REPORT OF THE DIRECTORS

(Including Management Discussion and Analysis)

The Board of Directors has pleasure in presenting the 33rd Annual Report together with the Audited Financial Statements for the year ended 31st March 2015. The Management Discussion & Analysis Report has been included in the Directors Report so as to avoid duplication and repetition.

ECONOMIC OVERVIEW

The Indian economy has been experiencing slow revival with gradual pick-up in domestic demand after continued slowdown for last three years. Undoubtedly, both Indian & Global economy appear to be in a better shape now than by gone years. Growth projection for India in coming year remains positive, mainly due to the new Government at helm and its various growth oriented programmes being planned towards boosting the demand.

During the year, the Indian industry achieved a moderate growth of around 6% helped by positive expansion in manufacturing which witnessed similar growth in last few quarters although there is still some amount of reluctance and caution when it comes to capital investments for expansions and new projects. Negative sentiments that were affecting the Domestic consumer demand is now tapering. The performance of basic goods, intermediate goods and consumer durables has also improved mildly in last few quarters. Improved coal production and higher electricity generation during the year has helped raise the overall output for mining, cement, fertilizer, agriculture and other core industries. The automobile sector, except the commercial vehicle segment, closed the year on a positive note despite interest costs with major companies reporting sales growth during the fiscal. While other industry segments such as Cutting Tools, Engineering, Ceramics, Glass, Refractories have achieved moderate growth over the previous year, segments like Steel have continued to be affected due to prolonged slowdown and weak global demand. India's export continued to be positive in major export markets such as US and European countries excepting the OPEC economies which are facing Oil crisis for some time now.

The improvement in industrial output in last two quarters has signalled positive trend and has an overall favourable effect on the GDP. Although the CPI inflation is experiencing sharp rise mainly driven by higher food inflation, the edging down of core inflation has more than offset the same which has resulted in a comfortable headline inflation of around 6% - much lower than 9.5% in 2013-14.

MANAGEMENT DISCUSSION AND ANALYSIS REPORT

In the sections that follow, the information required to be given in the Management Discussion and Analysis Report have been provided

GENERAL PERFORMANCE REVIEW

After three consecutive years of down turn and global disarray marked by muted growth, the Indian economy is finally seeing some signals of gradual pick up in the activities and positive growth trend. Although the pace of recovery has been slow, there seems to be some optimism backed by positive sentiments across all segments. Thanks to the new government and its announcements of various pro-growth programmes and fiscal measures since it came into power with absolute majority one year back. As a consequence, the Indian economy could achieve a moderate growth rate of around 5.9%, highest growth in the last four years. Backed by revival in the economy in some of the developed countries such as US, slow rise in demand in the domestic market and inflation being in comfortable zone as well as expansion of manufacturing activities, all this supplement the positivity thereby boosting demand. This has resulted in better performance of industry segments like Automobile, Auto Component, Engineering, Ceramics, Refractory and Cutting Tools compared to previous year although sectors like Steel, Construction, and Infrastructure etc are yet to return to positive zone.

As mentioned in earlier section, your company's domestic business achieved a growth of 11% and the export has achieved a growth of 14% compared to the previous year with an overall 12% growth for the year on overall basis. In the domestic business, the Super abrasives products sales to industry segments like Automotive, Cutting Tools, Engineering, Ceramics, Refractories and Glass has achieved better performance over the previous year, sales to Steel and Machine tools has been lower with few project orders. During the year, your company continued to put its best efforts and new initiatives for new developments of products and applications besides working closely with customers to explore new opportunities for its products which could serve as import substitutions.

For the Machine Tools & Precision Components, on the other hand, the performance level was 18% higher than last year mainly on account higher volume offtake of precision components and improved order inflow for machines during the second half of the year which as a whole helped to company to achieve the above respectable growth compared to previous year. As you may be aware, for most of the year, the customers continued their reluctance towards new capacity additions, expansions and fresh capital investments resulting in fewer machine orders from Engineering, Refractory, Steel and Automobile customers.

