligations associated with its financial liabilities that are settled by delivering cash or another financial asset. The group's approach to managing liquidity is to ensure, as far as possible, that it will have sufficient liquidity to meet its liabilities when they are due, under both normal and stressed conditions, without incurring unacceptable losses or risking damage to the group's reputation.

Cash flow from operating activities provides the funds to service and finance the financial liabilities on a day-to-day basis.

The group regularly monitors the rolling forecasts to ensure it has sufficient cash on an on-going basis to meet operational needs. Any short term surplus cash generated, over and above the amount required for working capital management and other operational requirements, is retained as cash and cash equivalents (to the extent required) and any excess is invested in interest bearing term deposits and other highly marketable debt investments with appropriate maturities to optimise the cash returns on investments while ensuring sufficient liquidity to meet its liabilities.

11.7.4 Market risk

Market risk is the risk that changes in market prices - such as foreign exchange rates and interest rates - will affect the Group's income or the value of its holdings of financial instruments. The objective of market risk management is to manage and control market risk exposures within acceptable parameters, while optimising the return. The Group does not have any external transactions in foreign currency, hence there is no currency risk. With respect to borrowings the impact of the market risk on the interest rate is not significant. With respect to the forward contracts outstanding, the impact of market risk is not significant.

Notice to the AGM12.1 Disclosures relating to defined benefit plan - gratuity

The Company has a defined benefit gratuity plan in India, governed by the Payment of Gratuity Act, 1972. The plan entitles an employee, who has rendered at least five years of continuous service, to gratuity at the rate of fifteen days wages for every completed year of service or part thereof in excess of six months, based on the rate of wages last drawn by the employee concerned.

These defined benefit plans expose the Company to actuarial risks, such as longevity risk, interest rate risk and market (investment) risk.

A. Funding

Plan is funded by the Company with LIC. The funding requirements are based on the gratuity fund's actuarial measurement framework set out in the funding policies of the plan. The funding of Plan is based on a separate actuarial valuation for funding purposes for which the assumptions may differ from the assumptions set out in 12.1.9. Employees do not contribute to the plan.

Notice to the AGM12.1.10 Notes on the principal assumptions:

1. The discount rate is based on the prevailing market yields of Indian government securities as at the balance sheet date for the estimated term of the obligations.
2. The estimates of future salary increases, considered in actuarial valuation, take into account inflation, seniority, promotion, and other relevant factors, such as supply and demand factors in the employment market.
3. The Group provides for gratuity for employees in India as per the Payment of Gratuity Act, 1972. In respect of other employees, gratuity is arrived at based on last drawn basic salary of 15 days for every completed year of service, on completion of 4 years and 240 days of continuous service.

12.1.11 Sensitivity analysis

Particulars	31 March, 2023	31 March, 2022
Discount rate
- Increase	-2.41%	-2.44%
- Decrease	2.51%	2.56%
Salary escalation rate
- Increase	2.02%	2.01%
- Decrease	-1.98%	-1.96%

Although the analysis does not take account of the full distribution of cash flows expected under the plan, it does provide an approximation of the sensitivity of the assumptions shown.

12.2 Compensated absence liability

The Company's net obligation in respect of compensated absences (pertains to its subsidiary- LatentView Analytics Corporation) is the amount of future benefit that employees have earned in return for their service in the current and prior periods; that benefit is discounted to determine its present value. The obligation is measured on the basis of an annual independent actuarial valuation using the projected unit credit method.

12.2.1 Principal assumptions used for the purpose of actuarial valuation are as follows- Compensated absences

Particulars	31 March, 2023	31 March, 2022
Discount rate	4.63%	0.17%
Expected rate of salary increase	4.34%	4.34%
Attrition rate	20.00%	40.48%

Independent Auditor's Report

To the Members of Latent View Analytics Limited (formerly known as Latent View Analytics Private Limited)
 Report on the Audit of the Standalone Financial Statements

We have audited the standalone financial statements of Latent View Analytics Limited (formerly known as Latent View Analytics Private Limited) (the "Company") which comprise the standalone balance sheet as at 31 March, 2023, and the standalone statement of profit and loss (including other comprehensive income), standalone statement of changes in equity and standalone statement of cash flows for the year then ended, and notes to the standalone financial statements, including a summary of significant accounting policies and other explanatory information.

In our opinion and to the best of our information and according to the explanations given to us, the aforesaid standalone financial statements give the information required by the Companies Act, 2013 ("Act") in the manner so required and give a true and fair view in conformity with the accounting principles generally accepted in India, of the state of affairs of the Company as at 31 March, 2023, and its profit and other comprehensive loss, changes in equity and its cash flows for the year ended on that date.

Basis for Opinion

We conducted our audit in accordance with the Standards on Auditing (SAs) specified under Section 143(10) of the Act. Our responsibilities under those SAs are further described in the Auditor's Responsibilities for the Audit of the Standalone Financial Statements section of our report. We are independent of the Company in accordance with the Code of Ethics issued by the Institute of Chartered Accountants of India together with the ethical requirements that are relevant to our audit of the standalone financial statements under the provisions of the Act and the Rules thereunder, and we have fulfilled our other ethical responsibilities in accordance with these requirements and the Code of Ethics. We believe that the audit evidence we have obtained is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our opinion on the standalone financial statements.

Key Audit Matter

Key audit matters are those matters that, in our professional judgment, were of most significance in our audit of the standalone financial statements of the current period. These matters were addressed in the context of our audit of the standalone financial statements as a whole, and in forming our opinion thereon, and we do not provide a separate opinion on these matters.

Revenue recognition

See Note 16 to standalone financial statements

The key audit matter

Revenue recognition

The Company is primarily engaged in the business of rendering analytical services from time-and-material and fixed price contracts.

Fixed price revenue contracts with customers have defined delivery milestones with agreed scope of work. Pricing for each milestone depends on the nature of service/industry served and the efforts involved over the term of the contract. Revenue from time and material contracts is recognised as the service is performed. Revenue from both these contracts is recognized over a period of time in accordance with the requirements of Ind-AS 115, "Revenue from Contracts with Customers".

We identified revenue recognition from contracts with external customers as a Key Audit Matter since -

- there is an inherent risk and presumed fraud risk around the existence of revenues recognised considering the nature of these contracts;

How the matter was addressed in our audit

In view of the significance of the matter we applied the following audit procedures in this area, among others to obtain sufficient appropriate audit evidence:

1. Assessed the appropriateness of the Company's revenue recognition accounting policies with reference to the relevant accounting standards.
2. Obtained an understanding of the Company's Revenue recognition process including design and implementation of controls. Tested the operating effectiveness, for sample transactions, of key controls over revenue recognized in the time and material and fixed price contracts.
3. Performed test of details on revenue transactions recorded during the year, on sample basis. Verified the underlying documents such as Invoices, Statement of works/Purchase Order, Master service agreements and customer acknowledgements (time sheets approvals), where applicable.

