MANAGEMENT DISCUSSION AND ANALYSIS REPORT

1. GLOBAL ECONOMY

In FY 2024–25, the global economy continued to face significant headwinds, shaped by persistent inflationary pressures, escalating geopolitical tensions, and ongoing disruptions across global trade and supply chains. While some stability was provided by the sustained efforts of central banks to control inflation and the resilient performance of key emerging markets, the broader economic outlook has softened. Heightened policy uncertainty and slowing demand in advanced economies have further contributed to a more cautious global growth environment. According to the latest World Economic Outlook released by the International Monetary Fund (IMF), global economic growth has been revised downward to 2.8% for 2025 and 3.0% for 2026, a decrease from the earlier projection of 3.3% for both years. The IMF has also downgraded growth forecasts for most advanced economies, citing slowing investment, tighter financial conditions, and weak consumer demand. India, while also facing a marginal downgrade—from 6.5% to 6.2% in 2025—continues to lead as the fastest-growing large economy globally, supported by domestic demand, infrastructure investment, and favorable demographic dynamics. Medium-term risks to the baseline are tilted to the downside, while the near-term outlook is characterized by divergent risks. Upside risks could lift already-robust growth in the United States in the short run, whereas risks in other countries are on the downside amid elevated policy uncertainty. Policy-generated disruptions to the ongoing disinflation process could interrupt the pivot to easing monetary policy, with implications for fiscal sustainability and financial stability. Managing these risks requires a keen policy focus on balancing trade-offs between inflation and real activity, rebuilding buffers, and lifting medium-term growth prospects through stepped-up structural reforms as well as stronger multilateral rules and cooperation.

India remains the fastest-growing major economy, with projected GDP growth in the 6–6.5% range through FY/ 2025–26 and beyond. The 6.2% forecast for 2025–26 reflects global headwinds such as trade tensions and uncertain external demand. Nonetheless, strong domestic consumption, structural support a resilient growth trajectory. Furthermore, India's economic policy framework remains relatively insulated from external volatility due to a well-diversified economic structure, improving logistics and digital infrastructure, and growing emphasis on self-reliance ("Atmanirbhar Bharat"). These factors collectively help offset the impact of global trade tensions and monetary tightening in advanced economies.

World Economic Outlook Update, January 2025: Global Growth: Divergent and Uncertain

India remains the fastest-growing large economy and IMF projections show that it could overtake Japan's this year to become the fourth largest in the world, at about USD 4.2 trillion. While risks persist—such as oil price volatility, monsoon variability, and global financial market instability—India's medium-term growth prospects remain resilient, underpinned by a favorable demographic dividend and sustained public and private investment. India's economy is likely to grow by 6.7 per cent in the current fiscal year that started in April and can realistically achieve 7-8 per cent expansion over the next decade and a half, having moved past a string of global crises in the recent years.

The Indian economy had grown at 6.5 per cent in 2024-25 (April 2024 to March 2025), down from 9.2 per cent in the previous year. However, there has been an uptick fueled by construction and manufacturing growth since the March quarter when the GDP growth at 7.4 per cent was faster than expected. This spending to spur consumption.

While the Asian Development Bank pins FY26 growth at 6.7 per cent, the World Bank forecasts 6.3 per cent. It is said that despite a series of global shocks in recent years, from the COVID-19 pandemic to geopolitical disruptions, India's economy remains resilient and positioned for robust growth.

It is believed that GDP will grow at 6.7 per cent for FY26, the strong performance rooted in services, rising mid-market investment, and improving agricultural productivity. While factors like trade can have an impact, but it would be limited to a short-term horizons, till such time deals are concluded.

The economy can rev up to 7-8 per cent over the next 10-15 years, India's predominantly service-driven economy remains largely unaffected by global trade challenges. While India is home to more than 50 per cent of the world's global capability centres (or GCCs), close to 67 per cent of the Fortune 2000 companies do not have operations in India yet.

It is believed that India's Global Capability Centres are no longer peripheral support arms, but at the front and centre of global enterprise innovation, positioning the market as 'front office of the World'. India currently hosts nearly 1,800 GCCs, a number that can scale to 3,400-5,000 centres over the next few years, with the right policy environment, ecosystem support, and co-ordinated action. "Just step back and look at it, India's or every country has gone through some serious crisis in the last 5-6 years.

