Akhil Gupta, Chairman, Bharti Infratel Limited, said:

"Telecom sector in India is witnessing a rapidly growing demand for data & high speed internet access. The operators have already invested significant amounts for data spectrum and are likely to increase it further in forthcoming auctions. Encouraged by surging demand for data across the country and to monetize this significant investment, the operators have already stepped up the rollout of the data networks. We expect this to further accelerate in the ensuing years. We continue to be the preferred infrastructure partners for telecom operators in India and are fully geared to serve their rapidly increasing requirements of rollout."