ECONOMIC OUTLOOK

The Indian economy is expected to achieve a growth rate around 6.5% in the coming year and according to the latest predictions by IMF, India growth rate will overtake China in next two years. Your Company heavily leverages on its long experience in the industry with its comprehensive product range catering into every industry and its superior technology for manufacturing Super abrasive tooling and The Precision Grinding/Honing machines. Extension of this advantage to Precision component manufacturing in last few years has only been a natural choice for your company which has been turned out to be sizeable business for your company. It would strive to utilize the maximum and derive benefits from being the provider of Total Grinding & Honing Solution by extending its offerings "from Tools-To- Machines- To- Components".

The spirit of Innovation lies behind every action at your company. This has been gaining momentum as a process for development of new products and processes. It would continue to work on this pursuit for adding more number of innovative products to the existing basket.

Threats

As you may be aware, the Domestic Super abrasive tooling market is marked by the presence of few organized players such as your company and many unorganized players. Due to the polarized nature of the market structure where there are unorganized players in one end who are small time proprietary-driven companies often with strong regional focus and on the other end, there are organized players. The small companies, by virtue of their size and operations, continue to cater to a small section of customers and industries with a limited range of products. Focus on specific regions and addressing customer requirements with lower prices has been one of their forte. The few large organized players from both domestic and global arena focus on technology and application engineering. Almost always, the global players rely on OEM Tie-ups with established Grinding / Honing machine manufacturers, thus making use of their long established parental backgrounds right from the beginning stages, offering combination of methods involving performance, cost and technology, service lock-ins and warranty clauses.

In order to address this divergence, your company continues to adopt its unique approach to improve the market presence and market share and reach both segments. While the low cost and innovative products are offered to address the low end competition, for the high end segment, it focuses on developing import substitutes based on approaches like price-to-performance measures and value addition backed by regional technical supports, hand-holding and use of customer facing technology like CRM and customer education etc.

The competitive advantage for your company is derived from continuous efforts in application development and market development. This is well complemented by Product and Process innovation where it brings new developments for the customers including import substitutions in order to stay ahead of competition and create entry barrier. Your company makes all attempts to constantly harness the knowledge base and competency levels of the people in the respective product verticals.

Besides this, your company would continue its endeavor of strengthening its presence especially in the overseas market. In order to enhance the awareness levels, brand recall and improve customer engagement levels, your company will continue its active

Your 100% owned subsidiary in Thailand, Wendt Grinding Technologies Ltd, continues to churn out superior results year on year despite the region being repeatedly affected by global slowdown, declined demand and shifting of manufacturing base by many Japanese companies as also labor and political disturbances. The subsidiary shows enough confidence and resolve for a better performance in the coming year too. Your company's subsidiary will continue to embark on new opportunities, addition of new industry segments and markets with improved service levels, while increasing its product basket.

Your Company's second fully owned subsidiary, Wendt Middle East FZE, Sharjah has been delivering consistently better performances over last three years. NOTES FORMING PART OF THE FINANCIAL STATEMENTS with the following additional policies:

- Revenue and expenses are identified to segments on the basis of their relationship to the operating activities of the segment. Revenue and expenses, which relate to the enterprise as a whole and not allocable to segments on a reasonable basis are included under "Other un-allocable Expenditure net of un-allocable income".

11 EARNINGS / (LOSS) PER SHARE:

The basic earnings/ (loss) per share is computed by dividing the net profit attributable to equity shareholders for the year by the weighted average number of equity shares outstanding during the year. The number of shares used in computing diluted earnings per share comprises the weighted average shares considered for deriving basic earnings per share, and also the weighted average number of equity shares that could have been issued on the conversion of all dilutive potential equity shares.