From COVID to trade to wars to all kinds of things. But India still remains at 6.5-6.6 growth. So, that is a clear indicator that India still has a lot of space to grow. The per capita income is at less than USD 2,800 but as it approaches USD 4,000, the consumption actually doubles, not merely rising by a third, signaling a disproportionately higher expansion. Meanwhile, sectors like manufacturing, semiconductors are slowly gaining traction, and agriculture productivity is looking up following good monsoon.

India's STEM-skilled workforce is beyond tier-2 cities and the talent is "astonishing". We still have more STEM skills than anybody else in the world. And what we see is not just the tier one cities, tier two cities...We now see tier three cities. Some of the talent coming in is astonishing...in that sense, weathering all these crisis, COVID crisis...So my views is we probably can still grow at 7-8 per cent over the next 10-15 years, adding this would be contingent on measures including boosting ease of doing business. The growth next year could be similar. "By FY30, We think we can actually push it up.

2. INDIAN REAL ESTATE MARKET ANALYSIS

The Indian real estate market is projected to experience robust growth driven by factors like rapid urbanization, increasing disposable incomes, and rising demand for residential and commercial properties. The real estate industry in India is Segmented by property type, including residential, commercial, industrial, and land, the market is further divided into sales and rental operations, operating through both online and offline modes to cater to diverse consumer preferences and enhance accessibility. Regional segmentation illustrates varied growth dynamics across different areas, emphasizing localized market conditions and opportunities. Key government initiatives, such as investments in smart city projects and tax exemptions, alongside environmental and regulatory concerns, shape sustainable practices within the sector. The burgeoning population fuels the demand for infrastructure, significantly impacting the real estate market size in India and driving the trend towards smart, sustainable projects. The competitive landscape remains dynamic, with continuous innovation aimed at meeting evolving market needs. The real estate sector includes various phases of property dealings, including developing, selling, buying, leasing, and management processes in the commercial sector, residential sector, etc.

The In India, the real estate sector is the second-highest employment generator, after the agriculture sector. It is also expected that this sector will incur more non-resident Indian (NRI) investment, both in the short term and the long term. Bengaluru is expected to be the most favoured property investment destination for NRIs, followed by Ahmedabad, Pune, Chennai, Goa, Delhi, and Dehradun. Retail, hospitality, and commercial real estate are also growing significantly, providing the much-needed infrastructure for India's growing needs.

As the Indian real estate sector enters FY2025 - 26, a new wave of disruptions and directional shifts is reshaping the landscape. Rapid expansion of the middle class, evolving consumer aspirations, and strong economic fundamentals are driving this transformation, further accelerated by technology adoption, changing urbanization patterns, ESG imperatives and regulatory reforms. This evolving landscape is reshaping investor strategies and end-user preferences. Investors are pivoting towards future-ready, high-quality assets across diversified geographies, while end users are demanding smarter, more sustainable, and lifestyle driven spaces. This shift is redefining real estate value creation for the next growth cycle.

In 2025-26, the future of real estate will be designed by technology, sustainability and a rising India. Trends that are defining the industry's current landscape and future trajectory.

- Rise of low-density housing: The Indian real estate market is shifting towards low-density formats like villas, townhouses, and plotted developments. Homebuyers increasingly seek sustainable living options that offer isolation and harmony with nature, distancing themselves from urban noise and pollution. Developers are responding to this trend with open space-focused projects, while HNIs and ultra-HNIs are also showing a strong preference for premium, low-density projects.

- Technology integration: Technological integration is transforming the Indian real estate sector through AI and blockchain. It is also streamlining processes such as property transactions, legal verifications, and market analysis. Smart home features integrated with IoT are now standard, boosting energy efficiency and convenience. Digital tools are revolutionising how properties are bought, sold, experienced, and managed, enhancing transparency and user engagement.
- Increased preference for homeownership: Homeownership gained traction, supported by government incentives and hybrid work trends. The demand for larger homes in suburban and Tier 2 cities rose sharply. Changing demographics, a growing middle class and younger population entering the workforce have further fuelled demand. Emotional factors, such as the desire for asset creation and intergenerational wealth factors, further reinforced the cultural and economic shift towards owning homes.
- Opportunities in REIT space: The REIT market in India now represents over 9% of the total office stock across the top eight cities, underpinned by substantial institutional investment. Key drivers of the REIT growth include rapid urbanisation, expanding infrastructure, supportive regulatory frameworks, and investor-friendly policies such as lower minimum investment thresholds and the introduction of fractional ownership through SM REITs. Rising awareness among retail investors and new avenues for participation are further strengthening liquidity and expanding the potential of this emerging segment.
- Emergence of rental housing and co-living: Flexible living models are gaining ground, especially among younger professionals and migrant populations in urban centers. Co-living spaces and organised rental housing are expanding, driven by affordability pressures, lifestyle flexibility, and supportive policy frameworks like the Model Tenancy Act.
- ESG and green real estate mainstreaming: Sustainability imperatives are now central to real estate development. Institutional investors increasingly prefer ESG-compliant projects, while end users prioritise wellness, energy efficiency, and green certifications. Developers are embedding sustainable design and smart infrastructure as integral parts of new project offerings.