Other Information

The Company's Management and Board of Directors are responsible for the other information. The other information comprises the information included in the annual report, but does not include the financial statements and auditor's report thereon. The annual report is expected to be made available to us after the date of this auditor's report.

Our opinion on the standalone financial statements does not cover the other information and we will not express any form of assurance conclusion thereon.

In connection with our audit of the standalone financial statements, our responsibility is to read the other information identified above when it becomes available and, in doing so, consider whether the other information is materially inconsistent with the standalone financial statements or our knowledge obtained in the audit, or otherwise appears to be materially misstated.

When we read the annual report, if we conclude that there is a material misstatement therein, we are required to communicate the matter to those charged with governance and describe actions applicable under the applicable laws and regulations.

Management's and Board of Directors Responsibilities for the Standalone Financial Statements

The Company's Management and Board of Directors are responsible for the matters stated in Section 134(5) of the Act with respect to the preparation of these standalone financial statements that give a true and fair view of the state of affairs, profit/loss and other comprehensive income, changes in equity and cash flows of the Company in accordance with the accounting principles generally accepted in India, including the Indian Accounting Standards (Ind AS) specified under Section 133 of the Act. This responsibility also includes maintenance of adequate accounting records in accordance with the provisions of the Act for safeguarding of the assets of the Company and for preventing and detecting frauds and other irregularities; selection and application of appropriate accounting policies; making judgments and estimates that are reasonable and prudent; and design, implementation and maintenance of adequate internal financial controls, that were operating effectively for ensuring the accuracy and completeness of the accounting records, relevant to the preparation and presentation of the standalone financial statements that give a true and fair view and are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error.

In preparing the standalone financial statements, the Management and Board of Directors are responsible for assessing the Company's ability to continue as a going concern, disclosing, as applicable, matters related to going concern and using the going concern basis of accounting unless the Board of Directors either intends to liquidate the Company or to cease operations, or has no realistic alternative but to do so.

The Board of Directors is also responsible for overseeing the Company's financial reporting process.

Auditor's Responsibilities for the Audit of the Standalone Financial Statements

Our objectives are to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the standalone financial statements as a whole are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error, and to issue an auditor's report that includes our opinion. Reasonable assurance is a high level of assurance, but is not a guarantee that an audit conducted in accordance with SAs will always detect a material misstatement when it exists. Misstatements can arise from fraud or error and are considered material if, individually or in the aggregate, they could reasonably be expected to influence the economic decisions of users taken on the basis of these standalone financial statements.

As part of an audit in accordance with SAs, we exercise professional judgment and maintain professional skepticism throughout the audit. We also:

- Identify and assess the risks of material misstatement of the standalone financial statements, whether due to fraud or error, design and perform audit procedures responsive to those risks, and obtain audit evidence that is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our opinion. The risk of not detecting a material misstatement resulting from fraud is higher than for one resulting from error, as fraud may involve collusion, forgery, intentional omissions, misrepresentations, or the override of internal control.

- Obtain an understanding of internal control relevant to the audit in order to design audit procedures that are appropriate in the circumstances. Under Section 143(3) (i) of the Act, we are also responsible for expressing our opinion on whether the company has adequate internal financial controls with reference to financial statements in place and the operating effectiveness of such controls.
- Evaluate the appropriateness of accounting policies used and the reasonableness of accounting estimates and related disclosures made by the Management and Board of Directors.
- Conclude on the appropriateness of the Management and Board of Directors use of the going concern basis of accounting in preparation of standalone financial statements and, based on the audit evidence obtained, whether a material uncertainty exists related to events or conditions that may cast significant doubt on the Company's ability to continue as a going concern. If we conclude that a material uncertainty exists, we are required to draw attention in our auditor's report to the related disclosures in the standalone financial statements or, if such disclosures are inadequate, to modify our opinion. Our conclusions are based on the audit evidence obtained up to the date of our auditor's report. However, future events or conditions may cause the Company to cease to continue as a going concern.
- Evaluate the overall presentation, structure and content of the standalone financial statements, including the disclosures, and whether the standalone financial statements represent the underlying transactions and events in a manner that achieves fair presentation.

We communicate with those charged with governance regarding, among other matters, the planned scope and timing of the audit and significant audit findings, including any significant deficiencies in internal control that we identify during our audit.

We also provide those charged with governance with a statement that we have complied with relevant ethical requirements regarding independence, and to communicate with them all relationships and other matters that may reasonably be thought to bear on our independence, and where applicable, related safeguards.

From the matters communicated with those charged with governance, we determine those matters that were of most significance in the audit of the standalone financial statements of the current period and are therefore the key audit matters. We describe these matters in our auditor's report unless law or regulation precludes public disclosure about the matter or when, in extremely rare circumstances, we determine that a matter should not be communicated in our report because the adverse consequences of doing so would reasonably be expected to outweigh the public interest benefits of such communication.

Annexure B to the Independent Auditor's Report on the standalone financial statements of Latent View Analytics Limited (formerly known as Latent View Analytics Private Limited) for the year ended 31 March, 2023

Report on the internal financial controls with reference to the aforesaid standalone financial statements under Clause (i) of Sub-section 3 of Section 143 of the Act

(Referred to in paragraph 2(A)(f) under 'Report on Other Legal and Regulatory Requirements' section of our report of even date)

Opinion

We have audited the internal financial controls with reference to financial statements of Latent View Analytics Limited (formerly known as Latent View Analytics Private Limited) ("the Company") as of 31 March, 2023 in conjunction with our audit of the standalone financial statements of the Company for the year ended on that date.

In our opinion, the Company has, in all material respects, adequate internal financial controls with reference to financial statements and such internal financial controls were operating effectively as at 31 March, 2023, based on the internal financial controls with reference to financial statements criteria established by the Company considering the essential components of internal control stated in the Guidance Note on Audit of Internal Financial Controls Over Financial Reporting issued by the Institute of Chartered Accountants of India (the "Guidance Note").

Management's and Board of Directors' Responsibilities for Internal Financial Controls

The Company's Management and the Board of Directors are responsible for establishing and maintaining internal financial controls based on the internal financial controls with reference to financial statements criteria established by the Company considering the essential components of internal control stated in the Guidance Note. These responsibilities include the design, implementation and maintenance of adequate internal financial controls that were operating effectively for ensuring the orderly and efficient conduct of its business, including adherence to company's policies, the safeguarding of its assets, the prevention and detection of frauds and errors, the accuracy and completeness of the accounting records, and the timely preparation of reliable financial information, as required under the Act.

Auditor's Responsibility

Our responsibility is to express an opinion on the Company's internal financial controls with reference to financial statements based on our audit. We conducted our audit in accordance with the Guidance Note and the Standards on Auditing, prescribed under Section 143(10) of the Act, to the extent applicable to an audit of internal financial controls with reference to financial statements. Those Standards and the Guidance Note require that we comply with ethical requirements and plan and perform the audit to obtain reasonable assurance about whether adequate internal financial controls with reference to financial statements were established and maintained and if such controls operated effectively in all material respects.