12 TAXES ON INCOME :

Current tax is the amount of tax payable on the taxable income for the year as determined in accordance with the applicable tax rates and the provisions of the Income Tax Act, 1961 and other applicable tax laws.

Minimum Alternate Tax (MAT) paid in accordance with the tax laws, which gives future economic benefits in the form of adjustment to future income tax liability, is considered as an asset if there is convincing evidence that the Company will pay normal income tax. Accordingly, MAT is recognised as an asset in the Balance Sheet when it is highly probable that future economic benefit associated with it will flow to the Company.

Deferred tax is recognised on timing differences, being the differences between the taxable income and the accounting income that originate in one period and are capable of reversal in one or more subsequent periods. Deferred tax is measured using the tax rates and the tax laws enacted or substantively enacted as at the reporting date. Deferred tax liabilities are recognised for all timing differences. Deferred tax assets are recognised for timing differences of items other than unabsorbed depreciation and carry forward losses only to the extent that reasonable certainty exists that sufficient future taxable income will be available against which these can be realised. However, if there are unabsorbed depreciation and carry forward of losses and items relating to capital losses, deferred tax assets are recognised only if there is virtual certainty supported by convincing evidence that there will be sufficient future taxable income available to realise the assets. Deferred tax assets and liabilities are offset if such items relate to taxes on income levied by the same governing tax laws and the Company has a legally enforceable right for such set off. Deferred tax assets are reviewed at each balance sheet date for their realisability.

13 RESEARCH AND DEVELOPMENT:

Revenue expenditure pertaining to research is charged to the Statement of Profit and Loss. Development costs of products are also charged to the Statement of Profit and Loss unless a product's technical feasibility has been established, in which case such expenditure is capitalised. The amount capitalised comprises expenditure that can be directly attributed or allocated on a reasonable and consistent basis to creating, producing and making the asset ready for its intended use. Fixed assets utilised for research and development are capitalised and depreciated in accordance with the policies stated for Fixed Assets.

14 IMPAIRMENT OF ASSETS:

The carrying values of assets / cash generating units at each balance sheet date are reviewed for impairment if any indication of impairment exists. The intangible assets are tested for impairment each financial year even if there is no indication that the asset is impaired.

If the carrying amount of the assets exceed the estimated recoverable amount, an impairment is recognised for such excess amount. The impairment loss is recognised as an expense in the Statement of Profit and Loss, unless the asset is carried at revalued amount, in which case any impairment loss of the revalued asset is treated as a revaluation decrease to the extent a revaluation reserve is available for that asset.

The recoverable amount is the greater of the net selling price and their value in use. Value in use is arrived at by discounting the future cash flows to their present value based on an appropriate discount factor.

When there is indication that an impairment loss recognised for an asset (other than a revalued asset) in earlier accounting periods no longer exists or may have decreased, such reversal of impairment loss is recognised in the Statement of Profit and Loss, to the extent the amount was previously charged to the Statement of Profit and Loss. In case of revalued assets such reversal is not recognised.

15 PROVISIONS AND CONTINGENCIES:

A provision is recognized when an enterprise has a present obligation as a result of past event, that can be estimated reliably and it is probable that an outflow of resources will be required to settle the obligation in respect of which a reliable estimate can be made. Provisions are not discounted to its present value and are determined based on best estimate required to settle the obligation at the balance sheet date.

These are reviewed at each balance sheet date and adjusted to reflect the current best estimates. When no reliable estimate can be made, a disclosure is made as contingent liability and is disclosed by way of notes. Contingent assets are not recognised in the financial statements.

16 OPERATING CYCLE:

All assets and liabilities are classified as current or non-current as per the Company's normal operating cycle and other criteria set out in the Schedule III to the Companies Act, 2013. Normal operating cycle is based on the time between the acquisition of assets for processing and their realisation into cash and cash equivalents.

Those Standards require that we comply with ethical requirements and plan and perform the audit to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the consolidated financial statements are free from material misstatement.