5. GOVERNMENT INITIATIVES

Nirmala Sitharaman, the finance minister, delivered the Indian Union Budget 2025-26 on 1st Feb 2025. The budget placed a lot of emphasis on many industries, particularly real estate, which has a big influence on the Indian economy. The infrastructure sector continues to be crucial to India's economic development, playing a pivotal role in driving GDP growth, thereby, fostering regional development and enabling job creation. Recognised as a key catalyst for national progress, the sector has witnessed sustained focus from the Government of India via heightened policy support, higher public expenditure and active facilitation of private sector participation. In the Union Budget for financial year 2025-26, the government allocated 11.21 lakh crore towards capital expenditure, marking a continued commitment following the previous year's allocation of 11.11 lakh crore. This strategic investment is aimed at enhancing India's physical infrastructure across segments such as power, roads, bridges, urban infrastructure and water resources. The following are some significant real estate-related announcements:

The key highlights in respect of real estate sector are:

- Increase in Annual limit for TDS on Rent
- Allocation of Rs. 1lakh crore for Urban Challenge Fund
- National Framework for Global Capabilities Centers (GCC)
- Support for State Infrastructure Development
- Tax relief for Residential Property Investor
- Special Window for affordable and Mid-Income Housing Fund-2.0
- Zero Tax on Income of Upto Rs.12 lakh
- Revised Capital Gains tax framework for units of REITs
- TDS on transfer of immovable property
- Rental income from letting out of residential house property to be taxed under 'Income from House Property'.

Tax Reforms and Relief for Buyers and Developers<sup>1</sup>:

- Income Tax Changes: The budget increased the income tax exemption limit to 12 lakh for the new tax regime, which will boost disposable income, especially for the middle class. This could lead to increased demand for residential properties as more people may afford to buy homes or invest in real estate.

ADHBHUT INFRASTRUCTURE LIMITED

CIN: L51503HR1985PLC121303

Registered address: Begampur Khatola, Khandsa, Near Krishna Maruti, Arjun Nagar, Gurgaon, Haryana, India, 122001

- TDS (Tax Deducted at Source) Threshold: The TDS limit on rental income was raised from 2.4 lakh to 6 lakh. This simplifies tax processes for landlords and tenants and can encourage more rental transactions. The change will be particularly beneficial for residential landlords with smaller properties, making the rental market more active.
- Amend Affordable Housing Standards: The government has continued its focus on affordable housing with tax breaks and incentives for developers in this segment. This is expected to stimulate the construction of homes in the lower-income category and align with the Pradhan Mantri Awas Yojana (PMAY) objectives. First-time homebuyers can also benefit from interest rate subsidies and tax benefits. The existing definitions of affordable housing, determined by dimensions, cost, and purchaser income, need immediate re-evaluation. The size requirement of 60 sq. m. for carpet space is justifiable; nevertheless, the price limit of INR 45 lakh is impractical in high-cost urban centres such as Mumbai. The cap ought to be raised to a minimum of INR 85 lakh in Mumbai and INR 60-65 lakh in other metropolitan cities to align with local market conditions. These amendments would allow a greater number
- Reinstate the Credit-Linked Subsidy Scheme under the Pradhan Mantri Awas Yojana (PMAY).