Our audit involves performing procedures to obtain audit evidence about the adequacy of the internal financial controls with reference to financial statements and their operating effectiveness. Our audit of internal financial controls with reference to financial statements included obtaining an understanding of internal financial controls with reference to financial statements, assessing the risk that a material weakness exists, and testing and evaluating the design and operating effectiveness of internal control based on the assessed risk. The procedures selected depend on the auditor's judgement, including the assessment of the risks of material misstatement of the standalone financial statements, whether due to fraud or error.

We believe that the audit evidence we have obtained is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our audit opinion on the Company's internal financial controls with reference to financial statements.

Meaning of Internal Financial Controls with Reference to Financial Statements

A company's internal financial controls with reference to financial statements is a process designed to provide reasonable assurance regarding the reliability of financial reporting and the preparation of standalone financial statements for external purposes in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles. A company's internal financial controls with reference to financial statements include those policies and procedures that (1) pertain to the maintenance of records that, in reasonable detail, accurately and fairly reflect the transactions and dispositions of the assets of the company; (2) provide reasonable assurance that transactions are recorded as necessary to permit preparation of standalone financial statements in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles, and that receipts and expenditures of the company are being made only in accordance with authorisations of management and directors of the company; and (3) provide reasonable assurance regarding prevention or timely detection of unauthorised acquisition, use, or disposition of the company's assets that could have a material effect on the standalone financial statements.

Inherent Limitations of Internal Financial Controls with Reference to Financial Statements

Because of the inherent limitations of internal financial controls with reference to financial statements, including the possibility of collusion or improper management override of controls, material misstatements due to error or fraud may occur and not be detected. Also, projections of any evaluation of the internal financial controls with reference to financial statements to future periods are subject to the risk that the internal financial controls with reference to financial statements may become inadequate because of changes in conditions, or that the degree of compliance with the policies or procedures may deteriorate.

Notes to the Standalone Financial Statements

for the year ended 31 March, 2023

(All amounts are in Indian Rupee millions, other than share data, per share data and unless otherwise stated)

1. Company overview

Latent View Analytics Limited (formerly known as Latent View Analytics Private Limited) ("the Company") is an India based data analytics Company incorporated on 03 January, 2006, whose head office and corporate office is in Chennai. The Company's primary objective is to enable customers to develop and deploy result-oriented analytics solutions that shall enable them to make smarter decisions using their data on an on-going basis. These solutions enable customers improve their marketing performance, efficiently trade-off risks against the available opportunities, maximise customer value and increase employee effectiveness.

The Holding company has converted itself from Private Limited to Public Limited, pursuant to a special resolution passed in the extraordinary general meeting of the shareholders of the Company held on 18 June, 2021 and consequently the name of the Company has changed to "Latent View Analytics Limited" pursuant to a fresh certificate of incorporation by the Registrar of Companies on 16 July, 2021.

2. Basis of preparation

This note provides a list of the significant accounting policies adopted in the preparation of these Standalone Financial Statements. The Company has consistently applied the following accounting policies to all periods presented in the Standalone Financial Statements. The financial statements have been prepared and presented on the going concern basis.

A. Statement of compliance

These standalone financial statements have been prepared in accordance with the Indian Accounting Standards (referred to as "Ind AS") as prescribed under section 133 of the Companies Act, 2013, read with the Companies (Indian Accounting Standards) Rules as amended from time to time.

Details of the Company's accounting policies are included in Note 3.

B. Functional and presentation currency

Items included in the financial statements of the Company are measured using the currency of the primary economic environment in which the Company operates ('the functional currency'). The financial statements are presented in Indian Rupee (₹), which is Company's functional and presentation currency.

All amounts disclosed in the financial statements and notes have been rounded off to the nearest Rupees in millions, unless otherwise stated.

C. Basis of measurement

The financial statements have been prepared on the historical cost basis except for the following items:

Items	Measurement basis
Certain financial assets and liabilities (including derivative instruments)	Fair value
Net defined benefit (asset)/liability	Fair value of plan assets less present value of defined benefit obligations.
Lease liability	Lease liability is measured at the present value of the remaining lease payments, discounted using the lessee's incremental borrowing rate at the date of initial application.
Right-to-use asset	Right-to-use asset has been measured as an amount equal to the lease liability, adjusted by the amount of any prepaid or accrued lease payments relating to that lease recognised in the balance sheet immediately before the date of initial application. Practical expedient on transition to exclude initial direct costs from ROU asset measurement is considered.

D. Use of estimates and judgments

In preparing the financial statements, management has made judgments, estimates and assumptions that affect the application of accounting policies and the reported amounts of assets, liabilities, income and expenses. Actual results may differ from these estimates.

Estimates and underlying assumptions are reviewed on an ongoing basis. Revisions to accounting estimates are recognised prospectively.

Judgements

Information about judgements made in applying accounting policies that have the most significant effects on the amounts recognised in the financial statements is included in the following notes:

- a) Note 3(J) and 7- provision for income taxes, uncertain tax treatments
- b) Note 3(I)- leases: whether an arrangement contains a lease;
- c) Note 3(I)- lease term: whether the Company is reasonably certain to exercise extension options;

Assumptions and estimation uncertainties

Information about assumptions and estimation uncertainties that have a significant risk of resulting in a material adjustment in the carrying amount of assets and liabilities in the next financial year is included in the following notes:

- a) Note 3(D)- estimated useful life of property, plant and equipment and intangible assets;
- b) Note 12- measurement of defined benefit assets and obligations: key actuarial assumptions;
- c) Note 7- recognition of deferred tax assets: availability of future taxable profit against which deferred tax assets will be recovered in future periods
- d) Note 22- impairment of financial assets
- e) Note 11.2- incremental borrowing rates used to discount lease liabilities.

E. Measurement of fair values

A number of the Company's accounting policies and disclosures require the measurement of fair values, for both financial and non-financial assets and liabilities.

The Company has an established control framework with respect to the measurement of fair values. The Chief Financial Officer has overall responsibility for overseeing all significant fair value measurements.

The Chief Financial Officer regularly reviews significant unobservable inputs and valuation adjustments. If third party information, such as broker quotes or pricing services, is used to measure fair values, then the Chief Financial Officer assesses the evidence obtained from the third parties to support the conclusion that these valuations meet the requirements of Ind AS, including the level in the fair value hierarchy in which the valuations should be classified.

Fair values are categorised into different levels in a fair value hierarchy based on the inputs used in the valuation techniques as follows:

Level 1: quoted prices (unadjusted) in active markets for identical assets or liabilities.

Level 2: inputs other than quoted prices included in Level 1 that are observable for the asset or liability, either directly (i.e. as prices) or indirectly (i.e. derived from prices).

Level 3: inputs for the asset or liability that are not based on observable market data (unobservable inputs).

When measuring the fair value of an asset or a liability, the Company uses observable market data as far as possible. If the inputs used to measure the fair value of an asset or a liability fall into different levels of the fair value hierarchy, then the fair value measurement is categorised in its entirety in the same level of the fair value hierarchy as the lowest level input that is significant to the entire measurement.