An audit involves performing procedures to obtain audit evidence about the amounts and the disclosures in the consolidated financial statements. The procedures selected depend on the auditor's judgement, including the assessment of the risks of material misstatement of the consolidated financial statements, whether due to fraud or error. In making those risk assessments, the auditor considers internal control relevant to the Company's preparation and presentation of the consolidated financial statements that give a true and fair view in order to design audit procedures that are appropriate in the circumstances, but not for the purpose of expressing an opinion on the effectiveness of the Company's internal control. An audit also includes evaluating the appropriateness of the accounting policies used and the reasonableness of the accounting estimates made by the Management, as well as evaluating the overall presentation of the consolidated financial statements.

We believe that the audit evidence we have obtained is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our audit opinion.

The financial statements of the Company have been prepared in accordance with the Generally Accepted Accounting Principles in India (Indian GAAP) to comply with the Accounting Standards specified under Section 133 of the Companies Act, 2013, read with Rule 7 of the Companies (Accounts) Rules, 2014 and the relevant provisions of the Companies Act, 2013 ("the 2013 Act") / the Companies Act, 1956 ("the 1956 Act"), as applicable. 3 USE OF ESTIMATES

The preparation of the financial statements in conformity with Indian GAAP requires the Management to make estimates and assumptions considered in the reported amounts of assets and liabilities (including contingent liabilities) and the reported income and expenses during the year. The Management believes that the estimates used in preparation of the financial statements are prudent and reasonable. Future results could differ due to these estimates and the differences between the actual results and the estimates are recognised in the periods in which the results are known / materialise.

5 CASH FLOW STATEMENT:

The cash flows from operating, investing and financing activities of the Company are segregated based on the available information. Machinery spares which can be used only in connection with an item of fixed asset and whose use is expected to be irregular are capitalised and depreciated over the useful life of the principal item of the relevant assets. Subsequent expenditure on fixed assets after its purchase / completion is capitalised only if such expenditure results in an increase in the future benefits from such asset beyond its previously assessed standard of performance.

Fixed assets acquired and put to use for project purpose are capitalised and depreciation thereon is included in the project cost till the project is ready for its intended use. Individual assets costing less than Rs.5,000 each are depreciated in full in the year of acquisition.

Fixed assets acquired in full or part exchange for another asset are recorded at the fair market value or the net book value of the asset given up, adjusted for any balancing cash consideration. Fair market value is determined either for the assets acquired or asset given up, whichever is more clearly evident. Fixed assets acquired in exchange for securities of the Company are recorded at the fair market value of the assets or the fair market value of the securities issued, whichever is more clearly evident.

Fixed assets retired from active use and held for sale are stated at the lower of their net book value and net realisable value and are disclosed separately.

NOTES FORMING PART OF THE CONSOLIDATED FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

(Rs. in lacs)

Revenue and expenses, which relate to the enterprise as a whole and not allocable to segments on a reasonable basis are included under "Other un-allocable Expenditure net of un-allocable income".

12 EARNINGS / (LOSS) PER SHARE:

The basic earnings/ (loss) per share is computed by dividing the net profit attributable to equity shareholders for the year by the weighted average number of equity shares outstanding during the year. The number of shares used in computing diluted earnings per share comprises the weighted average shares considered for deriving basic earnings per share, and also the weighted average number of equity shares that could have been issued on the conversion of all dilutive potential equity shares.

13 TAXES ON INCOME :

Current tax is determined on the basis of taxable income and tax credits, where applicable, computed for each of the entities in the Group in accordance with the provisions of applicable tax laws of the respective jurisdictions where the entities are located.

Income tax comprises the current tax provision and the net change in the deferred tax asset or liability during the year. Deferred tax assets and liabilities are recognized for the future tax consequences of timing differences between the carrying values of the assets and liabilities and their respective tax bases. Deferred tax assets are recognized subject to management's judgment that realization is more likely than not. Deferred tax assets and liabilities are measured using enacted tax rates or substantively enacted tax rates expected to apply to taxable income in the years in which the timing differences are expected to be received or settled.