This scheme for EWS/LIG households, which lapsed in 2022, ought to be revived to encourage first-time purchasers of budget homes. It would also encompass loans for new construction or the addition of critical amenities such as kitchens and bathrooms to existing residences. Under PMAY (Rural), subsidies may facilitate the transformation of 'kaccha' dwellings into 'pucca' residences, contingent upon meeting.
- Infrastructure Investments:
- Urban Infrastructure Fund: Rs.1 lakh crore Urban Challenge Fund aims to enhance urban infrastructure, including public transport systems, roads, and utilities. This infrastructure boost will make certain urban areas more attractive for both residential and commercial investments. Cities with improved infrastructure tend to see a rise in property demand, which benefits developers and investors.
- Smart City Projects: The focus on smart cities under the budget will create better urban spaces with advanced technologies for living and working. This will drive demand for modern homes and commercial spaces, particularly in emerging cities or urban hubs.
- Focus on Sustainability and Green Building: The budget emphasizes eco-friendly construction and sustainable housing, with developers encouraged to adopt green building practices. Tax incentives for using renewable energy and water-saving technologies will make green buildings more attractive to investors and homebuyers. As sustainability becomes a greater priority, there could be an uptick in demand for environmentally conscious properties.
- Increased Focus on Tier-2 and Tier-3 Cities: The budget's emphasis on smart city projects and infrastructure development will likely drive growth in smaller cities (Tier-2 and Tier-3). As these cities become more connected and develop better infrastructure, demand for residential and commercial properties in these regions will rise. This could help ease the pressure on over-saturated metro markets, offering more affordable housing options and opportunities for developers.
- Commercial Real Estate Growth: The government's plans for urbanization and infrastructure upgrades are likely to benefit commercial real estate. Office spaces, especially those designed to be flexible and tech-friendly, could see increased demand from companies and startups. Developers may focus on building business parks, office buildings, and co-working spaces in cities that are experiencing infrastructure upgrades. Additionally, with improved public infrastructure, logistics and warehousing will likely expand, benefiting the commercial segment further.

Lastly, The Union Budget 2025 has a mix of measures that are likely to stimulate demand, boost infrastructure development, and attract investment in the Indian real estate sector. The focus on affordable housing, tax relief for both buyers and developers, sustainability in construction, and improved urban infrastructure is expected to drive growth in both residential and commercial markets. As the sector continues to benefit from these policies, real estate is poised to remain a critical asset class in India's economic growth story. One of the biggest game changing policy implementation was the introduction of the Real Estate (Regulation and Development) Act (RERA)) which has put a semblance of order in the real estate sector by boosting investor confidence and streamlining the builder response by framing their responsibilities and duties.

Commercial real estate continues to attract institutional capital, and smaller cities are emerging as growth engines. That said, potential oversupply in certain zones and weakening luxury demand remain key risks. Here are some of the key investments and developments:-

Investors can benefit from the potential returns from the Indian real estate market through REITs.

✓ Challenges

- a) Regulatory Environment: India's real estate industry has historically been characterized by a lack of transparency and weak regulations. This has led to fraudulent practices such as delayed project completion, misappropriation of funds, and conflicts between developers and buyers.
- b) Land Acquisition: Land acquisition is a major challenge for real estate development in India. The process is complicated, time-consuming, and often leads to disputes between developers, landowners, and government authorities.
- c) Financing: Access to financing is another major challenge for real estate developers in India. Banks are often hesitant to lend to the industry due to high levels of default risk, and interest rates can be prohibitively high.
- d) Construction Delays: Delays in project completion are a common problem in the Indian real estate industry. This can be due to a variety of factors, including delays in obtaining approvals, shortage of skilled labour, and supply chain disruptions.
- e) High Inventory Levels: Oversupply of properties in some markets has led to a build up of inventory, which has resulted in lower prices and lower demand.
- f) Lack of Professionalism: The Indian real estate industry is often criticized for a lack of professionalism, with developers often failing to deliver on promises and providing poor customer service.
- g) Lack of Infrastructure: Lack of infrastructure, including roads, water, and electricity, is a major challenge for real estate developers in many parts of India. This can make it difficult to attract buyers and tenants.
- h) Signs of Over Supply & Bubble Risks in Cities: India's real estate market in 2025 is exhibiting signs of oversupply and potential bubble risks, particularly in major cities like Bengaluru, Delhi NCR, and Mumbai. Developers have aggressively launched new projects, but demand is not keeping pace.
- i) Luxury Segment Pressure: The luxury housing market in India remains buoyed by wealthy segment demand, but rising unsold inventory and a shift toward cautious investor sentiment signal growing pressure in the segment. Oversupply amid cooling demand could temper near term returns and slow sales velocity despite earlier market exuberance.

From the cold war period, maximum developing countries are feeling the threat of global polarization. Although, the threats are not visible but there is an undercurrent of uncertainty looming around real estate. The change of leadership affects heavily on the taxation system which has direct link to real estate sector. When the throne gets shifted to another leader, the economic environment gets influenced. Sometime, the new leadership may halt the taxation reforms inducted by his previous leader. Tread war between countries are also another bigger threat to the real estate companies.

➤ Interest rate

When interest rates rise, it has firm impact on residential real estate markets. This rise will reduce the demand of new home among the customers and in this way; the real estate industry goes dry. The prices of the homes get elevated and in this way, they won't be affordable as before. The growth of interest rate will reduce the demand of homes among potential customers.