The Company recognises transfers between levels of the fair value hierarchy at the end of the reporting period during which the change has occurred.

Further information about the assumptions made in measuring fair values is included in Note 22 - financial instruments.

3. Significant accounting policies

A. Operating cycle

The operating cycle is the time between the acquisition of assets for processing and their realization in cash and cash equivalents. The Company has identified twelve months as its operating cycle.

B. Foreign currency transactions

Transactions in foreign currencies are initially recorded by the Company at their functional currency spot rates at the date of the transaction.

Monetary assets and liabilities denominated in foreign currencies are translated into the functional currency at the exchange rate at the reporting date. Exchange differences that arise on settlement of monetary items or on reporting at each balance sheet date are recognized as income or expenses in the period in which they arise. Non-monetary items which are carried at historical cost denominated in a foreign currency are reported using the exchange rates at the date of transaction. Non-monetary assets and liabilities that are measured based on historical cost in a foreign currency are translated at the exchange rate at the date of the transaction.

C. Financial instruments

i) Recognition and initial measurement

Trade receivables and debt securities are initially recognised when they are originated. All other financial assets and financial liabilities are initially recognised when the Company becomes a party to the contractual provisions of the instrument.

A financial asset except trade receivables which are initially recognised at transaction price as per Ind AS 115 or financial liability is initially measured at fair value plus, for an item not at fair value through profit and loss (FVTPL), transaction costs that are directly attributable to its acquisition or issue.

ii) Classification and subsequent measurement

Financial assets:

On initial recognition, a financial asset is classified as measured at

- amortised cost;
- fair value through other comprehensive income (FVOCI) - debt investment
- fair value through other comprehensive income (FVOCI) - equity investment
- fair value through profit and loss (FVTPL)

Financial assets are not reclassified subsequent to their initial recognition, except if and in the period the Company changes its business model for managing financial assets.

A financial asset is measured at amortised cost if it meets both of the following conditions and is not designated as at FVTPL:

- a) the asset is held within a business model whose objective is to hold assets to collect contractual cash flows; and
- b) the contractual terms of the financial asset give rise on specified dates to cash flows that are solely payments of principal and interest on the principal amount outstanding.

A debt investment is measured at fair value through other comprehensive income if it meets both the following conditions and is not designated as FVTPL:

- a) the asset is held within a business model whose objective is achieved by both collecting contractual cash flows and selling financial assets; and
- b) the contractual terms of the financial asset give rise on specified dates to cash flows that are solely payments of principal and interest on the principal amount outstanding.

On initial recognition of an equity investment that is not held for trading, the Company may irrevocably elect to present subsequent changes in the investment's fair value in OCI (designated as FVOCI - equity investment). This election is made on an investment by investment basis.

All financial assets not classified as measured at amortised cost or FVOCI as described above are measured at FVTPL. On initial recognition, the Company may irrevocably designate a financial asset that otherwise meets the requirements to be measured at amortised cost or at FVOCI as at FVTPL if doing so eliminates or significantly reduces an accounting mismatch that would otherwise arise.

Financial assets: Business model assessment

The Company makes an assessment of the objective of the business model in which a financial asset is held at a portfolio level because this best reflects the way the business is managed and the information is provided to management. The information considered includes:

- the stated policies and objectives for the portfolio and the operation of those policies in practice
- these include whether management strategy focuses on earning contractual interest, maintaining a particular interest rate profile, matching the duration of financial assets to the duration of any related liabilities or expected cash outflows or realising cash flows through the sale of assets;
- how the performance of the portfolio is evaluated and reported to the Company's management
- the risk that affect the performance of the business model (and the financial assets held with in the business model) and how those risks are managed;
- how managers of the business are compensated
- the frequency, volume and timing of sales of financial assets in prior period, the reasons for such sales and expectations about future sales activity.
- transfers of financial assets to third parties in transactions that do not qualify for derecognition are not considered sales for this purpose, consistent with the Company's continuing recognition of the assets.

Financial assets that are held for trading or are managed and whose performance is evaluated on fair value basis are measured at FVTPL.

Financial assets: Assessment whether contractual cash flows are solely payments of principal and interest

For the purposes of this assessment, 'principal' is defined as the fair value of the financial asset on initial recognition. 'Interest' is defined as consideration for the time value of money and for the credit risk associated with the principal amount outstanding during a particular period of time and for other basic lending risks and costs, as well as a profit margin.

In assessing whether the contractual cash flows are solely payments of principal and interest, the Company considers the contractual terms of the instrument. This includes assessing whether the financial asset contains a contractual term that could change the timing or amount of contractual cash flows such that it would not meet this condition. In making this assessment, the Company considers:

- contingent events that would change the amount or timing of cash flows;
- terms that may adjust the contractual coupon rate, including variable interest rate features;
- prepayment and extension features; and
- terms that limit the Company's claim to cash flows from specified assets

Notice to the AGM

A prepayment feature is consistent with the solely payments of principal and interest criterion if the prepayment amount substantially represents unpaid amounts of principal and interest on the principal amount outstanding, which may include reasonable additional compensation for early termination of the contract. Additionally, for a financial asset acquired at a significant discount or premium to its contractual par amount, a feature that pertains or requires prepayment at an amount that substantially represents the contractual par amount plus accrued (but unpaid) contractual interest (which may also include reasonable additional compensation for early termination) is treated as consistent with this criterion if the fair value of the prepayment feature is insignificant at initial recognition.

Financial assets: Subsequent measurement and gains and losses

Financial assets at FVTPL	These assets are subsequently measured at fair value. Net gains and losses, including any interest or dividend income, are recognised in statement of profit and loss.
Financial assets at amortised cost	These assets are subsequently measured at amortised cost using the effective interest method. The amortised cost is reduced by the impairment losses. Interest income, foreign exchange gains and losses and impairment are recognised in statement of profit and loss. Any gain or loss on derecognition is recognised in statement of profit and loss.
Equity investments at FVOCI	These assets are subsequently measured at fair value. Dividends are recognised as income in profit or loss unless the dividend clearly represents a recovery of part of the cost of the investment. Other net gains and losses are recognised in OCI and are not reclassified to statement of profit and loss.

Financial liabilities: Classification, subsequent measurement and gains and losses

Financial liabilities are classified as measured at amortised cost or FVTPL. A financial liability is classified as at FVTPL if it is classified as held for trading, or if it is a derivative, or it is designated as such on initial recognition. Financial liabilities at FVTPL are measured at fair value and net gains and losses, including any interest expense, are recognised in profit or loss. Other financial liabilities are subsequently measured at amortised cost using the effective interest method. Interest expense and foreign exchange gains and losses are recognised in statement of profit and loss. Any gain or loss on derecognition is also recognised in statement of profit and loss.

iii) Derecognition

Financial assets:

The Company derecognises a financial asset when the contractual rights to the cash flows from the financial asset expire, or it transfers the rights to receive the contractual cash flows in a transaction in which substantially all of the risks and rewards of ownership of the financial asset are transferred or in which the Company neither transfers nor retains substantially all of the risks and rewards of ownership and does not retain control of the financial asset.

