Commenting on the results, Mr. Vikas Oberoi, Chairman & Managing Director, Oberoi Realty Limited said, “Major policy and process changes along with the government’s Ease-of-Doing-Business initiative and focus on fast-tracking of the approval process, have brought in fresh optimism to the markets and have been major enablers for the sector. The long pending clearance of GST coupled with an excellent monsoon this year will bring a positive outlook for the entire Indian economy. Our existing developments will gain additional connectivity with the construction of further Metro lines across the western and the central corridor. With these encouraging propositions and a healthy project pipeline across key locations in Mumbai, we will continue to focus on creating value for our customers and other stakeholders in the future.”