➤ Economy and housing affordability

When the economy goes down, the affordability of the home goes up. In this way, the budget of the home gets increased which has a direct negative impact on the customer purchase power. Once, the affordability of the homes gets reduced; customers will feel the heat and they will halt their plan to purchase new homes.

➤ Change of demography

Change of demography also impacts negatively on the real estate market. When the demands of homes get increased for certain demographic division, the prices get automatically elevated. On the other hand, if the demands get decreased, the prices get decreased too.

➤ Loss of middle class society

At the present time, in developing countries, there is a huge drop of middle class society. Needless to mention, this class is known as the potential consumer of real estate market.

to Board's Report, Business Responsibility Report, Corporate Governance and Shareholder's Information, but does not include the standalone financial statements and our auditor's report thereon.

Our opinion on the standalone financial statements does not cover the other information and we do not express any form of assurance conclusion thereon.

Management's responsibilities for the standalone financial statements

9. The Company's Board of Directors is responsible for the matters stated in section 134(5) of the Act with respect to the preparation of these standalone financial statements that give a true and fair view of the financial position, financial performance, including other comprehensive income, changes in equity and cash flows of the Company in accordance with the Ind AS and other accounting principles generally accepted in India. This responsibility also includes maintenance of adequate accounting records in accordance with the provisions of the Act for safeguarding the assets of the Company and for preventing and detecting frauds and other irregularities; selection and application of appropriate accounting policies; making judgments and estimates that are reasonable and prudent; and design, implementation and maintenance of adequate internal financial controls, that were operating effectively for ensuring the accuracy and completeness of the accounting records, relevant to the preparation and presentation of the standalone financial statements that give a true and fair view and are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error.

11. The Board of Directors is also responsible for overseeing the Company's financial reporting process.

Auditor's Responsibilities for the audit of the standalone financial statements

12. Our objectives are to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the standalone financial statements as a whole are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error, and to issue an auditor's report that includes our opinion. Reasonable assurance is a high level of assurance, but is not a guarantee that an audit conducted in accordance with SAs will always detect a material misstatement when it exists. Misstatements can arise from fraud or error and are considered material if, individually or in the aggregate, they could reasonably be expected to influence the economic decisions of users taken on the basis of these standalone financial statements.
13. As part of an audit in accordance with SAs, we exercise professional judgment and maintain professional skepticism throughout the audit. We also:
  - Identify and assess the risks of material misstatement of the standalone financial statements, whether due to fraud or error, design and perform audit procedures responsive to those risks, and obtain audit evidence that is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our opinion. The risk of not detecting a material misstatement resulting from fraud is higher than for one resulting from error, as fraud may involve collusion, forgery, intentional omissions, misrepresentations, or the override of internal control.
  - Obtain an understanding of internal financial control relevant to the audit in order to design audit procedures that are appropriate in the circumstances. Under section 143(3)(i) of the Act, we are also responsible for expressing our opinion on whether the Company has adequate internal financial controls system in place and the operating effectiveness of such controls.
  - Evaluate the appropriateness of accounting policies used and the reasonableness of accounting estimates and related disclosures made by the management.

- Conclude on the appropriateness of management's use of the going concern basis of accounting and, based on the audit evidence obtained, whether a material uncertainty exists related to events or conditions that may cast significant doubt on the Company's ability to continue as a going concern. If we conclude that a material uncertainty exists, we are required to draw attention in our auditor's report to the related disclosures in the standalone financial statements or, if such disclosures are inadequate, to modify our opinion. Our conclusions are based on the audit evidence obtained up to the date of our auditor's report. However, future events or conditions may cause the Company to cease to continue as a going concern.
  - Evaluate the overall presentation, structure and content of the standalone financial statements, including the disclosures, and whether the standalone financial statements represent the underlying transactions and events in a manner that achieves fair presentation.
14. Materiality is the magnitude of misstatements in the standalone financial statements that, individually or in aggregate, makes it probable that the economic decisions of a reasonably knowledgeable user of the standalone financial statements may be influenced. We consider quantitative materiality and qualitative factors in (i) planning the scope of our audit work and in evaluating the results of our work; and (ii) to evaluate the effect of any identified misstatements in the standalone financial statements.
15. We communicate with those charged with governance regarding, among other matters, the planned scope and timing of the audit and significant audit findings, including any significant deficiencies in internal control that we identify during our audit.
16. We also provide those charged with governance with a statement that we have complied with relevant ethical requirements regarding independence, and to communicate with them all relationships and other matters that may reasonably be thought to bear on our independence, and where applicable, related safeguards.
17. From the matters communicated with those charged with governance, we determine those matters that were of most significance in the audit of the standalone financial statements of the current period and are therefore the key audit matters. We describe these matters in our auditor's report unless law or regulation precludes public disclosure about the matter or when, in extremely rare circumstances, we determine that a matter should not be communicated in our report because the adverse consequences of doing so would reasonably be expected to outweigh the public interest benefits of such communication.