If the Company enters into transactions whereby it transfers assets recognised on its balance sheet, but retains either all or substantially all of the risks and rewards of the transferred assets, the transferred assets are not derecognised.

Financial liabilities:

The Company derecognises a financial liability when its contractual obligations are discharged or cancelled, or expire.

The Company also derecognises a financial liability when its terms are modified and the cash flows under the modified terms are substantially different. In this case, a new financial liability based on the modified terms is recognised at fair value. The difference between the carrying amount of the financial liability extinguished and the new financial liability with modified terms is recognised in profit or loss.

iv) Offsetting

Financial assets and financial liabilities are offset and the net amount presented in the balance sheet when, and only when, the Company currently has a legally enforceable right to set off the amounts and it intends either to settle them on a net basis or to realise the asset and settle the liability simultaneously.

v) Derivative financial instruments

Derivatives are initially measured at fair value. Subsequent to initial recognition, derivatives are measured at fair value, and changes therein are generally recognised in profit or loss.

D. Property, plant and equipment

i) Recognition and initial measurement

Items of property, plant and equipment are measured at cost, (which includes capitalised borrowing costs, if any) less accumulated depreciation and accumulated impairment losses, if any.

Cost of an item of property, plant and equipment comprises its purchase price, including import duties and non-refundable purchase taxes, after deducting trade discounts and rebates, any directly attributable cost of bringing the item to its working condition for its intended use.

Notice to the AGM

The cost of a self-constructed item of property, plant and equipment comprises the cost of materials and direct labour, any other costs directly attributable to bringing the item to working condition for its intended use.

If significant parts of an item of property, plant and equipment have different useful lives, then they are accounted for as separate items (major components) of property, plant and equipment.

Any gain or loss on disposal of an item of property, plant and equipment is recognised in statement of profit and loss.

ii) Subsequent expenditure

Subsequent expenditure is capitalised only if it is probable that the future economic benefits associated with the expenditure will flow to the Company.

iii) Depreciation

Depreciation is calculated on cost of items of property, plant and equipment less their estimated residual values over their estimated useful lives using the straight-line method, and is recognised in the statement of profit and loss. Freehold land is not depreciated. The estimated useful lives of items of property, plant and equipment for the current and comparative periods are as follows:

Asset category	Management estimate of useful life	Useful life as per Schedule II
Office equipment	5	5/10
Electrical equipment	10	10
Computers	3-5	3/6
Furnitures and fixtures	10	10
Vehicles	8	8/10
Leasehold improvements	5	5

Depreciation method, useful lives and residual values are reviewed at each financial year-end and adjusted if appropriate. Based on technical evaluation and consequent advice, the management believes that its estimates of useful lives as above best represent the period over which management expects to use such assets.

Depreciation on additions (disposals) is provided on a pro-rata basis i.e. from (up to) the date on which asset is ready for use (disposed of).

E. Intangible assets

i) Recognition and initial measurement

Intangible assets of the Company comprises of purchased software that are initially measured at cost. Such intangible assets are subsequently measured at cost less accumulated amortisation and any accumulated impairment losses.

ii) Subsequent expenditure

Subsequent expenditure is capitalised only when it increases the future economic benefits embodied in the specific asset to which it relates.

iii) Amortisation

Amortisation is calculated to write off the cost of intangible assets less their estimated residual values over their estimated useful lives using the straight-line method, and is included in depreciation and amortisation in Statement of Profit and Loss.

The estimated useful lives are as follows:

Asset category	Management estimate of useful life
Software	3

Amortisation method, useful lives and residual values are reviewed at the end of each financial year and adjusted if appropriate.

F. Impairment

i) Impairment of financial assets

The Company recognises loss allowances for expected credit losses on financial assets measured at amortised cost.

At each reporting date, the Company assesses whether financial assets carried at amortised cost are credit impaired. A financial asset is 'credit impaired' when one or more events that have a detrimental impact on the estimated future cash flows of the financial asset have occurred.

Evidence that a financial asset is credit impaired includes the following observable data:

- significant financial difficulty of the borrower or issuer;
- a breach of contract such as a default or past dues;
- the restructuring of a loan or advance by the Company on terms that the Company would not consider otherwise;
- it is probable that the borrower will enter bankruptcy or other financial reorganisation; or
- the disappearance of an active market for a security because of financial difficulties.

Notice to the AGM

The Company follows 'simplified approach' for recognition of impairment loss allowance on trade receivables which do not contain a significant financing component. The application of simplified approach does not require the Company to track changes in credit risk. Rather, it recognises impairment loss allowance based on lifetime impairment pattern at each balance sheet date, right from its initial recognition.

The Company always measures the loss allowance for trade receivables at an amount equal to lifetime expected credit loss (ECL). The Company has used a practical expedient by computing the expected credit loss allowance for trade receivables based on a provision matrix under simplified approach. The provision matrix takes into account historical credit loss experience and adjusted for forward-looking information. The expected credit loss allowance is based on the ageing of the days the receivables are due.

Loss allowances for financial assets measured at amortized cost are deducted from the gross carrying amount of the assets. The gross carrying amount of a financial asset is written off (either partially or in full) to the extent that there is no realistic prospect of recovery. This is generally the case when the Company determines that the debtor does not have assets or sources of income that could generate sufficient cash flows to repay the amounts subject to the write-off. However, financial assets that are written off could still be subject to enforcement activities in order to comply with the Company's procedures for recovery of amounts due.

The Company measures loss allowances at an amount equal to lifetime expected credit losses, except for the following, which are measured as 12 month expected credit losses:

- debt securities that are determined to have low credit risk at the reporting date; and
- other debt securities and bank balances for which credit risk (i.e. the risk of default occurring over the expected life of the financial instrument) has not increased significantly since initial recognition.

Loss allowances for trade receivables and contract assets are always measured at an amount equal to lifetime expected credit losses.

Lifetime expected credit losses are the expected credit losses that result from all possible default events over the expected life of a financial instrument.

12-month expected credit losses are the portion of expected credit losses that result from default events that are possible within 12 months after the reporting date (or a shorter period if the expected life of the instrument is less than 12 months).

In all cases, the maximum period considered when estimating expected credit losses is the maximum contractual period over which the Company is exposed to credit risk.

When determining whether the credit risk of a financial asset has increased significantly since initial recognition and when estimating expected credit losses, the Company considers reasonable and supportable information that is relevant and available without undue cost or effort. This includes both quantitative and qualitative information and analysis, based on the Company's historical experience and informed credit assessment and including forward looking information.

The Company assumes that the credit risk on a financial asset has increased significantly if it is more than past due.

The Company considers a financial asset to be in default when:

- the borrower is unlikely to pay its credit obligations to the Company in full, without recourse by the Company to actions such as realising security (if any is held); or
- the financial asset is more than past due.