Minimum Alternate Tax (MAT) paid in accordance with the tax laws, which gives future economic benefits in the form of adjustment to future income tax liability, is considered as an asset if there is convincing evidence that the Company will pay normal income tax. Accordingly, MAT is recognised as an asset in the Balance Sheet when it is highly probable that future economic benefit associated with it will flow to the Company.

Deferred tax is recognised on timing differences, being the differences between the taxable income and the accounting income that originate in one period and are capable of reversal in one or more subsequent periods. Deferred tax is measured using the tax rates and the tax laws enacted or substantively enacted as at the reporting date. Deferred tax liabilities are recognised for all timing differences. Deferred tax assets are recognised for timing differences of items other than unabsorbed depreciation and carry forward losses only to the extent that reasonable certainty exists that sufficient future taxable income will be available against which these can be realised. However, if there are unabsorbed depreciation and carry forward of losses and items relating to capital losses, deferred tax assets are recognised only if there is virtual certainty supported by convincing evidence that there will be sufficient future taxable income available to realise the assets. Deferred tax assets and liabilities are offset if such items relate to taxes on income levied by the same governing tax laws and the Company has a legally enforceable right for such set off. Deferred tax assets are reviewed at each balance sheet date for their realisability.

14 RESEARCH AND DEVELOPMENT:

Revenue expenditure pertaining to research is charged to the Statement of Profit and Loss. Development costs of products are also charged to the Statement of Profit and Loss unless a product's technical feasibility has been established, in which case such expenditure is capitalised. The amount capitalised comprises expenditure that can be directly attributed or allocated on a reasonable and consistent basis to creating, producing and making the asset ready for its intended use. Fixed assets utilised for research and development are capitalised and depreciated in accordance with the policies stated for Fixed Assets.

NOTES FORMING PART OF THE CONSOLIDATED FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

(Rs. in lacs)

15 IMPAIRMENT OF ASSETS:

The carrying values of assets / cash generating units at each balance sheet date are reviewed for impairment if any indication of impairment exists. The intangible assets are tested for impairment each financial year even if there is no indication that the asset is impaired:

If the carrying amount of the assets exceed the estimated recoverable amount, an impairment is recognised for such excess amount. The impairment loss is recognised as an expense in the Statement of Profit and Loss, unless the asset is carried at revalued amount, in which case any impairment loss of the revalued asset is treated as a revaluation decrease to the extent a revaluation reserve is available for that asset.

The recoverable amount is the greater of the net selling price and their value in use. Value in use is arrived at by discounting the future cash flows to their present value based on an appropriate discount factor.

When there is indication that an impairment loss recognised for an asset (other than a revalued asset) in earlier accounting periods no longer exists or may have decreased, such reversal of impairment loss is recognised in the Statement of Profit and Loss, to the extent the amount was previously charged to the Statement of Profit and Loss. In case of revalued assets such reversal is not recognised.

16 PROVISIONS AND CONTINGENCIES:

A provision is recognized when the Group has a present obligation as a result of past event, that can be estimated reliably and it is probable that an outflow of resources will be required to settle the obligation in respect of which a reliable estimate can be made. Provisions are not discounted to its present value and are determined based on best estimate required to settle the obligation at the balance sheet date.

These are reviewed at each balance sheet date and adjusted to reflect the current best estimates. When no reliable estimate can be made, a disclosure is made as contingent liability and is disclosed by way of notes. Contingent assets are not recognised in the financial statements.

17 OPERATING CYCLE:

All assets and liabilities are classified as current or non-current as per the Group's normal operating cycle and other criteria set out in the Schedule III to the Companies Act, 2013. Normal operating cycle is based on the time between the acquisition of assets for processing and their realisation into cash and cash equivalents.