Management’s Responsibility for internal financial controls

The Company’s management is responsible for establishing and maintaining internal financial controls based on the internal control over financial reporting criteria established by the Company considering the essential components of internal control stated in the Guidance Note on Audit of Internal financial controls over financial reporting issued by the Institute of Chartered Accountants of India (‘ICAI’). Our audit of internal financial controls over financial reporting included obtaining an understanding of internal financial controls over financial reporting, assessing the risk that a material weakness exists, and testing and evaluating the design and operating effectiveness of internal control based on the assessed risk. The procedures selected depend on the auditor’s judgment, including the assessment of the risks of material misstatement of the standalone Ind AS financial statements, whether due to fraud or error.

We believe that the audit evidence we have obtained is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our audit opinion on the Company’s internal financial controls system over financial reporting.

The Company has adopted Indian Accounting Standard from April 1, 2016 and accordingly these standalone financial statements have been prepared with IND ASs notified by section 133 of Companies Act, 2013 read with relevant rules issued there under from time to time, to the extent applicable to the Company.

1.2.2 Basis of preparation of Financial statements

These financial statements are prepared in accordance with Indian Accounting Standards (IND AS), under the historical cost convention on the accrual basis except for certain financial instruments which are measured at fair values, the provisions of the Companies Act, 2013 ('the Act') (to the extent notified) and guidelines issued by the Securities and Exchange Board of India (SEBI). The IND AS are prescribed under Section 133 of the Act read with Rule 3 of the Companies (Indian Accounting Standards) Rules, 2015 and the relevant amendment rules issued thereafter.

Accounting policies have been consistently applied except where a newly issued Indian accounting standard is initially adopted or a revision to an existing accounting standard requires a change in the accounting policy hitherto in use.

1.2.3 Use of Estimates

The preparation of the financial statements in conformity with IND AS requires management to make estimates, judgments and assumptions. These estimates, judgments and assumptions affect the application of accounting policies and the reported amounts of assets and liabilities, the disclosures of contingent assets and liabilities at the date of the financial statements and reported amounts of revenues and expenses during the period. Appropriate changes in estimates are made as management becomes aware of changes in circumstances surrounding the estimates. Changes in estimates are reflected in the financial statements in the period in which changes are made and, if material, their effects are disclosed in the notes to the financial statements.

1.2.3.1 Useful lives of property, plant and equipment & capital work in progress

The Company reviews the useful life of property, equipment & Capital work in progress at the end of each reporting period or more frequently. The reassessment may result in change in depreciation expenses in future periods.

1.2.3.2 Provisions and contingent liabilities

A provision is recognized when the company has a present obligation as a result of past event and it is probable than an outflow of resources will be required to settle the obligation, in respect of which a reliable estimate can be made. Provisions are discounted to its present value and are determined based on best estimate required to settle the obligation at the balance sheet date. These are reviewed at each balance sheet date adjusted to reflect the current best estimates. Contingent liabilities are not recognized or disclosed in the financial statements. A contingent asset is neither recognized nor disclosed in the financial statements.

1.2.3.3 Recent Accounting Pronouncements

The Ministry of Corporate Affairs (MCA) notifies new standards and amendments to existing standards under the Companies (Indian Accounting Standards) Rules, as amended from time to time.

Ind AS 117 – Insurance Contracts and amendments to Ind AS 116 – Leases (relating to sale and leaseback transactions) were notified and are effective from April 1, 2024. The Company has evaluated the applicability of these pronouncements and concluded that there is no significant impact on its financial statements for the year ended March 31, 2025.

On May 9, 2025, the MCA notified amendments to Ind AS 21 – The Effects of Changes in Foreign Exchange Rates. These amendments provide enhanced guidance on assessing currency exchangeability and estimating exchange rates when exchangeability is lacking. The amendments are effective for annual periods beginning on or after April 1, 2025. The Company is currently assessing the potential impact of these amendments on its financial statements.