Measurement of expected credit losses

Expected credit losses are a probability weighted estimate of credit losses. Credit losses are measured as the present value of all cash shortfalls (i.e. the difference between the cash flows due to the Company in accordance with the contract and the cash flows that the Company expects to receive).

Presentation of allowance for expected credit losses in the balance sheet

Loss allowances for financial assets measured at amortised cost are deducted from the gross carrying amount of the assets.

Write-off

The gross carrying amount of a financial asset is written off (either partially or in full) to the extent that there is no realistic prospect of recovery. This is generally the case when the Company determines that the debtor does not have assets or sources of income that could generate sufficient cash flows to repay the amounts subject to the write off. However, financial assets that are written off could still be subject to enforcement activities in order to comply with the Company's procedures for recovery of amounts due.

ii) Impairment of non-financial assets

The Company's non-financial assets, other than deferred tax assets, are reviewed at each reporting date to determine whether there is any indication of impairment. If any such indication exists, then the asset's recoverable amount is estimated.

For impairment testing, assets that do not generate independent cash inflows are grouped together into cash-generating units (CGUs). Each CGU represents the smallest group of assets that generates cash inflows that are largely independent of the cash inflows of other assets or CGUs.

The recoverable amount of a CGU (or an individual asset) is the higher of its value in use and its fair value less costs to sell. Value in use is based on the estimated future cash flows, discounted to their present value using a pre-tax discount rate that reflects current market assessments of the time value of money and the risks specific to the CGU (or the asset).

Notice to the AGM

The Company's corporate assets (e.g., head office building for providing support to various CGUs) do not generate independent cash inflows. To determine impairment of a corporate asset, recoverable amount is determined for the CGUs to which the corporate asset belongs.

An impairment loss is recognised if the carrying amount of an asset or CGU exceeds its estimated recoverable amount. Impairment losses are recognised in the statement of profit and loss. Impairment loss recognised in respect of a CGU is allocated first to reduce the carrying amount of any goodwill allocated to the CGU, and then to reduce the carrying amounts of the other assets of the CGU (or group of CGUs) on a pro rata basis.

An impairment loss in respect of assets for which has been recognised in prior periods, the Company reviews at each reporting date whether there is any indication that the loss has decreased or no longer exists. An impairment loss is reversed if there has been a change in the estimates used to determine the recoverable amount. Such a reversal is made only to the extent that the asset's carrying amount does not exceed the carrying amount that would have been determined, net of depreciation or amortisation, if no impairment loss had been recognised.

G. Employee benefits

Short-term employee benefit obligations are measured on an undiscounted basis and are expensed as the related service is provided. A liability is recognised for the amount expected to be paid, if the Company has a present legal or constructive obligation to pay this amount as a result of past service provided by the employee, and the amount of obligation can be estimated reliably.

Provident fund: A defined contribution plan is a post-employment benefit plan under which an entity pays fixed contributions into a separate entity and will have no legal or constructive obligation to pay further amounts. The Company makes specified monthly contributions towards Government administered provident fund scheme. Obligations for contributions to defined contribution plans are recognised as an employee benefit expense in profit or loss in the periods during which the related services are rendered by employees.

Gratuity: The Company provides for gratuity, a defined benefit plan (the "Gratuity Plan"), covering eligible employees. The Plan provides payment to vested employees at retirement, death or termination of employment, of an amount based on the respective employee's salary and the tenure of employment with the Company. The Company provides the gratuity benefit through annual contribution to a fund managed by the Life Insurance Corporation of India (LIC). Such contributions are determined by LIC based on actuarial valuation using "projected unit credit method" as at the balance sheet date.

Remeasurement of the net defined benefit liability, which comprise actuarial gains and losses, the return on plan assets (excluding interest) and the effect of the asset ceiling (if any, excluding interest), are recognised in OCI. The Company determines the net interest expense/(income) on the net defined benefit liability/(asset) for the period by applying the discount rate used to measure the defined benefit obligation at the beginning of the annual period to the then-net defined benefit liability/(asset), taking into account any changes in the net defined benefit liability/(asset) during the period as a result of contributions and benefit payments. Net interest expense and other expenses related to defined benefit plans are recognised in statement of profit and loss.

Share based payment: The grant date fair value of equity settled share-based payment awards granted to employees is recognised as an employee expense, with a corresponding increase in equity, over the period that the employees unconditionally become entitled to the awards. The amount recognised as expense is based on the estimate of the number of awards for which the related service and non-market vesting conditions are expected to be met, such that the amount ultimately recognised as an expense is based on the number of awards that do meet the related service and non-market vesting conditions at the vesting date.

H. Revenue

The Company is primarily engaged in the business of rendering analytics services.

The Company has revenue from customer contracts. The Company recognizes revenue when it satisfies performance obligations under the terms of its contracts, and control of its services is transferred to its customers in an amount that reflects the consideration the Company expects to receive from its customers in exchange for those services. This process involves identifying the customer contract, determining the performance obligations in the contract, determining the contract price, allocating the contract price to the distinct performance obligations in the contract, and recognizing revenue when the performance obligations have been satisfied. A performance obligation is considered distinct from other obligations in a contract when it (a) provides a benefit to the customer either on its own or together with other resources that are readily available to the customer and (b) is separately identified in the contract.

Taxes assessed by a government authority that are both imposed on and concurrent with a specific revenue-producing transaction, that are collected by the Company from a customer, are excluded from sales.

A performance obligation is satisfied over time if one of the following criteria are met:

- the customer simultaneously receives and consumes the benefits as the entity performs;
- the entity's performance creates or enhances an asset that the customer controls as the asset is created or enhanced; or
- the entity's performance does not create an asset with an alternative use to the entity, and the entity has an enforceable right to payment for performance completed to date.

Notice to the AGM

If control transfers over time, an entity selects a method to measure progress that is consistent with the objective of depicting its performance.

Nature of services

The Company generally recognizes revenue for analytical services over time as the Company's performance creates or enhances an asset that the customer controls from fixed price contracts and the customers simultaneously receives and consumes the benefits as and when the milestones are completed as per the terms of the contract. Revenue on time-and-material contracts are recognised as the related services are performed.

The Company has adopted the 'as-invoiced' practical expedient for performance obligation satisfied over time with respect to certain fixed price contracts. It permits an entity to recognize revenue in the amount to which it has a right to invoice the customer if that amount corresponds directly with the value to the customer of the entity's performance completed to date.

Contract assets and liabilities

Contract assets are recognised when there is excess of revenue earned over billings on contracts. Unbilled revenue are classified as contract assets when there is conditional right to receive cash as per contractual terms. The term between invoicing and when payment is due is not significant. As a practical expedient, the Company does not assess the existence of a significant financing component when the difference between payment and transfer of deliverables is one year or less.

Contract assets and contract liabilities are reported in a net position on an individual contract basis at the end of each reporting period. Contract assets are classified as current on the balance sheet when the Company expects to complete the related performance obligations and invoice the customers within one year of the balance sheet date, and as long-term when the Company expects to complete the related performance obligations and invoice the customers more than one year out from the balance sheet date. Contract liabilities are classified as current on the balance sheet when the revenue recognition associated with the related customer payments and invoicing is expected to occur within one year of the balance sheet date and as long-term when the revenue recognition associated with the related customer payments and invoicing is expected to occur in more than one year from the balance sheet date.

