"Q2 FY26 demonstrated the importance of strong and consistent content in driving audience turnout and theatrical momentum," said Rajesh Mishra, Executive Director and Group CEO. "A solid mix of major Hindi releases and steady regional performers helped maintain healthy footfalls and support improving advertising sentiment. We also witnessed a few sleeper hits that exceeded initial expectations, further underscoring the depth and diversity of audience demand. Continued strength in theatrical and content-led revenues, along with steady traction in exhibitor revenue and product sales, contributed to an encouraging performance. With a positive content pipeline, rising audience interest, and continued focus on efficiencies, we remain confident about sustaining this momentum in the coming quarters."