1.2.4 Impairment of Assets

1.2.4.1 Financial assets (other than at fair value)

The company assesses at each balance sheet date whether a financial asset or a group of financial assets is impaired. Ind AS 109 requires expected credit losses to be measured through a loss allowance. The company recognizes lifetime expected losses for all contract assets and/or all trade receivables that do not constitute a financing transaction.

1.2.5 Income Taxes

Income tax expense comprises current and deferred income tax. Income tax expense is recognized in net profit in the statement of profit and loss except to the extent that it relates to items recognized directly in equity, in which case it is recognized in other comprehensive income.

Deferred income tax assets and liabilities are recognized for all temporary differences arising between the tax bases of assets and liabilities and their carrying amounts in the financial statements. Deferred tax assets are reviewed at each reporting date and are reduced to the extent that it is no longer probable that the related tax benefit will be realized.

The company offsets current tax assets and current tax liabilities, where it has a legally enforceable right to set off the recognized amounts and where it intends either to settle on a net basis, or to realize the asset and settle the liability simultaneously.

1.2.6 Property, plant and equipment

Property, plant and equipment are stated at cost, less accumulated depreciation /amortization and impairment, if any. Costs directly attributable to acquisition are capitalized until the property, plant and equipment are ready for use, as intended by management. The cost of property, plant & equipment also includes initial estimates of dismantling cost and restoring the site to its original position, on which the site is located.

Property, plant and equipment and intangible assets with finite life are evaluated for recoverability whenever there is an indication that their carrying amounts may not be recoverable. If any such indication exists, the recoverable amount (i.e. higher of the fair value less cost to sell and the value-in-use) is determined on an individual asset basis unless the asset does not generate cash flows that are largely independent of those from other assets. In such cases, the recoverable amount is determined for the cash generating unit (CGU) to which the asset belongs. If the recoverable amount of an asset (or CGU) is estimated to be less than its carrying amount, the carrying amount of the asset (or CGU) is reduced to its recoverable amount. An impairment loss is recognized in the statement of profit or loss. A previously recognized impairment loss is reversed only if there has been a change in the assumptions used to determine the asset's recoverable amount since the last impairment loss was recognized. The reversal is limited so that the carrying amount of the asset does not exceed its recoverable amount, nor exceed the carrying amount that would have been determined, net of depreciation, had no impairment loss been recognized for the asset in prior years. Such reversal is recognized in the statement of profit or loss.

1.2.7 Investment Properties

Investment properties are measured initially at cost, including transaction costs. Subsequent to initial recognition, investment properties are stated at cost less accumulated depreciation and accumulated impairment loss, if any.

1.2.8 Financial Instrument

The company recognizes financial assets and financial liabilities when it becomes a party to the contractual provisions of the instrument. All financial assets (Except Net Investments) and financial liabilities (Except Borrowings) are recognized at fair value on initial recognition, except for trade receivables and security deposits, which are initially measured at transaction price. Transaction costs that are directly attributable to the acquisition or issue of financial assets and financial liabilities that are not at fair value through profit or loss are added to the fair value on initial recognition.

Notes to the Standalone Financial Statements

Financial liabilities are subsequently carried at amortized cost using the effective interest method, except for contingent consideration recognized in a business combination, which is subsequently measured at fair value through profit and loss.

For trade and other payables maturing within one year from the balance sheet date, the carrying amounts are approximately at fair value due to the short maturity of these instruments.

1.2.9 Borrowings

Preference Shares are separated into equity and liability components based on the terms of the issue / contract. On issuance of the preference shares, the fair value of the liability component is determined using a market rate for an equivalent instrument. This amount is classified as financial liability and it is measured at amortized cost method until it is extinguished on conversion or redemption. The remainder of the proceeds is recognized and included in equity component is not re-measured in subsequent years.

1.2.10 Provisions

A provision is recognized if, as a result of a past event, the Company has a present legal or constructive obligation that is reasonably estimated, and it is probable that an outflow of economic benefits will be required to settle the obligation. Provisions determined by discounting the expected future cash flow at a pre-tax rate that reflects current market assessment of the time value of money and the risk specified to the liability.

1.2.11 Revenue Recognition

Revenue is measured at the fair value of the consideration received or receivables. Amounts disclosed as revenue are exclusive of taxes and net of returns, trade allowances, rebates, discounts and value added taxes.

Revenue is recognized to the extent that it is probable that the economic benefits will flow to the company and the revenue can be reliably measured regardless of when the payment is being made. The Company bases its estimates on historical results, taking into consideration the type of customer, the type of transaction and the specifics of each agreement.

- All expenses and income are accounted on accrual basis.