Contract acquisition/fulfilment costs are generally expensed as incurred except which meet the criteria for capitalisation. The assessment of this criteria requires the application of judgement, in particular when considering if costs generate or enhance resources to be used to satisfy future performance obligations and whether costs are expected to be recovered. Applying the practical expedient, the entity recognises the incremental costs of obtaining contracts as an expense when incurred if the amortisation period of the assets that the entity otherwise would have recognised is one year or less.

The Company records reimbursable out of pocket expenses in both revenue and respective expense head. the goods or services giving rise to the out-of-pocket costs do not transfer a good or service to the customer. Rather, the goods or services are used or consumed by the entity in fulfilling its performance obligation to the customer. Therefore, out-of-pocket costs (e.g. travel, meals, lodging) and the reimbursements of such costs from the customer are presented on a gross basis and are included as part of transaction price.

Government grants

Export benefits in the nature of duty drawback are accounted as income when there is no uncertainty in receiving the same duly considering the realisability.

Other Income

Dividend income is recognised when the right to receive payment is established by the balance sheet date.

Interest income is recognised on a time proportion basis taking into account the amount outstanding and the effective interest rate. Interest income is included under the head "other income" in the Statement of Profit and Loss.

The 'effective interest rate' is the rate that exactly discounts estimated future cash payments or receipts through the expected life of the financial instrument to:

- the gross carrying amount of the financial asset; or
- the amortised cost of the financial liability.

In calculating interest income and expense, the effective interest rate is applied to the gross carrying amount of the asset (when the asset is not credit-impaired) or to the amortised cost of the liability. However, for financial assets that have become credit-impaired subsequent to initial recognition, interest income is calculated by applying the effective interest rate to the amortised cost of the financial asset. If the asset is no longer credit-impaired, then the calculation of interest income reverts to the gross basis.

I. Leases

The Company assesses whether a contract contains a lease, at inception of a contract. A contract is, or contains, a lease if the contract conveys the right to control the use of an identified asset for a period of time in exchange for consideration. To assess whether a contract conveys the right to control the use of an identified asset, the Company assesses whether: (1) the contract involves the use of an identified asset (2) the Company has substantially all of the economic benefits from use of the asset through the period of the lease and (3) the Company has the right to direct the use of the asset.

At the date of commencement of the lease, the Company recognizes a right-of-use asset ("ROU") and a corresponding lease liability for all lease arrangements in which it is a lessee, except for leases with a term of twelve months or less (short-term leases) and low value leases. For these short-term and low value leases, the Company recognizes the lease payments as an operating expense on a straight-line basis over the term of the lease.

Notice to the AGM

Certain lease arrangements includes the options to extend or terminate the lease before the end of the lease term. ROU assets and lease liabilities includes these options whenitis reasonably certain that they will be exercised.

The right-of-use assets are initially recognized at cost, which comprises the initial amount of the lease liability adjusted for any lease payments made at or prior to the commencement date of the lease plus any initial direct costs less any lease incentives.They are subsequently measured at cost less accumulated depreciation and impairment losses.

Right-of-use assets are depreciated from the commencement date on a straight-line basis over the shorter of the lease term and useful life of the underlying asset. Right of use assets are evaluated for recoverability whenever events or changes in circumstances indicate that their carrying amounts may not be recoverable. For the purpose of impairment testing, the recoverable amount(i.e.the higher of the fair value less cost to sell and the value-in-use)is determined on an individual asset basis unless the asset does not generate cashflows that are largely independent of those from other assets. In such cases, the recoverable amount is determined for the Cash Generating Unit (CGU) to which the asset belongs.

The lease liability is initially measured at amortized cost at the present value of the future lease payments. The lease payments are discounted using the interest rate implicit in the lease or, if not readily determinable,using the incremental borrowing rates in the country of domicile of the leases.Lease liabilities are remeasured with a corresponding adjustment to the related right of use asset if the Company changes its assessment if whether it will exercise an extension or a termination option.

Lease liability and ROU asset have been separately presented in the Balance Sheet and lease payments have been classified as financing cash flows.

J. Income tax

Income tax comprises current and deferred tax. It is recognised in statement of profit and loss except to the extent that it relates to a business combination or to an item recognised directly in equity or in other comprehensive income.

i) Current tax

Current tax comprises the expected tax payable or receivable on the taxable income or loss for the year and any adjustment to the tax payable or receivable in respect of previous years. The amount of current tax reflects the best estimate of the tax amount expected to be paid or received after considering the uncertainty, if any, related to income taxes. It is measured using tax rates (and tax laws) enacted or substantively enacted by the reporting date.

Current tax assets and current tax liabilities are offset only if there is a legally enforceable right to set off the recognised amounts, and it is intended to realise the asset and settle the liability on a net basis or simultaneously.

ii) Deferred tax

Deferred tax is recognised in respect of temporary differences between the carrying amounts of assets and liabilities for financial reporting purposes and the corresponding amounts used for taxation purposes.

Deferred tax assets including Minimum Alternative Tax (MAT) are recognised to the extent that it is probable that future taxable profits will be available against which they can be used. Deferred tax assets - unrecognized or recognized, are reviewed at each reporting date and are recognized/reduced to the extent that it is probable/no longer probable respectively that the related tax benefit will be realised.

Deferred tax is measured at the tax rates that are expected to apply to the period when the asset is realised or the liability is settled, based on the laws that have been enacted or substantively enacted by the reporting date.

The measurement of deferred tax reflects the tax consequences that would follow from the manner in which the Company expects, at the reporting date, to recover or settle the carrying amount of its assets and liabilities.

Deferred tax assets and liabilities are offset if there is a legally enforceable right to offset current tax liabilities and assets, and they relate to income taxes levied by the same tax authority on the same taxable entity, or on different tax entities, but they intend to settle current tax liabilities and assets on a net basis or their tax assets and liabilities will be realised simultaneously.

The Company has availed the tax holiday benefits under section 10AA of the Income Tax Act, 1961 and accordingly, its business income to the extent covered by the section is exempt (to the extent of 50% of the profits earned by the SEZ units) from income tax up-to and including the year ending 31 March, 2023. Deferred taxes that are scheduled to reverse during the tax holiday period are not recognised.

K. Segment reporting

Operating segments are reported in a manner consistent with the internal reporting provided to the Chief Operating Decision Maker (CODM) of the Company. The CODM is responsible for allocating resources and assessing performance of the operating segments of the Company. For the disclosure on reportable segments see Note 24.

L. Cash and cash equivalents

Cash and cash equivalents for the purpose of Cash Flow Statement comprise cash on hand, balances with bank and bank deposits having original maturity of less than 3 months.

M. Earnings per share

i) Basic earnings per share

Basic earnings per share is calculated by dividing:
a. the net profit attributable to owners of the Company

- The after income tax effect of interest and other financing costs associated with dilutive potential equity shares, and
- The weighted average number of additional equity shares that would have been outstanding assuming the conversion of all dilutive potential equity shares.

N. Investment in subsidiaries

A subsidiary is an enterprise in which the Company has control. Control is achieved when the Company:

- Has power over the investee;
- Is exposed, or has rights, to variable returns from its involvement with the investee; and
- Has the ability to use its power to affect its returns.

The Company reassesses whether or not it controls an investee if facts and circumstances indicate that there are changes to one or more of the three elements of control listed above.

Investment in subsidiaries is stated at cost less any impairment in net recoverable value that has been recognized in profit or loss.

Ind AS 101 provides an exemption to the first-time adopter to measure an investment in subsidiaries at:

- cost determined in accordance with Ind AS 27, Separate Financial Statements; or
- deemed cost, which shall be its:
 - fair value at the entity's date of transition
 - previous GAAP carrying value at that date

O. Recent pronouncements

Ministry of Corporate Affairs ("MCA") notifies new standard or amendments to the existing standards under Companies (Indian Accounting Standards) Rules as issued from time to time. On 31 March, 2023, MCA amended the Companies (Indian Accounting Standards) Rules, 2015 by issuing the Companies (Indian Accounting Standards) Amendment Rules, 2023, applicable from 01 April, 2023, as below:

Ind AS 1- Presentation of Financial Statements

The amendments require companies to disclose their material accounting policies rather than their significant accounting policies. Accounting policy information, together with other information, is material when it can reasonably be expected to influence decisions of primary users of general purpose financial statements. The Company does not expect this amendment to have any significant impact in its financial statements.

Ind AS 12- Income Taxes

The amendments clarify how companies account for deferred tax on transactions such as leases and decommissioning obligations. The amendments narrowed the scope of the recognition exemption in paragraphs 15 and 24 of Ind AS 12 (recognition exemption) so that it no longer applies to transactions that, on initial recognition, give rise to equal taxable and deductible temporary differences. The Company does not expect this amendment to have any significant impact in its financial statements.

Ind AS 8 - Accounting Policies, Changes in Accounting Estimates and Errors

The amendments will help entities to distinguish between accounting policies and accounting estimates. The definition of a change in accounting estimates has been replaced with a definition of accounting estimates. Under the new definition, accounting estimates are "monetary amounts in financial statements that are subject to measurement uncertainty". Entities develop accounting estimates if accounting policies require items in financial statements to be measured in a way that involves measurement uncertainty. The Company does not expect this amendment to have any significant impact in its financial statements.

12.1 Disclosures relating to defined benefit plan- gratuity

The Company has a defined benefit gratuity plan in India, governed by the Payment of Gratuity Act, 1972. The plan entitles an employee, who has rendered at least five years of continuous service, to gratuity at the rate of fifteen days wages for every completed year of service or part thereof in excess of six months, based on the rate of wages last drawn by the employee concerned. These defined benefit plans expose the Company to actuarial risks, such as longevity risk, interest rate risk and market (investment) risk.

A. Funding

Plan is funded by the Company with LIC. The funding requirements are based on the gratuity fund's actuarial measurement framework set out in the funding policies of the plan. The funding of Plan is based on a separate actuarial valuation for funding purposes for which the assumptions may differ from the assumptions set out in 12.1.7. Employees do not contribute to the plan.

(All amounts are in Indian Rupee millions, other than share data, per share data, and unless otherwise stated)

Discount rate	7.30%	6.40%
Expected rate of salary increase	15.00%	14.50%

Mortality rates	Indian Assured Lives Mortality (2012-14) Ult table
Estimated rate of return on plan assets	7.01%	7.00%

Notes on the principal assumptions:

- The discount rate is based on the prevailing market yields of Indian Government securities as at the balance sheet date for the estimated term of the obligations.
- The estimates of future salary increases, considered in actuarial valuation, take into account inflation, seniority, promotion and other relevant factors, such as supply and demand factors in the employment market.
- The Company provides for gratuity for employees in India as per the Payment of Gratuity Act, 1972. In respect of other employees, gratuity is arrived at based on last drawn basic salary of 15 days for every completed year of service, on completion of 4 years and 240 days of continuous service.

12.1.9 Sensitivity analysis

Particulars	Year ended 31 March, 2023	Year ended 31 March, 2022
Discount rate
- Increase	-2.41%	-2.44%
- Decrease	2.51%	2.56%
Salary escalation rate
- Increase	2.02%	2.01%
- Decrease	-1.98%	-1.96%

Although the analysis does not take account of the full distribution of cash flows expected under the plan, it does provide an approximation of the sensitivity of the assumptions shown.

Notice to the AGM

The Company limits its exposure to credit risk by investing in debt securities and minimum investment being made in equity instruments. The credit worthiness of the counterparties of the investments made are evaluated by the management on an ongoing basis and is considered to be good with low credit risk.

Expected credit loss (ECL) measurement for the trade receivables of the group

The Company's always measures the loss allowance for trade receivables at an amount equal to lifetime expected credit loss (ECL). The Company has used a practical expedient by computing the expected credit loss allowance for trade receivables based on a provision matrix under simplified approach. The provision matrix takes into account historical credit loss experience and adjusted for forward-looking information. The expected credit loss allowance is based on the ageing of the days the receivables are due. Based on internal assessment which is driven by the historical experience and current facts available in relation to pattern of collection thereof, the credit risk for these trade receivables is considered low.

The Company's allocates each exposure to a credit risk grade based on the historic trend of receivables movement between the aging buckets. The loss rates are calculated based on the simple average of the trend in receivable ageing.

Ageing period	Average loss rate
	31-Mar-23	31-Mar-22
Not due	0.02%	0.02%
0-90 days	0.02%	0.03%
90-180 days	0.10%	0.12%

As per management analysis majority of the receivables of the Company either not due or aged between 0-90 days bucket and Contracts assets are all aged less than 30 days. Accordingly, the Company does not carry any provisions as at the year ended 31 March, 2023, and 2022.

(iv) Liquidity risk

Liquidity risk is the risk that the Company will encounter difficulty in meeting the obligations associated with its financial liabilities that are settled by delivering cash or another financial asset. The Company's approach to managing liquidity is to ensure, as far as possible, that it will have sufficient liquidity to meet its liabilities when they are due, under both normal and stressed conditions, without incurring unacceptable losses or risking damage to the Company's reputation.

Cash flow from operating activities provides the funds to service and finance the financial liabilities on a day-to-day basis.

The Company regularly monitors the rolling forecasts to ensure it has sufficient cash on an on-going basis to meet operational needs. Any short term surplus cash generated, over and above the amount required for working capital management and other operational requirements, is retained as cash and cash equivalents (to the extent required) and any excess is invested in interest bearing term deposits and other highly marketable debt investments with appropriate maturities to optimise the cash returns on investments while ensuring sufficient liquidity to meet its liabilities.