1.2.12 Lease

As a lessor

Lease income from operating leases where the company is a lessor is recognised in income on a straight - line basis over the lease term unless the receipts are structured to increase in line with expected general inflation to compensate for the expected inflationary cost increases . The respected leased assets are included in the balance sheet based on their nature .

1.2.13 Fair Value Measurement

Fair value is the price that would be received to sell an asset or paid to transfer a liability in an orderly transaction between market participants at the measurement date. The fair value measurement is based on the presumption that the transaction to sell the asset or transfer the liability takes place either:

In the principal market for the asset or liability, or in the absence of a principal market, in the most advantageous market for the asset or liability.

The principal or the most advantageous market must be accessible by the Group.

The fair value of an asset or a liability is measured using the assumptions that market participants would use when pricing the asset or liability, assuming that market participants act in their economic best interest.

A fair value measurement of a non-financial asset takes into account a market participant's ability to generate economic benefits by using the asset in its highest and best use or by selling it to another market participant that would use the asset in its highest and best use.

The Group uses valuation techniques that are appropriate in the circumstances and for which sufficient data are available to measure fair value, maximizing the use of relevant observable inputs and minimizing the use of unobservable inputs.

All assets and liabilities for which fair value is measured or disclosed in the Consolidated financial statements are categorized within the fair value hierarchy, described as follows, based on the lowest level input that is significant to the fair value measurement as a whole:

Level 1 — Quoted (unadjusted) market prices in active markets for identical assets or liabilities

Level 2 — Valuation techniques for which the lowest level input that is significant to the fair value measurement is directly or indirectly observable

Level 3 — Valuation techniques for which the lowest level input that is significant to the fair value measurement is Unobservable

For assets and liabilities that are recognized in the Consolidated financial statements on a recurring basis, the Group determines whether transfers have occurred between levels in the hierarchy by re-assessing categorization (based on the lowest level input that is significant to the fair value measurement as a whole) at the end of each reporting period or each case.

For the purpose of fair value disclosures, the Group has determined classes of assets and liabilities on the basis of the nature, characteristics and risks of the asset or liability and the level of the fair value hierarchy as explained above.

This note summarizes accounting policy for fair value. Other fair value related disclosures are given in the relevant notes.

1.2.14 Depreciation & amortization

The company depreciates property, plant and equipment over their estimated useful lives using the straight-line method. Depreciation on additions/deductions to property, plant and equipment is provided on pro-rata basis from the date of actual installation or up to the date of such sale or disposal, as the case may be.

1.2.15 Earnings per equity share

Basic earnings per equity share is computed by dividing the net profit attributable to the equity holders of the company by the weighted average number of equity shares outstanding during the period. Diluted earnings per equity share is computed by dividing the net profit attributable to the equity holders of the company by the weighted average number of equity shares considered for deriving basic earnings per equity share and also the weighted average number of equity shares that could have been issued upon conversion of all dilutive potential equity shares. The dilutive potential equity shares are adjusted for the proceeds receivable had the equity shares been actually issued at fair value (i.e. the average market value of the outstanding equity shares). Dilutive potential equity shares are deemed converted as of the beginning of the period, unless issued at a later date. Dilutive potential equity shares are determined independently for each period presented. The number of equity shares and potentially dilutive equity shares are adjusted retrospectively for all periods presented for any share splits and bonus shares issues including for changes effected prior to the approval of the financial statements by the Board of Directors.

Fair value hierarchy

The fair value hierarchy is based on inputs to valuation techniques that are used to measure fair value that are either observable or unobservable and consists of the following three levels:

Level 1 — Inputs are quoted prices (unadjusted) in active markets for identical assets or liabilities.

Level 2 — Inputs are other than quoted prices included within Level 1 that are observable for the asset or liability, either directly (i.e. as prices) or indirectly (i.e. derived from prices).

Level 3 — Inputs are not based on observable market data (unobservable inputs). Fair values are determined in whole or in part using a valuation model based on assumptions that are neither supported by prices from observable current market transactions in the same instrument nor are they based on available market data.

The financial instruments included in Level 2 of fair value hierarchy have been valued using quotes available for similar assets and liabilities in the active market. The investments included in Level 3 of fair value hierarchy have been valued using the cost approach to arrive at their fair value. The cost of unquoted investments approximate the fair value because there is a range of possible fair value measurements and the cost represents estimate of fair value within that range.

The following table summarises financial assets and liabilities measured at fair value on a recurring basis and financial assets that are not measured at fair value on a recurring basis (but fair value disclosure are required):
